EASTERN democratic newspapers are already discussing the advisability of making Admiral Winfield Scott Schley the party nominee for the presidency in 1904. This is all very well perhaps, but it looks a little like crowding the mourners. There is no reason to assume that this reckless talk has been inspired or been encouraged by the doughty admiral himself. Probably 95 per cent of the people of the United States have a warm place in their hearts for Admiral Schley. The people like him not only for his courage, but for the splendid manhood that he has shown under the most trying conditions. Every intelligent newspaper reader knows that Schley has been persecuted, lied about and belittled by a nasty little clique in the navy department, none of the individual members of which are in reality worthy to latch his shoes. The public of a great part of it, has waded through the great mass of evidence elicited by the court of inquiry and if it didn't know that Schley had a good case on the start it knows it now. Land lubbers may not understand all the technical terms used in navy parlance, but they know right from wrong as well as any sea dog or bureaucrat. Whatever the court of inquiry may decide on technical lines the public has made up its verdict and it will stick to it. Schley does not need a presidential nomination to vindicate him. Yet he may become a formidable candidate. Before he can be seriously considered, however, he must demonstrate to the masses of the democracy that he is thoroughly in sympathy with their ideas of administering the affairs of government.

NORTH YAKIMA needs and ought to have a higher institution of learning. This growing town offers a most desirable location for a non-sectarian college, and our people ought to work together unitedly with the fixed purpose of securing such an institution. A college when operated on correct principles means much to the community in which it is located. It makes of a town an educational center, and to such a center many people of the most desirable class naturally gravitate in order that they may to some extent, at least, supervise the education of their children. A college located here would aid many anxious parents right here at home in solving the problem of how to give their children an education with the means at their command. North Yakima, it must be admitted, was pretty badly bilked in the distribution of state institutions. Instead of wasting our energy in trying to put the state capitol on wheels and in securing a state fair, which we have to make ourselves, we ought to have demanded and secured one of the educational institutions of the state, even if we had to buy it, as Pullman did with hers. There is no use, of course, in crying over spilt milk. The fact remains that we need a college here, and the need is growing more apparent as the years go by, and the town and surrounding country continues to grow. Let our public spirited people wake up and agitate the matter. We can have a college here as well as any other community in the state if we go about the matter in the right way.

THE territories of Oklahoma, New Mexico and Arizona will knock at the door of congress at the coming session for admission into the sisterhood of states. It would seem as though these territories are entitled to admission. Oklahoma, the most populous of the three, contained a population in 1900 of over 350,000, greater than that of the state of Oregon. Both New Mexico and Arizona have a population much in excess of what most of the states had that were admitted during the past thirty years. From present appearances there is but little doubt about Oklahoma and probably Arizona also, securing statehood from the new congress, but there is less possibility of success in the case of New Mexico. That territory unfortunately, has still a preponderance of ignorant "greasers" in its population and it is thought that to invest such people with the franchise might do them more harm than good.

SOME of the New York newspapers and periodicals, especially of the class that pander to the rich, have been commenting at great length and with much gusto the great benevolence exhibited by J. Pierpont Morgan. The story has been told and retold of how the great financier paid all the expenses of the junket across the continent to San Francisco of some two or three hundred clergyman. Mr. Morgan, they say, dispensed his hospitality with a lavish hand, and insisted on supplying his table daily with the most costly flowers and wine that money could secure. All this is cited by the fawning press apparently to prove that the great trust builder is a mighty good fellow and that he deserves to go to heaven when his great work on earth will have been finished.

OUR steemed contemporary the Localizer of Ellensburg, judging from the tone of its last issue, doubtless feels a good deal like the boy that had been soundly spanked. It should remember in the future and endeavor to practice the biblical injunction, "Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor." The Localizer is not entirely to blame for the publication of untruthful or at least, greatly distorted stories of sickness prevailing in this valley. It must be admitted that in its reckless treatment of the truth in this matter it has received both aid and inspiration from a newspaper of this city. The local paper referred to owes the public some sort of an apology for the part that it played in this contemptible piece of business.

THE war department is extremely reticent about giving out information regarding the situation in the Philippines. This is to be expected, especially so now that the outlook for speedy pacification of the islands seems as remote as ever. But it is understood in official circles that General McArthur in a special report to the president, has urged the necessity of having 10,000 additional troops sent him as soon as possible. In view of the fact that the military governor is said to have stated to the president that at least 20,000 more soldiers were needed, this requisition for but half that number seems modest. If the war in the Philippines is over as many republican papers have asserted from time to time, why the need of more soldiers?

WHAT is known as the "Citizens' " ticket nominated by the mass convention Tuesday evening, is on the whole a very good one. It is, of course, a matter of regret with many of our people that certain members of the present city administration were not renominated. Mr. Hall, particularly, as a member of the council during the past year has rendered the city most excellent service. It often seems that there is nothing more true than the old saying that "republics are ungrateful." But as we started out to remark, the ticket is a very good one. We believe that the new officers, when installed, will serve the city acceptably.

GOV. ROGERS proposes to see whether or not there is any law on the statute books of this state that will prohibit or hinder the two leading transportation lines of the northwest from consolidating. The governor has announced that he will co-operate with Governor Van Sant of Minnesota in this important matter. It is to be hoped that he will meet with at least some degree of success.

THE Spectator, a new weekly paper published at Tacoma by M. M. Mattison, has reached our exchange table. It is a very bright and readable journal, and in its editorial department reflects the workings of a vigorous mind.

THANKSGIVING has come and gone, and was well observed in Yakima. The people of this valley, on the whole, have plenty of reason to be thankful, more so perhaps than is the case with most other communities.

CONGRESS will soon be in session again and the daily press will have something to fill up with. It has been rather lean picking for the dailies since the witnesses got through at the Sampson inquest.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

Col. Prosser came over from Seattle to spend Thanksgiving with his family.

A. J. Splawn returned Thursday from a business trip to the lower end of the county.

Postmistress Sperry has asked the department to furnish another clerk for the local office.

T. A. Davis has on exhibition in the window of the Yellow drug store a most artistic specimen of carving in marble, which has attracted much attention.

The school board at its meeting Monday night elected Miss Kate McKinney to the position of teacher in the newly created primary department of the Columbia school.

Messrs. Frank, Clemmer, McEwen, Lum, Poole and Cody left for Ellensburg Thursday afternoon to be present at the dedication of the new I. O. O. F. temple in that town.

Louis C. Hough and Miss Beulah Merwin were married Sunday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Flint. The newly wedded couple will make their home in Yakima.

Harry Beresford and his company amused a fair sized audience at Larson's Thursday night in "The Wrong Mr. Wright." The amusing situations with which the play is replete gave everyone a chance to laugh.

The Caledonian society will hold a meeting today to determine whether or not they will observe "Bobby" Burns' birthday anniversary Jan. 25th. The membership generally is said to favor a celebration this year on account of the omission last year.

A. R. Starr of Battle Creek, Mich., has in contemplation the establishment of a sanitarium in this city. If he concludes to build he will likely accept a site which he has in view in Capital addition west of town. Mr. Starr plans to erect a $3000 building that will contain about 16 rooms for the accommodation of patients.

The annual memorial service of the Elks will be observed tomorrow (Sunday) afternoon by the local lodge in their hall in the Mason block. Ira P. Englehart will deliver the address. The committee on arrangements consisting of Messrs. Vance, Cline and Hall have prepared a very interesting program.

Marshal Boyle has had a force of men engaged this week in cleaning off the layer of mud on the avenue caused by the recent rains. The heavy traffic had to some extent cut into the upper crust of the macadam, a fact which many people assert was caused by the presence of too much dirt in the top dressing of the new pavement.

The Commercial Club management has discovered that it will cost about $1500 to furnish up properly the new quarters in the Clogg block. The club has about $500 of this amount in its treasury and the balance it is thought can be secured by donations from members. The club will give no socials until after removal to the new building. That event will be celebrated by a grand ball.

A burglar entered the residence of L. O. Janek Wednesday night and while rumaging through some bureau drawers in the spare room of the house, managed to awaken its lord and master from his peaceful slumbers. Mr. Janek pistol in hand, started to investigate the cause of the disturbance, but the thief anticipating him made a speedy exit through the window. Nothing of particular value was secured by the robber.

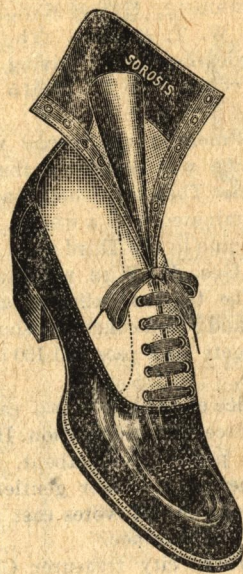

The Presbyterian church authorities summoned Sheriff Tucker Sunday morning to stop work on the roof of the Clogg building on the ground that the sound of hammer and saw was an annoyance that they could not tolerate during church service. On notice being given work was suspended for the day. Mr. Clogg, the owner of the building, states that work would not have been begun that day only that it was considered necessary to finish the roof on account of threatening weather.

The civil service examination preliminary to the selection of two regular and one substitute mail carrier for this city, was held Saturday. W. J. Calkutt of the Seattle postoffice, F. L. Chandler of the local office and G. S. Hough comprised the board. Ten applicants took the examination as follows: J. W. Spahr, J. G. Aldrich, Frank Lanterman, R. A. Wise, Claude Stewart, A. R. McWain, M. W. Bacome, C. A. Niles, W. W. Doty and F. W. Oliver.

The parties who wish to be shown up as coming from Missouri, can have that satisfaction now, by looking at the diploma in the Yellow drug store, given to James as a first premium at the Washington State Fair for the largest and best exhibit of photographs. The public can now see who tells the truth. At James' studio you can get the best satisfaction.

Mr. H. B. Deacon and wife have gone to Seattle, thence to southern California for the winter. They did some good advertising for the James studio while in North Yakima.

CITIZENS' MASS CONVENTION. Municipal Ticket Named to be Voted on Next Tuesday.

A call was issued Monday for a citizens mass-convention to assemble in the city hall at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday evening for the purpose of nominating a full set of candidates to be voted on at the municipal election which occurs next Tuesday, Dec. 3rd.

A big crowd responded to the call and filled the hall to overflowing by the time announced for the meeting. At the hour appointed E. B. Preble arose and calling the meeting to order called for nominations for chairman. That gentleman himself, was the only person named for the honor and was accordingly elected by acclamation as permanent presiding officer. The chairman then called for nominations for a secretary and Geo. S. Courter was selected to fill the place. A motion was then carried for the appointment of a committee on rules and order of business and the chair appointed Messrs. Englehart, McCafferty and Medill as such committee.

A short recess was then taken until the committee was ready to report, which occupied only a few minutes. The report of the committee recommended that candidates be selected in the following order: Mayor, attorney, councilmen, clerk, treasurer and health officer. A. J. Shaw and J. P. McCafferty were then appointed tellers, the method of voting determined and the big, unwieldy convention got down to business.

Nominations for mayor were called for and no other than the name of O. A. Fechter being presented, that gentleman was renominated by acclamation. For the office of city attorney these names were presented: Vestal Snyder, the present incumbent, W. M. Thompson and I. M. Krutz. 267 votes were cast, Snyder receiving 175, Krutz 70, Thompson 15 and 7 scattering. Mr. Snyder was thereupon declared the nominee.

Nominations were then called for for councilmen-at-large. A. B. Weed the present incumbent, and W. E. Ayres were placed in nomination. Mr. Weed withdrew his name and Mr. Ayres was nominated by acclamation.

For councilman from the First ward there were four candidates placed in nomination, namely: F. C. Hall the present incumbent, Harry Moran, J. N. Mull and W. T. Stewart. The first ballot settled the matter giving Mr. Moran 173 votes, Hall 22, Mull 5 and Stewart 37.

For councilmen in the Second ward only one name was presented that of E. J. Wyman. That gentleman was accordingly nominated with a whoop.

For councilman in the Third ward J. C. Liggett and Geo. E. Wise were put in the field. The tedious balloting again commenced and when concluded showed that Mr. Liggett had received 160 to 33 for Mr. Wise.

For the office of city clerk two candidates were placed in nomination, H. B. Doust the present incumbent, and James R. Coe. The former gentleman received 136 out of 187 votes cast and was declared the nominee.

For the office of city treasurer Chas. R. Donovan was the only candidate in the field and received the nomination without a dissenting voice. For health officer Dr. P. Frank the present incumbent was likewise nominated by acclamation.

Inasmuch as the resignation of W. J. Reed, councilman from the Third ward, had been filed with the council to take effect Jan. 1st, the position was assumed by some of the delegates present that a nomination ought to be made to fill the vacancy. Some of the lawyers present, however, maintained that as the resignation was to take effect at a time set in the future, the new council only when elected could fill the vacancy. This view was taken by the chair and no nomination for the vacancy was made. Richard Strobach then arose and offered a written resolution, which was adopted over the protest of Geo. S. Courter and others, which in effect recommended to the new council that a bona-fide resident of the Third ward be selected to fill the vacancy.

After resolving to file the ticket named as the "Citizens Ticket" the mass-convention then adjourned. On the whole it was a good natured affair although the slate makers were a good deal in evidence throughout the proceedings. As might be expected in any event there is some dissatisfaction, but on the whole the general opinion seems to be that the ticket selected is a good one and that the new nominees when installed will prove to be satisfactory and capable officials.

NORTH YAKIMA, NOVEMBER 30, 1901

DIFFERS FROM GENESIS.

The Heathen Account of the First Woman.

Col. Ingersol in his lecture on "The Mistakes of Moses", was fond of narrating an immemorial Oriental legend of the creation of man and woman, and trying to show how superior it was in chivalry toward the gentle sex, to the story of Genesis. It is doubtful, however, whether he would have upheld the superiority of another narrative of this character found in the book of Hindoo legends lately discovered. This work written in Sanskrit, is called "The Sarging of the Ocean of Time," and the last section of it entitled, "Of a Finger of the Moon Reddened by the Setting Sun," occurs the following passage, translated by an English writer, Mr. Bain:

At the beginning of time, Twashtri—the Vulean of Hindoo mythology—created the world. But when he wished to create a woman he found he had employed all his material in the creation of man. There did not remain one solid element. Then Twashtri perplexed fell into a profound meditation. He roused himself to do as follows: He took the roundness of the moon, the undulations of the serpent, the entwining of the climbing plant, the trembling of the grass, the slenderness of the rose vine and the velvet of the flower, the lightness of the leaf and the glance of the fawn, the gaiety of the sun's rays, and the tears of the mist, the inconsistency of the wind and the timidity of the hare, the vanity of the peacock and the softness of the down on the throat of the swallow, the hardness of the diamond, the sweet flavor of honey, and the cruelty of the tiger, the warmth of fire, the chill of snow, the chatter of the jay, and the cooing of the turtle dove. He united all this and formed a woman, then he made a present of her to man. Eight days later the man came to Twashtri and said: "My lord, the creature you gave me poisons my existence. She chatters without rest she takes all my time, she laments for nothing at all and is always ill." Then Twashtri received the woman again.

But eight days later the man came again and said: "My lord, my life is very solitary since I returned this creature. I remember she danced before me, singing. I recall how she glanced at me from the corner of her eye, and that she played with me and clung to me." And Twashtri returned the woman to him.

Three days only passed and Twashtri saw the man coming to him again. "My lord," said he, "I do not understand exactly how but I am sure the woman causes me more annoyance than pleasure. I beg you relieve me of her."

But Twashtri cried, "go your way and do your best." And the man cried, "I cannot live with her!" "Neither can you live without her," replied Twashtri. And the man was sorrowful murmuring, "Woe is me, I cannot live with or without her."—Seattle Times.

The admirable letter of Gov. Beckham to Gov. Durbin has been the occasion since it was written to no end of vituperation by the republican newspapers. But they can make nothing out of it. They may abuse but they cannot answer it. Elevated in tone, unassailable in statement, sufficiently spirited, but not lacking in dignity, it leaves the governor of Indiana in a mudpuddle of his own making, and from which there will be no extrication. In this, as in all his acts, the young governor of Kentucky shows himself worthy of his lineage, worthy of the great place he holds, and worthy the confidence of the people. Meanwhile, the republican newspapers, and particularly the republican newspapers of Indiana, would do well to stop their clatter and get down to the facts in the case.—Louisville Courier Journal.

Sunnyside can have a railroad if she will. The committee appointed at a recent meeting of the Co-operative Association have been in correspondence with Vice President Cooper of the N. P., and that gentleman informs them that he will be in Sunnyside inside of 30 days and look the ground over. Now let us all put our shoulders to the wheel and pull and push together. Don't let any short sighted policy stand in the way of the consummation of plans for the building of a road to Sunnyside.—Sunnyside Sun.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21, 1901.

Senator, what will be the democratic policy in the fifty-seventh congress?" I asked Senator Vest, of Missouri, in his comfortable home on P street, yesterday. "Watch and wait," was the reply. "What else can we do? The republicans have a majority of two to one in the senate and a large majority in the house. No, the democrats will not attempt any obstruction methods. The people have sent a large republican majority to congress, they have the privilege, and the responsibility of sending whom they please to represent them and it is only right that we should abide by the results."

"Will the people be pleased with the results?" "That remains to be seen. Everyone knows that the republican high tariff policy has built up the trusts and that those trusts are selling the same goods to foreign consumers for from twenty-five to forty per cent less than to the American consumers; but if the people enjoy it, it is their privilege to perpetuate this condition of affairs. Of course, the weak spot in the republican armor is the trusts. Mr. Roosevelt, who is more fearless and more honest than his party, appreciates this and he would like to curtail their privileges and curb their rapacity but, mark my words, there will be no change in tariff schedules and no reciprocity treaties ratified. The manufacturers and the large capitalists who control the republican party will not permit it. Sooner or later the people will realize the injustice that is being done to them, and when they do, there will be a revulsion of feeling. Until then, the democrats have nothing to do but to watch and wait."

"How would you prevent the trusts, Senator?" "Simply by removing the conditions that have produced them. The trusts are the natural product of competition by high protection has resulted in trusts. Restore competition and the trusts will fall. They tell us England has trusts. It is not so. Mr. W. L. Wilson went to England and made a careful investigation and he assures me they have no trusts. The paper manufacturers once organized one and put up prices, but the newspapers promptly placed their orders with French and American manufacturers and the trusts fell to pieces. When the American trusts charge exorbitant prices the consumer cannot buy elsewhere because of the tariff, and the trusts know it and naturally they use their powerful influence to perpetuate the party that makes their existence possible."

The reciprocity convention, which is now in session in Washington, is presenting, in a ludicrous manner, the republican position on reciprocity. Mr. Charles Heber Clark expressed the sentiments of his colleagues when he said, "Like the famous patriot who was willing to have all his wife's relatives go to war, they will agree to the injury or destruction of a few American industries if they can thus obtain a chance to sell more of their own productions." Everyone is willing that someone else should be sacrificed, provided his own interests are not touched and no one is willing to relinquish one cent of profit for the good of the whole country.

There is good reason to believe that there will be a serious lack of harmony in the house during the coming congress, but nothing will be accomplished that will interfere with the trusts paying their present profits on watered stock. Representative Burton, of Ohio, a portion of whose district is in the city of Cleveland, has given notice of his intention to fight Senator Hanna's ship-subsidy bill. Mr. Boutell will fight the present schedules of the Dingley bill, Representative Babcock will fight the steel trust and altogether there is promise of a lively session. I overheard yesterday, a republican senator lamenting the absence of Speaker Reed. He said that no man could control an unruly house like "The Czar."

Representative John F. Shafroth, of Colorado, has just returned from the Philippines and brings with him a tale of woe. He predicts that for years we will be obliged to maintain there an army of not less than thirty thousand men at an annual cost of $45,000,000 which is more than the islands will afford in the form of taxes. He does not believe they will be a source of assistance in establishing an Asiatic trade and altogether he considers our Oriental acquisitions a very bad bargain.

An example of the extravagant methods of the present administration is shown by the present reorganization by secretary of the Interior, Hitchcock, of his division of forestry, and the appointment at its head of Prof. Filibert Roth, a former subordinate of Mr. Gifford Pinchot, chief of the bureau of forestry of the department of agriculture. The bureau of forestry was already in existence, thoroughly equipped and conducted by an eminently competent chief. It has already done a large amount of preliminary work on the fifty million acres of forest reserves which will be the chief care of Secretary Hitchcock's division, and was more capable of properly conducting the work than the Interior division can hope to be for years. Every consideration of economy favored the transfer of the vast area of forest reserve to the care of the bureau of forestry. An effort was made to accomplish this end during the last congress, but was defeated by the republican spoilsmen because the bureau of forestry was conducted under the civil service classification and the division of forestry has the disposition of a "lump fund" of $300,000 which is distributed entirely on the lines of patronage to about five hundred appointees.

It is a common report in Washington that the gravest abuses exist in the alleged care of our forest reserves and some of Secretary Hitchcock's recent orders give evidence that he is acquainted with their existence. The fact that 26,000,000 board feet of lumber and 21,000 cords of wood were sold last year for a total of $30,000, which means that the government received about $1 per thousand board feet for lumber and about 15 cents per cord for fire wood, is in itself indicative of a condition which requires correction.

Professor Roth is an earnest and capable man, but, restricted as he will be in his new position by the red tape of the land office and the spoils system which governs his subordinates, it is not to be anticipated that he will be able to materially remedy existing conditions.

The remarkable meekness with which Secretary of the Treasury Gage receives the continued snubs of the president and his absolute refusal to understand that his resignation would be more appreciated than his presence in the cabinet is a source of amazement and mortification to his friends. When the president recently appointed Senator Stranahan to the collectorship of New York, the first intimation that Mr. Gage received was on a card which Mr. Stranahan brought him, saying that he had been appointed.

A Good Plan.

Fifty farmers near the town of Solon, in central Kansas, embracing men of all political parties, last summer formed a co-operative grain-buying company. Their number included 90 per cent of the wheat raisers of that section, some producing as much as 20,000 bushels and most of them having at least 5000 bushels as the season's yield. Their investigations showed that the local buyers were paying 14 cents a bushel less than the Kansas City market, while 8 cents margin would meet the expenses. This company had but $2500 capital; each member had but one vote; the officers elected included a banker, a former member of the legislature, and, as manager, a practical grain-buyer and miller. They bought a small elevator, instructed the manager to pay within 8 cents of the market, this margin meeting the transportation charges, and began business. As was to be expected, the rival buyers sought to take away the business by paying more than the farmers' company, and did so for several weeks. Here was where the farmers met the situation. Under their agreement, whenever more was paid elsewhere, the members were instructed to sell in that market, but for every bushel thus sold 1 cent was paid to the co-operative company. As a result the farmers' elevator stood still, but the treasury was kept full and the members gained 6 to 7 cents a bushel on their wheat. One day a railroad blockaded their elevator with coal cars. They made no complaint, but transferred their shipments to another road. The cars were soon moved, and since then plenty of transportation has been furnished. As the rival buyers ceased high figures the elevator began business, and during the summer and early fall has purchased 80 per cent of the wheat marketed at that point. The profits have been enough to pay dividends amounting to about 50 per cent on the original investment of the members. The success of the plan has resulted in the organization of many other similar companies.—Portland Oregonian.

President's Power Increasing.

It has been given out in Washington in interviews semi-officially what the views of President Roosevelt are upon matters of various kinds which will come before the next session of congress. It is added that he will bring the full power of the administration to bear upon the senate and house of representatives in order to crystalize his views into law. These statements are received with little concern by the people, so accustomed are we becoming to the employment of public patronage by the executive to accomplish his purposes, and so careless are we as to the gradual emasculation of the legislative department. Have Americans become at heart imperialists?

Certainly the theory upon which our forefathers founded this government was that there should be a trinity of public service; the legislative department should make laws, the judiciary should interpret and the executive should enforce them. Under this theory the executive had no more to do with the law making than the hand has to do with the willing of its acts. All this has changed. The legislature has become the hand and does what the executive determines. The interpretation of the judiciary is determined to fit the desires of the executive as the actions of the legislature are determined to meet its demands.

Walking to Work

Is the only way in which the business woman, employed in store or office, can get open air exercise. Is it any wonder that she often grows pale and thin and develops a tendency to "weak lungs." She does not feel that she can afford to take rest. She cannot indulge in a change of climate. Often she is the important bread-winner of a family, and feels that she must keep on until she drops. So the cough gets a deeper hold, hemorrhages appear, and disease tightens its grip upon her. Why not fit the lungs to the climate instead of seeking a climate to suit the lungs? Why not keep at work and grow stronger instead of weaker day by day? It can be done by the healing help of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

Whenever there is pain in breathing, soreness of the chest, obstinate cough, bleeding from the lungs or any other symptoms of disease of the respiratory organs, begin the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and continue the use until cured. Ninety-eight in every hundred who have used "Golden Medical Discovery" for "lung trouble," have been perfectly cured.

There is no alcohol contained in "Golden Medical Discovery," and it is entirely free from opium, cocaine, and other narcotics. It is a temperance medicine.

Do not be imposed upon by substitutes for Dr. Pierce's medicines. There is no medicine "just as good" as "Golden Medical Discovery," because there is no medicine which can show an equal record of cures. Ask for "Golden Medical Discovery" and insist on having it.

Was Very Sick.

"I was very sick indeed," writes Mrs. Mollie Jacobs, of Felton, Kent Co., Delaware, "and our family doctor said I had consumption. I thought I must die soon for I felt so awful bad. Had a bad cough, spit blood, and was very short of breath. I had pains in my chest and right lung, also had dyspepsia. Before I took your 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pleasant Pellets' I was so weak I could not sweep a room, now I can do a small washing. I feel like a new person."

Words of Sincere Praise.

"I have been taking your medicines," writes Mrs. W. M. Bowers, of Lynch, Boyd Co., Nebraska, "and I can't say enough in their praise. They have helped me more than all our doctors have helped me in two years' doctoring. I spent dollars upon dollars for my lungs and received no benefit from the medicine I took, until a lady friend advised me to write to Dr. Pierce. I did so, took his kind advice, and am now so well as to be able to do my own work. I also took the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and the 'Pellets' six months for liver disease and indigestion, as the kind doctor advised. I know that reached the case, as it has helped me so. You may use this testimonial if you wish, for it is sincere."

The use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets will ensure that healthy action of the bowels without which there can be no general health of the body. They are especially valuable to business women, whose confining occupations preclude proper exercise.

Spreads Like Wildfire.

When things are "the best" they become "the best selling." Abraham Hare, a leading druggist, of Belleville, O., writes: "Electric Bitters are the best selling bitters I have handled in 20 years." You know why? Most diseases begin in disorders of the stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels, blood and nerves. Electric Bitters tones up the stomach, regulates liver, kidneys and bowels, purifies the blood, strengthens the nerves hence cures multitudes of maladies. It builds up the entire system. Puts new life and vigor into any weak, sickly, run-down man or woman. Price 50 cents. Sold by W. E. Ayres, druggist.

Gov. Beckham's Expose of Gov. Durbin.

The severe attack made upon Gov. Durbin of Indiana, by Gov. Beckham of Kentucky, is fully justified by the persistent refusal of the chief executive of Indiana to surrender former Gov. Taylor to the Kentucky authorities. Both Gov. Mount and Gov. Durbin shielded Taylor from arrest, and sought to justify their action by the specious plea that Taylor could not secure a fair trial in Kentucky. Taylor may or may not have been implicated in the murder of Gov. Goebel, but he has been indicted; and the efforts of the Indiana authorities to interfere with the administration of justice in Kentucky are worse than unconstitutional. They are anarchistic. The plea that Taylor cannot secure a fair trial has nothing to do with the case. The laws of the United States will protect Taylor in all his rights if the courts of Kentucky fail in their duty. As the authorities of Kentucky have repeatedly stated, the fourteenth amendment, declaring that no state shall deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law, applies to Taylor as well as to anybody else. Gov. Durbin is interfering with the administration of justice and defying the constitution of the United States. His conduct certainly justifies the charge made by Gov. Beckham that Durbin was obliged to promise protection to Taylor as a part of the price of his nomination to the office of governor. It is a scandalous affair, and Indiana has good reason to be heartily ashamed of her chief executive.—Detroit Free Press.

A Fortune Teller's Predictions.

Madame Orietta, a mind reader and palmist, traveling ostensibly in the interest of the San Francisco Examiner, gave some street exhibitions of her powers Saturday and Monday. The madame was blind folded and stood on a box, while her male comrade or manager as he styled himself, hustled through the wondering crowd gathering articles which he bade the madame to name. In every case, it is said, the woman called out correctly what the object was, even to stating the number on the works of watches, keys and etc.

The madame assumes to be a palmist as well as a mind reader and after the public exhibitions gave audience to some of the curious, who were willing to contribute a dollar to learn what the future might have in store for them.

The manager in his public talks claimed that the woman was a native of the island of Java and was endowed with the faculty of predicting things to happen some two or three decades hence. He declared that she had publicly prophesied the sinking of the battleship Maine thirty days before it occurred. Furthermore she had prophesied that Mark Hanna would die of apoplexy during the year 1902, that King Edward of England would die in 1905, that in 1927 the United States would include all of the American continent and lastly that in 1933 communication would be established between the earth and the planet Mars.

Love and War.

It is seldom that Uncle Sam takes a hand in requiting the misdeeds of lovers, but it must be admitted that when he does, as in a late instance, he punishes the recalcitrant party to a finish. President Roosevelt has decided that a man who jilts a girl is not entitled to appointment in the army, and nine out of ten of our people who have hearts that attune to the tender passion will decide that he is just right in the matter. The question arose on the application of William P. Crawford for a second lieutenant's commission in the regular army. It seems that he had been engaged to Miss Rebecca Douglas, of Camden, S. C. and the wedding day had been named, but suddenly Crawford changed his mind, leaving the lady in a very embarrassing situation. Then it was that her friends brought pressure to bear for rejection of his application on the ground of conduct unbecoming a gentleman. Politicians and other influential people of the state pleaded the lady's cause and it was successful. It is the first case on record wherein the grim war office has been made the court to arbitrate a suit in which Cupid was plaintiff.—Ex.

The Commoner has attained, within six months from date of the first issue, a circulation of 100,000 copies, a record probably never equaled in the history of American periodical literature. The unparallelled growth of this paper demonstrates that there is room in the newspaper field for a national paper devoted to the discussion of political, economic, and social problems. To the columns of the Commoner Mr. Bryan contributes his best efforts; and his review of political events as they arise from time to time cannot fail to interest those who study public questions. The Commoner's regular subscription price is $1.00 per year. ## THE TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

A Most Successful Meeting—Resolutions Adopted.

The teachers' institute of Yakima county adjourned Friday after a most successful session. The enrollment shows that over 100 teachers were in attendance, about 90 of whom belong in this county. Before adjournment the following set of resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That we, the teachers of Yakima county in institute assembled, do hereby express our hearty appreciation to the board of education, the faculty and pupils of the High school, for their very courteous treatment to us during the sessions of the institute just held.

Resolved, further, That we are deeply grateful to County Superintendent Dickey for his efforts in the selection of our instructors, who have so ably presented their several subjects before the institute;

Also, that we commend County Superintendent Dickey for convening the institute in the month of November, believing that better results have been secured through an increased attendance and manifested interest, because the teachers are actually engaged in their work;

Furthermore, we request that our next institute be convened at the same time a year hence. A. W. Schwartz, Miss K. L. Brown, J. W. Gilkey, C. M. Stahl, Mrs. Bessie Needham, committee.

A permanent association of the teachers of Yakima county was formed. F. H. Plumb was elected president and Miss Mary Young, secretary. Two general meetings are to be held during the school year—one in North Yakima in January and one in Prosser at a later date. Within this organization was also formed a reading circle and already some funds have been raised for a circulating professional library.

The committee on necrology submitted the following resolution:

Whereas, it hath pleased Almighty

God in His wisdom to remove from our ranks since our last session, our esteemed fellow workers, Catherine Hayden and Grace Bullock, and;

Whereas, while we bow with submission to His divine will, and while we miss the influence of their Christian characters and consistent lives, we realize how much greater is the loss to their respective families; be it

Resolved, by the teachers of Yakima county in institute assembled, that we extend to the bereaved friends, this expression of our sympathy and regret in their hour of affliction.

Resolved, that the secretary be requested to furnish a copy of these resolutions to each of the bereaved families and to the press for publication.

Proprieties of Suicide in Japan

A double suicide, which occurred on the 1st inst., at Kamakura, has attracted some attention, says the Japan Mail. It was caused by the old trouble, love. The man, Suda Toichi, had been instructor of book-keeping in the Keiogo Juko and secretary of the Tokio Koshinjo (Intelligence Bureau), both of which posts he recently resigned. The woman, Saito Chiyo, was of good family and the possessor of considerable property. A few years ago she married Ito Rokubel, a cabinet merchant, the man being adopted into the family of his wife. Three children were born, but the union appears to have been unhappy. The wife endeavored unsuccessfully to persuade her husband to agree to a divorce, and finally she ran away to join her lover, Suda, carrying with her the sum of 1,500 yen. Legal proceedings were then instituted by the husband, and the guilty pair, seeing no hope of escape, committed suicide by hanging themselves from the bough of a cherry tree. An exceptional feature of the affair was the remarkable deliberation shown by the unhappy couple. Each had the face covered with white cotton cloth, the man tied his feet together and the woman bound cotton cloth about her waist to prevent any derangement of her garment.

THE FOOTBALL GAME.

Walla Walla Boys Won 33 to 0.

The Thanksgiving foot ball game between the Yakima and Walla Walla high school teams resulted in a victory for the latter. A good sized crowd was in attendance, about 500 tickets being sold. The score at the windup stood 33 to 0. The game was called at 2.38. Rupp, one of the visitors, made the first touchdown in a three minute play. Score the first half of game was Walla Walla 17 to 0, with additional touch downs by Gray and Minnick. Coleman kicked two goals during first half.

After a ten minutes rest the teams lined up again. Delaney of the visitors got the ball on a fumble and made a 45 yard run in five minutes. The score of the second half Walla Walla 16, Yakima 0. The features of the game was the good work of Shaw of Yakima and Bowman of Walla Walla. Football cranks who witnessed the game report that while the local team is made up of good material they are in evident need of practice. The visiting team demonstrated the fact that it has kept in good practice and is therefore able to put up a strong game.

Referee, Winans, Walla Walla; umpire, Prof. Armstrong; lineman, Hendricks; timekeepers and scorers, Morris, Vance. Hoyt and Bugbee.

Eugenie Blair as "Marguerite."

"Camille", the great novel of Dumas the younger, was well presented in its dramatized form, to a Yakima audience Wednesday night.

Eugenie Blair, in her very emotional, difficult character of "Marguerite" charmed her audience. Miss Blair is certainly a great actress and carries the part of the lovelorn French beauty admirably. The death scene in the last act was particularly affecting.

Vaugh Glaser, as Armand Duval, Marguerite's desperate lover, made a good impression. In fact Miss Blair's support throughout is most excellent. Miss Marian Macdonald, formerly of this city, plays the part of "Nichette" with this company and acts her part well. The young lady's appearance in the first act brought forth loud applause from her many friends in the audience.

N. P. Improvements.

The repair department of the N. P. Ry. Co. are making preparations to begin quite extensive repairs for the protection of the bridge that crosses the Natchez north of town. The work will be begun during the coming week by Construction Engineer McCoy and his crew of men numbering 30. The work will be under the general supervision of Roadmaster Scow.

The improvements that will be made include an extension of the present dyke about 800 ft in both directions, which it is thought will effectually prevent the stream from cutting into the south bank. The completion of the dyke will confine the channel to the north bank of the river. The proposed work will represent an outlay of several thousand dollars.

A Pretty Wedding.

A quiet but very pretty wedding took place in the parlors of the Pettit house at 7 o'clock Thursday evening when Jennie May, the charming daughter of Mrs. E. A. Pettit the proprietress, was united in marriage to Mr. Charles G. Wands of Spokane.

Miss Grace Bunnell played the wedding march, after which the nuptial knot was tied by Rev. F. L. Hayden. After the ceremony the merry party sat down to a most elegant wedding supper. The table was most profusely decorated with flowers. After the repast the newly married couple and guests spent a pleasant evening. A pleasant and unlooked for feature of the affair was the appearance of a serenading party consisting of a double quartet at the parlor window. Several favorite songs were rendered after which the party was served liberally with refreshments.

The bride and groom left Friday morning for their future home in Spokane via Portland. They expect to extend the honeymoon trip to Nebraska on a visit to Mr. Wand's parents.

E. E. James, the watch charm photographer, uses Beck's fotografs for advertising purposes. In selecting the pictures he used some of the identical photographs that Beck got the first premium on at the State Fair 1901. We challenge King James to deny this fact. Beck, Fotografer.

Death of Joseph Remley.

Joseph Remley, who formerly resided on Nob Hill, but who for the past two years has lived on his ranch near the Ahtanum academy died last Saturday at the green old age of 81.

Deceased was a native of Missouri, but resided in Lewis county, this state, for many years previous to coming to Yakima about 10 years ago. He was an honest, upright man who tried to make the world better for his having lived in it, and naturally enjoyed the confidence and respect of all who knew him.

In politics, Mr. Remley was a Jacksonian democrat of the old school, and never wavered in his devotion to his party. He was a very warm friend of this paper, and when able to come to town he would make it a point to call at this office in order to testify to his approval of the policy of the DEMOCRAT. Rheumatism affecting the heart is believed to have caused his death. The funeral took place Monday.
