Mr. Glenn Dawson,
Dawson's Book Shop,
550 S. Figueroa St., Los Angeles, Calif.

Dear Mr. Dawson:

Thank you for your letter of June 29, regarding the Yakima Treaty Centennial booklet, and my own forthcoming publication, Drummers and Dreamers.

In order that you can get a little better idea of these unusual Wanapums and their human story, I am enclosing a few random newspaper clippings of recent date.

I am also enclosing a circular in the hope that you may see fit to place an advance order at this time through me. Any activity in which I become involved, a wish to do a good job, and have moved into the promotion. In event a Caxton salesman contacts you periodically, this will not interfere with his order, but will be credited by the company to him. And you will receive the customary 40 per cent discount.

As you know, the advance orders help the publisher ascertain the number to be published.

In due time, Caxtons will send you circulars with your imprint, (1,000 instead of 500) since 1,000 is the minimum they print with the dealer's name.

I am hopeful you will see your way clear to order more than two or three copies, since I am satisfied this item will go fairly well. And as you can well guess, the publication will probably not be extensive.

Sincerely
