Dear Click:

You may think I've forgotten your book "Strangers on the Land" but you're not quite right. Somebody removed it from my desk and it turned up again recently, so I'm ready to go on it now. However, I have no picture of you. Don't you have a high-school graduation picture around somewhere?

Please send ~~ix~~ a picture soonest. You are holding up a book review!

Best regards,

Don
