Dear Editor:

I have a copy of the Yakima Treaty Centennial 64 pp. booklet, illustrated I wish to send you, not as a review copy but for your general collection. I was asked to write several sections of this and edit it by the Yakima Tribe, and it is the first time the tribe has ever authorized such a publication.

I am also sending you an advance circular of my forthcoming book (spring publication is being set up) to acquaint you with the book. I am also preparing a "review" list to be sent to the publisher and would appreciate your name and address so this may be sent in due time.

I am city editor of The Yakima Daily Republic, and before coming to this state nine years ago worked on newspapers in California, so I feel I may approach you "in the profession."

My people, the remnant and non-treaty Wanapums are the ones for whom the Grant County Public Utility District has named the upper Priest Rapids dam. For that reason, and others, the Wanapums are occasionally "in the news."

Drop me a note and one of these days when I am in Seattle--not too soon--I'll drop by and get acquainted.

Sincerely
