Dear Mr. Relander:

The list of Washington State Historical Society members was received last week. Your name is listed in the membership. So the matter of your subscription for the 1952 volume is solved, and your copies of the QUARTERLY will continue to come to you. Thank you for your interest and support.

I checked with the librarian in charge of the Northwest Collection here at the University Library on the copyright for the Meany Washington Geographic Names. I have been advised that the copy of the book in our collection carries no copyright line. I would suspect that, since the material originally appeared as a series of articles in the WASHINGTON HISTORICAL QUARTERLY, vols. 8 through 14 (1917-1923), it was treated as second-class matter, and hence it was not covered by copyright laws. If I am able to unearth any other information on the subject, I will let you know.

I will refer your letter to Mr. Gates (to whom it was addressed) since I know he will be interested in knowing of your work in this field.

Very truly yours,

Emily E. Johnson

Dear Mr. Relander:

I too was sorry to have missed you when you were on campus earlier this summer, and I assure you that we shall look forward to seeing you when you are again in Seattle. Your order for copies of the January 1946 and April 1936 issues of the QUARTERLY is being mailed to you today. The money order was in a generous amount: the price of the 1936 number is $1.50; for the 1946, $1.25 — total $2.75. I don't know the exact amount of the postage required, but I am certain it will not exceed the balance of 25 cents. Thank you for your continued interest in and support of our journal.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Relander:

We have received a copy of The Skeena, River of Destiny, by R. Geddes Large, published by the Mitchell Press Ltd. Would you care to write a review of 450-500 words for our journal? If so, please let us know, and we will send on the book at once. We could probably include the review in the July number if you could get it to us by June 26.

Sincerely yours,

Charles M. Gates

Dear Mr. Relander:

Your paper "The Battleground of National Irrigation and the Columbia Basin Project" has been received. Mr. Gates or Mr. Burke will write to you about it as soon as they have had an opportunity to give it a close reading.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Relander:

We plan to print your paper "The Battleground of National Irrigation and the Columbia Basin Project" in the October number of the Pacific Northwest Quarterly. We shall send galley proofs of the article within the next couple of weeks (the issue is very late at the printer's).

We write to you in advance because we have a few queries that will require some research time on your part. These questions we have indicated with blue penciled notations on the margins of the enclosed carbon copy of your manuscript. We will flag the galley proofs at these same points so that you can insert the corrections or additions as needed. The majority of the questions ask for the precise date of an issue of a newspaper in which a certain quotation appeared. We have inserted dates -- month, day, year -- that are completely unfounded; we did this to hold the space so that when you insert the correct date, only one line of type need be reset. Thank you for your assistance in pinpointing these quotations.

Very sincerely yours,

Emily E. Johnson

Dear Mr. Relander:

We send herewith the galley proof of your article "The Battleground of National Irrigation and the Columbia Basin Project" which we plan to print in the October number. We have indicated our few queries on the margins of the proof. May we have the proof returned, together with the manuscript, at your earliest convenience?

As you may know, we print a brief note about each contributor. Would you submit a statement (about 75 words) about yourself, your research interests, etc.?

We do not make offprints of articles. Instead, we offer a contributor copies of the issue in which his article appears at the rate of 30 cents per copy for orders of 10 or more. Would you send us your order when you return the proof?

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Relander:

Thanks for the review of the E. E. White Experiences of a Special Indian Agent. We are pleased that, in view of your previous commitments, you could send the review this soon. It will appear in an early issue of PNQ.

I hope to get down to see Wanapum Dam during one of my trips to Spokane. I have read several newspaper stories about it, and all of them encourage me to believe this is a "must" stop.
And as a native Washingtonian, I thank you for your part in the "sculpturing project" for the Dam.

Sincerely yours,

Emily E. Johnson
