THE city council of Tacoma by a vote of 10 to 4 has decided that women must remove their head gear at places of public amusements. While this will be a boon to the frequenter of the theatre who is so unfortunate as to buy a seat behind a devotee of the ruling fashion, yet it will be generally regretted, for we have yet to see anything more attractive than a comely woman attired in a modern stylish hat. Upon the broad principle that we must yield our personal preferences for the happiness of the greater number, we submit, but in passing we are glad to note that similar action by our own council will never be necessary as Yakima ladies have always deferred to our wishes, and removed their hats if they were of a construction that would prevent their neighbors in the year resting their optics upon the stage.

A great deal has been said since our last legislature adjourned, of the effect some of its enactments would have upon the credit of the State, and not infrequently do you hear it stated that had it not been for such legislation our State would now be experiencing a boom. This is pure rot. There has not been a law enacted in this State that will prevent the creditor contracting with his debtor on any terms they may mutually agree upon. If the money lender has any money to loan and finds a client who thinks it to his interest to borrow, all of the provisions of recent legislation in his favor may be waved by him and the contract can be enforced without any reference to the alleged obnoxious legislation.

THE New York Voice is endeavoring to inaugurate the phonetic system of spelling. Here is the way we would spell should it be universally adopted: Publisht, altho, possest, reverst, reacht, etc. So far the "Voice" is the only publication adopting it although United States Commissioner of education Harris, says that a trial in the schools of St. Louis showed a saving from one and a half to two years in children learning to read.

Charles A. Dana, the veteran newspaper man and editor of the New York Sun, died at his home at Glen Clare, L. I., on the 17th inst. In his death America has lost one of her foremost journalists, and a writer whose place will be hard to fill.

NOTE AND COMMENT.

The qualities rare in a bee that we meet
In an EPIGRAM never should fail;
The body should always be little and sweet,
And a sting should be left in the tail.

THE P-I says that it didn't know there was such an organization as the Patriots of America. Too bad. However, it is nothing strange that the P-I don't know it. There is lots of things the P-I don't know, or won't know so long as it has such a sap-headed corps of correspondents as it has at present in most of the towns outside of Seattle. For the benefit of this great "know nothing" journal we will say that Yakima county alone has three lodges in a flourishing condition, one of which has in the neighborhood of 225 members.

THE Cubans are actually looking to America for annexation. Of course they have always looked to us for protection and undoubtedly a great deal of assistance has been rendered them, and the sympathy of the government has been with them, but we do not believe that many, if any, of our leading statesmen think at all seriously of annexing the island of Cuba. In fact, it seems that it would be a useless piece of business.

THE Supreme court held up the decision on the Arid Land Commissioner's case so long that he will be unable to do any irrigating the present season. He will probably spend the winter in the mountains constructing artificial reservoirs from which he will spread the current that will make the arid wastes of Washington bloom like the proverbial rose next year.

ACCORDING to the Seattle Times a ladies' whist club of that city has resolved to not furnish for the press the names of the members in attendance upon the weekly meeting of the club. Probably some of the members are communicants of some one of the various religious denominations which forbids card playing.

Butcher Weyler had at last reports, refused to turn over the command of the Cuban army to Gen. Castelanos, who has been appointed to succeed him. It would not be surprising to hear that the deposed butcher had turned traitor to his government and joined the Carlists.

Gov. Rogers must have been radically wrong in his actions in removing Regents, Fay, Davis and Hayden, of the State University, for the Seattle P-I endorsed his action in an editorial last Sunday.

That the Superior Steel range is a great seller and worthy of its name is evidenced by the number of sales now being made by the Wallace-Coburn Hardware Co. Go and see them and be satisfied they are superior in more senses than one. In their case there is everything in a name.

Yesterday witnessed the greatest influx of professional tramps our city has experienced for a long time. Last night the strong arm of the law which was being upheld by officer Grant, took ten of them into custody, all of them being afflicted with some malady, to which they would promptly call the accosted's attention to whenever they would strike him for money. The only way to keep our city free from such characters is to let the click of the prison lock, and the police judge's pleasant "ten days in the chain gang" go down the line and they will soon cease sojourning with us.

ATTEMPT MADE TO LIBERTAE COUNTY PRISONERS.

Sheriff Shaw's Pistol Responds to the would be Rescuers.

A bullet hole through the door, another one lodged in the panel and foot-prints upon the outside of the door to the sheriff's office, chronicle an unsuccessful attempt made to enter the sheriff's office, evidently with the view of securing the keys to the jail and liberating the two dozen prisoners incarcerated therein.

Wednesday evening when Sheriff Shaw was walking down the street, in passing four suspicious looking characters, one of them remarked: "If we do the whole town will be against us." This put the sheriff on his guard, and when he retired about ten o'clock in his office, where he has slept during the illness of Deputy Sheriff Howard, he placed his revolver so as to be of easy access. Soon after he heard light foot-falls on the steps and the hall-way leading to his office, and a violent wrench of the door knob, with an effort to gain forced entrance; they evidently thinking there was no one in the office, having seen Deputy Corey pass them on his way home, about half past nine o'clock.

When the attempt was made to enter the office, the sheriff asked who it was, when the parties on the outside gave the door a kick, whereupon the sheriff told them to get away or he would perforate their anatomy. "Shoot and be D—d" (with the emphasis on the d), one of them replied, emphasizing his expression with another kick against the door. The situation thus becoming serious a shot was fired over their heads with the object of scaring them, but was answered by renewed hostilities from the outside, when the range of the revolver was lowered and a bullet landed in the oak panel. At this juncture the sheriff unlocked his desk, took out a 45 calibre Colts and prepared to resist a general attack, but the besieging parties evidently thought they had run up against a Government arsenal, and made their retreat. The sheriff as soon as he dressed attempted to follow them, but found no further traces of them. It is thought that they were the pals of a couple of prisoners in the jail whose liberty they desire to secure.

It was fortunate for some one of them that a short cartridge, which has been laying around the sheriff's office for a long time, found its way into the revolver, or the Coroner might have been called upon to perform the last sad rites over his remains before they were consigned to the silent bosom of mother-earth.

Eastern Addition Not a Part of The City.

For years the city has been levying a tax on the inhabitants and lands in Eastern addition to this city and it now transpires that it was never annexed to the city. John Sawbridge and his neighbors who supposed themselves residents of North Yakima, are without its gates. Action to annex is probable.

The ladies and gentlemen of North Yakima are informed that after November 1st, the "Vienna" will serve light lunches and oysters. The hours and menu will hereafter be published in the EPIGRAM.

One-half dozen second-hand Bicycles—$20 up,—at Moore & Moores, The Stationers.

KLONDIKE NEWS.

From our Millionaire Correspondent at Dawson.

DEAR EPIGRAM:—Since I wrote you things have changed somewhat. The temperature has dropped 17 feet, three inches and a jump below the largest thermometer in town.

Most of the mules have been taken down to Circle city on account of the high stumpage charged by the Canadian government.

Since the cold weather set in whiskey in the Dirty Dog saloon is being sold in bites. A large cake of the red ice is laid on the counter at four bits a bite.

The Yakima contingent having failed to "get here" the brewery has closed down for the winter, but Hop Pole Bill says he will start her up when the sun comes up if it costs him $33,000,000, to do it.

Sour Deaux Jack came into Dawson some time in the night after $100 worth of salt. The salt was packed in a large half pound oyster can. Jack thinks with the salt he can manage to winter on nugget soup.

If you have any bar-creatures out of a job and one up. One is wanted at the High Roller pleasure resort for the night shift. No cash register and $5,000 will be paid from sun-down to sun-up.

Bony O'Hooihihan is offering his rich strike on Bonanza creek for sale cheap. Parties with anything from $700,000 up can get a snap as Bony wants to go to Seattle and get something to eat.

Dawson's new hotel, on the American, European and Alaskan plan is now open. It is on Pneumonia street and is ready for the public. Lodgings $4.00; with beds $14.

Our newspaper is a hummer. He must be from North Yakima, for he has already laid claims to have the largest circulation within the Arctic circle. The editor modestly announces that he could carry more advertisements of Root Beer and bicycles from Seattle and Portland, and says that for a short time he will receive unobjectionable ads. at $60 a page line. These prices will not hold good in the morning.

But I fear I am tiring you so I will close with the SAD REFRAN.

From every section of the globe

They flock to join our ranks

From every town a mighty host.

To Klondike's golden banks.

Yet regretfully each eager face

Of these recruits we scan,

But we always find they've left behind

The hot Tomale man.

ALAS P. YORICK.

One Bill Penic, of Missouri, has brought suit for $10,000 against a maker of gravestones on account of an epitaph on the tombstone of a victim of his pistol, which read: "Was shot and killed by Bill Penic, December 11, 1896; caused by Penic swearing to a lie on Cate's wife." Penic was tried for homicide, and acquitted on the grounds of self-defense.

Debs has temporarily abandoned his co-operative colony scheme for the state of Washington, and now desires to build a railroad for the city of Nashville, Tenn. He offers to supply bonds to any amount for the fulfillment of the contract. The contract price is $300,000, for which amount he suggests that the city shall issue bonds in large and small denominations and turn them over to the social democracy in payment for the work on the installment plan.

FOREIGN NEWS NOTES.

SPAIN'S NEW POLICY.

Captain-General Blanco to Buy up the Insurgent Leaders.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—A dispatch to the World from Madrid says:

Marshal Blanco has started for Cuba to begin the work of pacification. No money will be spared to buy off the chiefs of the insurrection, or to make their departure from the island easy, although all such proceedings will be denied officially.

The new governor-general has been given full power in certain instructions, a part of which has been kept secret from most members of the cabinet. The reserve instructions cover all international aspects of the Cuban question, especially Spain's relation with the United States, the treatment of American citizens in strict observance with the treaties of 1869 and 1871 with the United States, respect for foreign ownership of property, and possible negotiations with the insurgents. Such negotiations, according to the time-honored precedents of Spanish civil wars, even on the peninsula, will be conducted behind the scenes if entered into.

Nine-tenths of the product of certain Canadian gas wells, valued at $5,000,000, is piped across the boundary into the United States. The contention is made by would-be consumers in Canada that the industry is being absorbed gradually by United States companies, who have bought out the interests of Canadian incorporators, and an agitation is in progress to have the further export of the gas prohibited. Several of the existing companies are under contract to furnish gas for illumination and fuel to consumers in the United States and to exclude customers in Canada. Where Canadians are supplied it is intended that they have to pay at least double the price demanded to the south of the line.

Mulhall, the great English statistician, credits the United States with $20,000,000,000 more of wealth than the United Kingdom, while our debt is $14 per capita, as compared with $87 per capita for the United Kingdom. There were by the last returns 78,045 paupers in the United States, as compared with 887,580 in the United Kingdom. But 58 per cent of the paupers in this country were foreigners, and two-thirds of these foreign paupers were from the United Kingdom and Canada.

The London Spectator says that if only the United States would stop the Cuban war it would not be disposed to inquire too closely into our motives, and the London Chronicle has said that the reported ultimatum from the United States to Spain, "was almost too good to be true."

Ex-Minister Thurston's pamphlet on Hawaii is doing good work. The Eastern papers reproduce considerable extracts from it with maps. This is effective influence for annexation in the field where it is most needed.

There are sixty modern steamships fit for cruising now available by the United States navy in case of war, exclusive of regular war vessels building or in commission, and there are rapid-fire guns enough to equip fifteen of them in a week. These ships are the ocean liners, and coast steamships carrying the American flag.

OREGON NEWS NOTES.

The Antelope Herald says that sheep coming out of the mountains are, as a rule, in good fix and some of them are unusually fat. Others, however, were less fortunate, and we understand a couple of bands from Sherman county that passed the summer in the Blue mountains came out looking rather thin. Those mountains are becoming fearfully overcrowded, and those who are late in getting their sheep in there do not fare so well as they used to.

A disease called glanders is causing the death of quite a number of horses in Paradise, Wallawa county. The people there have asked the county court to order the stock inspector to that place to take steps to prevent the spread of the disease. At this particular time, however, the county is without a stock inspector, but the matter will be attended to at the next session of the court.

Albert Beck, a sheep man from Boise, Idaho, has bought 3000 stock sheep from Marshal & Furnish, of Pendleton. The prices are not known, but is supposed that good figures were obtained, as the sheep were considered the finest in the county.

The farmers of Umatilla county have all kinds of money, but it will still take at least two tons of gold to buy the wheat they are holding, says the Pendleton Tribune.

SILVER IN DEMAND.

Small Coins Needed in the Crop Movement.

CHICAGO, Oct. 16.—The shipment of silver from the subtreasury at Chicago to country banks in the Central West has been for the past four weeks greater than ever before in the recollection of the employees. A half-million dollars a week has been shipped on orders from country banks, and, despite large shipments of new coins to the subtreasury, the stock of silver in the vaults is $3,000,000, being $1,000,000 less than the average amount carried. The ordinary demand for silver coin has averaged $30,000 a day, but during the past month or more, the shipments have been as large $125,000. Assistant Treasurer Phelps attributes the demand of the big wheat crop in the Western states, and the previous lack of silver for the making of change.

DURRANT BREAKS DOWN.

The Long Period of Imprisonment and Suspense Has Its Effect.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 21.—Theodore Durrant, convicted of the murder of Blanche Lamont, whose fate depends upon the action of the United States supreme court, is reported to be breaking down. Yesterday, for the first time since his arrest and incarceration within the confines of San Quentin, he showed signs of sullenness, and refused to leave his cell for his customary exercise. Until yesterday Durrant has always been one of the most tractable prisoners in the penitentiary, and his unexpected change of demeanor consequently caused more than usual comment. Within the past few days he has betrayed signs of nervousness and irritability, and even the visits of his parents, to which he formerly looked forward with almost childish eagerness, have been received with an indifference which shocked his visitors. It is the impression of the jail officials that he will collapse completely if the decision of the supreme court should prove adverse to him.

WASHINGTON STATE.

The Pasco News-Recorder says that Mrs. H. Whyburn, a dairy farmer near that place, nearly lost a number of cows a few days ago by turning them into a field where second growth Kaffir corn had started. Inside of thirty minutes the cows began to show distress, and were immediately taken out of the field. Some of the cows were very sick and acted as though they had the bird staggers, and the flesh on their faces and hips quivered remarkably. They all recovered after two or three hours' treatment.

The Dobson Company sold 222 bales of hops in Chehalis last week to Mr. Metzler, for a price reported to be a little better than 15 cents. Coffman & Kepner bought G. L. Young's 154 bales at 13½ cents; Twiss Bros., 54 bales at 13 cents; H. A. Zaught, 23 bales 13 cents. Metzler bought 44 bales at Ditmar for 11½ cents. The growers are still waiting for better prices. Fourteen cents was about the best offer that could be had.

The output of the Northern Pacific coal mines at Roslyn for the month of September was a record-breaker, being nearly 45,000 long tons. The output would have been 50,000 tons but for a shortage of cars and an unavoidable breakdown. The mines are now running six days each week, with an increasing number of men working.

Steam threshing outfits are coming into Oakesdale daily from the surrounding country, seven having arrived in the last few days. If fair weather will continue for three weeks more, it will be safe to say that the entire crop in that vicinity will be saved. It is understood that the railroads are giving free transportation to all threshing rigs that want to come into that section, in order to facilitate the saving of the grain.

Even the little damage done by rain to wheat in the Palouse country occasioned a loss that amounts to a sum which, had it been expended in building sheds, would have protected all of the grain that has been threshed. It is better not to leave too much to Providence.

Reports are current in Seattle that there are agents of the Japanese and British governments on Puget Sound seeking information regarding coast defense preparations which the United States government is now making at Marrowstone point and other Sound points.

The shingle mill in Kelso, Cowlitz county, is cutting 170,000 shingles in 11 hours. This is at the rate of over 150,000 in 10 hours.

Last week a colored man by the name of Bamfield was appointed postmaster at Beaufort, S. C., and not a word of protest has been raised against him. The Beaufort office comes under the presidential grade, and pays nearly $3000 a year. The Hogsaville office is of the fourth class, and the compensation of postmaster is about $600 a year. Bamfield is the son-in-law of General Robert Small, one of the colored leaders of the Palmetto state, who has served several terms in congress from the Beaufort district. General Small has been in Washington for several months, seeking an appointment as collector of customs for the port of Beaufort for himself, and at the same time he has been urging the claims of his son-in-law to the Beaufort postoffice.

DAIRY INTERESTS INCREASING.

Alfalfa Makes Butter Making a Good Business.

F. A. McDonald, State Dairy Commissioner was in the city yesterday on his way home from the Spokane Fruit fair.

Mr. McDonald is gathering information for a report which he is preparing on the dairy interests of the state in which he expects to show the annual production of butter and cheese in each county, cost of feed and cost of milk.

Kittitas county, he says, leads all the rest in the extent and character of its dairy business.

How does alfalfa compare with timothy and clover as fodder for the dairy cows he was asked by the reporter:

"The object to be attained," he replied, "is to produce butter cheap, which is rendered possible in a vicinity where alfalfa grows on account of the abundant yield per acre, but the flavor is not equal to butter produced from timothy and clover."

Are the dairy interests of the state increasing, he was asked.

"Well, in this and Kittitas county more attention is being paid to it, but in Eastern Washington and the Big Bend country the high price of wheat has diverted the farmer's attention and they have turned to it as a more convenient way of making money. I think that on account of legislation prohibiting the manufacture of oleomargarine will make butter rule higher hereafter and those entering the field will find it a safe and profitable business."

We again have fresh Puget Sound Cod fish.

J. Bailey, State Superintendent. Papers and discussions will occupy the other sessions.

E. E. Kelso, the old Huteh of Kiona, has returned to Yakima and engaged in the insurance and abstract business, and this congenial aggregation may be found at any time in their commodious quarters over Janek's pharmacy. Mr. Kelso says that they will thresh about 50000 bushels of wheat off their Horse-heaven ranches this year and expect to get 70 cents per bushel for it, for all of which they are indebted to the election of McKinley and populist state ticket.

Tuesday, Charles Kinne, of the Ahtanum, was coming into town horseback. His horse became frightened near the railway track and ran away. In turning the corner near Coffin's store the horse fell down and rolled over Mr Kinne, knocking him senseless and badly bruising his face and knee. He was indeed fortunate to escape as he did.

TOWN AND COUNTY

WORK ON THE STATE ROAD PROGRESSING FINELY.—An old time prospector who has been in the Gold Hill mining district doing the assessment work upon his properties, returned early this week and when seen by our reporter he stated that he had come over the line of the new state road and that work thereon was progressing very satisfactorily, and it is expected will be completed around Hanging Rock this season, beyond which it will be comparatively easy. The distance from Hanging Rock to the summit is about 25 miles and it is thought that the appropriation will be sufficient to extend the road to Pleasant valley, about eight miles from the summit. Speaking of the mines he said that a good deal of work had been done this summer, but of late parties had been jumping a good many claims, and intimated that the patience of the old prospectors in the camp were not in a humor to temporize with these parasites, and that if they attempt to carry out their purpose of appropriating the claims they have spent years in acquiring, they will record their protest with a Winchester elevated in the direction of their worthless carcass.

RESIDENCE BURGLARIZED.—The little brick cottage on Second street adjoining the residence of Agent Graham, was entered by a sneak-thief some time Saturday afternoon last, who carried away two new suits of clothes, an overcoat and other wearing apparel belonging to A. C. Coburn, of the Wallace Coburn Hardware Company. No clue has been obtained by the officers which is likely to lead to the arrest of the guilty party. Sheriff Shaw at first entertained the idea of a practical joke having been played upon the aforesaid victim, but when informed that Kelso had not come to town on that day abandoned the clue. If Mr. Coburn's state of mind upon the discovery of the theft may be taken as a criterion summary vengeance will no be visited upon the culprit, in case of apprehension.

A KLONDIKE DINNER.—The following invitation was received by some of our business men this week:

"You are invited to attend a Klondike dinner given at the Tacoma Hotel at 8 p. m., Saturday, Oct. 23, 1897. Object: To sample the numerous food products I am now preserving in Tacoma and to talk over future plans for the advancement of a very valuable industry for your locality and state. If you will not be present inform me not later than Thursday, October 21st.

Yours Respectfully,
A. F. SPLAWN.

Mr. Splawn has unquestionably taken the proper course to convince those he desires to interest in his industry. He is entitled to success.

LUCAS-STURGILL.—Mr. J. P. Lucas, of this city, was married on last Wednesday to Miss Elsie Sturgill, of Baker City, at the bride's home in the latter city. Mr. Lucas is the well known and popular book keeper in the large store of Coffin Bros. while the young lady he has made his wife was one of the most popular of a city noted for its beautiful young women. Mr. and Mrs. Lucas will permanently establish themselves in this city and the EPIGRAM joins in wishing the happy couple long years of marital happiness, and engages the hope that they may find their life among the residents of our city a happy one indeed.

Good word For Crimson Clover.

We have crimson clover nearly 3 inches high and a perfect mat over the ground. Such clover is just as good as a coat of manure. It cost less than any manure we can buy. If every plant were to kill out before next spring, we would still be far ahead of the outlay. We would have no more right to blame the clover for dying than we would have to blame the manure for not reproducing itself! That is a fact which farmers must understand. When crimson clover keeps alive until snow covers the ground, or till the "heaving" of spring frosts, it has done enough for you. To live in the spring is heaping up the cup. It's making you a present that you don't always deserve.—Rural New Yorker.

Platform Truck.

As there are always more or less of lifting and shifting of barrels and boxes and moving grain and corn from one part of the barn to another, it put us to thinking how we might do away with much of the heavy lifting, and the following, shown by the accompanying cut, is the result. Thus writes an Ohio Farmer correspondent. He adds:

Secure 2 by 4 pine pieces or any light wood and make a frame 2½ by 3 feet. At the corners half lap each piece. Then cover frame by boards, making a platform the size of the frame. Now get a set of four heavy large wheeled casters, as stove casters. Wheels should be not less than 3 inches. The cut gives the idea without further description. Now then place on this platform one or more barrels and push it up to that bin of wheat you want to move to another bin and fill the barrel, then push to wherever you wish. And when you thrash use a barrel and the platform truck instead of sacks and save the heavy shouldering of sack and carrying to bins.

Trees For Beginners.

The following trees are to be recommended for general planting, says American Gardening: American and European elm, American and European linden, common and yellow locust, white maple, Norway maple, sugar maple, white birch (American and European), white ash, black walnut, buckeye, buttonwood, horse chestnut, hackberry, tree of heaven (ailanthus), Kentucky coffee tree, and in parts of the country where beech trees do well the American beech.

A bulletin from the Ohio station reports results of a series of experiments made on the station farm at Wooster in 1895 in the treatment of oats for the prevention of smut, in which it was shown that from duplicate samples of seed taken from the same sack the untreated seed produced as high as 40 per cent of smutted heads, while the treated seed produced a considerably larger crop entirely free from smut. These experiments have been repeated with the same result in 1896, a year when the smut of oats has been exceptionally prevalent. It has also been demonstrated that, with a very slight modification, the same treatment will absolutely prevent the stinking smut of wheat. From the reports which have come to the station it seems probable that the farmers of Ohio have this year lost not less than half a million dollars from oat smut alone.

WINTER WHEAT.

Results From Interesting Experiments Made at the Kansas Station.

A bulletin issued from the Kansas station gives the results of tests in the growing of winter wheat. Following are conclusions drawn from this bulletin:

For 16 years the station has had an acre continuously in wheat without manure. The yield appears to be falling off, and the acre shows signs of exhaustion. Growth is beginning to be spotted and thinner and shorter in certain places than in others. Early plowing for wheat, which will allow the soil to settle before it is seeded, shows a decided advantage over plowing just before seeding. Land subsoiled six weeks before seeding produced a better yield than that which was plowed in the ordinary way at the same time, but plots that were subsoiled a year before seeding and which in the meantime had been cropped with peas gave no increase over plowed plots.

A series of seedings made every seventh day from Sept. 13 to Nov. 1 gave the best yield from the seeding of Sept. 20, with a constantly diminishing yield from that time on. About the middle of September, therefore, is regarded as the best time to seed wheat in that region. The best returns were secured from a seeding of 1½ bushels per acre. The shoe express drill gave better returns than seeding with the hoe drill, lister drill or broadcasting, but whether this method gives the best yield in any given season will depend largely upon the character of the season.

The experiment with light, average and heavy seeds showed no marked difference this year, although the average of the experiments for four years is in favor of the heavy seed. Pasturing wheat this year did not injuriously affect the yield. In former experiments, however, the best yields have been secured from wheat not pastured. Heavy manuring with barnyard manure gives smaller yields than land in wheat continuously without manuring, the reason being that the wheat on the manured land lodges and fails to fill.

The best yielding varieties, as shown by the average of several years, are in the order named as follows: Andrew's No. 4, Turkey, Valley, Tasmanian Red, Ramsey and Currell.

Muscle Making Crops.

Ever since the silo has come into regular use in preserving the corn crop dairymen have been studying to find the best muscle making grain to feed with the ensilage. Cottonseed meal is the cheapest form of "muscle makers," and there is no safer way in which to feed it than with corn ensilage. Some farmers have always felt that they could grow muscle making crops cheaper than they can buy cottonseed meal, bran or other grain. For example, we have told how Mr. Bancroft of Delaware uses hundreds of tons of crimson clover and cowpeas in the silo. These crops help "balance" the corn ensilage and cut down the grain bill. There are farmers who feel that, with present low prices for dairy products, good clover hay and a few pounds of wheat bran will act like the meat in a sandwich to even up the ensilage.

In Canada a mixture of one part sunflower heads, two parts horse beans and four parts corn are put into the silo together in the hope of obtaining ensilage, which is of itself a "balanced ration." This plan of growing muscle making crops on the home farm is not advocated as strongly as it was several years ago. The price of bran and cottonseed meal has fallen so low that in many cases the old argument fails, and it is actually cheaper to buy grain than it is to grow clover or peas. In many cases it actually pays best to raise a heavy crop of corn for the silo on the land nearest the barn and put the other grass land into timothy to be sold every year, the money obtained for it to be spent for grain rich in muscle makers.

Hands Up Wins.

A Hebrew drummer was one time on a train while it was being held up. At the point of an apparent canon he took from his pocket one hundred dollars of which he gave the highwayman ninety-six "Shell out that four" the latter demanded. "Surely you will allow me four per cent on a cash transaction." the aforementioned descendent of Jacob retorted.

An act of presence of mind and coolness which would rival the business sagacity of this drummer was witnessed in this city one night this week when a prominent county official was nearing his home with about $100 in his pockets $66 of which was in a little sack. Throw up your hands demanded one of three would be bad men, to which the official responded with two uplifted palms, in the attitude of bestowing a blessing upon his assailants.

His pockets were rifled and only a small sum of money found. In throwing up his hands he threw the sack containing the $65 over the fence into his yard. The ruse not being detected in the darkness.

Hops Rule Lower.

The hop market this week, according to local buyers, has taken a decided slump. They are offering only 13½ for "choice" and claim that the Yakima product is only from medium to prime. The difference in price as between the different grades is from one to one and a half cents. Buyers say the poorest hops this year is the early picked. Growers, however, are not anxious to sell and it is more than probable by the 1st of November the market will be more brisk.

Our city man took a walk through the mammoth establishment of Lombard & Horsley one day this week and was agreeably impressed at the elegant line of furniture and general house-furnishing goods carried by these gentlemen. Our wanderer was informed that he could buy wall-paper at five cents a roll, and that for 75 cents he could paper a room 12x12. That for 15 cents each he could hang complete window shades. Their line of carpets was extensive, as was also the blanket and comfort department. The furniture stock is equal to that carried by city houses, and most all the prices quoted were astonishingly low.

The colored troops in the regular army have an excellent record. During the past year the total hospital admission rate for all causes among the colored troops was 868.88 per thousand of strength, as compared with 1132.49 among the whites, and as compared with 915.88 among themselves in the previous year, and with 1368.64, their own annual average for the previous decade, the annual average of the white troops having been 1284.95. The nonefficiency from all causes among the colored troops during the year was 25.75 per thousand of strength, as compared with 34.72 among the white troops. The colored soldier lost 9.42 days from disability during the year, the white soldier 12.71; and the average time of treatment of each case was, among the colored troops, 10.84 days; among the whites, 11.22 days. The causes of disability from which the colored men suffered less than the white troops were malarial fevers, venereal diseases, alcoholism, diarrhoea and injuries; those from which they suffered more were neuralgia, rheumatism, and myalgia, tonsillitis, colic and constipation, conjunctivitis and pneumonia.

Mr. Yeats, lately returned from Nevada, where he has spent several months in the employ of a mining company tells us that the silver state is in a very bad way, that times are hard and the "crows" just as black as they are in Yakima. Mr. Yeats thinks he will remain in Yakima county.
