PULLMAN STARS COMING MONDAY

Great Bunch of Songsters and Fun Makers Will Make the Welkin Ring at the Yakima Theatre Feb. 10.

DO YOU WANT TO HEAR THE BOYS,
FROM OLD PULLMAN MAKE A NOISE?
DO YOU WANT TO HEAR 'EM SING, HEAR 'EM MAKE THE WELKIN RING?
THEN COME OUT ON MONDAY NIGHT AND SEE 'EM SHINE IN THE BRIGHT LIMELIGHT.

THE SHOW GOES OFF WITH A RUSH AND A SCREAM, THERE'S NOT THE USUAL OLD "PIPE DREAM" ABOUT THE SOPHY THE FRESHMEN LICKED, OR THE PIOUS OLD PROF. WITH THE WILLOW STICK.

NO, NONE OF THIS ANTE-DELUVIAN ROT
WILL BE HEARD THAT NIGHT, ITS ALL FORGOT; FOR THE BOYS OF PULLMAN, THE FOOTBALL STARS,
HAVE A PROGRAM OF TRICKS THAT WILL SHOCK OLD MARS.

DON'T YOU WANT TO SEE RADER, THE PLUNGING FULLBACK, WHO HAMMERED THE LINE OF THAT ST. LOUIS CRACK
FOOTBALL SQUAD, 'TILL THE "SHOW ME" BUNCH WERE READY TO QUIT, THEY HAD GOT THE WRONG HUNCH.

DON'T YOU WANT TO HEAR FOUR OF THE BEST IN THE LAND, SING SONGS OF THE SOUTH TO BEAT THE BAND,
WELL, THAT'S WHAT YOU'LL HEAR IN THAT JOLLY QUARTET,
OF THE W. S. C. AND DON'T YOU FORGET.

DON'T YOU WANT TO HEAR BERTHA, THE SEABURY GIRL, WITH VIOLIN, DIMPLES, AND LITTLE BLACK CURL, PLAY A TUNE SO ENCHANTING THE OLD FOLKS WHO GO
WILL DECLARE, "BY JOVE, THAT GAL AIN'T SO SLOW."

DON'T YOU WANT TO HEAR DUDLEY, THE YAKIMA SPROUT, WHO SINGS IN A VOICE SO DEEP AND SO STOUT, AND SNORTS THROUGH HIS LONG INTELLECTUAL NOSE
AT THE GAFF OF THE BOYS IN THE BALD-HEADED ROWS.

WELL, IF YOU DO OR YOU DON'T, COME OUT ANYWAY
AND HEAR WHAT THAT PULLMAN BUNCH HAS TO SAY; THEY'RE FINE YOUNG FELLOWS; A ROLLICING CROWD, AND THE BEST OF IT ALL, THEY'RE NOT TOO LOUD.

THE CURTAIN GOES UP ON NEXT MONDAY EVE
AT 8 O'CLOCK SHARP, SO BE READY TO LEAVE YOUR HOME, IN TIME TO ARRIVE, AT FRED SCHAEFER'S YAKIMA THEATRE DIVE.

See the great college play, "A Mythological Comedy," to be presented at the Yakima theatre next Monday night, February 10. This unusual performance will be given by a crowd of girls and boys from the Washington State College. It is to be presented by Pullman. Popular prices will prevail and every Yakiman should avail themselves of this opportunity to go out and hear the best male quartet that ever toured the Northwest.

The great violiniste, Miss Bertha Seabury, who has returned within the last year from Europe, where she received instruction under the best teachers of Germany, will also be heard on this occasion. It will be an altogether delightful evening.

The champion football eleven of Pullman will be seen on the stage in fighting gridiron costume, and Rader, the now famous plunging fullback, will give an exhibition of how he secured a touchdown against the all star St. Louis bunch at Spokane on Christmas day. This particular feature of the Glee club entertainment will appeal to the lovers of the great college game.

The following criticisms by newspapers in towns and cities where the Glee club has shown give an idea of what may be expected here:

The entertainment was high class in every respect.—Walla Walla Statesman. I cannot say too much for the Washington State college Glee club.—Chronicle Publishing Co., H. A. Wells, Manager, Spokane, Wash.

One characteristic of the club, both on and off the stage, was the modest deportment of its members.—Lewis County Advocate.

Good singers and musicians, royal entertainers, and a fine, manly looking set of fellows is to be said of the State College Glee Club.—Olympia Daily Recorder.

The W. S. C. Glee Club's entertainment last night in the Frazier theatre was the best of its kind that I have ever heard in the city.—Chas. W. Meyers, City Editor Pendleton Tribune.

The high quality of efficiency attained by this organization is not entirely due to those who possess the faculty of expression. Prof. W. B. Strong, for years musical director of the club, and himself one of the best known musicians of the northwest, is their director. To him largely is due the success of last night's entertainment. In every action, in every utterance, the students show the careful training they have acquired under his direction.—Lewiston Tribune, Lewiston, Ida.

After the play at the theatre the members of the Glee club will be entertained at a reception and dance to be given in the Commercial club rooms of this city. The affair is in the hands of the alumni of Pullman, of whom there are fully 30 located here. The parents of the students now attending Pullman, the teachers in the city schools, the students of the Yakima high school and the members of the Commercial club, their wives, sisters and sweethearts, are invited to attend this social function honoring the Washington State college boys. President Bryan of Pullman will be present at this time and will possibly deliver a short address prior to the commencement of the festivities. The Wright orchestra will be in attendance, and light refreshments will be served.

MRS. HATFIELD GETS $1350.

City of North Yakima Must Pay Dearly for Negligence.

The jury in the case of Mrs. E. J. Hatfield against the city of North Yakima, suing for damages in the amount of $5000, returned a verdict Tuesday evening giving the plaintiff $1350. The city, represented by City Attorney C. E. Forsythe, contended that Mrs. Hatfield had been guilty of contributory negligence, and that the accident would not have occurred if she had not been frightened and grabbed the reins. The attorneys for the plaintiff, Messrs. Hatfield and Snively, held that the city was liable for its carelessness in not providing for the safety of the public by erecting railings on the bridge where the accident occurred.

The Hatfields obtained $2850 from the city on account of their damage suits. The accident occurred more than a year ago while the plaintiffs were driving across a bridge near the city limits. There was no light in that vicinity, nor railings on the bridge.

The death of Mrs. Frank Biron, wife of the proprietor of the tinsorial parlor in the Shallow building on the corner of Front and Yakima avenue, occurred Tuesday night at St. Elizabeth's hospital. The deceased had been ill for a long time. The funeral was held Thursday and interment followed in Tahoma cemetery.

THE KATZENJAMMER KID'S GREAT SHOW

Local Elks Have Prepared a Play Calculated to Please a Large and Enthusiastic Audience.

That the local Elks, assisted by many of the most prominent young ladies of North Yakima, whose acting and singing qualifications compare favorably with the best professional talent on the road, will present to the people of this city a great show on Tuesday night, February 11, is not to be doubted for a single moment. The performance will be held in the Yakima theatre.

Miss Thompson, the director of the entertainment, is working night and day with the cast, putting on the finishing touches, and those who have witnessed some of the late rehearsals are loud in their praise of the individual efforts, and the success attained by each character in their respective roles.

It is said that 100 people will be seen in this laughable extravaganza, and some of the most noted local luminaries with a bunch of topical jokes and songs will undoubtedly call forth the most unusual demonstrations from the audience.

Fred Alter, Harry Baylor and Guy Grafton need no introduction to Yakima audiences. Their varied stunts behind the footlights have many times provoked sufficient laughter to keep the digestive organs of their audiences in good working order for months afterwards. Grafton is known as the "Minstrel King" of the Yakima valley. He was the originator and founder of the famous Cyclone Minstrels. Fred Alter, the magic violinist, has standing offers to go on the road any time he wants to cut out buying hops at 2 cents a pound. Harry Baylor came out to this country from Boston. Harry is a typical Irishman. That is, when operating in the limelight, one would swear that he had never been naturalized. He is in the real estate business, and it is said of him that whenever he gets hold of an Irish customer the deal might as well be considered closed.

Well, these three fellows are absolutely the starlings of "The Katzenjammer Picnic," with the exception, of course, of Charley Wenner. Charley thinks he is the whole show, and some of those who have seen him in action declare that he will take all the honors, if they give him a chance. His make-up alone will cause a side splitting spasm.

One of the most conspicuous figures to be seen on the night of the Elks' big show, however, will be Dr. Campbell, the dentist. The doctor has a stunt that goes off with a loud scream. Of course the doctor has had more or less experience with big shows, and is perfectly at home on the stage. Dr. Alfred Burns is another dentist, and he and Bob Brautigan as college chums are so rotten they are positively fine.

But it must not be forgotten that the men are not the whole thing in this show. In fact as compared with the ladies they look just like a zero. Miss Marshall of Seattle, Miss Lyle Gamble, Miss Doris Arrowsmith, Miss Grace Oviatt, Miss Gretchen Crawford, Mrs. Ed Bryant and others will win the plaudits of the house in their respective parts. Mrs. Bryant will be remembered by the people of this city on account of her excellent performance in the "Pirates of Penzance" given here a year ago.

There is every indication that the Elks' big show will be an unequalled success, and prove deserving of a large and enthusiastic audience on the night of the performance.

STRIKE WHILE THE IRON'S HOT

W. H. Shea, Jr., Says Now is the Time to Boost the Yakima Valley—People Want Facts.

That right now is the best time to advertise the Yakima valley, and get the interesting facts about this country before the people of the east, especially the middle west, is the opinion of Will H. Shea, Jr., the young Fruitvale farmer, who resigned the city attorneyship of Virginia, Minn., to come to North Yakima and invest in fruit land. Mr. Shea is at present in Duluth, where his father is engaged in a big law suit over a copper mine.

In a recent letter to the manager of The Democrat, Mr. Shea says among other things:

"Thought I would drop you a line to let you know that I am still alive in this arctic region. We have had it all the way from 18 to 32 degrees below zero for the past several days. I wish that some of the people out there who are in the habit of complaining of that weather being cold were here; that they might know what cold weather really is."

"I was very much surprised the other day when I was told on a street car by a friend of mine that recently a long article was published in one of our daily papers by Thomas Cole, one of the great Copper Kings, as you know, concerning the Yakima valley. He boasted the country and advocated it as the best land of opportunities for the young men that he knew of. If, is, indeed, very surprising to note how very well known our country is around here. As soon as one mentions Yakima to anyone, they at once become interested, and ask all sorts of questions pertaining to the country. I have talked to a great many business men here and there seems to be a desire on their part to cut out all this speculating business and to get back into a substantial business in a country of intrinsic values. Of course, this sentiment has been created by the present panic, and I believe that in view of the present state of business atmosphere that now is the time to push Yakima to the front by a tremendous advertising project. We have the goods, so to speak, and all we have to do is to bring the facts into the homes of the unsettled people of this and other parts of the country. I should like to see something started out there and started at once, because, as I said above, now is the time to strike, and if we do, I sincerely believe that Yakima would see the best year that it has ever had of development, investments and general business activity during the next year."

JONES INTRODUCES BILL

Yakima Congressman Asks $250,000 for Federal Building.

Word was received Thursday afternoon that Congressman Wesley L. Jones had introduced a bill in the house of representatives which calls for an appropriation of $250,000 for the purpose of erecting a federal building in this city.

Congressman Jones is doing everything possible to secure favorable legislation on his bill and hopes to get the measure passed this year in order that work may be started on the building as quickly as possible. The site for the building has already been secured. It is on the corner of South Third street and Chestnut.

E. Stebbins, who owns and operates the pictures, gives a most entertaining and comprehensive lecture, which adds to the entertainment a feature that might otherwise be lost.

The new play house seems to have struck a popular chord from its very inception. Success is assured.

The next meeting of the governing board of the Commercial club will be held on Monday, February 10, at which time the new members will be installed.

JACK SPLAWN FOR GOVERNOR

The Yakima Man Will Have the Support of the Entire County Delegation—Get
On the Wagon.

"Jack Splawn for Governor." This is the slogan that will be adopted by the democrats of Yakima county, and the delegates to the Spokane convention next May will make an effort to swing the entire state delegation for the Yakima man.

It has been proposed that both republicans and democrats alike of this city work together for the interests of Mr. Splawn, who is considered to be one of the strongest men so far mentioned among the probable candidates for governor.

With this idea in view a "Jack Splawn club" will be organized in the county for the purpose of enlisting the aid of as many of his friends as can be secured. These friends who have known him for many years and will lend their aid towards his candidacy. There will be no fees connected with a membership in the "Jack Splawn club", but it is requested that every citizen and taxpayer in the county who would like to be identified with the movement either send in their name by mail to the office of the Yakima Democrat, or else call at the office and sign the membership roll.

A Yakima man for governor of the state will serve in many ways to the advantage of the city and valley. It will not only bestow deserved honor upon one of the men whose work and influence has been instrumental in bringing the Yakima country to the front, but it will also call attention to the fact that in addition to the great and varied productions of the valley along agricultural lines, and the construction of railroad projects, the Yakima country produces men whose qualifications as statesmen are second to none.

Get on the band wagon ye sons of the Yakima soil and boost for your best interests by boosting a Yakima man for governor. Be a member of the "Jack Splawn club". Suppose he does wear long chin whiskers, and doesn't look like Col. Robertson, it makes no difference. He can certainly deliver the goods, and get the votes.

ATTORNEY ENGLEHART WEDS BEAUTIFUL GIRL

Elopes with Miss Gertrude Ley and Marries in Seattle Tuesday Afternoon—Surprise Complete.

The social circles of the city were given a fresh subject for gossip last Tuesday afternoon when a telegram was received here from Seattle announcing the marriage of Hon. Ira P. Englehart and Miss Gertrude Ley, both residents of North Yakima.

The news came as a great surprise to many of the most intimate friends of Mr. Englehart and Miss Ley, although two or three people had been taken into the confidence of the contracting parties, but these were the only ones who knew anything about the contemplated elopement.

The parents of Miss Ley were dumbfounded when they learned of the facts in the case, and the friends of Mr. Englehart were chiding one another with the expressions: "Well, I guess Ira's not so slow." "He certainly is a lucky dog," etc.

Mr. Englehart is a protestant while his young bride has been brought up in the Catholic church. These obstacles were easily removed by a little engineering on the part of Don Cupid, and while the lovers were unable to secure a special dispensation from the bishop of this diocese, they concluded to look fate in the face, smile, and do as their hearts commanded.

Mr. and Mrs. Englehart will go on an extended honeymoon through California, Old Mexico, the southern states, up the eastern coast of the United States to Washington City, and thence home. They will return here to make their home late in the spring.

Mr. Englehart has already placed the plans for his new brown stone front residence in the hands of an architect. The house will be erected on the corner of Naches avenue and B streets and will be one of the most palatial homes in the city.

Miss Gertrude Ley was one of the most attractive and accomplished of North Yakima's young women.

Mrs. Charles H. Barnes returned this week from Seattle. She has been visiting her sister, Miss Clara Van Loon, who has been quite ill at the state university, of which she is a student.

FRUIT INSPECTOR BROWN TO RESUME

County Commissioners Act on Advice of Attorney General and Re-employ Yakima Man.

In accordance with an opinion furnished by the attorney general's office it is understood that the county commissioners will immediately resume the employment of J. M. Brown as special horticultural inspector, who will make monthly reports to the state inspector as provided under the horticultural act of 1907, and the latter will make an affidavit showing the amount of per diem and expenses rightly chargeable against each county and give this to the state auditor. The commissioners, on receipt of this statement from the state auditor can then pay over the amount direct to the special inspector.

The difficulty which arose over the employment of the special inspectors was mostly a question of red tape and followed an adverse decision of the supreme court rendering illegal the office of county inspector. The advice tendered by the attorney general is merely a method of keeping within the law while dodging the difficulty presented by the constitutional provision that no money can be paid out by the state treasury except in pursuance of an appropriation by the legislature.

Attorney General's Decision.
The decision which is signed by A. J. Falknor is as follows:

"The suggestion has been made of a method of paying the special inspectors by certifying their accounts as provided in section 14 of the Horticultural Act and then remitting the amount to the state treasurer and then paying the inspector. Under Article 8 of section 14 of the state constitution no money can be paid out of the treasury of the state except in pursuance of an appropriation. When the money would be remitted to the state treasury under the law you refer to it would be turned into the general fund of the state and the state treasurer would not have authority to pay the same out in the absence of an appropriation. The appropriation made by the last legislature has been exhausted and if the moneys were remitted to the state treasury they would be placed in the general fund and would remain there and the state treasurer would be unable to pay these special inspectors until some subsequent legislature provided an appropriation.

WILL INSPECT SHEEP

Dr. Ernest S. Siggins, government stock inspector in this state, has begun an inspection of the sheep of the state and he expects to examine every animal. He intends to do it. The examination is primarily for scab and in view of the fact that it is to be so thorough it is the assumption that if no infection is found the quarantine which has obtained against the state for several years past will be raised. So far as is known the flocks of Washington are without infection. Examinations made during the fall months of last year failed to show any. Dr. Siggins will first make an examination of the flocks of Yakima county and will then probably go to Kittitas. He expects to be able to finish his work, or almost finish it, before the sheep are sent to the mountains. Along with his inspection he will make a census of the flocks as he carries on his work. He did some work in the Moxee yesterday and today is in the Selah. He will finish up with the bands near North Yakima before going down the county.

MR. WEISBERGER'S CONTRACT CANCELLED

Mr. Weisberger, who has been in Washington interviewing the heads of the service, will leave for home today, having failed in his mission, the object of which was to have the plans for the lining of the canal so changed as to permit of the lining being done in one operation.

Mr. Weisberger's contract was for about $275,000. So far he has manufactured about one-tenth of the shapes called for by the contract. He has erected an extensive plant in the canyon, including a power house.

The officers of the Tieton Water Users association asked that an investigation of the matter be made by Chief Engineer Davis but Mr. Davis replied that it would be impossible for him to come here for several months and that knocked that suggestion on the head, as the service would not consent to so long a delay. The engineers of the service have declared since the commencement of the controversy that the shapes are all right and will make an effective lining for the canal and their verdict evidently has been approved by the department at Washington.

The Republic is informed that a formal demand was made on R. B. Hawks, Mr. Weisberger's clerk and representative here, for delivery of the plant and material and that this was refused today.

SCHOOL DIRECTORS PLEASSED

The attendance of school directors of the 83 districts in this county at the annual meeting on Monday was more than ordinarily good, considering the distance some of the directors had to travel to the county seat. Much information was elicited from the assistant state superintendent of public instruction and other educators who addressed the assembled school district officials.

The laws governing the acts of school directors have been materially amended during recent years and it was not surprising that many of the directors were anxious to acquire complete information about their duties. It was a representative assemblage of business men who came to receive instruction and to obtain a better idea of the progress of school work. Some of the directors, however, are veterans in school work and contributed not a little to the success of the annual meeting.

North Yakima will be visited sometime in May by the baseball team of the Spokane high school. The plans are now being made for trips by the Spokane players. The first will be in April and will be through Oregon territory. The second, in May, will be to Seattle, and stops will be made in various places in the Yakima valley for games.

WHAT CAN THIS CITY BE BONDED FOR?

The Finance Committee of the City Council Trying to Figure Out How Much City Can Stand.

The finance committee of the city council, composed of H. H. Schott, J. O. Janek and Harry W. Mull, is already deep in the mesh of "frenzied finance," although the problem given to the members of the committee for solution and to report upon at the next regular session of the council may not prove to be so intricate as to cause them much trouble.

The task of these municipal financiers is to ascertain the approximate cost of paving the city's share of the district, the possible cost of septic tank and one or two other items of possible expense to be met this year, together with a statement of the city's present indebtedness, bonded and otherwise.

Figures at Hand.

City Attorney Forsyth stated at the last session of the council that the estimated cost of the city's portion of the pavement is $50,000; that the sewer contract will cost $8000 in excess of the bond of $48,000 voted for that purpose; that a septic tank, which the state may compel the city to install this year, will cost about $30,000; that the city's present outstanding indebtedness is $52,000.

The assessed valuation of the city on which a levy may be fixed for municipal expenses is $5,000,000. On this a tax of 1½ cents may be levied. That would bring the city $75,000 for use this year on new bonds.

Not a Bad Situation.

The bonding proposition is not, therefore, at first glance, a serious one. The people of the city are almost if not quite unanimous in their appeal to the council for the paving of the business district. There is no disposition anywhere to escape that improvement this year. The council is anxious to get into the problem at once and is expediting the work as much as possible. The committee has undertaken the task of presenting the fact of the problem to the council as vigorously as if it were its own private enterprise. There is no lack of interest in the matter in any quarter. The reduction of the extent of the paving district simplifies the situation. The desire to undertake and complete the contract on this pavement within the present year is supported by an earnest effort to get at it at the earliest possible date.

The state, acting in behalf of the committees below this city on the river, may insist that the city install a septic tank this year. The city should do this as early as practicable anyway, the council says. The tank is needed in any event. Beyond these two propositions, there appears to be no confusion in the situation.

ONE MILLION ACRES TO BE THROWN OPEN

Yakima Reservation Will Soon be Opened for Settlement Accord- ing to Secretary Garfield.

That it is the intention of the department of the interior to endeavor to open 1,145,000 acres of land in the Yakima reservation to settlement this year is the statement contained in the annual report of the department just issued from the government press at Washington. Whether or not the preliminary work which has to be done in the way of classifying and valuing the lands will be completed in time for the opening this year remains to be seen, but it is the general opinion that if the work is not done this year the reservation will be opened to settlement early next year and in time to allow of the new settlers getting in their crops for the harvest of 1909.

Valuable Land Available.

Those who are acquainted with the character of the lands which are to be made available for the white farmers are aware that some of the most valuable land in the country is contained within the reservation, and that there will be a great rush for holdings goes without saying. The lands will be valued and the successful applicants will have to pay in installments this purchase price—which goes to the Indian owners—in addition to the usual homestead fees.

One of the most immediate results of the opening of the reservation will be the rapid development of the reservation towns and with the prospect of the early influx of hundreds of white farmers to the reservation speculators are looking to Toppenish and Wapato real estate as good propositions. But North Yakima, as the metropolis of the valley, will benefit to a great extent also.

Wide Interest Indicated.

The wide interest taken in the prospective opening of the reservation is indicated by the hundreds of letters of inquiry from all parts of the country which have reached the local United States land offices during the past month or two. People in the middle western states, particularly, are anxious to have a look in when the time for applying for holdings arrives.

The departmental report, which is signed by the secretary of the Interior, says in part:

"Laws have been enacted for the disposal of the following Indian lands: Colville reservation, Wash., 1,000,000 acres; Flathead reservation, Mont., 1,000,000 acres; Yakima reservation, Wash., 1,145,000 acres; Blackfeet reservation, Mont., 500,000 acres; Lower Brule reservation, S. Dak., 55,000 acres; Coeur d'Alene reservation, Idaho, 310,000 acres; Rosebud reservation, S. Dak., 835,000 acres; Lemhi reservation, Idaho, 64,000 acres. Steps are now being taken preliminary to the opening of these lands next year," states the annual report of James R. Garfield, secretary of the interior, which was made public.

Mr. Garfield's report was dated December 31, 1907.

The Indian Question.

"It is idle to suppose that it is either possible or wise to prevent such disposition of the Indian lands in those areas where the lands are needed for agricultural development and men are ready and anxious to develop them," says Secretary Garfield in his official report. "The duty of the government is to see that the opening, when made, is conducted with fairness to the Indian owners. It is not surprising that in the great majority of cases the Indian objects to the opening and to the allotment of individual tracts. It is impossible for the Indians to suddenly, or even in a few years, discard the training of generations and accept the idea of individual ownership of land, which the white race has developed after hundreds of years of civilization."

HOP FIELDS TO BE PLOWED UP

Other and More Profitable Crops Will Be Planted This Year Say Some of the Growers.

Notwithstanding reports to the contrary, a considerable acreage of hops will be plowed up this year and planted to more profitable crops. All of the close-in fields will be displaced by fruits and vegetables. Hawkins, Weed, Bunell Brothers, Allen and a number of others have resolved to dispose of the hop worry that way. It is said that not a hop root will be left on the school section, where many productive fields have yielded big crops for many years. But a big hop crop does not necessarily imply that there is profit in the cultivation of the vine. Many fields were not picked last year, after the expense of cultivation had been entailed. W. P. Sawyer is another of the hop growers who say they have picked their last hop.

"It is not a safe crop," said one extensive grower this morning. "In a country where there are so many crops that promise an assured income every year, and some of them immense profit per acre, there is little wisdom in devoting time, money and rich soil to the production of hops. The grower has not been getting a square hop deal for a long time. There is no promise of any improvement in the situation, either. The union does not, in my opinion, offer a satisfactory solution of the matter. It will help some, but it cannot remove the existence of speculative conditions which the growers will never be able to control. Potatoes and onions pay better from year to year. I can beat the hops with peas or tomatoes. There is greater risk in the hop crop, also, than any I know of. Altogether there is nothing inviting about the speculation. I believe 15 or 20 per cent of the hop acreage of the valley will be plowed up this year—and maybe more."

Seven hundred and twenty acres make a large fruit farm, but that will be the area of the Bussell fruit farm near Wapato this year. The entire tract will be set to orchard as soon as the ground is in condition. Albert Springle will manage the place for C. B. Bussell. Sixty acres will be planted to berries and 20,000 fruit trees will be set out. Another 10 acres will be devoted to apricot and peach nursery stock. It will require 50 horses and a large force of men to do the work and they will get busy as early as the season opens.

Kohler & Chase Club Piano to Club Members $ 287

Any young man or woman, husband or father, earning a fair salary can become a club member and secure our KOHLER & CHASE MODEL "M" PIANO at co-operative club price to members of $287, on very easy terms of payment—a little at a time.

KOHLER & CHASE CLUB PIANOS cost club members $287, instead of $400, which is the regular price, just a little more than common, ordinary $250 and $275 pianos—in five or ten years they cost much less—because they are still good. They are built to last a lifetime, and are guaranteed to do so.

You can buy other pianos at or about $287, but you don't get KOHLER & CHASE TONE, KOHLER & CHASE ACTION, KOHLER & CHASE LASTING QUALITY, KOHLER & CHASE REPUTATION, AND IN ALL KOHLER & CHASE SATISFACTION. Our KOHLER & CHASE CO-OPERATIVE PIANO CLUB, in connection with our INEXPENSIVE MAIL ORDER DEPARTMENT, saves you nearly $125—worth investigating—besides, we do not collect balance due on pianos in case of death of parent or purchaser joining the club just forming. BE IN TIME. Call or write for Booklet "N" which will be sent postpaid, and will explain the FAIREST, BEST and SAFEST PIANO PROPOSITION ever submitted.

BRYAN CONCEDED THE NOMINATION

Practically Impossible to Encompass the Nebraskan's Defeat for First Place on the Democratic Ticket.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 31.—William Jennings Bryan is still the most popular man, so far as the democratic presidential nomination is concerned, that has yet been mentioned. In spite of the assertions and reiterations that Mr. Bryan was to be told while he was in Washington he must give way to some other democrat for the presidential contest, it is obvious that the word has not been given to him yet and it is doubted now if anyone can be found willing to act as spokesman among the few senators who do not wish to see Mr. Bryan again lead the party. Mr. Bryan himself is convinced that this year is the appointed time for a democratic victory with himself as a candidate. He declares that his attitude on the financial situation has undergone no change since his previous utterances. He still favors treasury and not national bank notes for emergency issues and says that this was the good old fundamental principle laid down by Jefferson and Jackson, and that the good faith of the government should be behind these notes.

Senator Daniel and some of the more rabid anti-Bryan men are hoping to profit by the spectacle presented by the republicans of having their candidate left in doubt through a multitude of "favorite sons," and have by no means yet abandoned hope of being able to encompass Mr. Bryan's defeat for the nomination at Denver. Their idea is that if a goodly number of states can be induced to present candidates, the total strength may be so distributed as to make the selection of Bryan impossible.

Among the multifarious bills introduced in congress is one to place a tax of 25 per cent. on all doweries paid by girls or their parents in exchange for a title," which called forth much eloquence on the part of Representative Charles McGavin of Illinois one day this week. His speech brought forth much applause from both sides of the house and has made for him a reputation as a champion of American men as against titled foreigners. In the course of his speech he said: "I have reference only to those who have monocles on their eyes, and an idiotic look upon their faces—those who have neither the disposition to be good, nor the ability to do harm."

President Roosevelt issued a proclamation this week on the tariff agreement negotiated between France and the United States under the authority of Section 3 of the Dingley tariff act, which authorizes the president to arrange reciprocal trade agreements with foreign countries. The agreement was signed by Elihu Root for the president and by M. J. J. Jusserand, the French ambassador, on the part of France, and it will not be submitted to the senate for ratification, but will go into effect on February 1. The most important feature of the agreement is the abatement of 20 per cent. on the duty on champagne imported into the United States, and France in turn agreed to impose only her minimum rates of duty on Porto Rican coffee and mineral oils. Under the terms of the agreement a board of three experts of each country is to be appointed to investigate and report upon the customs administration systems of both countries. The tariff agreement will remain in force until the president of either country gives notice to the other country.

The present expectation is that the Aldrich financial bill, which was reported to the senate this week, will be taken up for debate on February 10, and kept before the senate as the unfinished business until it is disposed of. Senator Aldrich, who will, of course, engineer the measure, after making a careful survey of the situation as regards probable debate, is of the opinion that not more than two weeks will be consumed in discussing it. The announcement of Mr. Bryan's attitude towards the Aldrich bill, made during his recent visit to the capital, is taken as an indication that democratic opposition to the measure will be of short duration. The conference of democratic senators on Saturday last developed a policy against any measure but one of an emergency nature, and there has been a tacit understanding among the minority that proposed financial remedies will have to be brushed aside for the present.

An amusing and most unusual incident occurred in the house of representatives this week. The chaplain had barely finished his morning prayer when handclapping and laughter were heard from various directions. The prayer was as follows:

"Good Lord, deliver us, we beseech Thee, from the jingo, the demagogue, the bigot and all other undesirable citizens, and give us instead the patriot, the statesman, the broad minded, the generous hearted, manly man, that Thy Kingdom may come and Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven, for Christ's sake, Amen."

The prayer was the talk of the house for an hour or more after its delivery, and many of the republican members declared that the visit of William J. Bryan had something to do with it, but the democrats when confronted with this suggestion declared that the chaplain was taking politics into the pulpit.

DIED OF INJURIES.

C. A. Stevens Victim of Runaway Accident, Relieved by Death.

After five days of intense suffering inflicted by the injuries received in a runaway accident, C. A. Stevens, employed by the Yakima Brewing & Malt company as a drayman, died at St. Elizabeth's hospital Tuesday night.

The young man attempted to stop the big brewery dray team which was running away. He grabbed one of the horses by a check close to its head, but was unable to stop the animals in their mad flight. He was thrown to the ground and both wheels of the heavy truck passed over his body, breaking his back and injuring him internally.

WEEKLY MARKET REVIEW

Seattle reports no market for hay and oats but admits a strong demand. It is declared that large stocks purchased earlier in the season, when prices were higher, are still held and buyers will not come to the figures asked by the men who speculated. The short interests, it is declared, have had control of the market for some weeks and have forced it down, but the shorts have been buying in small lots and the farmers are holding, like the speculators, for higher prices. This, and the demand which must result soon, will affect a change.

Apple Prices Are Raising.
Wheat is down in Chicago but the price here has not been affected materially. There is little held here, it is declared. Potatoes are unchanged at $12 and $13 a ton. Apples are likely to find an improved market. Shipments are being made to California and other southern states, which are changing the Sound markets. There is also declared to be a better demand and a growing one in the east for the highest available quality of fruit.

Despite snow and cold weather eggs continue to drop and the figures this week show another fall of five cents from those previously quoted. Eggs are beginning to come in in large supply and the situation is easier than it has been for months. Butter on the other hand is showing an upward tendency and quotations today are an increase of five cents in the two-pound roll, making the present price 85 cents. There is also a slight advance in the price of pork.

Grocers of North Yakima are showing some nice Sound cauliflower of full, regular heads, with a little celery and the usual vegetables. The green stuff is much scarcer than has been the case. General quotations are as follows:

Wants Yakima Apples.
G. B. Brackett, pomologist of the United States department of agriculture, is taking an interest in Yakima fruit and seeking to acquire information with regard to the subject. Recently he wrote to Paul Kruger of this city asking for a copy of his catalogue and enclosing a stamp. Writing in reply to receipt of the catalogue he says: "This book will be of great value to me in the reference file of this office. I have looked it over carefully and find much value in it. I am afraid you have not been receiving the publications of this office. I therefore take pleasure in sending you some of the available bulletins which will likely be of assistance to you and I shall be pleased to have you write to me whenever I can be of assistance in matters pertaining to fruit culture or identification of fruits. I shall be pleased to have you send me, at proper season, any specimens of promising new fruit you may be growing or may know of in your section. If you will let me know in time, before the fruit ripens, I will send mailing boxes and franks which will bring the specimens through the mails free of postage. Please list my name for receiving future catalogues as issued."

Mrs. Ross Seeks Divorce
Because her husband is dangerous in his cups to the extent of threatening to kill her and of throwing burning lanterns at her, Louisa Ross, an allottee on the Yakima reservation has brought suit for divorce against Frank Ross and asks for the custody of the four children of the marriage and alimony. Mrs. Ross states in her complaint that her husband is unfaithful, one Jessie Cominke being named as co-respondent, and that he has failed to support her and the children, preferring to spend his money on the other woman. She alleges that she has considerable personal property now in the possession of her husband in his house on the Nisqually reservation and that he wrongfully retains possession of this in spite of her demand to have it returned to her. It is alleged that on the death of his mother, who is now old and feeble, Ross will come into possession of 260 acres of valuable lands in Pierce county and will be well able to pay suitable alimony.

The Price of Lumber.
Miles Cannon: "The interests of the people of the Yakima country are identical with those of the Northern Pacific railroad in the fight which the western Washington lumbermen are making against an increased rate on lumber to the Missouri river. We should not favor a low rate east for lumber. The forests of the state will be denuded rapidly, and in the meantime the fact that there is an active market for lumber in the east will tend to make the people of this part of the state pay high prices for the lumber they use. We see now how it works. There is nothing doing in the east for the Washington lumber manufacturer, and the prices at the local yards drop away off. I noticed the other day that a bill of side-walk lumber was sold in this town for $13, which a short time ago would have brought $21."

They Roasted Freeman.
The way they handed it out to our old friend Legh R. Freeman at the state horticultural convention seems to be considered a caution. It seems that the veteran editor did not have the report of the last convention ready for distribution as per plans and specifications. The Walla Walla Statesman, in its story of the meeting says: "When the subject was brought before the convention yesterday afternoon, pointed remarks regarding the failure of Mr. Freeman to 'make good' were to be heard from all parts of the hall, and the chairman was hard put to it to select the speaker who was first on his feet after the reading of the communication. In order that the convention might not end with a disgraceful scene, the question was unanimously referred to the executive committee."

The Passion Play.
The beautiful moving pictures illustrating the Passion Play, as performed every ten years at Oberammergau, Bavaria, are proving a big attraction at Fred Schaffer's pretty "New" theatre on Yakima avenue. The pictures are explained briefly by Mr. Stebbins, who operates the cinematograph. The series are colored and are wonderfully distinct and lifelike.

NOW Is the time to list your property, if you would participate in the spring business which is already beginning. We are making sales right along, but the demand for fruit lands and general ranch properties with our firm in the spring will be enormous. The man who wants to sell, and has his property listed with us has four chances to one against the man who has not.

FOR THE PAST YEAR

We have advertised extensively throughout the United States, and our inquiries are coming by the hundreds.

We charge you nothing extra for all the advantages of our connections, advertising and reputation. If you will list your property with us at its real value, your chances for selling are excellent. The firm to do your business is the firm with the buyers. Think it over.

AHTANUM RANCHERS MUST ACT AT ONCE

Secretary Garfield Wants Committee Appointed to Deal With Water Question.

Attorney H. J. Snively, who represents a number of the Ahtanum ranchers who are interested in the controversy between themselves and the Indian department relative to water rights on the Ahtanum creek, has received a letter from the secretary of the interior asking that the ranchers immediately appoint a committee clothed with full power to enter into an agreement for the division of the water, as otherwise he will be compelled, as representing the Indians, to begin an action in equity to determine definitely upon their rights. The letter follows:

"Washington, D. C., Jan. 29, 1908.—Dear sir: I have been considering the question of the use of the water of Ahtanum creek upon the Indian lands, and the claims of the white settlers on the opposite side of the creek.

"It is clear to me that the time has come for a final settlement of these adverse claims, but I am advised that the settlers have not an organization which represents all their different interests. If the settlers will appoint a committee and clothe it with full power to act for all the different interests, I will be in a position to immediately confer with the committee and effect a final settlement of the different rights. Unless such a committee be immediately formed and clothed with the requisite power, it will be necessary for me, as representing the Indians, to begin an action in court to determine definitely their rights.

"It is surely to the best interests of all concerned that this matter be settled by agreement rather than as a result of litigation. The settlers will find, as I told them last summer, that the Indian office desires to meet them half way in effecting a fair settlement, but, as you will readily understand, it is quite impossible for the government to attempt to deal individually with these settlers. Any agreement made with one would necessarily be without binding effect upon any of the others. In order to make a definite proposition, will you please say to representatives of all the interests that unless the committee is organized in the manner I have above indicated on or before March 15, it will be necessary for me to immediately take up the question of a bill in equity.

"In this connection, you may say to all the persons interested that they must place no dependence whatever upon water being furnished to them from the Tieton canal. I am convinced by the reports of the engineers of the reclamation service that it would be most unwise to make even a suggestion, much less a promise, that water may be furnished from that source to lands at present irrigated from Ahtanum creek.

"Very truly yours,
"JAMES R. GARFIELD,
"Secretary."

Crevosso Is Feeling Hurt.

When ex-Sexton R. G. Crevosso's report for his last month's service came up in the council last night it developed that the cemetery committee had experienced difficulty in an effort to check up his books. They had not been kept methodically and failed to show many important items that it is believed they ought to contain. The ex-sexton had also failed to turn over certain papers, plats, burial permits, and other data necessary to the proper conduct of the cemetery business in future. It was suggested that his check for the month of January be held up until these apparent discrepancies had been straightened out, but finally the clerk was instructed to draw the warrant and to make a further requisition on the ex-sexton for the office paraphernalia missing. Mr. Crevosso will have nothing to do with the new sexton and is apparently not at all pleased with having to give up the office after a service of one decade.

YAKIMA FRUIT WINS IN STATE EXHIBIT

Horticulturists of Washington Select H. M. Gilbert as Their President.

President—H. M. Gilbert.
Ankeny Silver Cup, Class A—Best
Fruit Exhibit—Yakima Horticultural Union.
Largest Single Delegation—Yakima Valley.
Formal Addresses—F. A. Huntley, J.
M. Brown, J. B. Moran, M. N. Richards, Legh R. Freeman.
General Discussions—Many Yakima Delegates.
Convention—One Quarter from Yakima Valley.

The foregoing, according to Dr. Granville Lowther, is in a general way North Yakima's share of the convention at Walla Walla of the Washington State Horticultural association. In addition he said that the Yakima valley was prominent throughout the proceedings in active and intelligent participation in the program. H. M. Gilbert, according to Dr. Lowther, was not only unanimously chosen president but the selection was accompanied with the most ardent expressions of appreciation. Other officers chosen are: R. P.
Crowell, Spokane, first vice president;
M. Horns, Wenatchee, second vice president; L. G. Monroe, Spokane, secretary and W. A. Ritz, Walla Walla, treasurer.
Spokane was selected as the meeting place of the next convention.

Was a Splendid Convention.

"It was beyond doubt the finest convention of the kind that I have ever attended," said Dr. Lowther. "There were over 400 delegates in attendance and in excess of 100 of that number represented North Yakima or other sections of the Yakima valley. We carried off the prize for the best fruit display and in doing so showed our superiority
at fruit raising to the rest of the state.
Practically every fruit growing district of the state was represented and the men present were of an exceptionally high type. All the papers read showed deep thought and study and the discussions which resulted from them were important. They were scientific, too, and indicated that the men who entered into them are intelligent, high class men, who were doing no hap-hazard talking but were thrashing out best results on subjects to which they had given serious thought. Professors Me-lander and Thorner of the State College gave many superior addresses.

"Apart from the general advantage to the fruit growers which will result from the papers and talks we hope for actual practical results in the way of legislation dealing with the matters of inspection, spraying and control of the commission men who handle the products of the orchard after they have left the hands of the growers. These matters will be worked up with the state legislature through committees. The meeting was particularly anxious to procure such legislation as will give a hold on the dishonest or indifferent commission man. Much fruit sent out on consignment has been a partial or a total loss and Commissioner Huntley appears to be certain that in some instances this is unnecessarily so. Inspection of these men so as to make them more reliable is desired.

Banquet a Great Success.

"Generally I may say that the convention was held under the most pleasing auspices. The Y. M. C. A. building in which we met was a very good building for the purpose and in every way
the things which sometimes mar a meeting were eliminated.

"The horticulturists had a banquet
Thursday night at the Odd Fellows' hall

at which nearly 400 guests were present and it fittingly rounded out a splendid convention. I came home at 1 o'clock this morning and Messrs. Huxtable, Wright, Gilbert and a number of others came along also. The bulk of the delegates will return, however, tomorrow morning. The hosts wanted to take us to Whitman college and to the penitentiary but I did not care to remain for that. I have been through college and I have no desire to go through the 'pen,' so I came home."

Following are among the things said by North Yakima men at the convention:

State Fruit Inspector F. A. Huntley, of this city, spoke against the practices of the commission men in failing to pay fair prices for produce and at the same time selling their purchases at a high figure, at the meeting yesterday.

"In my opinion the only method that will effectually prevent the immense profits and gross violations of the commission merchants is for the growers of the state to organize and in this way combat these men," he said.

J. M. Brown, deputy state inspector, read an interesting paper on pear blight, which he said originated in the east. "The most practical and the only sure preventive of this disease is to amputate the limbs from one to three feet below the least signs of any blight and in this way get below the effect of the germ," he declared. "The limbs cut off should be burned and the tools used in cutting the trees dipped in disinfected water to kill any germs that may be on them."

SUPERIOR COURT NOTES

Several Estates Dealt With— Decisions Handed Down.

Melissa J. Miller, widow of Clark Miller, who died intestate in April of last year, has been appointed administratrix of her deceased husband's estate by the superior court. The amount of her bond is fixed at $750.

In the estate of James E. Newman, deceased, who died in Ingham county, Mich., recently, Attorney F. A. Luse has been appointed administrator of that portion of the property which is situated in this county, on the petition of the widow.

Dr. Philip Frank and Mrs. Frank have been appointed legal parents by adoption of Myrtle Isabella Neby, daughter of John E. and Ellen Neby, aged four years.
The child's mother is dead and she is adopted with the consent of the father and will take the surname of Frank.

Judge Preble has signed an order dismissing the suit of Alice M. Williams vs. John R. King and wife, the controversy having been settled.

Judgment has been signed for $529.12
in favor of the plaintiff in the action of Schwabacher Bros. vs. August Hammel and wife, an account of goods and merchandise sold by the plaintiff to the defendants.

Judge Preble has given judgment for the defendant in the suit of J. B. Com-pin vs. J. A. Cook & Co., on appeal by the defendant from the justice court.
The plaintiff sued to recover $50, earnest money paid on two contracts for city lots. The plaintiff declined to carry out the contracts on the ground that the title offered by Cook & Co. was not clear. The court held otherwise and found for the defendant.

The suits of Arthur Lavoy vs. N. M.
Snodgrass and of F. X. Mineau vs. Arthur Lavoy have been dismissed by stipulation.

YAKIMA COUNTY IN SEVENTH CLASS

Salaries of Officials Will be Raised This Month is Decision of County Commissioners.

Yakima county is now in the seventh class, instead of in the eleventh, and the heads of the various departments will commence to draw salaries according to the higher schedule this month.
The change was made by resolution of the board of county commissioners yesterday afternoon on the petition signed by the county officials. In order to qualify for the higher class, the county requires a population of 35,000, and that this number has been reached is shown officially by the figures of the state statistician, who places the population of the county at 38,765, and by the estimate made on the school census of 1907 of 36,188.

Increase in Work.

During the past few years the work of the county officials has greatly increased and the higher pay which the heads of the departments will now receive certainly is being earned by them.
In many of the departments the volume of work and the amount of responsibility which the officials are required to shoulder has doubled within the past two or three years and there is every prospect of a continuation of the increase in the county's business.

The increases in the salaries mean an additional expenditure of about $5000 annually.

The official who benefits most by the change is the county school superintendent, Mr. Jacobson, whose salary takes a jump from $1200 to $2000 making him the highest paid official of the county by $100 per annum. This is due to some confusion in the law regarding the salaries of the school superintendents for, strange to say, when the county shall take another move to a still higher class the salary of the school superintendent will be less than in the seventh class.

New and Old Salaries.

Following is a list of the salaries which will now be paid, commencing with the month of February, to the officials, together with the old scale:

Auditor	$1900	$1600
Clerk	1800	1500

Treasurer	1900	1800
Sheriff	1900	1600
Attorney	1900	1600
School Supt.	2000	1200
Assessor	1500	1200
Engineer	1900	1600
Coroner	800	fees
Commissioners	800	per diem

Resolution of Commissioners.

Following is a copy of the resolution adopted by the commissioners:

"In the county commissioners' court of the county of Yakima.

"Present: Daniel Sinclair, chairman;
D. A. McDonald and William LeMay, commissioners.

"In the matter of the petition of Wilbur Crocker et al., for the reclassification of Yakima county:

"The above entitled matter coming on duly and regularly to be heard this 4th day of February, 1908, before the board of county commissioners of Yakima, in the state of Washington, upon the petition of Wilbur Crocker, county auditor, Henry H. Wende, prosecuting attorney;
J. A. Jacobson, school superintendent;
Lee Tittle, county treasurer; J. M. Edwards, sheriff; W. J. McIntyre, county engineer, and J. W. Sindall, county assessor, which said petition was filed in this court on the 4th day of November, 1907, and prays that the classification of said county be raised from the eleventh class to the seventh class, and it appearing from said petition that the estimated population of the said county of Yakima at the time of filing said petition was 36,188 upon the basis of the school census for the year 1907.

"And it further appearing to the board
from the report of the state statistician made in pursuance of an act of the legislature of the state of Washington that the estimated population of said county of Yakima during the year 1907 was 38,765.

"Now therefore, the board of county commissioners of Yakima county, state of Washington, finds that the population of said Yakima county is more than 35,000 and less than 40,000 and is therefore in the seventh class of counties, and it is hereby so ordered.

Signed:

DANIEL SINCLAIR,
D. A. McDONALD,
WILLIAM LE MAY.

illness of her mother, will not be able

ATTENTION, DELINQUENT SUB- SCRIBERS.

The postmaster general has issued an edict that publishers of newspapers may not mail their papers at pound rates to subscribers who are one year in arrears on subscription. Such papers can only be mailed by attaching a one-cent stamp to each copy. This order went into effect January 1st and newspaper publishers are given a limited time in which to adjust their subscription list to the new conditions.

By this ruling it becomes necessary for us to settle with our subscribers and collect that which is due us before we are called upon by the postal authorities to produce our subscription. Each person owing us can learn just the time they are paid to by looking at the date set opposite their name on the little red mail tab on The Democrat. To illustrate: If it reads like this:

JOHN JONES 21Jan04
you are in arrears four years and owe us $6. It is simple and easy to figure out and understand and if all in arrears will come forward and liquidate and adjust their little accounts they will confer a favor by so doing. We have no desire to buy subscribers, neither will we do it, and we shall regret very much to have to strike from our list even a single name, but we must live up to the postal laws and regulations and urge each one in arrears to come forward and settle up soon.

We publish the only Democratic paper in Yakima county. We are glad to be able to say that The Yakima Democrat is growing and prospering. New subscribers are being added each week to our list and we cannot afford to carry delinquents.

THE 1908 CAMPAIGN is approaching and politics are beginning to assume interesting proportions. You want to read both sides of the great issues at stake, then subscribe for The Weekly Democrat, and those on the list in arrears will please come forward and set-

MR. BRYAN'S POSITION.

Several newspapers recently printed a statement that Mr. Bryan had written to a friend in the east that he would decline the democratic nomination for the presidency should it develop that a certain portion of the delegates to the Denver convention were opposed to him. Mr. Bryan made no such statement. His position was clearly described in a statement printed in The Commoner of November 15. That position is well told by this extract from the November 15 statement:

"Mr. Bryan will not ask for or seek a nomination; and he will not assume to decide the question of his availability.
He has been so amply recompensed by his party for what he has done and for what he has endeavored to do that he cannot claim a nomination as a reward;
neither should his ambition be considered, for he has had honors enough from his party to satisfy any reasonable ambition. The only question that ought to weigh with the party is whether the party can be strengthened and aided more by his nomination than by the nomination of someone else. If he can serve the party by being its candidate he will accept the commission, and make the best fight he can. If, however, the choice falls upon another, he will not be disappointed or disgruntled. His availability is a question to be decided not by him, not by a few leaders, not even by the leading newspapers that call themselves democratic, but by the voters of the party, and to them he intrusts the decision of the question—they are the supreme court in all matters concerning candidates, as they are in all matters concerning the platform."

It may be added that Mr. Bryan does not regard the plutocratic newspapers that have habitually misrepresented him
as being qualified to speak even for a minority of democrats. Those newspapers speak for "the system." The rank and file of the democratic party will shape the party's course at Denver. It is not to be expected that the program adopted in the interests of the general public will meet with the approval of those from whose impositions the public is even now seeking relief.—Commoner.

AN INSPIRING MESSAGE

The man who fails to read with care and attention President Roosevelt's message will lose an inspiring lesson. It is a notable document and will stand as a classic, and so long as the nation shall endure will serve as a guide to sound principles and high ideals of civic duty.

As chart and compass for the ship of state under a republican form of government it will probably rank as the greatest state paper that has come from the executive mansion since Washington delivered his farewell address to the American people.

Its diction cuts like a whiplash and drives home like a pile-driver. It was written in a spirit of high inspiration, noble courage and exalted devotion, to the nation and the republic.

The cold and contemptuous reception accorded this message by the senate, which has long been a citadel of the forces of evil and corruption which the message arraigns with terrific righteousness, was sinister and significant.
Senators who have notoriously served as champions of the evils arraigned by the message affected a contemptuous unconcern which down in their hearts they could not feel and never may feel again.—Spokesman-Review.

TARIFF AND FARMERS

The farmers sell their apples in England in competition with other states, with Canada, with the world. They sell their potatoes in Boston and New York in competition with other states. Their butter and cheese has to compete with the butter and cheese of New York, Vermont and other states. They raise less wool than they used to, but they buy clothing produced in other states and abroad, taxed on an average above 90 per cent.

The agricultural machines they use are taxed 20 per cent. Their tools are heavily taxed, the nails and screws and iron and steel of all kinds that farmers cannot do without—all heavily taxed. Their stoves, their beds, their chairs, their tables, table-cloths, napkins, plates and knives and forks and cups and saucers, their milk pans and pails and cans, their wagons and horses and harnesses—all heavily taxed by the Dingley tariff. All these heavy taxes on Maine farmers and no return benefit.
Surely there could be no more suitable subject for grange discussion than the heavy burden of tariff taxes.—Lewiston (Me.) Sun.

"LET THE PEOPLE RULE"

"Let the people rule" is the slogan
that won a great victory in Oklahoma;
"let the people rule" was the maxim
of Oklahoma's constitutional convention;
"let the people rule" is the doctrine of Oklahoma's legislature, which is proving to the public what real democracy can do for the people when the government is in the hands of real democrats. Now let the people rule in the nation and in order that the people may rule in the nation, let the voters rule in the democratic party. If the leaders don't like the platform or the candidates nominated, the people can select new leaders, for it is much easier for an army of voters to select their leaders than it is for a few leaders to gather an army of voters.—Commoner.

IT WORKED SMOOTHLY

The direct primary law was given a good trying out at Seattle last Monday in the municipal canvass there and the new law worked smoothly enough and appears to have produced very satisfactory results on the whole.

The fight centered on the republican nomination for mayor, for which office eight candidates were in the field, John F. Miller winning the race by a plurality of about 1800 votes over his nearest competitor, W. P. Trimble. Colonel Wroner, formerly mayor of this city, won out for the nomination for city treasurer on the same ticket. General Metcalf was nominated as the democratic candidate.

Former Senator Chandler's appeal to southern republicans to send uninstructed delegations to the Chicago convention will fill President Roosevelt with alarm for Taft's fate. But no matter what happens Mr. Chandler knows in advance exactly how he stands at the White House. Having helped 32 years ago to save Southern states for the republican party, naturally his sympathies are now against any manipulation of delegates.—New York World.

Secretary Taft seems to have things coming his way and it looks as though Mr. Roosevelt's prophecy that he will be nominated on the first ballot will be made good. All other booms in the g.
o. p. camp are shrivelling into insignificance as compared with that of the big Ohioan. It is Taft against the field with the odds about three to one in favor of Taft.

Judge Kauffman of Ellensburg evidently believes in quick justice. The Norris woman of that city, who murdered her foster son, was on the road to the insane ward of the state penitentiary within two weeks after the crime was committed. The taxpayers of Yakima county would like to see plenty of the same kind of medicine administered here.

Senator Fulton of Oregon in a moment of weakness publicly defied Francis J. Heney. As a result Heney has begun to dissect the public record of Fulton and has brought to light considerable rottenness and intimates that he has something further up his sleeve. It is likely that Fulton will now fail of re-election to the senate.

Yakima fruit men easily won the prize offered for the best fruit display by Senator Ankeny at Walla Walla last week. In alluding to this event the Republic unkindly remarks that the next thing the Yakima men do will be to take the senator's political scalp.
Well, we'll see what we'll see.

Judge Ballinger, commissioner of public lands, has announced definitely that he will not be a republican candidate for governor of this state. There is indeed little likelihood of the g. o. p. securing so able and respected a candidate as Judge Ballinger. Col. Rob. has another guess coming.

Spokane already has three candidates in the field to succeed Congressman
Jones and entries have not yet closed.
The three ambitious statesmen referred to are Judge Miles Poindexter, State Senator Harry Rosenhaupt and W. H.
Ludson, formerly register of the Spokane land office.

A lot of taxpayers are apt to get their fill of republican misrule in this state when they come to pay their 1907 taxes. Taxes are unprecedentedly high, indeed, they are something fierce this year, and the prospect is that they will be even higher before they are lower.

President Roosevelt's recent fiery message seems to be construed in some quarters as a bid for support for Mr.
Taft. It is likely to put a crimp in the Hughes boom, a fact that Mr. Roosevelt probably had in view when he penned it.

The King of Portugal robbed his country of constitutional government and established a military dictatorship. As a result both he and his son lost their lives. Murder is a harsh corrective but tyrants, it seems, can learn in no other way.

While the east has been suffering from snowstorms and blizzards the Yakima valley has enjoyed only bracing winter weather, the mercury never going to zero. Oh yes, we've got the climate!

The Week End Society Event

August Bachelors Entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Miller at their palatial home on North Second street entertained last evening in honor of the August Bachelors. Mrs. Miller had very thoughtfully invited about 20 young ladies to assist her and had also arranged for a delightful musical program, which was participated in by a number of local people, whose accomplishments in a musical way are well known and duly recognized.

The house was artistically decorated for the occasion, and the host and hostess were charming in their gracious hospitality. One of the features of the musical program was the trio composed of Miss Day, at the piano, Miss Susanne Erwin, on the violin, and Mr. Kinsey, with the violin-cello. Their selections were enjoyed to the fullest extent. Miss Day gave several entertaining pieces on the piano. Dr. C. E. Keeler and Warren Erwin sang a duet, and both later rendered solos, to the enjoyment of the guests. Mrs. Miller responded to earnest requests for a song and was forced to sing two delightful encores. Miss Laura James accompanied the singers in her usual accurate and inspiring style. Light refreshments were served at the close of the program.

The guests included Mrs. George Donald and mother, Mrs. Porter, of New York; Mrs. O. M. Kinney; the Miss Camerons, of Moxee; Miss Laura and Lucile James, Miss Erwin, Miss Fraser, Miss Scott, Miss Ida Sharkey, Miss Betty Gamble, Miss Dwyer, of Maryland, Miss Day, Miss Lucy Scudder, Miss Moran; Messrs. Moren, Van Cleve, Frank and Summer Kinney, Charles Lombard, Erwin, Sanborn, Harding, Frank Lowther, Thompson, Dr. Keeler, Kinsey.

Party Given by W. R. C.

The members of the W. R. C. entertained the members of the G. A. R. and their friends Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Hattie Stone. There were about 65 guests present who spent a most delightful evening. A short program, music and games were the forms of entertainment during the evening.

Kennett-Cooper.

A very pretty home wedding occurred Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Richardson, 412 South Eighth street, when the sister of Mrs. Richardson, Miss Jennie Fletcher Cooper was united in marriage to Joseph Summers Kennett, of Prosser.

Rev. Schonn, of the First Baptist church of Prosser, performed the ceremony at 6:30 o'clock in the presence of about 40 guests and relatives. Potted plants, smilax and carnations decorated the house very beautifully while an arch of narcissus, hyacinth and smilax had been erected in one corner of the room and it was under this that the ceremony was performed. Miss Bessie Richardson played the wedding march.

The bride wore a dainty gown of white lansdowne trimmed with lace and carried white brides' roses. After the congratulations the bridal party repaired to the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Logan, where an elaborate wedding supper was served.

Entertained at Dinner Party.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Watts entertained at dinner Wednesday evening in a charming manner. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. James Bever, Dr. and Mrs. George Sloan, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Wyman and Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Watts.

Wedding Anniversary Celebrated.

The tenth anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Dean of Fruitvale was celebrated Tuesday evening in a pleasant manner at the home of Mrs. Mary Snelling, 102 North Eighth street. Mr. and Mrs. Dean were attending a dinner party and were entirely surprised at the appearance of a number of their friends and fellow church members.

Complimentary to Mrs. Denny.

Mrs. Charles Latimer Denny was the guest of honor at a charming luncheon given Wednesday by Mrs. W. W. Robertson. Covers were laid for Mrs. Charles L. Denny, Mrs. Alex. Miller, Mrs. W. L. Steinweg, Mrs. A. B. Weed, Mrs. Edward B. Moore, Mrs. C. J. Lynch, Mrs. Edward Leekie, Mrs. Frank Horsley, Mrs. Walter Chambers, Miss Robertson and the hostess.

Surprise Party for Mrs. Shardlow.

Mrs. Effie Shardlow was pleasantly surprised by a number of friends Tuesday evening. The guests included Mrs. W. A. Morrison and her daughter, Miss Armenta Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Clemmer, Mr. and Mrs. Flannery, Mr. and Mrs. Barber, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Clemmer, and Miss Annie Smith. After a very enjoyable evening a game of whist was played and light refreshments were served.

Ladies Play Cards for Charity.

The second of the series of card parties to be given by the ladies of St. Michael's Guild took place Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Chas. Heath, 209 North Sixth street. The afternoon was devoted to grand and resulted in Mrs. E. W. Porter winning the first prize, a silver souvenir spoon, and Mrs. Harry B. Rigg the second prize, a dainty china sandwich set. Delicious refreshments of cake and coffee were served by Mrs. W. W. Gamble, Mrs. Charles Heath and Miss Bertha Getsch.

Mrs. W. W. Gamble entertained at luncheon Tuesday the ladies who took part in the play which was recently given by the members of the Woman's club.

The Congregational Men's Club met Monday evening with Dr. Holland E. Wight, 608 North Second street. There was a good attendance and a great amount of necessary business was transacted. It was decided to give a banquet Feb. 20 at the church and to make the affair a ladies' evening.

North End Card Club.

The North End Card Club was entertained Friday evening by Mrs. W. O. Bradbury and Mrs. George Dunbar. Grand was the game played at six tables during the evening. The members of the club include Dr. and Mrs. Holland Wight, Mr. and Mrs. George Dunbar, Mr. and Mrs. John Weigel, Mr. and Mrs. Theron F. Noble, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Janeck, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Janek, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heath, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morgan and Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Bradbury. The guests of the club for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Owen Jones, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Forman and Mr. and Mrs. Gauler.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Steinweg Entertained. Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Steinweg gave a delightful card party Thursday evening at their home, 204 North Sixth street. Grand was the game of the evening. A handsome stein was awarded to A. B. Weed, who held the highest men's score. The gentleman's second prize, a silver paper knife, was won by J. J. Rudkin. Miss Sue Lombard was the fortunate winner of the ladies' first prize, an Indian basket, and Mrs. A. B. Cline was awarded a dainty bonbon dish. Mrs. Howard Griggs of Bellingham and Miss Ida Sharkey assisted the hostess in serving delicious refreshments.

The Girls' club of the Congregational Sunday school gave an enjoyable social Friday evening at the home of Miss Rosalia Strobach. The club is composed of Miss Bridgeman's Sunday school class, and the young ladies have already put $75 in the bank to their credit.

To Witness W. S. C. Glee Club. Several theatre parties have been planned in honor of the Washington State College Glee club, which gives a performance here Monday, February 10.

You will not be in it if you don't dance in the Owls' Special, 11 to 12 p. m. the 14th.

WANTED—Hogs and pigs for pork and sausage. Bring 'em in to the Fulton market, corner of Chestnut and South First.

Go to the Fulton Market for fresh salmon, halibut and smelt. We solicit eggs and butter from the farmers. The Fulton Market.

CITY AND COUNTY NEWS

Brief Record of Local Happenings for the Week in North Yakima and Vicinity.

The Chinese of the city are now celebrating their New Year festivities. It is nothing unusual for the Chinks to set off a barrel of firecrackers at one time.

John D. Cornett made a business trip to Fort Simcoe last Tuesday. He says the roads on the reservation are fine, and the trip a most delightful one at this season of the year.

Attorney Ralph Williamson of the reclamation service was called to Tucson, Ariz., last week on some legal matters connected with the government work at that point.

Mr. and Mrs. James Fraser were among the interested spectators and seekers after knowledge at the meeting of the state horticulturists in Walla Walla recently.

W. Boyd has sold his ranch on the west side of the Naches to parties from the Sound, and will later move his family to this city.

John A. Kingsbury, formerly of this city, but now a resident of Albany, N. Y., is taking a prominent part in the state campaign for the prevention of tuberculosis. New York is waging a war against the disease. John is assistant secretary of the committee on prevention of tuberculosis. He graduated from the high school in this city, and was one of the brightest young fellows in his class.

DR. LOWTHER INJURED.

While Riding Horseback His Animal Stumbles and Falls.

Dr. Granville Lowther met with a painful, but not serious, accident last Tuesday evening while riding horseback on Nob Hill. The doctor had been in attendance upon a meeting of fruit growers at the Summitview school house. While riding home his horse stumbled in the dark, throwing the doctor violently against the horn of the saddle, the resultant injury being a severe one.

It was at first thought that the accident was much worse than later developed in the case. The doctor will be confined to his home for several days.

NELSON GETS $842

Yakima Valley Railroad Co. Hard Hit in Suit.

Claiming $2000 alleged damage against the North Yakima and Valley railroad company on account of the railroad running through his property in the Naches valley, the jury in the case returned a verdict Thursday morning awarding the plaintiff, T. B. Nelson, $842.

The company contended that Mr. Donald had paid Mr. Nelson $50, which was in satisfaction of all damages, and also paid for the land through which the road ran, conveying the idea that Nelson wanted the railroad and was perfectly willing to give the right-of-way. Nelson dissented, however, from this view of the case, and put it up to a jury which gave him the better of the argument.

MILLION DOLLAR COMPANY

Yakima Inter-Valley Electric Will Construct Line to Granger.

A million dollar company to be known as the Yakima Inter-Valley Electric Railway company, was incorporated in this city Tuesday afternoon and the papers filed, the incorporators being H. H. Lombard, A. B. Wilcox, J. H. Thomas, George P. Eaton, Chas. H. Furman and R. E. Page. Walter N. Granger was made a member of the incorporating committee.

The object of the company is to build an electric road from this city to Granger and the incorporators assert that work will be commenced immediately, with the intention of getting ready to do business by the time the 1908 harvest is ready for shipment.

Increase Your Profits

What's the use of going to all the expense of spraying and then have poor fruit? The secret of securing clean, fancy fruit is in spraying thoroughly with high, even pressure. The hired men have seldom done this because the pumps ran so hard, but they do it easily

By Using Bean Magic Spray Pumps

because they save just one-third the labor.
In the Spring Rests the Secret

The increase in profit from securing fancy fruit will alone pay for the outfit, and the easy-running, no trouble features found exclusively in the two sizes of Bean Magic pumps merit your immediate investigation. It seems almost too good to be true that all the new improvements can be had in one pump, but it is true and you will understand why when you see a Magic in operation.

We have samples of these pumps in stock and will be pleased to show them to you.
