ELIGIBILITY CLAUSE.

ARTICLE III OF THE CONSTITUTION.

SECTION 1. Any girl under eighteen years or boy under twenty-one years of age may be eligible for membership in this Society who is lineally descended from a man or woman who with unfailing loyalty rendered material aid to the cause of American Independence as a soldier, sailor, civil officer, or recognized patriot in one of the several Colonies or States or of the United Colonies or States.

When the applicant derives eligibility of membership by descent from more than one ancestor, and it is desired to take advantage thereof, the history of each of said ancestor's services and the intermediate generations of the pedigree may all be written upon these pages; but it is desired that the history of EACH ANCESTOR shall be written upon a SEPARATE BLANK when possible.

State fully the documentary or other authority upon which you found the following record, and also the residence of ancestors, if known.

ANCESTOR'S SERVICE.

My ancestor's services in furthering the establishment of American Independence during the War of the Revolution were as follows:

John Burnett, my maternal great-great great grandfather served during the Revolutionary war as Ensign, First Lieutenant and Captain, existing from the State of New York

Thomas Burnett my paternal great-great great grandfather was a soldier in the Revolutionary war. In 1778 while on guard duty near Fort Mifflin, he contracted a severe cold, from the effects of which he became blind and drew a pension.

Mary Burnett, daughter of John the Revolutionary soldier, married John Burnett, son of Thomas the Revolutionary soldier, and their son Benjamin was my great-grand father
