SELAH APPLES FOR SPOKANE

ARE A SPLENDID EXHIBIT

Spitzenbergs and Arkansas Blacks Declared to be Best Samples of Yakima Orchard Product.

L. B. Kinyon and Charles Hamilton have been at work for some time at the ranch of E. C. Hill in the Selah packing a carload of Spitzenberg apples which will be exhibited by Mr.
Hill in competition for the carload lot at the National Apple show at Spokane this month. They are putting up a fine carload and expect to make an excellent showing in the competition.
The apples pack four tier, are splendily colored and an excellent appearing lot and in the opinion of those who have seen them will take a whole lot of beating.

Mr. Hill is making 17 entries in all at the National Apple show as in addition to his car he will show three kinds of apples in the 10 box exhibit.
His entries in these instances will be Arkansas Blacks, Ben Davis and Spitzenbergs. His Arkansas Blacks are declared to be winners and as fine a lot of apples as were ever sent out from Yakima. He will also be an exhibitor in the five, three and one box exhibits and will show a number of plate exhibits. It is expected that the work on the carload will be completed this week and the fruit will at once be sent through to Spokane.

Will Change Vocations

James T. Keppel, science professor at the North Yakima high school, has resigned and is not now in the employ of the board of education of this district. Mr. Keppel, who is an assaist and analyst, is establishing for himself a considerable patronage among the mining, soil and water men of the central portion of the state and expects that the growth of this community will give him ample occupation along those lines.

Mr. Keppel, who is an experienced and qualified teacher of considerable experience in large schools in Minnesota, is not qualified, because of a technicality, to carry on all the work he had undertaken in the schools here.
State examinations must be passed in all subjects by the teachers of those subjects notwithstanding their previous work or qualifications. The examinations passed by Mr. Keppel, it now appears, do not cover all the branches of science he has been teaching. The question of his fitness is not doubted but the technical point keeps him from much of the school work he might otherwise do here and he has therefore retired, voluntarily, from all school service. Other teachers who have been found technically unqualified for regular positions on the teaching staff have been given work substituting.

Having brought with him to North Yakima an equipment for work in analyses and assaying, Mr. Keppel, who has had considerable experience along those lines, will make that his specialty.

Suffer Hunger and Cold

Snowbound in the Cascade mountains at the head of the Klickitat river, with little shelter and the provisions too damp to be of much use, a party of government engineers in charge of L. L. Dent underwent a perilous experience a few days ago.
The party returned to North Yakima Wednesday and report their trip in the mountains as the worst they have experienced. Besides Mr. Dent, there were in the party Clarence Adams of this city and two men by the name of Meloy and Hannan.

Snow Storm Rages.
"We reached an elevation of about 5500 feet when the storm began raging and it was terrific," said Mr.
Adams Wednesday. "It was impossible to travel and we had a hard time providing shelter for ourselves.
We had plenty of food with us, but it was wet from the snow and not fit for use. The snow was deep and the weather cold. After the storm had subsided. We were able to proceed and finally got over the ridge and down on the reservation. I do not care for another such experience."

Will Use New Tracks

The first carload of freight taken over the Moxee line of the North Yakima & Valley railroad was hauled from the yards of the Northern Pacific to Fourth street Wednesday morning under the personal direction of Supt. Vance. The car was loaded with material for the extension of the railroad toward the Yakima river.
Supt. Vance also accepted for shipment over the line the first carload of cement for the Wimer & Young concrete company this morning. He delivered two carloads of lumber Wednesday.

Progress is being made on the Moxee branch, not only through the north end of the city but also in the Moxee valley, and it will be only a short time until the company can accept freight to be shipped to Moxee City and intermediate points.

Horse Taken Up.

Dealers Given Notice

Northern Pacific scrip will advance on November 15 from $8.25 to $10.25 per acre. Notice to that effect was received here Wednesday by C. H.
Hinman and others who deal in scrip.
As a matter of fact the notice was of a general advance in scrip of all kinds, the advance being greater than the $2.00 announced above in many instances. It is over a year since an advance has been made and the figures as they apply to Washington have now been brought up to those obtaining in other states, this state having been behind the others so far.

The meanings to be taken from the advance are various. Among other things the notice means that in the opinion of the railroad people the value of raw land in Washington is advancing. It means also that the demand is greater or in other words the people are now prepared to take scrip land who hitherto have considered it to be worthless or not worth bothering with. Considerable of this land has been taken up and the available area is much less than it has been hitherto.

New York City Election

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Battle-scarred Tammany, which yesterday elected the mayor but lost the city, took up today the gloomy work of setting its house in order for four years of avowed anti-Tammany government in New York.

The analysis shows that the section which resulted in the defeat by the fusion forces of every important Tammany democratic candidate below the mayor was more of victory for anti-Tammany democrats, who had lined up with republicans, than for the straight republicans. Anti-Tammany democrats elected on the republican fusion ticket for four years will be in absolute control of the city's purse strings.

They have clear majority on the board of estimates and apportionment and therefore the right of spending more than a million dollars of the city's money. If this board, according to anti-Tammany democrats, is to be found the nucleus of what they believe will make for a complete re-organization of the democratic party, it was rumored today that attempts to create a new order of things for New York democrats is under way.

Charles F. Murphy, who succeeded Richard Croker as Tammany leader, came out with a formal disavowal of the rumors, at the same time denying the report that he is to be deposed. Richard Croker, whose presence here is regarded as significant, today stated that he is out of politics altogether.

"Yes, they asked me to come back —they always do that—but I'm too old and could not stand the racket."

Dismantling Going On

A crew of men is at work at Seattle on the grounds of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition tearing down the Yakima building for the state fair commission. The building, as already stated, is to be erected, according to its present style, on the state fair grounds here and will be dedicated to the ladies of Washington and reserved for such exhibits as come within the women's department.

Much more of the lumber used at the Seattle exposition is to come to North Yakima to be used on the grounds here as the fair commission has come into possession of the partitions and all the lumber used in the Agricultural building where Yakima, in common with a large number of other counties, had a booth. The aggregate of this lumber is great and the material will go a long way toward erecting necessary buildings on the grounds here.

Still more lumber from the fair grounds is likely to find its way to North Yakima as the fair commission has made bids on the stock barns excepting the canvas used for covering, and will likely procure a portion if not the whole of the material used in those buildings. Much of it will be used here for enlarging and increasing the size of the present stock barns. Workmen are now engaged on the fair grounds here in building, reconstructing, changing locations and otherwise fixing up the buildings for the fair of next and succeeding years.

Agreement Assured

Agreement of the Horse Heaven Land Owners' association and the Klickitat Irrigation & Power Co., as to the form of contract to be used for the big irrigation project that will eventually water the Horse Heaven plateau is believed to be certain as a result of several conferences held between the officials of the association and the company. Since the effort was made to secure signing of water contracts, there have been some differences of opinion as to the exact wording, the concessions to be made and the proper adjustment for water rights. It is believed that all of these differences will be adjusted and the land owners and canal builders agree on a basis that will benefit all.

Attorney Graves of Seattle, and Attorney Fred Parker will adjust the different legal points and it is believed that the contracts will be ready for signing in a few days.

The Land Owners' association was organized by E. O. Mineah, formerly of Iowa, who is its president. Mineah is one of the large landowners of Horse Heaven, and has secured the cooperation of ranchers owning thousands of acres on the plateau. With the association approving the contract, and the numerous signatures of independent land owners that have already been given, the company expects that practically all of the acreage necessary to carry through the project will be signed up. With this agreement assured, the company officials have stated that the financing of the big project is certain.

Wants Information

There is a man in Oklahoma who evidently has a desire to become acquainted with Yakima and who also is seeking a place where it neither thunders nor does it lightning. It may be that he enquires for some member of his family or for some friend.
Whatever the facts, he is a good questioner and he asks to know. The Oklahoma man has written to the United States land office. He enquires first if there is available here any government land suitable for farming without irrigation. He then wants to know at what altitude farming may be carried on and follows this up by asking the altitude of the available land.

Asks About Lightning.

Whether lumber and stone available for building purposes can be obtained nearer than the nearest railroad point is another question asked and then follow queries as to the average annual rainfall and the average annual snow fall. Naturally the maximum summer temperature and the minimum winter temperature are then enquired about.
Water comes in for the next research and he wants to know if good water may be obtained by digging and at what depth.

"Do you have cyclones and torna-does, thunder and lightning?" queries the writer, and he puts these questions in a large, round hand. He then asks about coal for fuel and wood for fuel and follows these up by asking about whether the following crops can be raised: Corn, rye, wheat, alfalfa, oats, clover, barley and timothy.

Three marriage licenses were issued by County Auditor Crocker on Tuesday to the following: Charles W.
Carlen and Ellen E. Coleman, of Toppenish; Ross A. St. John and Cordella C. Bolelle, of North Yakima and Henry W. Colburn of Spokane and Emma H. Manweiler of Sun-side.

Mrs. E. E. Morgan, of Portland, Ore., is being entertained as the house guest of Mrs. W. L. Wright for several weeks at her country home in Fruit-vale.

PUT THAT MONEY BACK.

Those four county and ex-county officials who cashed illegal salary warrants obtained from the county treasury last August had better put the money back before something hits them. Nearly three months have now elapsed since the supreme court of this state handed down an opinion to the effect that they are not entitled to the extra compensation claimed. After such decision was rendered three of the claimants, Wende, Crocker and Frank, returned the money to the county treasury, but there are four others who have so far failed to do so, and The Democrat understands that they refuse to do so. That one of these four men is J. Lenox Ward, present county attorney, is one reason, perhaps, why the republican board of county commissioners has so far refused to order suits brought to compel the over-paid officials to return the money illegally drawn from the treasury. Mr. Ward being the official adviser of the board.

Now, this money, which amounts in the aggregate to about $2000, does not belong to these men, and they know it as well as any man in this community. But they have filched the money out of the county treasury and they evidently mean to keep it—if they can. They have no legal claim to the extra salary, and they knew that TOO before they laid claim to it, unless they were grossly ignorant of a plain provision of the state constitution, which says that the salary of no state or county official shall be either increased or diminished during his term of office. The supreme court has upheld the validity of that provision. Do these four men in Yakima county propose to stand out against the constitution and the decision of the supreme court of this state? If they do in such a bad cause they will exhibit plenty of nerve. They will court publicity, and they will get plenty of it, too.

Since our county attorney is himself a derelict in this matter and refuses to bring suit or otherwise endeavor to collect the amount due the county from himself and his coadjutors in this unsavory business, it becomes the plain duty of the board of county commissioners to promptly employ an outside attorney to bring these suits and push them to a termination. If the commissioners refuse to do this they will evade their sworn duty and will thus make themselves a party to the steal. They must do one thing or the other; there is no middle course. It is their plain duty to protect the county treasury as against public plunderers, within or without the court house.

But the salary grabbers themselves can simplify matters and save the commissioners the performance of a disagreeable duty by putting the money back into the treasury. If, as some of them claim, they haven't got the money now to pay back, let them tender the county a promissory note or some other form of security as evidence of good faith. The county is not going to play the part of Shylock with them, but it must have its money back sometime.

Put that money back, gentlemen. You have no right to keep it, and you know it!

SHOW THIS TO YOUR NEIGHBOR.

In the making of a tariff law, one would naturally suppose that those least able to bear the burdens of taxation would not be discriminated against in favor of those best able to pay the tax involved in any tariff levy.

But what are the facts? The man who imports $1000 worth of diamonds pays a tax of $100—10 per cent. If he imported a thousand shirts worth a dollar each he would have to leave at the custom house and tack onto his selling prices $601.60—60.16 per cent.

If he decided he would bring in $1000 worth of champagne, one of the items upon which there is a tariff increase, the tax levied by the tariff is $500. If he brought in $1000 worth of blankets he would pay a tariff tax of $1,645.42.

If he brought in $1000 worth of paintings and statuary, all he would have to pay as customs duties would be $200, but if it were sugar he would pay $788.70 tax on $1000 worth.

If he brought in $1000 worth of jewelry he would have to pay $600 tariff tax, but if he brought in $1000 worth of wool dress goods he would pay $1050.92 tariff.

If he imported a $5000 automobile the tariff takers would relieve him of $2250. If it were $5000 worth of yarns the tariff tax would be $6960.

If the importation were $5000 worth of furs the tariff tax would be $1650, but if it were $5000 worth of clothing that tax would be $4330.

If some New York millionaire brings in a $100,000 ocean going yacht the tariff would be $35,000, but if the importation were stockings the tariff collected would be $87,950.—C. Q. D. in Commoner.

Mayor Armbruster in his candidacy for re-election as mayor seems disposed to claim the credit for whatever good has been accomplished during the past year. The fact that such reforms and betterments as we have were instituted and put through by a majority of the council openly hostile to the mayor makes no difference to "hizzonner," now that election time is here.

Armbruster, the present mayor of this city, is a handicap instead of a help to the cause of municipal ownership of the water supply. With the personality of "hizzonner" separated from the main issue the people, we believe, would ratify municipal ownership by an emphatic majority. The time is now ripe for municipal ownership in North Yakima, and it can be effected if the mayor will let go.

At this writing Judge McCredy, the republican nominee for congress at the special election Tuesday in the second district, appears to have won out with a beggarly plurality of a few hundred votes. Ernest Lister, democratic nominee, carried his home city and county, Tacoma and Pierce, by a handsome plurality, which as a home candidate of high character he deserved. Aside from politics Lister would have made a much better representative for the second district than the sporty judge.

Tacoma has adopted the commission form of government and will put the new plan into execution next April. Spokane is also considering such a change and public sentiment appears to be favorable. Other cities will watch the experiment at Tacoma closely and if the plan works out successfully they will likely adopt the new system. Here in North Yakima the commission plan ought to be given a trial if it really reduces taxation, as it is said to do wherever given a fair trial.

Judge Gaynor, Tammany candidate for mayor of New York, easily defeated Bannard, republican, and Hearst, independent, his plurality over the former apparently being near the 100,000 mark. Hearst was a bad third in the race, much to the surprise of his supporters. His candidacy appears to have injured Bannard and to have helped Gaynor. The latter is a very able man with a good record, and he will tame the Tammany tiger if any man could.

"Uncle Tim" Lynch is said to have given as a reason for filing his candidacy for mayor on the republican ticket, that he suspected that there are more republicans here than anything else. Unfortunately that surmise of Uncle Tim's is not a mere suspicion, but a cold and disagreeable fact. And we suspect, too, that the same idea obsessed the mind of one, Hon. Nelson Smith, old-time democratic war horse, alderman from the third ward and republican candidate for mayor.

The Yakima Republic, ancient enemy of Armbruster, it should be noted, speaks softly of "hizzonner" in the present campaign instead of abusing the lanky statesman, as it used to do. Why is it thus? Is it because a member of the editor's family is holding a public office under the Armbruster administration?

The people of this city have five candidates for mayor to choose from at the primaries next Tuesday, at which time three of them will be necessarily eliminated from the race. Which will it be, Armbruster or Miller, Lynch, Lum or Smith? You pays your money and you takes your choice.

Armbruster, during his term as mayor, has built up a sort of Tammany hall organization, which he fondly hopes will continue him in office and power. But the chances are that the voters will knock "hizzonner's" house of cards galley west next Tuesday at the primaries.

The talk of contesting the election of McCredy as congressman from the second district on constitutional grounds is, of course, all nonsense, as the Jo-cannon crowd will seat him whether or no, because they need and expect his vote. However clearly on constitutional grounds McCredy is not entitled to his seat, but that fact will cut no ice with the g. o. p. majority.

This is an off year in politics and there is but little significance from a national political standpoint of the election of last Tuesday. As a rule the issues fought out were purely local, off year election offering the opportunity for the washing of dirty linen. Only three states, Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Virginia, elected governors this year. The only election that claimed national attention was the mayoralty fight in Greater New York.

Mayor Armbruster is willing to sacrifice himself again for the good of the people of this city. But the people apparently are not going to insist very hard this time that his honor do so. Once is quite enough.

The Armbruster supporters claim that "hizzonner" has the colored vote of this town in his vest pocket. Well, perhaps! If so, it ought to be publicly known how he came to get it there. But it remains to be seen if the colored men can be voted like a lot of cattle by a selfish politician.

Some people would have to work overtime if they practiced half what they preach.—Chicago News.

A BATTLE ROYAL.

It is now war to the knife between Senator La Follette and Speaker Joe Cannon. Cannon is hot after the insurgents and is seeking in every possible way to prevent their return to the national capitol. But La Follette is as full of fight as an angry tiger and the battle promises to be one where in the combatants know every trick of the game.

Witness the Wisconsin senator's reply to Cannon and Taft who sought to read the insurgents out of the party, which will appear in the next issue of La Follette's weekly.

Speaker Cannon, at Elgin, on October 19, served notice that he meant to purge the threshing floor of the republican party of such chaff as Cummins, La Follette and "their followers." By these terms Cannon describes the progressives—who, of course, are followers of neither Cummins nor La Follette, but of their own unsought and unsubdued minds. "These people," Speaker Cannon is reported to have said, "call themselves republicans, but if they are, then I am something else."

We hope Cannon is right. If by these remarks he means there is an irresistible conflict within the party between Cannonism on the one hand and the principles of the progressive republicans on the other, he is quite right.

There is such a conflict! It is a conflict between the progressives on the one hand and Mr. Cannon and his sort on the other, for the control of the party that once followed Lincoln. It is like a contest between two interests in some great organization, the controlling faction of which, represented by Cannon, has diverted it from its original objects, and by an "embezzlement of power," entrenched behind the "voting trust" of the caucus, the convention, the Cannon rules, the drilled political henchmen of special privilege, and the corrupting influence of predatory wealth, has long bid defiance to the scattered majority of the stockholders—the voters of the republican party—who are feeling their way to control of their own organization through such methods as direct primaries, popular election of United States senators, and corrupt practices laws.

If Cannon is a republican, these progressives, these undrilled citizens, are not. If Cannon is a republican, Lincoln and Sumner and George William Curtis and Carl Schurz, and the men who followed Sherman and Grant, and the commanders they followed, and the founders of the republican party, were not republicans.

Cannon may speak truth when he denies that he has made a corrupt deal with Tammany whereby he will aid the Tiger in New York while it continues to aid him in congress in his contest with the progressives, or "insurgents." He may! They may have come to his aid in that grim crisis of the last congress, not because of anything he promised them, but because of the deep sympathy that exists between such men.

For, if Cannon is a republican, Tammany is republican; and so is Cox of Cincinnati, Sullivan, "Bath House John," and "Hinky Dink" of Chicago, and the powers that prey everywhere. They may not pass under the same name, but Cannon himself is the authority for the statement that party titles are deceitful now.

But about one thing Cannon is evidently mistaken. He cannot gavel through his classification of republicans as he gavelled through his schemes in congress. The voters of the republican party will decide as to who are republicans and who are not. There will be stockholders' meetings from time to time and tests of strength. The "voting trust" of Cannonism, the caucus and the convention may finally win, and Cannon's definition of republicanism may be set up as the correct one.

We shall see! But we shall never believe in the identity of the party of Lincoln with the party of Cannon until the last ballot has been counted in the last contest. The progressives may well bide their time and laugh at the fulmination of the czar of the house. Their time is coming. Cannonism is merely a survival. The stars in their courses fight against it, and it is doomed.

A free, untrammelled ballot in the republican party would strip Cannon of every vestige of power tomorrow. His pronouncements are but the snarling of the grim old wolf, who hears the bears in the woods and scents them closing in. He is still at large, and his fangs are long, but the days of his depredation within the sheepfolds of the people are surely numbered.—Yakima Herald.

License to hunt has been issued by the county auditor to R. D. Campbell and E. A. Crooks of Toppenish and J. Finley of Granger.

One of the bids will be for the gravelling of a mile of road on the highway east from Granger. Already half a mile of this road has been cared for and the present mile of work will make a mile and a half in all. At Outlook the work will be from the Snipes mountain lateral to the northwest corner of the old J. Stewart place and then east from there for a quarter of a mile. Work is also to be done at the extreme end of the county on the Mabton-Bickleton road, carrying improvements a mile south from Mabton.

SEATTLE, Nov. 2.—Scattering returns from the congressional election in the second Washington district to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Francis W. Cushman are favorable to the election of W. W. McCredie by a small majority over Ernest Lister. The complete returns from Jefferson county give McCredie a plurality of 55.

The following is the registration by wards:

REMODELING ALLEN BLOCK

CAHALAN ANNOUNCES HIS PLANS

Will Spend $6000 on First Changes and Arrange for Construction of Five Story Building.

Plans for the remodeling of the Allen block, at North Second street and Yakima avenue, and the eventual construction of a five or six story block, were announced by Harry Cahalan, who recently purchased the building. The total cost of the remodeling will be from $6000 to $8000, but when the work is completed, the construction necessary for the basement and first floor of a larger building will be in place.

Steel pillars, with concrete bases, are to be placed in the basement and on the first floor. The entrance way to the second floor will be shifted to the Yakima avenue side, and the entrance to the main store room will also be changed. Three office rooms will be arranged along North Second street. All of the first floor will have plate glass windows, the most modern front in North Yakima according to the owner.

Architectural features of the second floor are also to be changed, and the entire interior will be re-arranged. The plan is to make the rooms of the second floor suitable for office rental.

Whether the work will start on January 1 or March 1, 1910 depends on whether the Pioneer Drug Co., which has a lease on the building to March 1, can secure a new location before that date. The main store room has been leased to the Weigel-Heare Co., a new clothing and furnishing store. The three offices on the ground floor have already been leased. The principal suite of rooms on the second floor has been secured by a firm of physicians, who will have either five or six rooms.

Mr. Cahalan says that he plans eventually to build a five or six story building at the corner, and that he will build the basement and first floors so substantially that no changes will be necessary in them when the larger structure is erected.

N. P. WILL HELP OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY

President Elliott Writes Encouraging Letter to Secretary James Regarding New Depot.

The Northern Pacific railroad will probably participate in the anniversary of North Yakima, to be celebrated in January, 1910. President Howard Elliott in a reply to a letter from Secretary James of the local commercial club, thinks that the co-operation of the railroad would be a good idea and will take the matter up with other officials of the road on his trip west this month.

It was suggested that the new depot participate in the celebration, and Secretary James wrote asking that if possible the company defer opening the new station until the celebration. President Elliott replied as follows:

Reply Received.
Mr. H. P. James, Secretary Yakima Commercial club:

I have your letter of October 25th about the celebration at North Yakima when the new station is finished. I think this a first rate idea and as I expect to be in Spokane the 15th of November, I will not answer in detail until I can discuss the matter with Mr. Nutt, Mr. Blakeley and Mr. Charlton, who are to meet me there. The Northern Pacific, as you know, is a great believer in the Yakima valley, and we want to do our part to help out. Your truly,

HOWARD ELLIOTT.

SERVED 2325 MEALS.

"Missouri" Phillips Saved Big Expense for the County in Month.

During the month of October "Missouri" Phillips, who is running the "restaurant" at the county jail, served 2325 meals to prisoners at an average cost of 9 cents a meal. One reason for the low cost was that all supplies were purchased at wholesale. The county used to pay 40 cents a day for meals for each prisoner, so the present system shows a big saving.

KIDS HAVE DAY IN COURT ROOM

AND ONE IS FOUND GUILTY

Lyons "The Money Getting Kid," Loses His Forgery Case—"Montana Kid" Tried for Horse Stealing.

"Kid" day in the superior court was Thursday. On that day the trial of D. E. Lyons, self styled the "Money Getting Kid" was concluded when Lyons was declared guilty and the trial of Elmer Watson "The Montana Kid" was begun. Both, as their nicknames suggest, are young men. Lyons has a face which is his fortune for it is a simple and sweet appearing as that of a child and has more than once stood him in good stead. He has been in the hands of the law officers before his present incarceration but his face is appealing and he was liberated.

Lyons was accused of forgery having passed a $35 check which bore the name of Charles Wanassey, on Clerk Turneure of the Peterson store at Tappanish. He had written a letter in which he told of his desires and this letter was presented in evidence against him. Lyons admitting its authorship. The jury, after two hours and a half of deliberation, returned a verdict of guilty as charged.

Immediately upon the conclusion of the Lyons case Prosecuting Attorney Ward took up the case of Watson, "The Montana Kid" charged with horse stealing and a jury was sworn. When court adjourned for the evening the second witness was on the stand. The offense for which Watson is charged was committed in this county but the man was apprehended in Whitman county.

DEATH RESULTS FROM ELECTION

Member of Hargis Faction at Jackson, Kentucky, Shot by Challenger at Polls.

JACKSON, Ky., Nov. 2.—Thlden Blanton, today killed Demosthenes Noble, following an election quarrel after Noble had crippled Blanton's right arm with a bullet. Noble had previously, according to Blanton, placed a pistol at the breast of Blanton's two brothers. Noble was a former employee of James Hargis, and complications are expected. Blanton, whose father was democratic candidate for county attorney, was acting as challenger and his story is that Noble was induced to raise a disturbance by discomfited republicans.

Property Owners in Fruitvale Want County Health Board to Stop Garbage Man.

Aroused by the death of the two Morsh children Sunday of scarlatina, property owners in that neighborhood, the extension of North Fourth street, met at the home of Paul Kruger Wednesday night and in a lengthy petition to the county health board charged William Fyann, sr., with the responsibility of the deaths. The petition was signed by Mr. Kruger, H. Taylor and H. Hines.

They charge that the dumping of garbage by Fyann on his premises lead to the death of the Morsh children as well as to considerable other sickness in the vicinity. They declare that it is a menace to the health of the community and demand that the county order Fyann to discontinue using his premises as a dumping ground.

Wants Fyann Stopped.

Mr. Kruger asserts that he and his neighbors have made several attempts to have Fyann stopped from dumping garbage in the neighborhood, but their efforts have always been in vain. Now they ask that the county order him to discontinue the practice, and if the county does not do something, they threaten action in the courts.

FIREMEN PUT END TO RIOT

DRENCH CROWD IN SPOKANE

Police Prevent Attempt to Hold Meeting in Hall and Otherwise Curb Enthusiasts.

SPOKANE, Nov. 4.—The fire department was called into action to disperse a large mob of Industrial Workers of the World on Front avenue this afternoon, which stubbornly refused to comply with the police orders to move on and showed a disposition to become ugly. The cold water bath caused a sudden scattering, the majority quickly taking shelter in neighboring saloons and stores. A repetition of the cold water treatment is promised whenever the occasion seems to demand.

Tonight, a large body of the I. W. proceeded to Masonic temple where it was announced a mass meeting would be held. The hall had been rented two days ago from an official who had not understood just what the meeting was to be for and later the contract was cancelled. The I. W. W. however made a show of insisting on having the hall. The presence of a large number of police, however, caused them to abandon their purpose. Only 13 arrests were made today. Those previously arrested and sentenced to the rock pile refused to go to work and have been put on bread and water diet. The police say they now have situation well in hand.

NEW BAPTIST PASTOR HERE

Dr. Boardman Has Arrived to Assume Pastorate of Large Congregation Here.

Rev. H. L. Boardman, D. D., the new pastor of the First Baptist church, arrived in North Yakima Tuesday evening to assume the pastorate, to which he was called some weeks ago. His family, excepting his oldest daughter, who is attending McMinnville college at McMinnville, Oregon, will remain in Middletown, California, until spring. For the present Dr. Boardman will make the Y. M. C. A. building his headquarters.

On Wednesday evening, November 10, the church tenders him a reception to which the public is invited. A musical program will be rendered and refreshments served.

For the past year, Dr. Boardman and his family have been resting on a ranch at Middletown, California. Previously he was pastor of the Tenth avenue Baptist church of Oakland. Physically, Dr. Boardman is cast in a generous mould. He says he never felt in better health or spirits than now and is anxious to take up his work as pastor.

RECLAIM HOMES FOR 50,000 SETTLERS

Eventually 767,959 Acres of Land Will Be Under Irrigation, Says United States Director of Service Newell.

DENVER, Col., Nov. 2.—Frederick H. Newell, director of the United States reclamation service, who, together with the senate committee on irrigation is in Colorado investigating government projects, passed through Denver last night on his way to the western slope.

Mr. Newell gave out an interview in which he summarized the work of the reclamation service since he became connected with it.

"The service has partially reclaimed and will eventually supply water for 767,959 acres of land in the west, and has actually irrigated 424,549 acres," he said. "This entire area will eventually supply homes for 50,000 persons, and we hope to have it all under irrigation in two or three years. "It has built more than 4,000 miles of irrigation canals and 62 tunnels. We have provided storage for 903,300 acre feet of water, all of which is now available."

Mr. Newell said that the government had $13,000,000 available for work on projects already begun, and might spend twice that sum economically, if it were available. He is confident that the senate committee will devise means for obtaining money as rapidly as it is needed. Mr. Newell favors the plan of issuing bonds.

What Returns Show

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—William J. Gaynor, democratic nominee for mayor of New York, was elected today over Otto T. Bannard, republican-fusion nominee, and William Randolph Hearst, running independently, but heading the fusion ticket. With two-thirds election precincts heard from, Gaynor's plurality was 70,000. Fusion forces elected William A. Prendergast as comptroller and John P. Mitchell president of the board of aldermen.

Hearst ran a poor third. Estimate based on 900 precincts out of 1,679 placed him 32,000 behind Bannard, who in turn was 39,365 behind Gaynor. The loss of the board of estimates is more than a half defeat for Tammany, as this was one of the principal issues of the campaign. In addition the republican-fusionists elected Charles S. Whitman district attorney of New York county. He defeated George C. Battle, democrat, by at least 13,000. Hearst went down to defeat with a total of less than 150,000 votes as against approximately 245,000 for Gaynor and 174,000 for Bannard. With but 36 precincts to hear from out of the total, votes stood: Gaynor, 243,870; Bannard, 173,399; Hearst, 148,549.

Bannard conceded Gaynor's election early in the evening. He is hopeful, however, that the fusion forces will control the board of estimates. Herbert H. Parsons, chairman of the republican county committee, conceded Gaynor's election by at least 50,000 at 9:30 o'clock.

Although many arrests made for violation of the laws, the greater part of these were found to be due to clerical errors or misunderstandings. Professional repeaters and guerrillas were chiefly notable for absence. Every polling place had its full quota of watchers, including nearly 2000 college students from Columbia, Yale and Princeton and other nearby institutions, who were distributed throughout the city.

The entire police force of over 10,000 were on duty before daylight. Robert T. Taft, the president's son, who was among the earliest college men to volunteer as a watcher, was stationed early in the day at a Third avenue polling place. He proved such an attraction, however, that the police were compelled to disperse the spectators and Taft was transferred to work as a republican "scout."

Pat Mullins played a mighty mean trick on Leslie G. Bessinger Wednesday afternoon. The men got into an argument regarding the weight of Mr. Mullins and finally made a bet over it. Mr. Bessinger declaring that the genial proprietor of the Washington and other buildings of the city would tip the beam at 235 pounds. It doesn't matter what the stakes were, the bet was made. Finally the scales were resorted to and Mr. Mullins stepped on and won by less than a half pound.

City and County News

Wallace Derthick, of Belvidere, Ill., was a business visitor in North Yakima Wednesday.

Erle Barnes was a passenger west on No. 1 Wednesday.

Mrs. J. M. Hutton, of Granger, was in North Yakima Wednesday. Bids for ripparring the Moxee road on the west side of the Moxee bridge for a distance of three-quarters of a mile were opened Monday by the county commissioners. The Goodman bid for hauling at $3.50 and the Pettyjohn bid for mattress work at 70 cents per square yard were accepted.

Turkeys have begun to figure in the express shipments from North Yakima and from now until Christmas shipments will be numerous. A crate sent out Wednesday was for Seattle but Roslyn, Cle Elum and Ellensburg take a number of birds from Yakima valley breeders.

S. E. Farris, real estate man of North Yakima, who came through from Tupperish last evening, announced that work has begun there in a three story brick hotel which will be used by the people who manazed the Vendome destroyed by fire recently.

Subscribers for stock in the Pythian Temple association will meet in the Lesh building November 10 following the regular meeting of the lodge to complete the organization of the Pythian Temple association. The purpose is to build a temple in this city.

D. L. Thacker's driving horse was stolen some time Tuesday night from the barn at the rear of 309 South Seventh street. Tracks in the mud in the alley showed that he went reluctantly. The barn door was closed and locked after the horse had been taken out.

Robert E. Cavette, of the Spokane, Yakima and Sunnyside Land company is authority for the statement that a company will soon be incorporated to build a hospital opposite the high school. Mr. Cavette, Miss Martha Newcomb and Miss Belle Record are the people back of the project.

The old office of the Pacific hotel has been partitioned into two rooms, one of which will be occupied by the Yakima Valley Land & Investment

All Royal Neighbors of America are requested to meet at the I. O. O. F. hall tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock, to attend the funeral service of Mrs. Elsie Babbitt which will be held Friday morning, at 10 o'clock, at the First Christian church.

Harry Cort Successor

North Yakima will probably have a new theatre in the near future, following a change made in the management of the Yakima theatre on Wednesday, when Harry Cort, son of John Cort, succeeded Fred Schaefer, as manager. Although the new manager is not making any announcement of such a plan, the fact that the owner of the theatre has chosen his son to represent him here, indicates that there will be a considerable change in conditions. Harry Cort was formerly business manager of the Moore theatre, the largest playhouse in Seattle, and this fact adds another important view to the transfer.

The following statement regarding the shifting of management was made on Wednesday afternoon by authority of Mr. Cort, Jr.:

Fred Schaefer, who has been resident manager of the Yakima theatre for the past several years, has resigned his position to take immediate effect. Mr. Schaefer's other interests demand his attention to such an extent that the interests of Mr. Cort's playhouse have had to suffer to a certain extent in consequence.

John Cort, the big noise in theatricals, has many interests in and about North Yakima. Therefore it is his desire that local theatregoers receive every attention, also the very best of attractions that visit the west. To this end he has placed his son, Mr. Harry Cort, in charge of the Yakima theatre. Mr. Cort, Jr., was until recently business manager of the Moore theatre in Seattle. Up-to-date business methods and an earnest effort to please North Yakima patrons of the theatre will be the policy of the house in the future.

Experiment in Tent

Agents representing three of the orchard heaters being sold in the Yakima valley have arranged another test of the heaters to take place Saturday, November 6, probably on the vacant lot north of the Y. M. C. A. building. This will be both a temperature and endurance test. The heaters which will be entered are the National, the Troutman and the Fresno.

Two tests of orchard heaters have already been held in this city but both were endurance tests. This time a tent will be used and the temperature of the interior of the tent taken at definite intervals to determine the heat efficiency of the different heaters. Only one heater of a kind will be used at a time.

A committee will be appointed to act as judges in the test Saturday.

But four days remain in which intending voters may register for the primary election. The present registration is approximately 1550 which is some 700 short of the registration of a year ago. The likelihood is that the figures, this year, will not exceed 1800 despite the fact that there are several elections coming including the primary, the general city election, a school election and a local option election. City Clerk Brooker, who will keep his office open the nights of Nov. 6 and 8 expects to add some 300 or 250 come to this list before the election on Tuesday.

Carl Dillon Reed, private secretary of John Cort, and Harry Cort, new manager of the Yakima theatre, are registered at the Hotel Yakima. They made a trip to Grandview on Wednesday evening to see John Cort's ranch.

The Grange dance to be given in the Naches will take place this coming Friday evening, November 5, instead of November 12 as advertised.
