OFFICIAL PAPER OF NORTH YAKIMA

THE British government and press have for years previous to the final outbreak of war in South Africa, made much of their grievance against the government of Oom Paul in the matter of the restrictions placed upon mining in the Johannesburg district. The sympathy of the world was appealed to by the "oppressed outlanders" against what was called the outrages perpetrated by the Boer government in the heavy taxes imposed upon the output of the mines. Now, it seems from the testimony of American mining engineers who have lived in the Transvaal, that in no case did the aggregate of taxes exacted by the Boers equal four per cent. of the total output of what are undeniably the richest mines in the world. So much for the Boers. Now, how about the English when gold is found in their territory? The Klondyke boom is too recent for Americans to soon forget the oppression practiced there by the hand of the government. Instead of being satisfied with from two to four per cent. as were the Boers, the Canadian government demanded ten per cent. and besides cut down the size of the claims to 100 feet, and on new creeks reserved one-half of the ground for itself. But governmental hoggishness did not end there. When gold was discovered at Lake Atlin by hardy American prospectors, the legislature of British Columbia—a province thoroughly English in sentiment—promptly passed a law which practically confiscated the holdings of all foreigners and decreed that none save subjects of the queen should have a share in the riches of Atlin. But the shoe is on the other foot when John Bull deals with the honest but benighted people of the Transvaal. Before the golden stores of the latter country were discovered John had no use for it, but conceded it to the homeless and heartbroken Dutch colonists, whom he drove out of their homes in the Cape country fifty years ago. Now that the mines of the country have proven so rich, England attempts to justify her war of conquest for the purpose of seizing them on the flimsy pretext of doing it for "humanity's sake." The crimes that are being committed against liberty by so-called enlightened nations is enough to make his satanic majesty turn green with envy and change his methods of doing business.

OUR old newspaper friend—who by virtue of his long and distinguished service as a leader in the local g. o. p. organization is now the postmaster of this village—asserts with considerable emphasis that this paper is unfortunately given to the habit of lying through its editorial paragraphs, and particularly so when passing criticism on the acts of the national administration. The ex-editor further volunteers the information that the red handed demon of imperialism, which we so much fear, is but a boggy—a man of straw—and that he, the postmaster, would give much just now for a newspaper organ with which to controvert our silly statements. Coming from such a distinguished and disinterested source, we feel the weight of this criticism; but still we trust our old friend will possess his soul in patience and bear with us a while longer. We hope that he will meditate prayerfully over the fact that it is a truism in nature, that "all things earthly must pass away," and that the time limit is already set upon the administration of which he is a component part. After the dissolution comes, and our old friend goes back to his sanctum and begins again in the old familiar role of an opposition editor, he can take his fill of vengeance upon Mr. Bryan's administration—and upon us.

A COMMUNICATION appears elsewhere in this issue from his excellency Gov. Rogers, relative to an article that appeared in this paper last week regarding a call made by Gov. Richards of Wyoming for a conference of western governors to be held at Salt Lake City on Dec. 14. The purpose of the meeting as outlined by Gov. Richards is to urge upon the general government a system which will provide for the rental of its grazing lands, thus creating a special fund to be used exclusively in the reclamation by the construction of irrigation systems, of the arid lands of the west. His excellency, it will be noted, while not openly opposed to the plan proposed, is inclined to be dubious of its feasibility, or of any good results coming from the Salt Lake meeting. While not assuming to criticize the attitude of the governor in the matter, we are inclined to think his view is rather pessimistic and that he is inclined to underestimate the influence that he himself might wield with the powers that be in Washington. As the governor is aware there are within the confines of his own state, millions of acres of rich soil that are of no earthly use to mankind without the application of the life giving water, which can be had only by artificial means and which entails in the majority of cases more expense than individuals can bear. The national government spends annually millions of dollars wrung from the people by taxation, in places where it is not needed simply because some cheap politicians have a "pull." Would it not be infinitely more wise to expend a portion of what is thus wasted in redeeming public land, whereby the homeless may procure homes. Such expenditures would much more than repay the investment. We again express the hope that his excellency will attend the meeting.

The influence given to the proposal of national irrigation by the endorsement of such a highminded body of men as will constitute the Salt Lake gathering, will be a big thing in the effort to induce congress to consider the matter. There is still another reason why his excellency should take a deep interest in this scheme. It has been his philosophy and an essential part of his public teaching that the government could and should do many things for its citizens that they cannot do for themselves and as a matter of fact we doubt if he has ever had a better opportunity to attempt to give life and reality to his principles than in the matter under discussion.

THERE is a significance in the fact that John Sherman, Thomas B. Reed, Ex-Secretary of the Treasury Boutwell, Senators Hoar and Mason and a thousand other prominent republicans, who have devoted their best energies and their eminent ability to perpetuate its existence and give fair fame to the republican party, should call a halt upon the rapid degeneration of the party of which they were once so proud. Ex-Postmaster General John Wanamaker recently said with emphasis, "My party has become a stench in the nostrils of decent men." This is the subdued sentiment of millions of free men.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

IMPERIALISM, the trust octopus and the single gold standard do not, as many people presume, represent three entirely distinct ideas or principles of government. Such a conception is erroneous and doubtless leads many good intentioned men astray. They are in reality one and the same thing and have a common parentage. All are born of plutocracy and have their origin in selfishness and lust of power. The natural effect of their application to affairs of government is to enrich and elevate the few and to impoverish and degrade the many.

MARKANA seems to have committed a fateful blunder during the Ohio campaign by coming out clearly in his frank and brutal way and espousing the cause of the trusts. This bold action on the part of Mark has aroused a chorus of protests from many of the small fry politicians, who had calculated on fooling the people with the same old rotten plank of opposition to trusts.

THE people of this country regardless of party, regret the death of the vice president. It is probably true that he was not of the stuff of which great statesmen are made and that political reasons brought about his sudden elevation in the political world; but he was undoubtedly a man of many good qualities and had the faculty of making and keeping friends.

How to Get Rich.

NORTH YAKIMA, Nov. 24.

Editor DEMOCRAT—In order to satisfy the inordinate though disinterested curiosity of a number of people, who have been industriously circulating reports regarding the sale of my property, I wish to state that it has not changed hands by foreclosure or otherwise, nor is there any probability of such sale, as I am not in a position where I am forced to sell. I would also like to remind the above mentioned individuals that lots of people have been known to become enormously wealthy by paying strict attention to their own business.

Respectfully,

TOURISTS ABROAD.

The Money They Spend Amounts to $700,000,000 a Year.

The amount of money expended by tourists in Europe has, if official records abroad are to be accepted as authentic, increased enormously of late years. There has been recently filed with the Swiss minister of finance and customs at Bern a detailed statement of hotel receipts in that country, from which it appears that the gross receipts of Swiss hotels rose from 52,800,000 francs in 1880 to 114,333,000 in 1894. The entire annual expenses of the Swiss republic amount in a year to between 80,000,000 and 90,000,000 francs (the budget for this year is given at the latter figure), and it would seem, therefore, very much as if the hotels of Switzerland take in in a year more than the government itself does.

The Swiss figures are not the only ones furnished in Europe recently on this point. A French record shows that every year there are 270,000 foreigners who pass from a fortnight to a whole winter on the Riviera. Every person is supposed to expend on an average 1,000 francs, or $200, in the country. In other words, the foreign visitors spend in the country every winter the sum of $54,000,000. The English are put down as contributing one-third of this amount; the French themselves contribute another third; Germans, Belgians, Dutch, Russians and Americans contribute the remainder. From being a poor country when it was annexed to France in 1860 Nice has become one of the richest departments of the republic.

Some figures recently compiled of the revenues to hotels from tourists in Paris show the average number of foreign visitors to be 60,000. It is customary to estimate at 10 francs, or $2, a day the hotel bills of strangers in Paris. Estimating at $2 a day each the hotel bills of 60,000 tourists and at about as much more their other outlays it is to be seen that tourists in Paris can be put down for an expenditure of nearly $250,000 a day.

The total sum expended by tourists in Europe in a year is probably not very far from $700,000,000, and a very considerable portion of this comes from the pockets, the purses and the bankers' balances of Americans, who are proverbially the most liberal among travelers. Russians come second, Brazilians third.—Exchange.

No Precedent Established.

Receiver J. J. Allen has just returned from Tacoma where he attended the hearing of petitions presented by W. H. Cadmon and W. R. Forrett for rebate of water tax. The parties had never used any water and thought they ought not to pay. Under the special circumstances the court rebated the water tax. Mr. Allen says that the statement of this action by the court as given in the Tacoma paper is misleading, as it would appear therefrom that all water tax would be rebated in case where no water has been used. This is an error. Every case must depend on its own circumstances. The contracts of the company require the tax to be paid in all cases, but a liberal rule is always adopted when circumstances justify.

Where the Bacteria Come From.

We might ask where they do not come from and have a very small list of places for an answer. They come from everywhere where there is dust. Nothing escapes them, everything is infected with them. Fortunately by far the greater per cent of them are harmless, and we forget that they are always present with us. It is only when the dairyman finds his milk off that he begins to inquire as to their birthplace and habitat. Perhaps the most prolific place around the farm is the cowhouse and its surroundings. The decomposing manure and urine form a nest in which bacteria multiply by millions. The silo adds its portion. The holes and corners, in which damp food is left to sour, hold other legions, and in fact every place where organic matter and water come together is a source of germs that come forth to give the dairyman trouble. There are many places where bacteria are useful and in their proper place, but be sure that the milk pail is not among the number. No germs belong there. The corners should not hold bacteria nor the cracks bacilli. See that the sides are not contaminated with micrococci, nor the bottom with diplococci. Keep them in the manure and the silo, where they belong. There they are at home, but in the milk pail they can only cause more kinds of trouble than is necessary, and the life of a dairyman is not so full of gayety that he can afford to decrease it in the least by want of attention to those small bodies which are at once his bane and his necessity.—Hoard's Dairyman.

The invention consists of a preparation of asbestos wool compressed into thin sheets by hydraulic pressure. These sheets are then waterproofed on one side by a special solution, and portions inserted into the boots as middle soles. Asbestos being a nonconductor of heat, its interpolation into the fabric of our boots and shoes in conjunction with a waterproof material has the effect of counteracting the influences of heat, cold and moisture. Asbestos lined boots cannot creak in wear, and are, besides, many times more flexible than boots made in the ordinary manner. Lastly, asbestos being a nonconductor of electricity, persons wearing boots thus made may walk over live electric wires in perfect safety.—Public Opinion.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Manager Bosdet of Mason's opera house, has made dates for the entire ensuing week with the popular and well known Shaw Dramatic Co

Married at the residence of W. T. Dixon in North Yakima, by Rev. Ellis W. Dixon, Mr. A. B. Hughes and Miss Clara Siverly, both of Ahtanum.

The ball given at Mason's opera house on Wednesday night for the benefit of the library, was quite a success financially and otherwise, something like $100 being cleared.

J. Schwartz last week sold his stock of goods, which were saved from the burned Rosenfeld building to the Golden Rule store. Mr. and Mrs. Schwartz on leaving here will probably locate in Seattle.

In addition to the names mentioned in another column, of parties spoken of as candidates for city officers are B. N. Coe (Doc) for city clerk and J. W. Thomas for city treasurer, as is also W. J. Roaf for the latter office.

Union Thanksgiving services will be held at the Congregational church Nov. 30 at 10:30 a. m. The sermon will be preached by Rev. Mr. Lyons of the Baptist church. Rev. Dent will have general charge of the services. An offering for the poor will be taken.

Dr. Newland, a well known physician of Ellensburg, died in that city on Monday from the effects of blood poisoning, which was produced by a malignant carbuncle that refused to yield to treatment. The deceased leaves a widow and two sons. He was well and favorably known in this city.

Captain Harry L. Wells of the late Second Oregon regiment, will deliver a lecture on "The Philippines" under the auspices of Company E N. G. W. at Switzer's opera house on next Monday evening. Captain Wells, so say our state exchanges, is an exceedingly interesting and entertaining speaker, and will, we predict draw a goodly sized audience.

J. C. Stoner, a leading Mennonite of Antrim county, Mich., arrived here on Sunday morning to look over the far famed valley of the Yakima, with the view of locating a colony of his people here, there being some 11 families in that locality desirous of moving here. Mr. Stoner is being shown about this week by W. F. Benson of the Moxee, a former neighbor with whom he has been in correspondence. The new comer is very favorably impressed with the country.

J. J. Miller of the Wenas, met with a painful and what might have proved a serious accident one night last week in Kittitas county. He was returning from Roslyn, where he had marketed a load of produce and, although the night was dark, he concluded to sleep in Ellensburg. The team going at a good gait chanced to bring the wagon in contact with a tree, with the result that the driver was suddenly dashed to the ground under the horses feet where he was trampled by the scared animals. He considers himself in great luck that he escaped with his life.

The intention of the City Council expressed at its last meeting, to open up and grade Yakima avenue to the western limits of the city and from thence (through an understanding with the board of county commissioners) to a junction with the county road on Nob Hill, seems to meet with general approval on the part of citizens. This highway when opened to travel, promises to become the leading thoroughfare into the city and at the same time a most beautiful driveway. Property value along the proposed street are already advancing in anticipation of the proposed improvement.

The hop growers association met again at the city hall on Saturday. A large number of growers were present although but little business was transacted, owing to the fact that a definite plan of organization had not yet been reported. It was resolved to hold a general meeting on Wednesday the 29th at the hour of 11 o'clock, and the secretary was instructed to mail an invitation to all growers to be present. The next meeting will probably be a very important one as it is expected that the new corporation will then be organized and a communication read from the Oregon organization.

Wholesale Thieving.

Tuesday night of this week carries the banner so far this season for wholesale street thieving in North Yakima, as common as the practice has been heretofore. On that night two bicycles and two saddles were boldly "swiped" from their owners and have not since been recovered. J. J. Macdonald, the well known dry goods merchant and A. F. Leckenby an employe at the power house, are the two victims of the wheel thieves, while George Van Buskirk of this city and Everett Stewart of Nob Hill are the two young men who are kicking themselves for leaving their horses tied on the street until a late hour and thus losing their saddles. Mr. Macdonald's wheel was left standing in the rack in front of his store and at 10 o'clock when the merchant concluded to ride home, the machine had disappeared. Leckenby at about the same hour, left his silent steed at the door of Short's saloon in the Yakima hotel block and on looking for it some 15 minutes later found the wheel gone.

Young George Van Buskirk who left his horse tied near the same place, missed his $25 saddle about the same time. Stewart had left his horse tied at the rail in front of the store of Taylor & Denley and going after the beast found him gone. The horse subsequently turned up at the ranch without the saddle.

The officers as yet it seems have no clue to the perpetrators of these outrages, although diligent search is being made. They believe that the several thefts were accomplished by the same gang and that the thieves are not very far away.

An Imperialistic Sermon.

The Rev. J. P. D. Llwyd preached an imperialistic sermon at the Congregational church last Sabbath in alleged memory of Washington's heroic dead. We did not hear much in the sermon to commend. In fact, stripped of its skunk-cabbage flowers and gauzy ribbons, there remained but the chill-steeled claim of the right of the strong to crush and destroy the weak and less enlightened. Said the preacher: "No sordid motive governs our presence here. Our guns are not thundering around the shores of Luzon for conquest or imperialism or trade development. We are there for the sake of the Filipinos."

It is indeed surprising that at this late day a man considered truthful would deliver himself of such random rubbish. "We are there for the sake of the Filipinos!" The reverend gentleman has not posted himself up to date, we fear. The hypocrisy of our pretending to be in the Philippines solely for the sake of the natives became so self-evident, absurd and false that courageous and plain spoken advocates of our conquest in Luzon have long since discarded that pretense. We are in the Philippines for "what there is in it." The question involved is, "Will it pay," as Senator Carter of Montana, frankly admitted in this city a couple of months ago. The administration is busy parcelling out special grants in the islands to American monopolists, we have studied the streets of Manila with saloons and dives, and sent over a barrel of whisky with every bible, and disease and cultivated vice to match. At a burdensome expense to American men with hoes is being maintained the men with guns, holding the "rebels" down in Luzon, while the land-grabbers and forest robbers and the rum sellers lug away their loot. This sort of benevolence is about as much "for the sake of the Filipinos" as the vandalism of the christian gentlemen who assimilated the tribal totem pole was for the sake of the Cape Fox Indians. Again the reverend gentleman said, "It is too late to ask how we got there"—which is equivalent to saying: "Now that we've got the totem pole and have planted it in Pioneer place, it is too late to inquire whether we stole it or not. Facts of possession must be realized as they now exist, for we have nothing to do with rights of ownership." We do not believe that the ministry is a class of cultured criminals, but every now and then there comes from one a plea for greed under the pretense of expanding christianity that does much to dishonor the pulpit dedicated to the service of the Nazarene. Christ did not send out armies to shoot salvation in the heathen with gattling guns.—Seattle Herald.

I am well satisfied that your Pioneer Cure saved me from a siege of sickness. On January 16th I was suffering impure blood in its worst form, dull headache, weak back, kidney trouble, sour and bitter tastes mornings, cattarrh, with palpitation of the heart. Today, May 21st, after using Pioneer Cure four months, I am almost well. I have tried other medicines and doctors without help. But Pioneer cure does the work. Everybody should know of this wonderful medicine. Use my name. Sam Kusche, Ortonville, Minn. Price 25c and $1. For sale by W. J. Roaf, North Yakima and Jas. Henderson, Sunnyside.

WANTED—To exchange for land here, a fine farm of 139 acres in Nebraska, well situated. Inquire at this office.

The Municipal Election.

A municipal election will be held in this city on Tuesday, Dec 5, for the election of a full set of city officials with the exception of two councilmen, (Keck and Hough) who hold over. The offices to be filled are mayor, clerk, attorney, treasurer and health officer, besides vacancies to be filled as follows: First ward, long term; Second ward, long term; Third ward long and short term, while one councilman is to be elected at large. The retiring members of the council are A. E. Poole at large, A. S. Hindeler, First ward; W. B. Dudley, Second ward and both Wilgus and Sinclair in the Third ward.

There seems as yet to be a dearth of candidates for places on the council and as most of the retiring members are averse to serving another term, considerable difficulty will probably be found in filling the vacant places with suitable material. The old council it is generally conceded, has made a most creditable record in handling the city's affairs and especially the liberal policy it has shown in the way of public improvement is to be commended by all who have the welfare of the city at heart.

A number of candidates have been mentioned for the mayoralty and the positions to which a salary is attached.

For mayor, the present incumbent O. A. Eechter and Ex-Mayor W. H. Redman are most prominently mentioned. For city clerk, H. B. Doust and Councilman G. S. Hough are in the field. For city attorney so far as known, there is no one especially desirous of filling the shoes of the present incumbent Vestal Snyder. For city treasurer the names most mentioned are the present incumbent L. O. Janeck and Nick Hardung, while for health officer Dr. P. Frank seems to have no opposition.

The scheme hatched by ambitious local politicians of the g. o. p. to run a straight republican ticket seems to have died a bornin, as it was evidently found after making a count of noses that a number of prominent men of that party refused to lend themselves to the scheme of dragging politics into a municipal election merely for the purpose of helping an anxious candidate or two into a paying job.

STATE PRESS OPINION

Anti-imperialism carried the day in Maryland. It was the permanent issue, besides which the specter of free silver became to the gold democrats a very tame shade.—Vancouver Register.

What if Mark Hanna should locate in Seattle and become political editor of the P.-I.? Wouldn't he rattle up the dry bones in the political morgue of the totem pole city!—Ehensburg Localizer.

It is a most remarkable circumstance that the British government being in complete control of all the cable communication between the continent of Europe and South Africa, has not been able to obtain any definite news from the British army since the 9th inst.—eight days ago.—Seattle Times.

Of the four states in which there was a real contest, the democrats carried Maryland, Nebraska and Kentucky, and the republicans saved Ohio by a minority vote of nearly 100,000. Nothing very discouraging to democrats in that.—Walla Walla Argus.

After our work of "benevolent assimilation" in the Philippines has been fully consummated, what a magnificent crop of carpet baggers will develop in this country. As Carl Schurz aptly put it, the islands will be a green pasture for needy politicians.—Seattle Review.

With wheat at 39 cents, and prices of clothing, sacks and farm machinery going up, republicans will have as hard work to convince the Palouse farmers that McKinley prosperity prospers, as they did to demonstrate that the foreigner pays the tax.—Colfax Commoner.

McKinley, the magician who brought prosperity to the trusts, is strangely neglecting the poor farmer these days. He seems to have forgotten the wheat grower and the corn producer and is allowing these commodities to sink lower and lower in price. A little of the dollar wheat and 50 cent corn promised in 1896 would come handy now in aiding the farmer to pay his war taxes and his tribute to the trusts and monopolies fostered by the high tariff.—Walla Walla Argus.

The Montesano Independent says Dewey is a brave man of good, common sense; so is Schley. But the most remarkable man in the United States today is William J. Bryan. No other man in the country could stand up in the face of the crushing power of the trusts and monopolies and do battle for the people as he has done for the past three years. His career since his nomination for the presidency is unequalled in history and even republicans are beginning to acknowledge his ability and honesty of purpose.—Centralia News.

In the house of commons May 8, 1896, Hon. Joseph Chamberlain made the following prophecy: "A war in South Africa would be one of the most serious wars that could possibly be waged. It would be in the nature of a civil war. It would be a long war, a bitter war and a costly war. As I have pointed out, it would leave behind it the embers of a fire which I believe generations would find long enough to extinguish. To go to war with president Kruger in order to force upon him reforms in the internal affairs of his state, with which successive secretaries of state standing in this place have repudiated all right of interference—that would have been a course of action as immoral as it would have been unwise."—Tacoma News.

It is with a feeling of profound sorrow, not anger, that the sincere American views the present movement of a large number of his fellows toward imperialism. America has been the hope and health of republican philosophy for a century and a quarter, and if it now must fall and support a felonious cause whose keen iniquities gave birth to crying needs for the formation of this republic, it is a matter for the deepest grief to which humanity is heir. It is not a subject of partisan littleness; it is not only a national question—it is a step, this way or that, for the good or ill of humanity the world over for countless years. Can the profits of a wholesale bead house stand for such world-treasures as these?—Whatcom Blade.

Big Money in Apples.

Experience has demonstrated to many farmers of this valley that taking one year with another, that no other crop that they can produce will begin to make as favorable returns for the amount of labor and money invested as will fruit. This is particularly true as regards apples. Nothing on the ranch pays like the big red apples. If you have a patch of land and want to become independent in a few years, plant it to apples. If you want to be successful, however, you must use great caution in selecting your trees. What you should plant is clean, thrifty, home-grown trees of the best commercial varieties, taken fresh from the nursery row. THE CENTRAL WASHINGTON NURSERY, CHAS. S. SIMPSON, PROPRIETOR, can meet all of the above requirements of the careful orchardist. If you contemplate planting an orchard, it will pay you to see Mr. Simpson and inspect his fine stock. Prices reasonable. Nursery located south of state fair grounds. 9tf

Justice Brewer on Imperialism.

Judge David J. Brewer, associate justice of the supreme court of the United States, is a good American citizen, besides being something of a lawyer and a thinker. Yet he comes in Teddy Roosevelt's category of "copperheads," "cowards" and lunatics." Judge Brewer says of imperialism in the Philippine islands and elsewhere.

"This is no trifling question, and it is not answered by any gush about duty and destiny; in fact, all this talk about destiny is wearisome. We make our own destiny. We are not the victims but masters, of fate, and to attempt to unload upon the Almighty the responsibility for that which we choose to do is not only an insult to Him, but to ordinary human intelligence.

"We are told that we have become so great and powerful that the world needs us. It is not the touch of our power that the world most needs, but the blessing of our example. It needs the bright example of a free people, not disturbed by any illusion of territorial acquisition, of pecuniary gain or military glory, but content with the abilities, activities and industries of their wisest most earnest men to make the life of each individual citizen happier, better and more content.

"My friends, two visions rise before me. One of a nation growing in population, riches and strength, reaching out the strong hand to bring within its dominion weaker and distant races and lands; holding them by force for the rapid wealth they may bring—with perhaps the occasional glory, success and sacrifice of war—a wondrously luxurious life into which the fortunate few shall enter, an accumulation of magnificence which for a time will charm and dazzle, and then the shadow of the awful question whether human nature has changed, and the old law, that history repeats itself, has lost its force; whether the ascending splendor of imperial power is to be followed by descending gloom of luxury, decay and ruin. The other of a nation where the spirit of the Pilgrim and the Huguenot remains the living and controlling force, affirming that the declaration of independence, the farewell address of the father of his country and the Monroe doctrine shall never pass into innocuous desuetude, devoting its energies to the development of the inexhaustible resources of this great continental territory; solving the problem of universal, personal and political liberty, of a government by the consent of the governed, where no king no class and no race rules, but each individual has equal voice and power in the control of all; where wealth comes only as the compensation of honest toil of hand or brain; where public service is private duty; a nation whose supreme value to the world lies not in its power but in its unflinching loyalty to the high ideals of its youth, its forever lifting its strong hand, not to govern, but only to protect the weak; and thus the bright shining, which brightens more and more in the fadeless eternal day.

"Brethren, Ebal and Gerizim are before us. Might and right stand on either side with their great appeals. Paraphrasing in part in the invocation which attends the opening of the supreme court, God save the United States of America and keep them from the road so often traveled by nations, of increasing territory, accumulating dominion, rapidly and easily acquired wealth, luxurious splendor, a growing separation between the poor and the rich, presaging decay and death, and may we always hear the solemn prayer of Abraham Lincoln borne upward to heaven from the consecrated field of Gettysburg upon the mighty volume of incense which ever rises from that sacred spot, that government of and by and for the people may never perish from the earth. —Seattle Review.

No Use For Markana.

The traveling salesmen of Ohio were practically solid for McKinley in 1896. The trusts have been forcing this class of men out of employment at such a rate as to bring them to a realization of the beauties of Hannanism. At a meeting of traveling salesmen held at Columbus, Oct. 28th, the following resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, by a comparison of prices of 1899 as against those of 1898, we find an advance of from 50 to 150 per cent in almost every household necessity: and,

Whereas, the Honorable Marcus A. Hanna, the political Godfather of the republican party, takes great pleasure in declaring trusts are a good thing; therefore,

Resolved, that we denounce the republican party as the mother of trusts, and pledge our best efforts to defeat Hannanism.—Seattle Review.

Thanksgiving to Roosevelt.

Governor Roosevelt's Thanksgiving proclamation is brief and pointed. It calls upon the people to give thanks for the blessing of having Roosevelt and McKinley to rule over them, and exhorts them to conduct themselves in such a manner as to merit a continuance of that privilege. Statistically the proclamation essays as follows:

PERSONAGES	TIMES MENTIONED
I.....	1
Theodore Roosevelt.....	2
Governor of the state of New York.....	1
God.....	0

A Thanksgiving proclamation with no reference whatever to a Supreme Being is something of a curiosity. Even when all religion was banned in France during the revolution, Robespierre had a feast of the "Etre Supreme," as Sir Henry Irving has reminded us. But doubtless Governor Roosevelt thinks that there is no occasion in this state for any being higher than himself, except of course, Platt.—New York Journal.

This shows what thousands have proved—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. #### City Council Proceedings.

The city dads convened in regular session on Monday evening with a full attendance. Owing to the fact that there had been no meeting for the space of four weeks a large grist of business had accumulated which required the council several hours to dispatch.

The minutes of the preceeding meeting were read and approved.

A petition was read from a number of North end residents for the placing of an arc light at the corner of Second and A streets. Referred.

A petition was read from the local I. O. G. T. lodge, praying that the council take the necessary action to prohibit all games of chance and the regulation of saloons. Referred to police committee.

A petition was read from a number of property owners on North Third street asking for the grading of that thoroughfare. The petition was granted and a resolution of intention relative to the same passed.

A communication was read from D. J. Stevens offering to repair the roof of the city hall for the sum of $40. Referred to committee on public improvements with power to act.

A remonstrance was read from certain property owners of block 8 Front street against the acceptance of a sidewalk laid there. Investigation developed the fact that the sidewalk had already been accepted and most of the assessments paid.

The report of the street and ditch committee on the assessment for the Natches avenue grading was accepted by the council.

A resolution of intention was read for the opening of Yakima avenue to the western limits of the city.

Col. Howlett then addressed the council favoring the opening of the street, but insisted that the same should be extended to the county road on Nob Hill.

The resolution was passed and the street and ditch committee instructed to confer with the board of county commissioners in order to secure the co-operation of the county in the matter.

City Treasurer Janeck asked the council to authorize the mayor and clerk to draw a warrant for the sum of $1802.25 for the purpose of liquidating the semi-annual interest on the city's sewer bonds, which the council granted.

An ordinance was then passed for the establishment of an improvement district for the purpose of building a sidewalk on Third street.

A communication was read from Wm. Aumiller demanding the sum of $75 for the temporary use of his shack south of town as a pest house. Referred to committee on health.

The reports of municipal officers for October, were then read. The report of the city sexton showed that there had been 14 funerals for the month. The marshal's report showed that there had been 92 arrests for the month, while police Judge Taggard reported the collection of $130 in fines from various sources.

A large grist of city bills were then read and ordered paid.

Health officer Frank addressed the council and stated that a large amount of filth was being dumped into the Schanno ditch.

After a long discussion over minor matters and the transaction of much routine business the city dads adjourned.

The Shaw Company Next Week.

This is what the Seattle Daily Times has to say of the Shaw Co. who open their engagements here Nov. 27 for one week. Prices 25c 35c and 50c. Reserved seats at usual place:

The splendid productions of the Shaw company of "Jim the Penman" and "Held by the Enemy" has induced the Third Avenue Theatre management to extend the Shaw Company's engagement two weeks. This has necessitated Mr. Shaw's cancelling his Tacoma date. Commencing Sunday night the company will produce Nat Goodwin's ideal comedy drama "In Mizouri." The play is one of the best in the Shaw company's repertoire, having been played by them many times during the past two seasons. An excellent production may be looked for, as the cast of characters is especially adapted to the parts. Mr. Shaw will be seen as the plucky Missouri deputy sheriff, the character played by Nat Goodwin. On Tuesday and Wednesday nights the great English melodrama, "The Brand of Cain" will be the bill. On Thursday night and Saturday matinee Joseph Jefferson's immortal version of "Rip Van Winkle," with Mr. Shaw as Rip, a part in which he is very successful, will be given. Friday and Saturday evenings Fred Brighton's great melodrama, "The Jack o' Diamonds," will fill out a week of good standard plays. The excellent performances of the Shaw Company have brought to the Third Avenue Theatre a new clientel of patrons. During the past week large and fashionable audiences have been the rule, composed largely of Seattle's most intelligent theatre-goers. For next week the Shaw Company will give two new productions.

"Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery, by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New discovery for consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose, that she slept all night; and with two bottles, has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz. Thus writes W. C. Hamnick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at Louis O. Janeck's drug store. Regular size 50c and $1. Every bottle guaranteed.

The Mauser rifle to be used by the Boers against the English is the same weapon the Filipino insurgents used against the American volunteers. It is one of the best magazine rifles made, and has even a smaller caliber than Krag-Jorgensen used by our regular army. The ammunition is the best quality of German smokeless powder. Against this our volunteers were pitted with the old-fashioned, single fire, large-caliber Springfield, with only about half the range of the Mauser, and with black powder ammunition, which made a cloud of smoke easily seen by the enemy, and which obscured the vision of our own men. In his lecture Captain Wells will show pictures of volunteers fighting with this inferior weapon, and yet routing the superior armed enemy and driving them from heavy intrenchments. # WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 17, 1899.

Republican members of the house are scrambling as eagerly as though the big prize—the speakership—had not been awarded months ago. Cannon and Hitt, both of Illinois, have been assured of retaining their places at the head of the Appropriation and Foreign committees; consequently there is no fight upon either of them, not because the selections are acquiesced in but because they know that fighting will be useless. The biggest fight is over the chairmanship of the Ways and Means committee, which carries with it the floor leadership of the party. Payne, of New York, was chairman of that committee, after the death of Mr. Dingley, in the last house, and he claims it again. But several other members, including Dalzell, of Pa., and Hopkins of Ill., think they have equal claims, and as Mr. Payne is not over popular with members they are getting strong backing. The fact that Illinois is already booked for two big chairmanships will probably operate against Hopkins. A big shake-up is likely in the membership of the committee on banking and currency, which was packed by Reed for the especial purpose of preventing its reporting a financial bill. In this house it is to be packed for the purpose of reporting a financial bill, the one declaring for the single gold standard, to which Mr. Henderson is thoroughly committed. The job of reorganizing the committee was made easy for Mr. Henderson by the failure of some of its most prominent members, including its chairman—"Joe" Walker of Mass.—to return to the house. The old Reed officers of the house are all fighting for re-election.

The latest imperialistic dream includes a combination between this government, Great Britain and Germany, for the purpose of dominating the commerce and preserving the peace of the world. Some believe that this combination has already been partially made.

The cruiser Charleston, wrecked of the coast of the island of Luzon, although one of the oldest ships of our new navy, was worth more than half a million dollars, and that sum may now be added to the large and rapidly growing amount that this country is paying for imperialism.

What readers of this paper have known for sometime—that Boss Platt was scheming to get Gov. "Teddy" Roosevelt on the ticket with Mr. McKinley next year—is beginning to be fully understood by friends of other would-be running mates of Mr. McKinley. That Platt was working with the knowledge and consent of Roosevelt has been suspected from the first, and now it is practically certain. Roosevelt told a prominent New York republican the other day that if the party managers wished him to run for the vice presidency he would accept. Humph! of course he would accept, and bealmighty glad of the opportunity, too.

According to what seems to be trustworthy information, the administration is secretly dickering with Aguinaldo. It is said that Gen. Otis was instructed to open communication with Aguinaldo and submit certain propositions from this government to him, and that Otis replied that he had forwarded the dispatches to Gen. McArthur, with instructions to get them to Aguinaldo, if he could find him. Not a word of information as to the nature of the propositions submitted to Aguinaldo, or rather which this government is trying to submit to him, can be had in official circles, further than a statement that they relate to Spanish prisoners.

Why the preliminary report of the Philippine commission, which was forced by Mr. McKinley for use in Ohio, did not throw any bouquets at Gen. Otis has been ascertained. Admiral Dewey put his foot down on the report containing a single sentence of praise for Otis. And that isn't all that has become known. Admiral Dewey while declining to criticize Otis, told Mr. McKinley that if the American army had been commanded by the right sort of an officer there would have been no war with the Filipinos. That is said to have been the principal reason for curtailing the authority of Otis, by fixing it so that Gens. McArthur, Lawton and Wheaton, would be left free to fight the troops under them in their own way during the present campaign against Aguinaldo.

Very few democratic senators and representatives have yet reached Washington, for the session of congress shortly to open. But those who have been in Washington since the state elections have all been disposed to regard the outlook for democratic success next year as decidedly favorable. With a majority of votes in the president's own state, where vast sums of money were used, against his party's candidate, they do not even regard that state as sure to go for McKinley. It is, they believe, merely a question of uniting the anti-republican vote to elect the next president, and the republican congress may assist materially in doing that.

It's a matter of record—dangerous coughs—chest and lung pains have been checked and cured in the course of a few days with Mull's Lightning cough cure when everything else failed. Pure and safe for children. 25c. For sale by W. J. Roaf, North Yakima and James Henderson, Sunnyside.

The Council at the time and place designated in said notice may amend and revise said list if necessary to render the same fair and equitable, and may raise the assessment without further notice than herein provided and may adjourn from time to time until the work of amendment and revision is completed.

It shall be the duty of the City Treasurer to report at the first meeting of the City Council to be held after such assessment becomes delinquent, to the City Council, what portion of said assessment has been paid, by whom paid, what portion is delinquent, together with a description of the lots or lands upon which said assessments are delinquent included in the said local improvement district together with the names of the owners, if known, and thereupon it shall be the duty of the City Attorney under the direction of the City Council to enforce by proper proceedings the lien of said assessment upon the lots or lands in said local improvement district against which the assessments have not been paid.

SEC. 11. When assessments are collected by the City Treasurer the same shall constitute a special fund to be known as "Local Improvement District No. 15 Fund" and the same shall be applied in payment of the cost of the improvement herein provided for and to no other purpose and on presentation of any warrant or warrants drawn against said fund the treasurer shall take up said warrant or warrants drawn against the same out of any moneys in said fund in the order of the issuance of said warrants, or endorse on the back thereof the date and amount of any payment made, if not paid in full.

Governor Rogers On the Richards Convention,
OLYMPIA Wash., Nov. 21, 1899.

Editor DEMOCRAT—I note that your paper calls attention to the fact that Governor Richards of Wyoming, has called a convention, to be held on December 14, at Salt Lake City, for the purpose of consulting regarding legislation to be had by the general government on the question of arid lands. This, however, is a matter for our senators and congressmen to take up. Governors have no legislative powers.

I have had some correspondence with Governor Richards, but am unable to see what good could be done by the proposed convention. It might be sure, recommend to congress the passage of a law but the only effective law would be the assumption on the part of the general government of the entire charge of the whole business of irrigating public lands at national expense. This would call for the expenditure of enormous sums of money and it is not at all probable that congress would take up the matter because of the fact that nothing could be done without the appropriation of a very large amount of money.

Notwithstanding the liability of collusion and fraud in the construction of works of irrigation by the national government, I am inclined to think that I should favor the plan, though I do not think that my wishes would have any influence with congress whatever.

I should be very glad, indeed, to appoint any citizen of Washington interested in irrigation, to attend the proposed convention.

I presume Governor Richards' convention will have about as much influence on irrigation by the general government as the convention called by Governor Sayer of Texas, which was attended by seven governors out of 45, did in the matter of trusts. However, if you have any special plan to propose I shall be glad to hear of it.

J. R. ROGERS, Governor.
