Supreme Court of California
WILLIAM H. LANGDON
ASSOCIATE JUSTICE
SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.

May 25, 1937.

Charles A. Whitmore, Esq.,
Visalia, California,

Dear Charles:

I have delayed answering your letter of May 12th because I was uncertain about my plans for the meeting at Lindsay on May 29th.

Myrtie is not going south for this session of the Court, as she will be busy preparing for moving into the house which we have rented and, furthermore, she is afraid of the heat at this season.

I am driving down in my car and Judge Seawell will accompany me. If we reach Visalia early enough in the afternoon, we will stop at your office for a moment, but you need not wait for us, as I expect to see you over at Lindsay in the evening.

Give my kindest regards to May.

Very sincerely yours,
William H. Langdon

The Flag!

IT speaks sublimity, and every part has a voice.
Its stripes of alternate red and white proclaim the original union of thirteen states to maintain the declaration of independence. White is purity;
red, for valor; blue, for justice.
