Dear Mr. Reilander,

Our trip to Fort Simcoe was very successful. We left about noon last Friday. We learned many new things. The caretaker told us that the old barracks were going to be torn down and not restored. We found that each house had a front stairway and a back stairway. Everyone found the apple tree, we couldn't find the tree where the Indians were hung. All of us enjoyed the trip to Fort Simcoe.

Sincerely yours,

Susan Chaffee
