Dear Mr. Relander --

I am real sorry I didn't enclose the proper amount. Had made note of your address, but not the price.

Since receiving your letter, I have looked through the check stub and found the one that paid for the copy the library ordered. ($2.25)

Thank you for your prompt attention and for calling this matter to my attention.

Please find $1.50 enclosed to cover the balance and, again, my apologies.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "Darlene Hook". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned above the typed name and address.

Please send us, enclosing invoice with shipment, the following:

Dear Sir:

We have your invoice covering 5 copies "Yakima Treas<sup>74</sup> Centennial" which we received and 10 copies "Stranger on the Land" which we have never received. The invoice has written in ink Sent 2.6.63 - however, they have not been received here.

Would you please check and send as soon as possible. If possible,
I would personally appreciate your autographing a copy for me and my husband. Thank you.
