OFFICIAL PAPER OF NORTH YAKIMA.

NOW that the campaign is over and men's minds have returned to their normal condition, it might be useful to look over the situation briefly and determine, if we can, what were the causes that brought about such far-reaching results. Nearly every fusionist we meet, has hastily formed his opinion for the reason of the landslide, and clings to it tenaciously. The average Republican, with a wise look, informs us that it was caused, by what they term, the utter disloyalty of certain well known fusion leaders in this state, to the national administration, and that the fusion party defeat has been a deserved rebuke to those leaders. Many of the fusionists themselves, however, in our opinion, give a better reason for the crushing defeat in this state, when they ascribe it to the effect of what is known as the single tax issue. The evidence is now accumulating to show that it was this bugaboo of single tax that either scared so many of the fusion farmers into voting the republican ticket or else into not voting at all, and judging from the fact that the republican party throughout the state did make tremendous and unusual efforts to cast its full vote, and from the further fact that the vote in this county is less by nearly four hundred, and in the state by at least thirty thousand, than it was two years ago. No well informed person will assert, we believe, that the vote of Yakima county is not greater to day than it was in 1896; and the same is probably true of the state. So that the loss of votes cannot be ascribed to a loss of population. When we come to consider that the farmers of this valley have been literally deluged all through the campaign with masses of single tax literature, a portion of which was sent out by a little society of Henry George Cranks, having their headquarters in Seattle, who probably honestly imagined that they were doing great things for the success of fusion. But by far the larger part was sent out under the auspices of the republican state committee, and which were probably far more effective in winning the election for them, than was all the half-baked orators who run up and down the state bawling out to stand by Mr. McKinley, when every body knew that the President and his administration were not direct issues in the campaign, except as they effected the silver question. The claim made that congressman Lewis brought on the avalanche by his criticism of the war department must necessarily be a foolish one, else how would he have received hundreds and thousands more votes than his associates on the ticket. It was not the ticket so much that was beaten, as the socialistic platform. A fitting epitaph for the gravestone that should mark the burial place of the fusion party at Ellensburg would be—"Died in the third year of its age from an over dose of single tax, administered by its fool friends.

***

NOW that the season for social and theatrical entertainment is again with us, THE EPIGRAM proposes at the risk of being deemed ungallant by some members of the fair sex, to again call the public's attention to the hat-wearing nuisance at the theatre. A majority of ladies through pure thoughtlessness, no doubt, when witnessing an entertainment at our local play house, fail to remove their usually lovely but towering headgear, little thinking perhaps, that they are destroying the pleasure of the evening for the man or woman who are so unfortunate as to have to sit behind them. In a hall not provided with raised seats like ours, the evil is intensely aggravated. A friend who attended a show recently, informed us that he sat behind two sweet giggling girls with long waving plumes in their hats, and except for an occasional stolen glance at the stage, he saw nothing during the evening to repay him for his expenditure, save the satisfaction derived from gazing at pink cheeks and beautiful ivories, while the inevitable plumes dazzled his eyesight. This was perhaps an aggravated case, but complaint is general and not without good reason. In a number of towns in this state, the city dads have passed ordinances forbidding the hat wearing nuisance in places of public amusement, but it is to be hoped that no such radical action will be necessary in Yakima. In fact most Yakima ladies who attend the theatre now with any regularity, gracefully bow to public sentiment by removing their hats and bonnets which invariably calls forth the commendation of downtrodden men.

DURING the past week THE EPIGRAM has received communications, both verbal and written from men who represent in their political views, all three wings of the late fusion party. In almost every case these gentlemen strongly commend the stand taken by this paper in refusing to follow longer the fortunes of the so called people's party. They freely admit, as do we, the utter hopelessness and futility, of attempting to blow life again into the dead and putrid carcass of fusion. The original people's party is disorganized, and its individual members are apparently as far apart in their views on public questions as any faction of them are with the democrats. The rehabilitation of silver, and the destruction of trusts are the central and controlling issues which the regular democracy, under the leadership of the peerless Bryan, expect to go before the people on in 1900. A faction of the populist party decline to consider these vital questions as the main issues, but are again divided among themselves as to what should be. Some demand direct legislation, others government ownership of railways, while still another class demand the single tax as a long step toward their desired goal of nationalism. All of this latter class of populist, never did care a bauble about free silver, but are determined on nothing short of revolutionizing our present popular system of government. Their aim must necessarily be paternalism, for that is the only possible outcome. These midroad populist, in their drift and tendencies, represent one extreme, the republican party the other, in their ideas of governing free men. Both are reactionary; both are revolutionary. The policy of either would eventually destroy human liberty. Between these two extremes, like a stone wall, stands the true democracy handed down by Thomas Jefferson. This is the only party that guarantees liberty to the individual; all other parties desire to strain and curb him. the republican policy would make a slave of him, the Ultra populist policy would make a machine of him, but Jeffersonian democracy would teach him how to make a man of himself. The democratic party has in its long history perhaps, sometimes been wrong, and is yet prone to make mistakes, but on account of the great fundamental truths upon which it is based, it will never die—at least not until human liberty has perished in the world.

***

THE boy editor of our contemporary the Republic, seems to be badly worried concerning the future of the local democratic party and its acknowledged mouth piece, THE EPIGRAM. So far as the party is concerned we can inform our esteemed contemporary, that it will be in good fighting trim before the year 1900 is here. So far as the alleged democrats are concerned, who have been taken to the bosom of the G. O. P., they will no doubt be allowed to worship again at the old shrine, but of course only on a solemn promise that they wont act naughty again, and will obey the constituted authorities of the party. As for THE EPIGRAM, it will continue to live and flourish even though it has no post office behind it.

Dangerous Odors.

Some smells are dangerous. A single sniff of highly concentrated prussic acid will kill a man as quickly as a shot through the heart. The odor of a bad egg is due to the presence of sulphuretted hydrogen, and the objectionable perfumes of sewers and bone factories are attributable chiefly to the same gas. Chemical laboratories are famous for bad smells. Berzelius, who discovered the element called "selenium," once tried the experiment of permitting a bubble of pure hydrogen selenide gas to enter his nostril. For days afterward he was not able to smell strong ammonia, the olfactory nerves being temporarily paralyzed. Selenium gas has the odor of putrid horse radish. Tellurium is even worse. There is a story of a physician whose patient, a lady, refused to take an absolutely necessary rest because she was so fond of being always on the go in society. He gave her a pill containing a small quantity of tellurium, and her breath was affected by it to such an extent that she was not able to appear in public for a month. She never guessed what the trouble was. The volatilized essential oil of roses is supposed to cause "rose cold." This peculiar complaint is so far nervous in its character that paper roses sometimes excite it.—Boston Transcript.

Effects of Imagination.

Some years ago a number of students in Europe were concerned in a charge which demonstrated the powerful effects of imagination. In a frolic they donned disguises and arrested another student, whom they tried in a theatrically arranged and dimly lighted chamber and condemned to death. For several hours they kept their horror stricken victim in a darkened room, and having informed him that he was to be beheaded bandaged his eyes and led him to another apartment.

A crowd was assembled, but restrained their mirth as the victim of the practical joke was forced to kneel down and placed his neck across the spindle of a three legged stool. They prepared for a great outburst of laughter as the neck of the poor young fellow was touched with a slender cane, but instead had to shed tears of regret for the action, as immediately upon being touched with the cane the young man fell dead.

The Republican Love-feast.

The local republican party celebrated its great victory in county, state and nation last Saturday night, by holding an enthusiastic meeting at Mason's opera house, under the auspices of their county central committee. By 8 o'clock nearly all the available space in the large hall was occupied by an audience composed mainly of the representatives of the victorious party, with the addition of quite a sprinkling of the vanquished adherents of fusion, who came to look on, and hear the eloquent speakers, as well as to see how the newly elected congressman from Yakima, would wear his great, but unexpectedly acquired honors. As a ratification, the meeting was unique, inasmuch as three prominent local attorneys were on the stage by invitation, as the representatives of the three wings of the defeated fusion party.

The meeting was called to order by the chairman of the local committee, who acted as master of ceremonies. I. P. Englehart was the first speaker and in a brief, but fitting address responded, unselfishly claiming no credit for himself for the landslide, but eulogizing congressman-elect Jones. He was loudly applauded. Prosecuting attorney Snyder followed as a representative of the silver republicans, and in a brief, but brilliant speech complimented the victors in general and W. L. Jones in particular. His address was of a manly tone, and he soon had the sympathy of his audience, and in closing received a hearty applause. He was followed by Rev. H. M. Bartlett who eulogized Mr. Jones with a few well timed remarks, and then cracked a joke at the expense of the vanquished, but ever popular, Col. Lewis, which was certainly not appreciated by many in the audience. The next speaker was the representative of the democracy the popular and witty Col. Fred Miller, who entertained the audience with some of his classic jokes, maintained his own expense, in behalf of the democratic party the speaker expressed the kindest feelings towards the victors and complimented Congressman Jones.

J. G. Boyle as the representative of the populist party was the next speaker and thoroughly imbued with the spirit of the occasion, made an eloquent and patriotic address which seemed to highly please his auditors. He received loud applause. Prof. Barge then addressed the people giving a very thorough and complete history of the different branches of the great Jones family, intimating that our own "Yakima" Jones was the greatest of the lot. Congressman-elect W. L. Jones then arose to respond to the speeches made in his honor. He expressed himself as highly pleased with the numerous expressions of good will made on every hand, and extended his thanks therefore. He accepted the appellation of "Yakima" Jones and was proud of it. He had done his best in his canvass to advertise the peerless Yakima and would continue to do so in the future. Mr. Jones was in splendid voice and as usual with him, delivered a clear cut and ringing address, which was heartily applauded. Between speeches the Yakima orchestra entertained the crowd with lively airs, which much improved the program. Considering the manner in which it was gotten up the affair was regarded as considerable of a success.

Franklin County Allright.

Franklin County has the honor of being the only democratic county in the state since the last election. There being no republican party in that county the fight was made between the democrats and populists, with the result that the former made a clean sweep. Robert Gerry was elected to the legislature, I. J. Davis, sheriff, R. Olney, prosecuting attorney, C. S. O'Brien, clerk and auditor, while the editor of our esteemed exchange the Pasco News Recorder, Mr. C. T. Giezantner was elected county treasurer by a majority of one, we extend congratulations to our brother. Old Franklin is all right, and great is Pasco her chief city.

Looks for Renewal of Hostilities.

San Francisco, Nov. 15.—Major General Merriam is quoted as saying: "It would not surprise me to see that the negotiations between the United States and Spain had been broken off. If the work of the commission proves fruitless, it means a renewal of the war. If Spain refuses to accede to our demands it will show that she has secured substantial hope of assistance or European intervention. Should Germany take a hand in this matter England will follow suit, and then I look for France to put her finger in the pie."

OF LOCAL INTEREST

Thursday next, November 24, is Thanksgiving day.

Born, Sunday Nov. 13, to Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Moore, a son.

Alvah Howe, of the Pioneer bindery, Tacoma, was in the city Tuesday of this week.

Wm. Stohan, well known in this city has taken charge of the new hotel at Prosser.

It is rumored that Dick Case, the pugilist, is in Seattle, very low with consumption.

The many friends of Mr. T. S. Phillips will be glad to hear that he has been appointed postmaster at Mabton.

The Yakima orchestra have been engaged to furnish music for the ball to be given at Ellensburg on Thanksgiving evening.

The sun came out bright and warm on Tuesday; the heavens apparently having thrown off its period of mourning for the recent fusion defeat.

Ten of the "bootleggers" tried at Walla Walla for selling whiskey to the Indians in this county, were sentenced to McNeil's Island to terms varying from three months to two years.

The grading for the new piece of road being built for the Northern Pacific company at Selah, was finished on Wednesday, and the men and outfits shipped to Palouse City where the contractor has other work on hand.

The young people of the Congregational church will entertain their friends Friday eve, Nov. 25 at the church. There will be tableaux from the "Songs of Seven" and Indian club swinging by five young ladies. Every one cordially invited.

W. B. Dudley has been the recipient of double congratulations from his friends recently, not only on account of his election to the office of county Treasurer but for the better reason, of the arrival of a handsome eleven pound girl, who came to brighten his home recently.

A young banker and a young merchant of this city, wagered theater tickets last week on the result of the election. The banker won, and then to add insult to injury took the merchant's girl to the show. The weary merchant it is said has made an eternal vow never to again bet on elections.

S. S. Corvosso, though only a youth of 18 years, is a crack shot. He has had experience as a Nimrod on the plains of Manitoba. Last Tuesday, while hunting in the vicinity of Yakima, in two shots, with an ordinary shotgun, he brought down five big black wild geese, four at one shot and one at the next.—Oregonian.

J. E. Merwin expects to leave in a few days to take the road as a salesman for the Western Novelty Works, of Racine, Wisconsin, in which institution Messrs. Alex Miller, Michael Schorn and L. L. Thorpe of this city are heavily interested. Mr. Merwin will travel in eastern Washington, Idaho and Montana. Mr. Merwin is an A1 salesman, and the company is fortunate in securing his services.

That old yet ever new historic drama, "Uncle Tom's Cabin" was presented to a crowded house at Mason's on Monday night by the J. F. Stowe company while the work of this cabin company averaged better than most of its predecessors, it is essentially weak in its star, who but poorly represented the popular idea of old "Uncle Tom." However the minor characters were nearly all good. The parts of Marks and Topsy being especially so, as was also little Eva. This company carries one of the best bands on the road.

The Emergency Corps which was instrumental in sending bandages, comfort bags and towels to our troops this summer, has become a branch of the State Red Cross Society, and as such will continue to work for and aid our troops as much as possible. In order to raise funds for this purpose the ladies of the society will hold a Military Bazaar and supper Dec. 2nd, at 5 o'clock in the opera house. All those interested in this work are invited to visit this encampment. More particulars will be given next week.

Noah N. Brown, a familiar figure and hotel man in the early days of Wenatchee was an agreeable caller at this office on Monday. He has lately returned from Dawson City, Northwest Territory, and brought back some handsome gold nuggets, which many of our citizens have been permitted to gaze upon. Mr. Brown is visiting his relatives and friends here and at Brown Flat, and will spend the winter in this region. He expects to return to Dawson in the spring to resume operations up there.—Wenatchee Republican.

The presentation of "Romeo and Juliet" at Mason's on Friday night, attracted a large and appreciative audience. Miss Janet Waldorf in her character as Juliet, completely won the approval of her auditors. Her support was good in the main, although it was the opinion of many that the great character of Romeo was indifferently acted by McGeorge. The venerable actor McVay in the part of Mercutio won the approval of everyone. It is to be hoped that in the general revival of Shakespearian drama, that Yakima people will again soon have the pleasure of witnessing another play of the great master.

Dr. Klug, the optician, will be in Yakima again from Nov. 20 to Dec 1st, and can be found at his office at the Bartholomew hotel.

DEATH KNEEL OF FUSION.

"Deep Creek" Jones Will Take His Democracy Straight.

"This is the end of fusion in Washington," said H. T. Jones, chairman of the Democratic state central committee. "Hereafter the issue will be Jeffersonian Democracy against the trusts, corporations which defy the laws of the country, and Mark Hanna's control of the Republican party. There will be no more of the single tax rot. Our party will fight under the banner of equal taxation for all and special privileges for none, and on these issues it will win a glorious victory in 1900.

"The returns from the country in general are a sharp rebuke to the administration of President McKinley. The Republican majority in New York of more than a quarter of a million votes two years ago has been practically wiped out, and if Roosevelt had not come to the rescue with his war record popularity, which he won by denouncing Alger's conduct of the campaign of Santiago, Jeffersonian Democracy would have swept the state. Further evidence of the waning popularity of the administration is had in the severe Republican losses in congress. At this hour it appears that we have captured the house of representatives. Certainly we have whittled down the Republican majority. "In this state we were beaten by men who pretended to be devoted to the cause of the People's party, but who lent their assistance, some of them under cover, and some of them in the open, to the party of trusts, Hanna and boodles. Their defection is good riddance. It leaves us freeto fight the cause of the common people in 1900."—Spokesman-Review.

Tampico Items.

Election being over, perhaps a few items from this point might now be acceptable. Our folks find that they are still living along even if the pops did get the worst of it and so they have again settled down to the ordinary routine with philosophical calmness. We are proud to know that we have all the time a representative in the county government and trust that he will fill the position of County Commissioner as acceptably as Jack Shaw has the sheriff's office.

A snow storm to day is a gentle reminder to get ready for winter. However, Tampicans are always provided with fruit and vegetables. A lot of timber for wood in the mountains, so that the cold weather has few terrors for us.

The government timber agent has shut down the saw-mill on the south fork, and is now at work making estimates upon which to base his proposed action for trespass. It seems abominable the way these fellows come around every once in a while with their threats of prosecution against the owners of small mills for sawing a few boards for the benefit of the people in the neighborhood.

He Put His Foot In It.

A woman's club that invested in a clubhouse not long since was much against its will obliged to employ men laborers. The architect was a woman, but it was found impossible to procure women carpenters, masons and plasterers. One day shortly before the completion of the structure a workman who was employed upon the roof made a misstep and thrust his foot through the beautiful but not yet dried ceiling of the auditorium. Just at this time, too, a number of club members chanced to be in the building, and their emotions at the sight of the pedal extremity pendant from the ceiling may be better imagined than described. The man was eventually rescued and the hole mended, but the patch still shows upon the ceiling, and as the first vice president puts it, "Well, I knew that if a man had anything to do with this club he would be sure to put his foot in it."—Chicago Tribune.

About Telegraph Poles.

The number of poles used for telegraph wires per mile varies from 20 to 22 on minor lines to 26 to 30 on main lines. These poles are of regulation height, in order that the lowest wire shall not be less than 12 feet from the ground, and as the poles are set into the ground from 4 to 6 feet they measure from 20 to 22 feet in length. The sag, or dip, varies of course with the number of poles per mile and the condition of the atmosphere, but the average is about 14 feet.

He Doesn't Know What He Wants.

Had to give it up---is the way they refer in most clothing stores, to a man who walks out without buying. They are wrong. He DOES KNOW what he wants. That is the trouble. Men who are hard to please in a clothing store, are generally good judges of clothing. They have a gift of spotting bad fabrics, poor patterns and scrimpy tailoring. They know how a garment should fit. We never complain of such men. Why should we? They are our best and most appreciative customers. They wear our clothes and advertise our business. Why? Because they appreciate a good thing, and tell their neighbors.

Don't overlook the fact that we have the largest line of Overcoats in the city, at the lowest prices.
