Mr. Harry C. Revercomb,
1830 Walker Avenue,
Kansas City 4, Kansas.

Dear Mr. Revercomb:

As a small token of my appreciation for the manner in which you are cooperating in promotion of the forthcoming Drummers and Dreamers, I am sending you another copy of the Yakima Treaty Centennial publication.

I regret my stock is limited, but in the event that you find these are moving at the price you quote in the catalogue you issued (No. 201) and receive orders for them, I am sure I can pick you up sufficient to fill the orders for 60 cents each plus carriage. Airmail if you need them.

Thank you for your letter of June 30 and the information about your acquisition of the Chief Joseph painting by Burbank. One of these days when I come across it in my files I believe I have an extra 8 x 10 photo of Joseph's burial and monument dedication at Nespelem which I will be happy to send to you to go with the painting as a minor sidelight.

Again, while it will be some time before D & D is off the press, thanks for your cooperation.

Sincerely Yours
