Cliff Dolph called from Yakima while you were away. He asked that you get this message: Fred Cochran, after all, didn't send the Lincoln painting to New York with his sister for the reason his sister was sure the expert on painting she was to confer with couldn't keep his mouth shut. The painting is still in ~~Klick~~ Klickitat County in a bank vault. Cochran has definitely promised the painting will be at the museum at the time of Lincoln's birthday.

Dolph had with him the Lewis & Clark medals. He send he will send you the story on them and will have a picture taken.

Also, she claims that your book is out of print and would like to obtain a copy. Will be delighted to purchase same.

She is here on a National Science Foundation Grant. Will be back here next Spring.

Dear Click;

Attached is an item I condensed and copied from a report by Alex Saluskin, of recent tribal council doings ----- from now on out, each department at the agency turns in a weekly summary of news, which is for me. Some of it I can use, some merely gives a forecast of dates, and some is so much hogwash --- I made two minor items out of the council news, but this third topic I copied for reference and because its ~~contents~~ contents interest me. I made a copy for you as I thought you might be interested, for reference purposes only. The stuff I get is all scanned by

" Every tribal member or Indian organization should send a representative, or better yet, a delegation to see every candidate for congress, or invite the candidate to a meeting of the tribal council or other meeting, or write the candidate a letter and get them to tell you what they will do on specific legislation, on all Indian/ bills generally, and ask them to support your tribes position.

" actually, many congressmen want to help Indians. but they often do not know what Indians want.

La Crone, he said this waouldn't publish to well, but thought I might like to read it as is -- so I did and copied the goutes.

Anyway - read it and chuckle, I did.

3. Readjustment of Government trusteeship: Clear warning was given in the last session of Congress that it is the intent of that body to " terminate as rapidly as possible " all special relationships between the Federal government and I,ndians, and ~~that~~ "unless we act together and decicevely we shall find it it is too late to protect our rights and properties and to bring about improved policies and federal servicex for I,ndians. Questions you should ask :

Will you, if elected, work vigorously for

(a) Legislation to extend the Indian claims commission act ?

(b) a fractionated lands, or heirship bill which Indians want ? H.R.1048

Yakima Bill ?

(c) Amendment of public law 280 to provide for Indian consent. (consultation is not enough)

(d) Will you, if elected, support the ' Indians position ' on bills pending in congress ? (meaning the position taken by official tribal governing bodies in the duly constituted meetings and not ~~xxxx~~ the position taken by unauthorized delegates or organizations that do not represent official Indian points of view.)

Dear Click...

Sometimes I think I know many words, but I can't seem to find the right ones to tell you how much your kindness and understanding have meant to me during these more than three years I have worked with you. That goes for all the boys on the desk; you've all been so kind to overlook my many faults and encourage me in my wayward prose.

I'll be seeing you, I hope, and always wishing for you great happiness and achievement.

Affectionately,

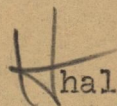

Isabel

Under federal code, could not find anything to indicate limitations on state assuming control of Indian jurisdiction.

Section 7 of Chapter 280, U.S. Laws of 1953 state:

"The consent of the United States is hereby given to any other state not having jurisdiction with respect to criminal offenses or civil causes of action, or with respect to both, as provided for in this Act, to ASSUME JURISDICTION AT SUCH TIME AND IN SUCH MANNER AS THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE SHALL, BY AFFIRMATIVE LEGISLATIVE ACTION, OBLIGATE AND BIND THE STATE TO ASSUMPTION THEREOF."

The bill introduced in the state legislature is based on this section.

[Guie, Dean]

Dear Dean:

Just checked with Archives regarding Agent Wilbur's reports from 1874-9. They are in the printed reports of the Department of the Interior of those years. They average about two pages in lengths. The books are available in most libraries so it might be easier to borrow them and copy the reports than to microfilm them.

The original copies, along with the accompanying papers have been lost. It seems that the printer claims he returned them to the Department of the Interior and the Department of the Interior Claims they never were received and that this argument has been going on for the last 75 years.

If you want copies made from the printed books it might be better to order from the Library of Congress. It seems that there is some sort of a gentlemen's agreement between the Archives and the Library of Congress to the effect that the Archives will copy only manuscripts and that printed work will be reproduced at the Library. I'm quite sure any order sent in by mail would be taken care of at either place.

Dr. Herman J. Deutsch of the State College of Wash is at the Archives this week doing some research in Department of the Interior records.

~~7~~ Only person mentioned in any of this still living is old P.J.Herke of Tampico who is a tough old nut and interesting as all get out.

Anyway, Pete contributed $100 to the first fair by buying stock in fair association to that extent. In those days $100 was an AWFUL lot of money.

All others mentioned are dead- W.L.Wright who exhibited Jerseys was grandfather our Bill Wright and his father, J.Howard Wright, had to lead cows ~~xxxx~~ to and from fair daily (old man didn't dare leave 'em overnight at fairgrounds.) Number of others mentioned have grandsons, etc. here .
