Mr. John Forsyth,
Book and Print Store,
Parksville, British Columbia.

Dear Sir:

I am wondering if you issue book lists, and if so, would you be kind enough to send me one of most recent date, and when your next is issued, please send that also.

Sincerely Yours

Dear Jerry:

Hope the letter catches you, suspect it will. Can't at the moment put my hand in the ~~fixixxxxxxx~~ file where your address is.

Made one 'diplomatic' inquiry of our friend here in Yakima regarding 'surplus' of books, just some leading questions which didn't provoke any especial answer. But plan to go by his house within a short time and can pretty well tell, then. Rather suspect not but he's rather secretive about some of his affairs at times.

Enclosed my check for $8.50. As I recall, you had a set of Told by Pioneers (Washington) 3 vols, paper for $8. Hope they are still available and that the 50 cents covers tax and postage.

Was it Wovoka or Washakie you asked me about? Here's a book, you no doubt are familiar with called Shoshone Folk Lore by Sarah Mila Olden. It is small 8vo, brownish yellow red stamped, published by Morehouse Publishing Co., Milwaukee, Wis., 1923, that contains Shoshone material, dances, religious beliefs, characteristics, manners and customs, and Chief Washakie.

Thanks for your courtesy when we were there. Still fighting off effects of "Montana water or something but going pretty strong. Just mad I lost so much time as I'd have liked to have spent more time in the field, also at Spokane.

Best regards to you and your family. Hurriedly.

Sincerely

Mr. Gilbert Whitlock,
Sperry Road, Bethany, Conn.

Dear Mr. Whitlock:

I am wondering if you issue any more book, pamphlet,
etc. lists?

While my wants are not regular, and perhaps donot amount to large orders, I found your lists of widespread variety and occasionally covering material in my field.

I am enclosing stamps, to help defray ~~making~~ list costs, or at least for mailing a few.

Sincerely Yours

Gentlemen:

I am enclosing a postal note for $1.00 I hope it is sufficient to permit you to send me one of your recent catalogues dealing with Americana (Western especially), or for a catalogue soon to be issued.

Most Sincerely

Gentlemen:

I am wondering if you have issued an Americana catalogue within recent months, or contemplate the issuance of one in the not too distant future.

Since I recollect in former years your catalogues, which I sometimes acquired and made purchases from as possible, were of a type I have admired, I am sending $1.

I hope this is a satisfactory sum to enable me to acquire one of your major catalogues.

Dear Mr. Whitlock:

You may send me the following items from your List 205a. Without checking my files, I recall a small residual from my last purchase. Please memo me the cost including books requested on this list, now available.

No. 12-Woodruff--The Trotting Horse...$3.90

No. 127-Goodrich, Customs and Antiquities, Boston, 1849 $1.85

(Alternate for either of above if they have been sold)

No. 173-Hitchcock, Maj Gen Ethan Allen, Fifty Years in Camp & Field. $2.90

(Please include postage on your memo)

Sincerely Yours
