CHINAMEN HELD UP.

Chin Sam's Hired Men Held Up Thursday Evening by Masked Robbers, $90 and Some Valuables Taken.

Four Chinese laborers were held up Thursday evening by three masked men on the John Reed ranch north of town. The laborers were in the employ of Chin Sin, a Chinese merchant of this city who operates a truck patch on the Reed place.

About 6:30 o'clock while the Chinamen were engaged in cleaning up their supper table there was a rap on the door which was opened by one of the Celestials. A man whose face was covered with a sort of hood stood outside and said "good evening," according to the Chinaman, the fellow then blew a whistle and two other men showed up around the corner of the shack. The three strange men then rushed into the house and covered the scared Chinamen with pistols while one of their number bound the Celestials and then placed a gunny sack over the heads of each. As this was going on one of the gang asked each of the Chinamen in turn if he was Chin Sin. On receiving a reply in the negative he would cuss. The three men then ransacked the shack at their leisure turning everything upside down. They finally succeeded in digging up $90.90, two watches and a pistol. The Chinaman says that they did not leave the house until 9:30. About an hour afterwards Chin Sin arrived home from town and released his frightened workmen. Sheriff Grant and his deputies are working hard on the case, but so far have no clue to the villains.

Cold Storage and Ice Plant

J. L. Hughes, the promoter and prospective manager of the new cold storage warehouse and ice manufacturing plant, as was announced in the DEMOCRAT last week is now in Yakima with his family to make a permanent home, having secured a residence at 516 South Second street.

Mr. Hughes states that the order for the ice making machinery for the new plant here has already been placed with the York Mfg. company of York, Penn. and that the machinery will be here ready to install Feb. 1 next. Mr. Hughes is now looking daily for the specifications for the warehouse and factory, which have been drawn by a Chicago architect, and as soon as received bids will be asked for from local contractors for the erection of the buildings. It is expected that the buildings will be completed by Dec. 1.

The machinery ordered will have a capacity of 15 tons of artificial ice every 24 hours. Two separate boilers and engines will be used to propel the machinery alternately so that no time will be lost through either system being out of repair. The warehouse will be divided into compartments which with different temperatures will be made suitable for various products.

The Proposed Railroad

W. N. Granger was in the city Wednesday from Zillah and informed the DEMOCRAT that the proposed new railroad from Alfalfa station to Prosser via Sunnyside, known locally as the "loop" is now practically sure to be constructed. The N. P. board of directors in session recently at New York, Mr. Granger said, had authorized the construction of the road providing the people of Sunnyside and Prosser would make good their offer to turn over a graded right of way to the company. A contract to this effect has, in fact, already been received by Mr. Granger but not being satisfactory in some features to many of the lower end citizens was sent back to St. Paul for revision.

The promoters of the beet sugar factory will place an order for the machinery for the new mill to be built at Prosser just as soon as the contract with the railway company is signed.

Pulsifer Released.

C. G. Pulsifer, the man arrested by Sheriff Grant at Boise, Idaho, and brought back here, was released last Saturday and the charge of procuring money under false pretenses withdrawn in consideration of the defendant making good to the parties here who claimed to have been flimflammed by him. In addition Pulsifer paid the expense which the county was put to in making the arrest, whereupon he was released. Pulsifer was represented by Thompson & Allen.

PICKETT'S SAFE ROBBED.

Sum of $180 Abstracted Thursday Morning—No Clue to the Robbers.

The safe in B. W. Pickett's Pastime Cigar store was rifled Wednesday night or rather early Thursday morning and the sum of $180 in cash abstracted therefrom. The robbery was not discovered until Day Clerk Louis Fulkerson went on duty at 6 o'clock, when the door of the safe was found open and the money missing. The top drawer had contained $125 belonging to Mr. Pickett. In another drawer $45 belonging to the night man was taken as was also a pocketbook containing $10, the property of Louis Fulkerson. A sack that contained $10 in small silver was left untouched.

The robber evidently had but little trouble in making the haul as the safe had been left unlocked by the night man, Ed. Balsel and the work of opening the money drawer was comparatively easy. The back door of the building was found open and in the hallway near by the money drawer was found. It is believed that the robber secreted himself in the building and waited until self in the building and waited until went home, which was about 5 o'clock in the morning.

The police officers have since been working on the case.

Co. E is All Right.

As our readers all know, the boys of Co. E covered themselves with glory at the recent encampment. In target shooting they swept the platter for the third consecutive time, leaving the teams of all the other companies in the state hopelessly beaten. The nearest competitors of the Yakima boys in volley marksmanship was the Tacoma team which made an average of 40 per cent as compared with 55 per cent made by the boys of Co. E. In commenting on the good record made by the home boys, Adjutant General Drain says in a general order of recent date:

"The most creditable thing done in the camp was the collective fire shooting. Here all the companies demonstrated familiarity with their pieces, a familiarity which could only come from long hard practice. The three following companies particularly distinguished themselves, although all of the companies shot exceptionally well: Company 'E' 2nd Infantry, North Yakima, Capt. C. T. Dulin commanding, with a percentage of 57 per cent at volley firing and fire at will over the 600, 800 and 1000 yard ranges; Company 'A' 2nd Infantry, Tacoma, Capt. J. Murray MacLean commanding, with a percentage of 40 per cent; Company 'H' 2nd Infantry, Spokane, Capt. M. M. Richardson commanding, with 36 per cent. The record of Company 'E' is a remarkable one; it is doubtful if any company in the United States will do so well this year. Their high rank in this contest and the good shooting of the other companies is the legitimate result of patient and persistent practice upon the range. Too much credit cannot be given Capt. Dulin, his officers and men. The organizations which finished at the top of the list in this contest have spent many laborious hours of practice upon the range. Their hard work made them lead, as hard work always will. Nothing else but actual practice with the rifle makes a rifleman. A soldier who cannot shoot is of no use, and the soldier who can shoot best is of the most use. It is confidently expected that the example set by Company 'E' will be followed by the other companies until next year the Second Infantry will be a regiment of sharpshooters. In the company team contest between the three companies finishing first in the collective fire the relative standing of Companies 'E', 'A' and 'H' was not changed, the teams finishing in the same order occupied by their companies in the collective fire competition."

Board of Commissioners.

The board of county commissioners met Monday morning and remained in session three days, leaving Wednesday night accompanied by County Surveyor Meloy, for Spokane to attend the Good Roads convention which assembled in that city Thursday.

While in session the board granted a saloon license to A. Johnson at Mabton, which make two saloons for that town. Bids were opened for the construction of breakwaters above the Moxee and Mabton bridges. Hugh Stuart was the lowest bidder for the former job and was awarded the contract, his bid being $390. C. E. Lum's bid of $1073 was accepted for doing the work at Mabton. Commissioner Lince was authorized to oversee the first named piece of work at $2 per day, and Commissioner Pace the Mabton work at the same salary.

The board overruled the decision of Superintendent Dickey for the division of school district No. 31 and ordered that the district remain intact. Action was taken on a number of road petitions. The board will convene again next Monday.

State Fair Receipts.

The following were the receipts of the State Fair last week, taken in at the gates and grand stand: Monday the gate receipts were $187; Tuesday, gate $404.25, grand stand, $78.25; Wednesday, gate $845.50, grand stand, $276.25; Thursday, gate $1698.50, grand stand $481.25; Friday, gate $873.75, grand stand, $288.25; Saturday, gate $225.00, grand stand $76.25. The total gate receipts were $4234.00, total grand stand receipts, $1200.25. Total for both $5434.25.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF NORTH YAKIMA.

The democratic party of Greater New York has named as its candidate for mayor of that city Congressman G. O. B. McClellan, the only son of the famous union general who was familiarly known to the solders of his command as "Little Mac."

Young McClellan, says the New York World, although but now a man of middle age has had a most eventful career. As a boy his ambition was to become a professional soldier as his distinguished father had been before him and with such a career in view he sought to enter West Point military academy. This his father strongly advised against, urging his son instead to seek a career in civil life. Being a dutiful son the young man consented. He entered Princeton college where he graduated with high honors. He decided to take up journalism and secured a position on the editorial staff of the N. Y. Herald.

In following his vocation for a period of four years he arose to the position of associate editor. At the age of 23 he concluded to forsake journalism and take up the study of law which he did, entering Columbia college, graduating there from with high honors and being admitted to practice in 1892. As a lawyer he is said to be studious and painstaking although not regarded as brilliant. He soon began to take an active interest in politics identifying himself actively with Tammany Hall, the dominant wing of the New York democracy.

McClellan's first public position was that of a New York alderman, subsequently being elected as president of the board of aldermen. In 1894 he was elected to congress where he has since remained continuously serving as a minority member with marked ability. He is said to be a man possessed of most excellent executive ability, who if elected mayor will fill the high position of mayor of the second largest city on earth with credit to himself and party. That he will be elected is regarded as almost certain among unbiased political observers in New York as the so called reform crowd which was swept into power two years ago on the fusion-reform wave is now in rather bad odor with the people, besides the leaders of the unholy alliance are now engaged in a fight among themselves, as professional reformers usually do, so that the prospect of their winning a second victory with Mayor Low seems very remote.

BRO. ROBERTSON of the Republic announces his intention of getting out a daily paper in this village and thus filling a long felt want.

This town needs a daily paper, about as bad as a wagon needs a fifth wheel or a locomotive a pair of wings. It is quite true perhaps as our brother argues that other towns no larger than North Yakima enjoy the luxury of having a daily paper even if they are not supported properly. But this proves nothing except that such towns may rightfully be regarded as unfortunate. Such newspapers as a rule are of but little real value to the communities in which they are published and they are invariably a heavy load to carry. Country dailies in this state that blossomed out before the conditions were ripe have usually found their way in due time to the journalistic boneyard unless a "political angel" in the shape of a candidate for public office has stood behind it. Walla Walla, for instance, a town that has three times the population of this place has a daily newspaper which ably conducted as it is loses $5000 annually for its owner, who it is needless to say, is a politician.

A daily newspaper even in a small town eats up money a good deal like a threshing machine masticates straw. Where an "angel" is impossible the only substitute worth mentioning is a long array of good paying advertisements. With the limited list of subscribers that country dailies usually have, however, it is doubtful if the advertiser in such publications reaps much gain from the liberal patronage that he accords.

The DEMOCRAT, feeling secure enough in its own particular field, cannot but wish the new journalistic infant whose birth is shortly to be announced, success, especially so if it shall prove that it merits success.

THE Seattle Times reported a few days ago under a scare head that Senator Turner had procured a divorce from his wife. The telegraph editor simply got a little mixed. Anybody that knows Senator Turner and his amiable wife and the happy life that they live could not but feel amused at reading that story. The man that was meant is Col. W. W. D. Turner, a brother of the ex-Senator and a former resident of Spokane.

THE DEMOCRAT does not believe that the water supply of this city is contaminated with filth or impurities for if that were the case there would be an epidemic of sickness and such a harvest of death here as would appal the stoutest heart. There is nothing of the kind here. The general health of the community is good and outside of a comparatively few cases of malaria fever, common to all irrigated sections, there is not much sickness here, reports to the contrary notwithstanding.

However, the health of the community ought to be the first consideration with us all. As we have said we believe that the fault, if fault there be, does not lie in the city water else the entire population ought to be sick. But what we do believe is that it is up to the city administration and the water company jointly to demonstrate beyond all possibility of doubt that the water supply of this town is as chemically pure as can reasonably be expected and if the water is not pure it is the business and duty of the city council to see that it is made pure regardless of expense.

We believe that this is the view taken by a great majority of our citizens and the council can make no mistake about acting on it.

THE editors of the two republican organs seem to be united on one thing at any rate and that is that they wish to inject partyism into the coming municipal election. That scheme has been tried in Yakima before and proved a failure and the DEMOCRAT does not believe that our people will stand for it again. The brethren are simply very hungry and are crying out for more "pap." This paper will continue to support the best men for city offices regardless of their politics.

SPOKANE county has recently refunded $250,000 worth of bonds bearing 6 per cent interest issuing instead bonds in the same amount bearing an interest rate of 4 1/2 per cent, thus effecting a saving to the tax payers of $4500, per year. Why cannot the same thing be done with the bonds of this county which are now drawing 7 and 8 per cent when the money could be easily procured on much more favorable terms?

THE Republic has the hardihood to assert that the DEMOCRAT straddled the water and light franchise question. Well, as to that we will leave the matter to the judgment of our readers. At any rate we had some views to express on the subject and the Republic had none. It was as mute as a clam. In fact that paper, neatly dodged the whole question.

THE board of county commissioners are in Spokane this week to attend the good roads convention. If the members of the board succeed in learning anything while there about the making of roads that will be of any practical benefit to the people, the tax payers of the county can afford to pay for this junket. We want better roads in the Yakima valley and we must have them.

Washington Letter.

(From our special correspondent.)

Washington, D. C., Oct. 1, 1903. President Roosevelt has made his decision in the Miller case and it is against the labor unions. Foreman Miller is to remain in the Government Printing office and there is to be no discrimination between union and non-union labor in government employes. This fact was made plain in a statement issued by the President on Tuesday evening after a conference with a committee of prominent labor leaders, composed of Samuel Compers, president of the American Federation of Labor, John Mitchell, the leader of the Anthracite Coal Strike, and others of the Federation. The conference has been described as a "farce" as the statement issued by the President had been prepared beforehand. The President states that he is president of all the people of the United States, without reference to creed, color, birthplace, or social condition, and that he can no more recognize the fact that a man is a union man than that he is a Protestant, Catholic, Jew or Gentile. He says that it is out of the question to dismiss Miller because he is a non-union man and that his personal fitness must be decided in the regular routine of administrative detail. This is a hard blow to Labor as the controversies really involved the question whether Government Printing office and presumably every plant controlled by the Government should be an "open" or "union" shop. It was evident that the labor leaders were much disappointed but they refused to make any statement regarding the decision. The case is now regarded as settled as far as Mr. Roosevelt is concerned, but many people believe that Labor will retaliate and that the republican party will lose many labor votes. The union men argue that as the President daily discriminates between democrats and republicans in selecting government servants, he could quite as well discriminate between union and non-union men. They declare that hereafter this shall be the price of the labor vote.

The American Federation of Labor holds its annual convention in Boston, next November and it is expected that the Miller case will be considered and a decision reached which will represent the official opinion of organized labor. The controversy might thus be drawn into the political campaign.

The political season has opened in Washington. The President has returned to the White House, Senators and Representatives are registering at the different hotels every day, and Washington has again become the political and social center of the country. The Fifty-eighth Congress will not be a dull one.

It begins with an extra session and on the eve of a presidential election, there is a new speaker in the House and many new members in the House and Senate. The questions which interest the politicians, are innumerable. Cuban reciprocity, financial legislation, the trans-isthmian canal, ship subsidy, the race question, the postal scandals, Indian scandals, the Alaskan boundary, the anti-entente law, the statehood question and the case of Senator Reed Smoot of Utah are some of the many subjects which will come up for debate. The eyes of the Nation will be turned on Washington which is becoming more and more the political, social and diplomatic arena of the Western hemisphere.

Democrats in Washington are much elated over the prospects of the party in Ohio and New York. It is evident that the republicans of Ohio are frightened and are appealing to the party at large for assistance. There have been fifteen hundred invitations sent out to republican speakers through the country, and Secretary Shaw, Secretary Wilson, Secretary Moody, Speaker to-be Cannon, Senator Fairbanks, Senator Dewey and half a dozen other prominent republican senators have promised to come out to Ohio to help Senator Hanna defeat Tom Johnson. It is believed that Mr. Hanna's refusal to debate with Mr. Clarke will injure the republican cause in his state.

Consul General Robert P. Skinner, our representative at Marseilles, France, has just arrived in Washington to complete arrangements for his coming expedition into Absenia. He is going there to invite Emperor Menelik to participate in the St. Louis Exposition and to make a commercial agreement with the United States. An American warship will convey Mr. Skinner to the Red Sea and a detachment of United States marines will escort him on his long overland journey to the negro emperor's capital. The European press is somewhat excited over this "American invasion" of Abyssinia and publish wild reports of our plans of conquest in Africa. As a matter of fact we have been trading with Menelik's people for several years although we have not yet either a diplomatic or consular agent in Abyssinia. We send to that country cotton goods and other staple articles and receive in return large quantities of ivory, hides, carpet wools and other raw materials.

The first meeting of the Negro Suffrage league of the District of Columbia, which was held here last week, marks the beginning of a movement among the colored people for the organization of a national negro league which will have for its object the protection of the black man and the furthering of his interests. In other words the negroes are trying to organize. At the meeting of the District league, resolutions were adopted condemning the attempts to break down the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments, and requesting President Roosevelt to do all in his power to prevent "the rank and flagrant discriminations which are practiced against the negro in the District of Columbia in public places of amusement." During the past year similar leagues have been organized throughout the country and they propose to unite together in a federation. For this purpose a convention will be held here in December. The leaders of the movement say that the negro officer holders have betrayed the interests of the race, that the leadership of Booker Washington is hypocritical and dangerous, and that the time has now come when the negro must look after himself and not trust to the republican party.

W. P. Murphy representing the Yakima Democrat, attended our school meeting last Saturday afternoon held at the residence of W. F. Chase.

Rev. A. Rhine and family moved into the valley this week where they expect to reside upon their ranch in the new house which has lately been erected.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Murphy spent last week at their ranch in our neighborhood, they expressed themselves as being highly pleased with the country and told us that they expect to build upon their ranch and make other improvements next spring and make this valley their home.

The school meeting held at the home of W. F. Chase for the purpose of selecting a site for the new school house soon to be erected in the new district No. 84, was well attended. There being two sites to select from W. H. Ward proposed the first site on the corners of sections 27 and 33, from the fact that the most of the school age children lived closer to this than any other point. W. F. Chase proposed a site on the public road in the center of the natural school district, from the fact that it was of a greater advantage to the new neighborhood and more centrally located. The vote showed 10 to 6 in favor of the first site. The meeting then adjourned with the most neighborly and friendly spirits, the discussions however were not tame.

Worked an Undertaker

E. L. Sessions, the Second street funeral director, was joshed a great deal by his friends this week on account of having been the victim of a confidence man and giving up $5, just to show that he is a good fellow.

Mr. Sessions says that it happened this way: About 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon a man that he took to be a rather respectable looking farmer entered his coffin shop and asked if the undertaker was in. Mr. Sessions answered that he was presumed to be the proprietor of the establishment and asked the man what he could do for him. The alleged farmer in tones most touching replied that his name was Geo. A. Miller and his place of residence 15 miles up the Wenas. "I have had the misfortune to lose my wife to-day," he said, "and I am here to select a suitable casket and burial robe for her."

"When I buried my father," continued the man, "I bought him a $60 coffin and I think my wife is entitled to at least as good a one." With this assurance the sympathetic undertaker showed his customer the goods. The man finally selected a casket and robe that the undertaker recommended as suitable, the cost of which was $90. "Now," said the customer, "the bank unfortunately is closed, I have some little purchases to make before going home and I wish you would accommodate me by loaning me $3, which you can add on to my bill and I will settle Monday."

The story told seemed so plausible to the genial undertaker that he did not hesitate to produce his wallet and finding that $5 was the least that he had told the man to take it as he would doubtless need it all. The grief stricken man then expressed his thanks and took his departure stating that he would return in about an hour for the coffin. Of course, he has not returned yet and probably never will. The generous and sympathetic undertaker possibly doesn't mind the loss of the $5 that he loaned as much as he does the joshing that ensued, being required to answer not less than 50 times a day questions about Mrs. Miller's funeral.

A Rare Old Book.

The second book printed in the English language was "The Game and Playe of the Chess," which the title page says was "Fynysht the last day of Marche, the yer of our lord god a thousande foure hundred and LXXIIJ." Only twelve copies of the work are now known to exist. In 1813 an Englishman of the name of Alchorne sold his copy for a sum equal to $270 in United States currency. Fifty-six years later, in 1869, the same volume (an imperfect copy) was sold for $2,150. The British museum has refused an offer of $10,000 for its copy, which is imperfect to the extent of having seven leaves missing.

Not the Same.

"It's a merciful dispensation of Providence that makes consumptives always hopeful. It's just heaven's mercy that keeps them from realizing how bad they are."

"Huh! And what is it that keeps some singers from realizing how bad they are? Would you call that heaven's mercy?"—Catholic Standard and Times.

Compliments.

Miss Koy—In discussing the "galaxy of beauty" at the ball the other night Mr. Grafton paid me quite a compliment.

Miss Speltz—The idea! That's so unlike him. I never before heard of his paying anything before it's due.—Philadelphia Press.

Agreed.

"My wife and I agree perfectly about some things," remarked Mr. Meekton, with a gentle smile.

"Indeed?"

"Yes; when anything goes wrong I take it for granted that it is my fault, and Henrietta always thinks so too."

One might as well attempt to rearrange the rainbow colors of a soap bubble as to undertake the reformation of one's neighbors.—Chicago News.

Marvelous Memories.

Among men noted for wonderful memories were Milton, who was said to be able to repeat Homer; Professor Lawson, who boasted that he could repeat the whole of the Bible, except a few verses; Lord Macaulay, who made the same boast about "Pilgrim's Progress" and "Paradise Lost;" Dr. Lerdner, a friend of Sir Walter Scott, who could repeat an act of parliament on hearing it read but once, and a London reporter, who took no notes, but could write out an unexpected debate verbatim. Henry Clay could not memorize a single stanza of a poem, but never forgot a name, a face or an argument.

CITY COUNCIL MEETING

City Dads Dispose of Large Grist of Municipal Business—Contracts let for Street Improvement

A regular meeting of the city council was held Monday evening with Mayor Shaw presiding and all the councilmen present at the long table except Moran.

The city clerk read the petition of E. W. Dooly for a renewal of his saloon license in the Hotel Yakima block. It being shown that all the requirements of the law had been complied with on motion of Keck the license was granted.

A communication was read from Edward Whitson, president of the Y. L. & P. company, formally accepting the extension of the franchises granted that company by the passage of ordinances 368 and 369 Sept. 21.

The clerk submitted the plat of S. J. Lowe's new addition to the city, but action on the same was deferred pending the settlement of the old Cherry street wrangle. Liggett gave notice of his intention to vote for the acceptance of the Lowe plat in case the Cherry street matter was not straightened out at the next council meeting.

I. M. Krutz addressed the council as the representative of a number of property owners against letting a contract for building a cement walk on the east side of South Natches avenue on the ground that it is late to commence the work this fall. Although bids had been advertised for and were in the clerk's hands the council took Mr. Krutz's view of the case and ordered the work postponed until spring.

Bids were then read for the building of a sidewalk on the east side of North sixth street. John LeChance bid 40¢ per foot, J. V. Bartine bid 38½¢ and G. H. Moulton bid 37½¢. On motion of Wyman the contract was awarded to Mr. Moulton.

Bids for the grading of Seventh street were next opened. Wm. McKivior bid 55¢ per foot, Pettijohn & Daniels bid 57½¢ and Dingle & Dimmick bid 69¢. The contract was awarded to the latter firm. For grading North First street McKivior bid 80¢, Dingle & Dimmick 49¢, Pettijohn & Daniels 47¢. The contract was awarded to Pettijohn & Daniels.

The clerk then read the usual grist of monthly bills, all that had been ordered by the finance committee were ordered paid.

Harrison submitted a proposition from Mr. Roberts to sell a 16½ right-of-way to the city's dumping ground on the Thomas tract for a consideration of $100. After consultation the council agreed to accept the offer.

On motion of Liggett the clerk was authorized to advertise for bids for the construction of board sidewalks on N. Natches avenue and also on S. First street.

Keck called attention to the need of crosswalks on Yakima avenue and it was decided to have walks laid one each at Front, First, Second and Third streets and also on both sides of the avenue at the crossings of the three last named streets.

County Health Officer Frank addressed the council briefly on the sanitary condition of the city, advising that water be shut off at once in all city ditches. On motion of Harrison it was so ordered.

On the recommendation of Fire Chief Hauser the council decided to purchase a new patent nozzle for the use of the department at a cost of $15.

On motion the council then adjourned.

Didn't Worry the Waiter.

Henry Ward Beecher was amused when he went into a Bovey restaurant on one occasion and heard the waiter give such orders to the cook as "Ham and —," "Sinkers and cow," etc. "Watch me feaze that waiter with an order which, I believe, he won't abbreviate," remarked Dr. Beecher at length as the waiter approached. Then he said, "Give us poached eggs on toast for two, with the yolks broken." But the waiter, who was equal to the emergency, walked to the end of the room and yelled: "Adam and Eve on a raft! Wreck 'em!" It is related that Dr. Beecher nearly fainted.

When Gaslight Was New.

The first shop in London lighted by gas was one of which a Mr. Ackerman, a German, was the proprietor. This shop was on the Strand, and the date was 1810. One of the ladies of rank who often visited the Ackerman shop was so delighted with the brilliancy of a gas jet on one of the counters that she requested the proprietor to let her take it home for the evening, promising to return it safe and sound on the morrow.

DEATHS.

Brady.

In this city Saturday, October 3 at 2 p. m., Ralph S. Brady died, aged 29 years, his ailment being typhoid fever. The remains were shipped to Ottawa, Ill., Sunday night for burial, this being done at the request of the widowed mother of the deceased who resides at Chicago.

The many friends of Mr. Brady were shocked to hear of his death, it not being generally known that he was ill. With a naturally delicate constitution he was unable to withstand the attack of a destroying disease and succumbed after less than three weeks' illness. Mr. Brady had lived in Yakima since February, 1902, and during that time had made a host of friends especially among the young men of the city. He was employed as bookkeeper for Fawcett Bros.

Cook.

Mrs. Eliza Cook, aged 73 years, died at her home in Fairview Tuesday after an illness of long duration caused by a complication of diseases. Funeral services were held at Shaw Flint's parlors, Rev. F. L. Hayden officiating, Wednesday at 2:30 o'clock. The remains were shipped to the former home of deceased, Roanoke, Virginia.

Bruley.

Alice, the 15 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. E. Bruley, died at the family home, 508 south Second street, Thursday, of quick consumption. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock today from Sessions & Gilbaugh's undertaking parlors.

Byam.

The Northwestern Business College

809 Second Ave, Spokane, Wash

The school where thorough work is done; where the reason is always given where confidence is developed; where BOOKKEEPING is taught exactly as books are kept in business; where SHORTHAND is scientific; where penmanship is at its best; where merit is the standard; where the training in CIVIL SERVICE, TELEGRAPHY, ENGLISH and CARTOONING wakes up students, develops their powers and teaches them how to be successful. No argument is so eloquent as the record of things well done.

We Fill More Positions than All Other Similar Schools of the Inland Empire COMBINED. When you know what a school can do for you by what it has done for others it is better to trust to luck? It is wiser to guess.

The Local Round-Up.

$3.00 working shoes $2.50 at Denley's.

The Linse Brothers are making preparations to sink an artesian well with the hope of procuring a flow of water to irrigate their Cowiche valley land.

Thacker & Rich were awarded the contract Thursday of erecting the $2800 residence which Dr. Gordon proposes to build at the corner of Yakima and Naches avenues.

35c men's neckties 25c at Denley's.

W. D. Walker has recently erected a handsome windmill for D. G. Goodman at the latter's residence west of town and is now engaged in putting up another for Mrs. Dr. Adair.

George Taylor, proprietor of the City Brewery at Ellensburg, has been here this week installing the machinery in his bottling works located in the Stoner fruit dryer on West Yakima avenue.

$2.50 men's hats $2.00 at Denley's.

"Nothing doing" has been the word passed around among the hop men this week. The market seems to stand at about 25c with no sales. Spuds are now $10 to $12 while alfalfa is holding its own at $10 per ton.

A large crowd of people congregated at the depot Sunday morning intent on taking the 10:30 train. However when the train pulled in it was found to be so crowded that the conductor refused to take more passengers and the most of the people had to wait for the next train.

While the flour mill was shut down temporarily the first of the week and the water accordingly turned off from the mill ditch a number of people procured a good supply of fish by spearing them in the shallow water of the mill race. A number of very large ones were captured.

During the past week the county auditor issued marriage licenses to the following victims of Cupid: Wm. T. Capps and Miss Ella Hubble, Jesse B. Patterson and Miss Avanelle Gano, Frank H. Rudkin and Mrs. Pearl Morford, Theodore Dezar and Miss Anna Pettijohn, Hiram O. Blankenship and Miss Frances Myers, Thomas Walker and Miss Annie Orth.

$1.50 wool underwear $1.25 at Denley's

A man whose name we failed to learn was held up near the power house Friday night of last week. He saw the robbers approaching and divining their object threw his purse into the sagebrush. This angered the two robbers to such an extent that they pulled him from his horse and beat him before going on their way. The man has since been hunting for his purse but without finding it.

A man by the name of Thomas was lamenting the loss of $19 Saturday evening. About dark Thomas purchased a return ticket to Seattle from a fair visitor. He thought that he gave the man two silver dollars, but subsequently discovered that one of the coins he had paid out was a $20 gold piece. He hunted high and low for the man who sold him the ticket, but failed to find him.

$3 ladies shoes $2.50 at Denley's.

W. H. Code, U. S. inspector of irrigation works, left here Monday for California to be absent for several weeks. Before leaving Mr. Code stated that the right of way trouble between the government and the N. P. at Union Gap had been satisfactorily settled. Contractor Rich now has a large force of men at work on the new reservation canal and is pushing the work as fast as possible.

Dairy salt 50lb sack 65c at Denley's.

A number of the Selah and Wenas people met in this city Wednesday and appeared before the board of county commissioners to emphasize their demand for a new wagon bridge across the Yakima in the Selah Gap. The people of the two valleys are practically a unit in asking for the new bridge and they seem to think that it is an unnecessary hardship for them to be compelled to use the grade road in traveling to and from the town with all the risk that they are required to take in doing so.

New Methodist Minister.

Dr. Alfred H. Henry, the new pastor of the M. E. church of this city, arrived Wednesday afternoon with his family and will preach his opening sermon next Sunday morning. Dr. Henry is quite a noted divine in the western section of the Methodist church, having occupied pulpits at Omaha, Butte, Salt Lake and other cities.

The congregation has been expecting for some time the Rev. H. G. Selleck of Portland, who had been assigned to this church at the recent Spokane conference. Rev. Selleck for some reason did not desire to come here and as Dr. Henry was looking for a dry climate on account of his wife's health, he was assigned to this charge by Presiding Elder Booth.

Dr. Henry not only enjoys the distinction of being a pulpit orator of distinction, but is a well known writer as well. He is the author of the religious novel "By Order of the Prophet" and has written other works of merit.

Judge Rudkin Married.

Hon. Frank H. Rudkin, judge of the superior court of this district, and Mrs. Pearl Morford were united in marriage at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sinclair on south Sixth street at noon Sunday, October 4. Rev. H. M. Bartlett officiating. The happy couple amid a shower of rice, boarded the 2 o'clock train the same day for Seattle to spend the honeymoon. While in Seattle, Judge Rudkin will hold court for a few days for Judge Fullman.

Alex Miller was able to be at his desk again this week after a three weeks illness. Mrs. Miller is still in Portland taking special treatment.

J. J. Miller and family, who formerly resided on the Wenas, left here last Sunday for their future home in the imperial country in Southern California.

Mrs. Frank Freedman and child arrived Wednesday morning from Denver on a visit to her two sisters in this city, Mrs. Siegel and Miss Mabel Chase.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Halstead of Waterville, N. Y., who have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. Sessions, for several months, left for home this week.

State Fair Commissioners Splan and Wright, are attending the Spokane Inter-State fair this week. Mr. Splan has his herd of Herefords on exhibition there.

Wm. Hepfinger left here the first of the week for Seattle with his "leviathan" log. He expects to complete his preparations at Seattle and take the log back east.

Wm. Shearer, wife and daughter, left here Thursday morning for Juneau, Alaska, where they will remain this winter going into Dawson in the spring. Mrs. Shearer, who has been very ill is now well on the way to recovery.

Mrs. Jennie F. White and her niece, Miss Gladys Diteman, left here Sunday for Portland with the intention of studying art. Mrs. White intends to return in November to open an art studio.

S. J. Lowe accompanied by his nephew, Vern Weeden, left Thursday to spend a week on the Sound. Mr. Lowe expected to meet at Seattle the man who taught him the tinner's trade in Ohio 50 years ago, and who is now visiting his children in Seattle.

Samuel Storow, son-in-law of H. H. Allen, was here this week, having come over from Walla Walla, where he is engaged by the city as expert engineer in the extension of the municipal water works. Guy Allen is at Walla Walla assisting him.

J. V. McCurdy has been critically ill for some time at his home in this city. His condition was regarded so serious that his son, B. F. McCurdy and wife, were telegraphed for to Iron Mountain, Mont., arriving here Monday. The patient's condition has since materially improved.

Prof. C. L. Smith, recently of Minn., but now an institute lecturer for the Agricultural college at Pullman, was here last week attending the Fair and Saturday made this office a pleasant call. Prof. Smith and associates expect to hold one and perhaps two institutes in this county this winter.

Henry S. Volkman, Editor and publisher of the Grant County Review, at Millbank, S. Dakota, made this office a pleasant call Wednesday in company with his old friend and former neighbor, W. J. Carriek of Nob Hill, Editor Washington and may perhaps return here to live. In connection with some other Eastern men he has acquired some valuable mining property in the copper fields of eastern Skagit County.

Ex-Sheriff Dan W. Simmons arrived home last week after a four years absence at Nome and vicinity where he has considerable mining interests. He expects to divide his time between here and Seattle until next spring when he will return to Alaska.

Saved His Life.

J. W. Davenport, Wingo, Ky., writes, June 14, 1902: "I want to tell you I believe Ballard's Snow Liniment saved my life. I was under the treatment of two doctors, and they told me one of my lungs was entirely gone, and the other badly affected. I also had a lump in my side. I don't think that I could have lived over two months longer. I was induced by a friend to try Ballard's Snow Liniment. The first application gave me great relief; two fifty-cent bottles cured me sound and well. It is a wonderful medicine and I recommend it to suffering humanity." 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold at F. L.
