Dear Mr. Gelander:

I am sending under separate cover, two copies of Homli. Ohg. vol. 1.00.
I shall keep this vol until you order again, or I send a copy of the other Homli plates.
The paper on which this was printed, was so porous that Mr. Nelson could not make a good copy.

Thank you for the information about Fish Hawk.

If you had read the note after my story, you would have found the Indian name: Mo-a-ti-nexti-ni-mind.

You are certainly doing a grand piece of Research work.

If you want a lot of the glass plates left here, can let you have them cheap.

Yours sincerely
Felix T. Cornelison.

Dear Mr. Belander: Am in receipt of your letter and M.O. for $5.00. Shall send the albums soon.

On June 29, I was the victim of an auto accident, a fractured thigh. I came home this week, but can't use the injured leg yet.

I hope that my husband will get the albums mailed it reminds me that you should

I did not remove any

Dear Mr. Pelander:

The State Library
wrote that "The Two Islands" is now worth $10.00.

"The Life & Letters of Father He Smet" are found in two places in New York for sale, priced $25.00 ^{# 39.50} ~~25.00~~. This set is in perfect condition. Called Mr. Torguant, the Furarian again - one price on He Smet - 39.50.

I should like to make a trade for Armstrong's History of Oregon. I have forgotten the exact title. It was published in about 1859. It is a small volume. We had one once at one time. I traded it for the two Islands. It is worth much more.

Mrs. J. P. Snelson, P.O. Box Wendleton, has the Snelson pictures here at her home.
You could get Jim Kanimie's picture from her.

With very kind regards for yourself & Mrs. Helander, I am,

Yours sincerely

Dear Mr. Belander:

The price of the two Islands is ~~16~~ 10.00, if you have that quotation. I shall send it soon.

The the first books are a trifle shelf worn at corners, but otherwise look perfectly new.
They are large volumes. (4/)

Hope that you can get me that 100 copy of Armstrong's Ar. Hist. I don't care if it is soiled, if just to the binding is all right.

My copy was old. Shall enclose clbk.

We had better wait for more information about the elk hunt books. Can't you find them in the library so you will see what they are like? They would be excellent first hand original source material on Indians, in Montana and Northern Idaho, perhaps other places.
Now I think that $27.00 would probably be fair.

There is an other Oregon history published about the time of Armstrong's that I loaned to an Indian lost.

It was written by a man who was visiting someone living on a bay on the coast of Wn., and shipping oysters to San Francisco.

The author traveled in Eastern Wn. and wrote quite a lot about the Indians. The book was mostly about Indians. I forgot the title. It was a small volume, with Chinook jargon in latter part of the book. Please inquire from your dealers if they have a small volume about the life of Armstrong's published in the 50's, dealing with condition & customs of Indians in the Northwest Washington. Can't pay very much for it.

My surgeon is pleased with my progress. X-ray shows fractures repaired. Hands get stronger before I can walk.

Am very busy anyway.

Best regards,
Lillian L. Bruchman.

Dear Mr. Pelander:

Congratulations! A real achievement to get a book published at this time. It was sure gratifying to get some recognition for your research work. Those primitive Indians are really sensational.

Best wishes,

Sept. 8, 1955.

Dear Mr. Pelander:

I was so pleased to hear from you.

If I haven't any thing to trade for your Fork, I shall certainly buy it.

It will be a valuable contribution, I mean addition to our N. H.

Indian Forks and histories.

The Frasier Book Store is quite a large shop.

2,

yesterday, I talked ~~to~~ Mrs.
Waggoner about you.

I haven't any traded work, that I would trade or sell. I have one large cowhush bag 14" X 17", and some baskets and one old Ti-hush, for sale.

The list of your official titles in the different state historical and research organizations is an interesting testimony you certainly have a busy and useful life.

Thank you for the story of the 1855 Treaty. I don't see how you compiled it in such a hurry and did such a thorough job.

With best wishes for the success of Brownmire and Kearney,

I am,
Yours sincerely

Dear Mr. Pelander:

I don't know when I have been so delighted and thrilled with a new book. The style of writing is charming, not the ungarnished narrative used by the usual western history writers.

Superb command of descriptive power that gives it atmosphere that comes from sympathetic understanding of the Indians.

What a vast painstaking research to gather all these stories that have never before been recorded! I am especially interested in the leaders of our own reservation, Kash / Kash, Hombi, ^{Wacotso,} Harenik

My copy that I got from Graham's, "Drummers and

It is to be hoped that some of them will buy copies of their own. It is a must I would say for anyone and the upper Columbia country.
