

March 26, 1956

Mr. J.H. Gipson, Sr., president,
The Caxton Printers, Ltd.,
Caldwell, Idaho.

Dear Jim:

Relative to an October 4 opening sale date for Drummers and Dreamers, please do not upset your already rushed schedule with more important things by attempting to advance it from October 6 to October 4.

It shall remain October 6, Saturday. I am sure that Mr. Broad will find that day as good, if not more so, than a mid-week date.

Moreover it has the advantage, for promotional purposes, not so much sales, of stopping at Maryhill Museum the next day, Sunday where if I wish to, we will be granted use of the Indian room. I rather suspect that the museum will extend invitations to the Oregon Archaeological Society, and perhaps the photographic groups, to attend, and though it is pretty late in the season for tourists, we might bump into good weather, late travel and a crowd of outsiders.

From Maryhill we'd probably go on to Portland and then would hit Seattle on a Thursday and Friday.

Sincerely

Click Relander