

Scanning of Microfilm typescripts. Most early records historical material, eventual Yakima tribes and bands, preparations for moving to Simcoe, The Dalles, White Salmon Agency.

Oregon Superintendency of Indian Affairs, 1848-73

Roll 14-Mostly Oregon, Columbia River, preparations for moving to White Salmon, salt salmon exhausted. Walla Walla information, no Colville. Estimated 150 pps.

Oregon Superintendency of Indian Affairs-1848-73, Roll 12

Dalles, traders, Clatsops, Chinooks,

Council with ~~Waxxa~~ Cayuse, June 27, 1851 at Lapwai.

Census of tribes of Oregon, Upper Columbia, roving bands referred to but no census enclosed, transmitted Aug. 3/4/1849

Liquor sales at the Dalles "a man named Olney" 1850

Letter, Oct. 25, 1850-Setting up treaty commissioners under Act of 5th of June last, duties outlined.

1851, Congress abrogates officers of treaty commission, directs officers and agents shall be named by the President.

Feb. 7, 1852-Chief of Des Chutes Indians complains to Umatilla agency that "Mr. Olney has taken his right to ferry at Des Chutes. Other complaints expressed against Americans "not good to the Indians."

Asks legal opinion "Can emigrants claim this side of Cascade Range with or without consent of Indian tribes; Can the legislator (sic) pass a law giving individuals rights in the Indian country with or without their consent and has it passed a law for the Olney benefit at the Deschutes ferry?" Inquiry made by Elias Wampol, Umatilla station, asks that laws be sent to him at Dalles.

Letter, I.I. Woods, 1st arty. commanding post at the Dalles to T.P. Gaines, governor of Oregon Indians complain they not paid for horses and cattle used by whites in Cayuse War, June 17, 1852. Few Indians named.

Letter from the Dalles, June 17, 1852 to Jno. P. Gaines.. Indian council "through lawful chief, Kaskillah, asks for doctor because of diseases brought in by emigrants and" loathsome diseases brought amongst us by soldiers and sailors called venereal."

May 31, 1852, from Commissioner, gives detailed instructions for census, tribes, their history etc.

Aug. 9, 1852, letter from Spokane Garry complains of religious dissension, asks Catholics be withdrawn.

Pre-treaty conditions on the coast in other letters.

Miscellaneous Letters Received, No. 5, Roll 23, mixed file

Olney communication regarding war.

The Dalles Agency, Jan. 20, 1856 "band of Klikitats numbering 15 who went off at start of war return to old homes north side of Columbia at Mr. Joslyn's place, opposite Dog River (Hood River) (Joslyn's place was White Salmon, later location of Yakima gathering before moving to Simcoe, agency was located here)

Complaint made Olney takes horses from friendly Indians in the Walla Walla. (He later explains in communication)

Cascades, April 14, 1856, Attack on.

Olney letters from the Dalles.

Dalles, May 1, 1856, Agent Thompson assigns as fishery to Indians "from the falls below the mouth of the Deschutes to the Dalles." Other letters regarding friendly Indians

Dalles, May 22, 1852 P. Humason, agent to Palmer, Indians moved to fishery, badly in need of twine to make nets "Holland twine to be had at HBCo is a good article for nets."

Letter, June 8, 1856, letter, William H. Dillon, a citizen to Gov. Stevens regarding a Mr. Fields at Vancouver Indians to send Klickitat Indians held at Vancouver to fishery 7 miles below Vancouver.

"I am not posted in proper owners of the soil but it is my general understanding that this band of Klickitat Indians at Vancouver did not own the land here or occupy the fishery."

Roll 17

Local Agency, Cascades, W.T. Aug. 1, 1856 Letter from W.K. Sears to Stevens, asks permission to move Indians from Cascades to mouth of the White Salmon because of trouble with the whites. "The whites at this place will not allow them to fish on the river. " All belong to the White Salmon except two families.

Letters from the Dalles, Roll 17, Ft. Dalles, O.T. Aug. 26, Elit Palmer and Tah Kill with bands of 250 came in, destitute. (From agent F. Robie)

Washington Superintendency, Roll 17, Vancouver, W.T. Sept. 2nd, 1856 J. Cain to Gov. I.I. Stevens

"On 25th Aug. I commenced to remove all the Indians at this place to their new home. At the Cascades some impediments was put in the way, etc.

Oregon Superintendency, Roll 14, Agency Dalles, Sept. 24, 1856 R.R. Thompson to A.F. Hedges. "Report on Indians and condition at the Dalles, 2,000, came in too late to catch salmon.

Washington Superintendency, Roll 17 to Stevens from A. Townsend, local agent, White Salmon, Oct. 7, 1856... 300 Klickitats due in a few days. I have about 220 Vancouver Indians, 115 Cascades and the others I think will swell their numbers to near 700."

Roll 11, microcopy 2, p 145.. instructions for R.R. Thompson, Indian agent from Joel Palmer "the country above the Dalles for all purposes connected with the Indian Dept. must be recognized as Indian country and you will strictly enforce the laws of congress regulating trade and intercourse." Frequent complaints about whiskey.

Washington Superintendency, Roll 17, Vancouver W.T. Dec. 12, 1856 J. Cain, local agent to Stevens. Information received from local agent Noble at White Salmon, Mr. Townsond (sic) reports 1,000 to 1,100 Indians; Simcoe valley 1,200, making 3,000 to 3,300 all told

One object to get Indians out of influence of the Dalles is out of reach of liquor and more remote from hostiles gathered there. Many Indians in starving condition east of the Cascades. Reports of gold discovered in the Colville.

Vancouver, W.T. Dec. 17, 1856, Cain to Stevens

Estimate it will take 1,500 lbs of flour per day for January, 233 bls at cost of $550 to $700 at least one beef a day, $90, three months $16,263.

Scanning of Microfilm typescripts. Most early records historical material, eventual Yakima tribes and bands, preparations for moving to Simcoe, The Dalles, White Salmon Agency.

Oregon Superintendency of Indian Affairs, 1848-73

Roll 14-Mostly Oregon, Columbia River, preparations for moving to White Salmon, salt salmon exhausted. Walla Walla information, no Colville. Estimated 150 pps.

Oregon Superintendency of Indian Affairs-1848-73, Roll 12

Dalles, traders, Clatsops, Chinooks,

Council with ~~Waxxa~~ Cayuse, June 27, 1851 at Lapwai.

Census of tribes of Oregon, Upper Columbia, roving bands referred to but no census enclosed, transmitted Aug. 3/4/1849

Liquor sales at the Dalles "a man named Olney" 1850

Letter, Oct. 25, 1850-Setting up treaty commissioners under Act of 5th of June last, duties outlined.

1851, Congress abrogates officers of treaty commission, directs officers and agents shall be named by the President.

Feb. 7, 1852-Chief of Des Chutes Indians complains to Umatilla agency that "Mr. Olney has taken his right to ferry at Des Chutes. Other complaints expressed against Americans "not good to the Indians."

Asks legal opinion "Can emigrants claim this side of Cascade Range with or without consent of Indian tribes; Can the legislator (sic) pass a law giving individuals rights in the Indian country with or without their consent and has it passed a law for the Olney benefit at the Deschutes ferry?" Inquiry made by Elias Wampol, Umatilla station, asks that laws be sent to him at Dalles.

Letter, I.I. Woods, 1st arty. commanding post at the Dalles to T.P. Gaines, governor of Oregon Indians complain they not paid for horses and cattle used by whites in Cayuse War, June 17, 1852. Few Indians named.

Letter from the Dalles, June 17, 1852 to Jno. P. Gaines.. Indian council "through lawful chief, Kaskillah, asks for doctor because of diseases brought in by emigrants and "loathsome diseases brought amongst us by soldiers and sailors called venereal."

May 31, 1852, from Commissioner, gives detailed instructions for census, tribes, their history etc.

Aug. 9, 1852, letter from Spokan Garry complains of religious dissension, asks Catholics be withdrawn.

Pre-treaty conditions on the coast in other letters.

Miscellaneous Letters Received, No. 5, Roll 23, mixed file

Olney communication regarding war.

The Dalles Agency, Jan. 20, 1856 "band of Klikitats numbering 15 who went off at start of war return to old homes north side of Columbia at Mr. Joslyn's place, opposite Dog River (Hood River) (Joslyn's place was White Salmon, later location of Yakima gathering before moving to Simcoe, agency was located here)

Complaint made Olney takes horses from friendly Indians in the Walla Walla. (He later explains in communication)

Cascades, April 14, 1856, Attack on.

Olney letters from the Dalles.

Dalles, May 1, 1856, Agent Thompson assigns as fishery to Indians "from the falls below the mouth of the Deschutes to the Dalles." Other letters regarding friendly Indians

Dalles, May 22, 1852 P. Humason, agent to Palmer, Indians moved to fishery, badly in need of twine to make nets "Holland twine to be had at HBCo is a good article for nets."

Letter, June 8, 1856, letter, William H. Dillon, a citizen to Gov. Stevens regarding a Mr. Fields at Vancouver Indians to send Klickitat Indians held at Vancouver to fishery 7 miles below Vancouver.

"I am not posted in proper owners of the soil but it is my general understanding that this band of Klickitat Indians at Vancouver did not own the land here or occupy the fishery."

Roll 17

Local Agency, Cascades, W.T. Aug. 1, 1856 Letter from W.K. Sears to Stevens, asks permission to move Indians from Cascades to mouth of the White Salmon because of trouble with the whites. "The whites at this place will not allow them to fish on the river. " All belong to the White Salmon except two families.

Letters from the Dalles, Roll 17, Ft. Dalles, O.T. Aug. 26, Elit Palmer and Tah Kill with bands of 250 came in, destitute. (From agent F. Robie)

Washington Superintendency, Roll 17, Vancouver, W.T. Sept. 2nd, 1856
J. Cain to Gov. I.I. Stevens

"On 25th Aug. I commenced to remove all the Indians at this place to their new home. At the Cascades some impediments was put in the way, etc.

Oregon Superintendency, Roll 14, Agency Dalles, Sept. 24, 1856 R.R. Thompson to A.F. Hedges. "Report on Indians and condition at the Dalles, 2,000, came in too late to catch salmon.

Washington Superintendency, Roll 17 to Stevens from A. Townsend, local agent, White Salmon, Oct. 7, 1856... 300 Klickitats due in a few days. I have about 220 Vancouver Indians, 115 Cascades and the others I think will swell their numbers to near 700."

Roll 11, microcopy 2, p 145.. instructions for R.R. Thompson, Indian agent from Joel Palmer "the country above the Dalles for all purposes connected with the Indian Dept. must be recognized as Indian country and you will strictly enforce the laws of congress regulating trade and intercourse." Frequent complaints about whiskey.

Washington Superintendency, Roll 17, Vancouver W.T. Dec. 12, 1856 J. Cain, local agent to Stevens. Information received from local agent Noble at White Salmon, Mr. Townsend (sic) reports 1,000 to 1,100 Indians; Simeoe

valley 1,200, making 3,000 to 3,300 all told

One object to get Indians out of influence of the Dalles is out of reach of liquor and more remote from hostiles gathered there. Many Indians in starving condition east of the Cascades. Reports of gold discovered in the Colville.

Vancouver, W.T. Dec. 17, 1856, Cain to Stevens

Estimate it will take 1,500 lbs of flour per day for January, 233 lbs at cost of $550 to $700 at least one beef a day, $90, three months $16,263.

Oregon and Washington Superintendency

The Ore & Wash Suptcy was divided by act of Congress of Feb. 8, 1861
See: March 2, 1861; commissioner of Indian Affairs to Wm. W. Miller.
Notifies him of his appointment as Superintendent for the Territory of
Washington. ("Letters Received from Commissioner; 1861")

See also: August 1, 1861; Edw. R. Geary to W.W. Miller. (Wash. Suptcy.
1861. (Misc.) Letters Received) This letter acknowledges the receipt of an official letter informing him of the approval of Superintendent ~~xx~~
Miller's bond, and announces his (Geary's) readiness to turn over papers
etc. pertaining to Washington Territory.

For information as to records see: Sept. 6, 1861 Rector to Miller, which says: "All the files and records appertain strictly to Oregon."

For convenience, all letters addressed to W.W. Miller beginning in April, 1861, have been labeled "Washington Superintendency." The formal transfer of Superintendency records and property did not take place until August 1861.

For other info re: separation of the Indian affairs of the two territories, see: Sept. 16, 1861: Chas. Hutchins to Supt. Kendall(?)
(Misc) Letters Recd.

[microfilm note]

Oregon and Washington Superintendency

The Ore & Wash Suptcy was divided by act of Congress of Feb. 8, 1861
See: March 2, 1861; commissioner of Indian Affairs to Wm. W. Miller.
Notifies him of his appointment as Superintendent for the Territory of
Washington. ("Letters Received from Commissioner; 1861")

See also: August 1, 1861; Edw. R. Geary to W.W. Miller. (Wash. Suptcy.
1861. (Misc.) Letters Received) This letter acknowledges the receipt of an official letter informing him of the approval of Superintendent
Miller's bond, and announces his (Geary's) readiness to turn over papers
etc. pertaining to Washington Territory.

For information as to records see: Sept. 6, 1861 Rector to Miller,
which says: "All the files and records appertain strictly to Oregon."

For convenience, all letters addressed to W.W. Miller beginning in April, 1861, have been labeled "Washington Superintendency." The formal transfer of Superintendency records and property did not take place
until August 1861.

For other info re: separation of the Indian affairs of the two territories, see: Sept. 16, 1861: Chas. Hutchins to Supt. Kendall (?)
(Misc) Letters Recd.

[microfilm note]