Mr. Glen Dawson,
Dawson's Book Shop,
550 S. Figueroa St., Los Angeles 17, Calif.

Dear Mr. Dawson:

In reply to your letter of June 14 regarding books offered, I am sending two cartons by mail, post, today, and trust they will be satisfactory.

In order to fill out the cartons snugly, I included some additional items not included in the original listing. You may keep these as you wish, or return them at my expense, but I think you will not wish to return them upon examination.

The additional price would be in line with the lot quoted at $125 which I explained in an earlier letter.

The additional items enclosed include: Autobiography of Lorenzo "Augh, condition not too good; the 1884 edition of Stephen Powers "Foot and Alone, very good condition; King's Mountaineering in the Sierra Nevada in what I believe the proper edition to entitle you to ask a good price from a Zamorame collector; a dainty book with dainty lithos: Taylor's The Forest which I think you will find dealers ask $6 to $10 for; American Commonwealth's for Vermont, Texas and Kansas; Hittel's "Resources of California; Jacksonville, Fla.; Historic Towns of Western States.

The Vol. 1 of Nevins Fremont is enclosed in case you have an Vol II, alone. For that matter Vol I might have been the only one issued. You are welcome to it.

If the additional's are interesting to you, and I don't suspect you come across too many Powers or King's, whatever you would normally pay for such an offering is entirely satisfactory. You will not find me one to quibble, having done business with you before.

I hope you find the lot as represented and I think they should be pretty fast movers in most instances.

Sincerely Yours
