4TH OF JULY CELEBRATION

If Citizens Act With Fair Commission a Good One Can Be Had.

The State Fair commission decided at its meeting last week to take the initiative this year in the matter of properly celebrating Independence day.

The commission, of course, has no desire to get up a general celebration, as that would be out of its province. The commissioners, however, desire to cooperate in the matter with a local committee. As everybody knows, the commission is not overburdened with ready cash this year and hopes to be able to make a little revenue out of this Fourth of July enterprise that will aid some in the matter of holding a fair this fall. The following sport program has been formulated:

Pace, seven eighths mile, best 2 in 3 heats, $100.00.

Trotting, seven eighths mile, best 2 in 3 heats, $100.00.

Running, five eighths mile dash, $100.

Running, one half mile dash, $100.

Running, one quarter mile dash, $100.

Indian novelty, mile dash, $25.

Squaw race, mile dash, $25.

Bicycle races, foot races, sack races, the track. Trap shooting, etc. Music by the Yakima band.

Grand display of fireworks, ball and other amusements in the city in the evening.

Back to Medical Lake.

Mrs. Hattie Burch, an account of whose misfortunes was published exclusively in this paper last week, was taken to Medical Lake Saturday by Sheriff Tucker, the order of commitment having been signed by Court Commissioner Allen the day preceding. The woman's brother, E. M. King, a well to do citizen of Spokane, arrived that day made the complaint against his sister and took charge of her two little children, whom he promised to provide for.
The woman is said to have grown very violent on the train, although her brother and the children accompanied her on the way over. She had been to the asylum before and on approaching that institution objected very strenuously, the sheriff says, to entering the house of horrors.

It is said that after her discharge from the asylum on her first commitment, Mrs. Burch promptly applied for and received a divorce from her husband in Spokane. Soon after she became infatuated with a worthless scamp who induced her to go to Walla Walla with him and where they lived for several months. Finally the man was drummed out of the garden city by the police and then drifted here. Marshal Grant spotted the fellow soon after his arrival here and ran him out of town. At the loss of her profligate lover the woman's mind again became unbalanced, with the result that she was turned over to the sheriff.

Electric Day Service.

The Yakima Water, Light & Power Co. expects to have its day service of electric power ready for the use of the public by June 1. After that date customers using the night lighting service are required to turn off in the morning.
With the advent of the day service, which is unusual in towns of this size, a number of local business men will take advantage of it by putting in fans, while mechanics will utilize it for power, it being the cheapest to be had. The local company is to be congratulated for its enterprise in giving the public a continuous service.

The Ellensburg Excursion.

A mixed but merry crowd of Yakima people to the number of nearly 300 went to Ellensburg Sunday morning on the 8:45 train to see the return game at that place between the "Hoppickers" and the first nine of the "windy city." The later team, profiting by the result of the first meeting with the Hoppickers, was considerably strengthened by the addition of an imported battery from Tacoma.

The game is said to have been a good one and hotly contested, as the result in runs, 6 to 4 in favor of the local team would indicate. The Yakima contingent was "hung up" until after midnight waiting for the delayed eastbound train.

The School Election.

Comparatively little interest was shown in the school election last Saturday, only 164 votes being cast. The vote resulted as follows: For director for one year—B. F. Barge 140; scattering 20.
For director for the three year term—Miles Cannon 93; H. M. Gilbert 63; scattering 4. For clerk—G. S. Hough 88; J. C. Brooker 54; scattering 19.

LOOKS LIKE A GO.

Commercial Club Votes to Accept the Proposition of J. F. McNaught to Build Road to Sunnyside.

The general meeting of the Commercial club Saturday night was well attended, a very large percentage of the club's membership being present, besides a number of outsiders, including several substantial farmers of the valley.

The meeting was called to order by President Englehart, who stated that he had called the club together at the suggestion of some of the members to consider a proposition of Mr. McNaught relative to building a road to the town of Sunnyside. The chairman then invited Edward Whitson to address the meeting. That gentleman said he had conceived the idea ten years ago of constructing a line of road from this city into the Sunnyside valley and had been dreaming, thinking and working on the proposition ever since. Such a road, he said, ought to be built. It would do much for North Yakima in a commercial way, and would also do much to develop the country traversed. It would prove a great convenience to the people served by it and would materially increase the value of every acre of land tributary to it. R. K. Nichols, W. L.
Steinweg, Miles Cannon and others talked in the same strain when called on.

Mr. McNaught was then invited to address the meeting and state the sort of proposition he was willing to make.
This he did at considerable length, going over the whole matter thoroughly.
He intimated that he would prefer to build a steam rather than an electric road, as the cost of construction would be very much less. Regarding his proposition to the people of Yakima, he was ready to submit the following:

1st. That he be given free right of way the entire length of the road.

2d. That the necessary terminal grounds in North Yakima be granted free.

3d. That a bridge across the Yakima either be built by the people or paid for in cash as soon as constructed by the company.

4th. That freight contracts be made with farmers for two years, aggregating 75,000 tons per year in case a steam road is built, or 100,000 tons per year in case an electric road is constructed.

In case this offer was accepted and the contracts and right of way secured by July 1st, he, McNaught, would be prepared to guarantee that the line to Sunnyside would be open for traffic by July 1, 1903. Mr. Weymouth, the civil engineer employed by Mr. McNaught, was then called upon to make a talk. He said that in company with Engineer Wands he had gone over the route of the proposed line and was prepared to say that there was no serious engineering difficulties in the way. It had been the first time, he said, that he had been over that part of the valley and what he saw had been a revelation to him. There could be no question he thought, but that the country traversed would soon be abundantly able to support such a line.

President Englehart then called upon Chairman Horsley of the board of county commissioners, to state whether the club could hope for any financial assistance from the county in making up the amount asked for. The latter gentleman replied that he certainly would not feel warranted in holding out the hope that the county would extend any financial assistance. The commissioners, he said, would not attempt to divert county funds for such a purpose unless all taxpayers would be satisfied to have them do so, which, of course, was very improbable.

The meeting was now ready for a vote and to bring the matter properly before the house, Mr. Whitson made a motion to the effect that the club use its best efforts to secure the concessions demanded for building the road. The motion carried by a rising and practically unanimous vote; not all present voted in favor, but none voted against the motion. It was then moved that an executive committee of five members be appointed to have entire charge of the matter of securing the necessary concessions and with power to appoint subcommittees. This motion also prevailed and the chairman appointed as such committee Messrs. Whitson, Fichter, Donald, Steinweg and Cannon. No further business then appearing the meeting adjourned.

Lots of Tax Money.

The county treasurer's office on Tuesday received the regular quarterly draft from the state treasurer for the sum of $5,673.52 for the county school fund.
The amount remitted for the same period last year was $5598.48.

On the same date the county treasurer mailed to the state treasurer a draft for $30,181.87, which amount was due the state on taxes for 1901 so far collected.
This amount goes into the several state funds as follows:

General fund.....	$ 9,530.75
School fund.....	18,974.98
Military fund.....	870.47
Indebtedness fund.....	805.67

The following sums have been collected by the county treasurer as municipal taxes and turned over to the treasurers of the following named towns:

North Yakima.....	$8318.04
Prosser.....	385.87
Yakima City.....	49.84

THE YAKIMA DEMOCRAT,
JOHN DAVLD MEDILL,
Editor and Publisher.
Entered at the North Yakima Postoffice as Second-Class Matter.
One Dollar Per Year—In Advance.
Published every Saturday morning at the Democrat Printing House on First Street, North Yakima, Washington.
OFFICIAL PAPER OF NORTH YAKIMA.

THE Hon. Wesley L. Jones is likely to find plenty of thorns as well as roses along his congressional pathway in the future. As a dispenser of federal pie the honorable member from Yakima does not seem, so far, to be a howling success, at any rate, not from his own standpoint. To be sure Mr. Jones is in the swim, owing to the fact that he is in close touch with the Ankeny-Foster-Grasscup alliance, indeed is a part of it. Still with all this advantage the congressman has made no appointments in this neck of the woods that seems to be satisfactory to anybody outside of the appointees. The Yakima postoffice quibble, for instance, is still just where we found it, except that a number of his former political supporters are now cold-footed. The rather shabby treatment given Dr. Hare, too, has not had the effect of making that gentleman and his numerous friends hilarious advocates of a third term.

These disputes over patronage, however, are not matters that vitally interest the local public as much as some other things. The questions of public range and the protection of the watershed are matters that vitally interest the great bulk of our people here in Central Washington. On neither of these questions has Mr. Jones of Yakima championed the cause of the people as against the interests of a few wealthy stockmen who are intent on retaining their special privileges without regard to the effect on the public welfare.

Nor is this the only allegation in the complaint. We were all told and told repeatedly what great things we might expect if we could only get a congressman from Yakima. Party ties, to some extent, were broken down with the argument for a home candidate. The Democrat took no stock at the time in the fairy story about getting a big appropriation for a public building here and a number of other schemes of local politicians for getting money out of the public treasury.

We maintained that Yakima was not likely to get all these things through the agency of Mr. Jones, if any of them. We ventured the assertion that if gentleman's first election that it should be able to procure for his home town even an occasional sitting of the U. S. district court, that would be something that might justify in part the actions of such voters who had supported him for local or personal reasons. Yakima county for years has furnished steadily a large quota of that court's business and is fairly entitled to periodical sessions of the court. Yet the prospect seems now more remote than ever for getting anything of the kind. The trouble seems to be that Mr. Jones feels that Yakima will stand pat anyway and that it behooves him to look well after the wants of other sections. But Mr. Jones may be reckoning without his host.

The democratic senators have dug up so much rotteness and so much evidence of unpardonable cruelty and barbaric treatment of the Filipinos that public opinion is gradually becoming aroused throughout the country. The acute mind of the president, seemingly, has realized the change that is being brought about in public sentiment and as a result he is said to be frantically calling on the administration leaders of the senate to put up some sort of a defense of his colonial policy. Hitherto the republican senators have almost entirely refrained from taking part in the discussion of the pending bill to provide misgovernment for our unwilling subjects in the Philippines, relying on their majority to enact the bill into law after discussion of the measure; according to the senate's rules, shall have been closed.

The real reason for the deadly silence so far maintained by the majority party in the senate is unquestionably due to the fact that the leaders realize the weakness of their cause, together with a natural dislike of going on record any further than necessary in the defense of the policy of brute force, with all its attendant cruelties, that is being enforced in the Philippines. It is no wonder then that the strenuous Mr. Roosevelt, who through a stroke of chance now assumes the responsibility of shaping the destinies of the nation, should fume and fret at such evidence of weakness on the part of his strikers in the senate. He sees in the terrible arraignment that his shortsighted policy is receiving at the hands of the minority, that adverse public opinion is being created that threatens to overturn both he and his party.

The Ellensburg Dawn, which for years has been the organ of populism in Kittitas county, and a fairly able one too, has announced that its party has practically disappeared and that henceforth it will be a free lance.

Whatever may be its course the DEMOCRAT wishes it well, for it is a bright, newsy paper and aims to reflect public sentiment in its locality. We think, however, that our worthy brother Turner, is making a serious mistake in deciding to make his paper a free lance. A free lance journal may have plenty of admirers, but as a rule such a paper has few friends. The great majority of people prefer to see a newspaper take one side or the other on public questions and a failure to do so is apt to be construed as cowardice on the part of an editor. If not that, the public is apt to assume that the knight of the pencil is out after the "stuff." We, of course, ascribe no such unworthy motive to our brother up the creek for we know him better.

He is naturally a reformer and naturally a democrat, although perhaps a little slow to realize the latter fact. Col. Turner, however, will be welcome whenever he elects to begin his labors in the Jeffersonian vineyard. We don't want to discourage him but we opine that he will find out that running a free lance is not what it is cracked up to be.

The "water cure" so often referred to as a means of extorting information from Filipino captives, needs some description for people to appreciate the savage method our civilized government adopts as a war measure. The victim is firmly tied or held to the ground on his back, while water is pumped down his throat, until his stomach and lungs are filled and he is about at the point of death, when the opposite course is pursued and the water is ejected by pumping or rolling him over a barrel. If this treatment does not loosen his tongue into a be-crayal of his people, the operation is repeated, with the addition of a quantity of salt to the water, until a "confession" is secured or death ensues. That this atrocity has actually been inflicted many times is amply proved by the sworn testimony of soldiers and civilians who were eye-witnesses of the infamous proceedings near Manila. Where is the Christian humanity of which we boast? Where is the civilization which we maintain? Is the peculiar trait of our form of government?—Olympia Standard.

We must go back to ancient history to find anything like a parallel to the appalling catastrophe that recently overtook the inhabitants of St. Philippe in the French island of Martinique. The human mind is staggered at the thought of a whole city engulfed in the flow of a river of molten lava, enveloping and destroying everything in its path. The scenes enacted in St. Philippe on that terrible night when the lives of 30,000 people were snuffed out, must necessarily beggar any description that the pen of any man can ever give it. If the telegraphic reports be true, the world's known history before has never recorded such a catastrophe. The destruction of the Roman city of Pompeii through the eruption of Mt. Vesuvius was probably not so destructive of human life, as later scientific research has revealed the fact that Pompeii could not have been a city of over 12,000 or 15,000 population and that a portion of her people, at any rate, must have escaped.

It is to be noted that the local school board, as now constituted, is loaded up with republican politicians. Messrs. Nichols, Barge and Cannon now compose the board with G. S. Hough as clerk. Surely, the republican county central committee is pretty well represented here. The Democrat has no fault to find with these gentlemen, however. We believe that they are all capable of discharging the duties of their offices satisfactorily and as long as they do so will have our support. We want to add in passing though, that if there is any attempt made to work the city schools for the benefit of the republican party this paper will not hesitate in using a sharp stick on somebody.

The Kittitas county people don't seem to be very enthusiastic regarding the re-appointment of W. J. Reed as register of the land office. On the contrary, nearly everybody in this county would like to see Mr. Reed retain his place, as he is recognized as a very efficient and accommodating official. The esteemed Washingtonian, evidently acting on the assumption that Mr. Reed's boom is in need of a boost, devotes the most of its front page space this week to publishing a picture of the candidate together with a history of his life. It looks as though the good natured Register may have promised the colonel of the junior organ a fair share of the land office notices as a reward for the Washingtonian influence.

REFERRING to the report that King Edward will give a dinner to half a million poor persons in London as a feature of the celebration following the coronation ceremonies, the New York World hits the nail on the head when it says: "After the pageant and the rejoicing are over it might be well for the king to give serious consideration, if he is capable of it, to the question why there are 500,000 persons in London so poor as to be glad of a dinner from the royal bounty."

The esteemed "Ranch" of Seattle, refers to the editor of this paper as the Henry Watterson of Central Washington journalism. Really, now brother, isn't that laying it on a little too thick? We admit, though, that we have a sort of sneaking admiration for the "Star Eyed Goddess," but we fancy our resemblance to the great Kentuckian ends there.

The democratic party is no more responsible for the rant of Tillman on the race question than the republicans are for the ill-natured attacks of Roosevelt upon Gen. Miles or Admiral Schley. They are both hot-headed men, and vicious conduct in the senate chamber is no more reprehensible than in the White House.—Olympia Standard.

The moral reform journal across the way complains that the gamblers have instituted a boycott against it. This is indeed a serious matter and one that calls loudly for public action and public sympathy. The boys who play should now come to the center with their peace

A LOCAL paper has adopted the questionable practice of roasting all the theatrical shows that come to town, and invariably in advance. It is probably true that some of them need roasting, but to condemn them regularly without a trial would hardly appeal even to an Apache Indian as being justice. If such criticism has and effect at all the result must be free advertising. If our valued contemporary, however, finds comfort and satisfaction through exhibiting its wounds to the public gaze, we don't know as it is any of our business.

Doc HARE went over to Tacoma last Saturday to attend the meeting of the republican state committee and thereby hangs a tale. Doc is something of a genius in politics although they won't give him a place—and promptly went to work and put up a job on the three big counties. And what is more he made it stick, too. It is clearly evident that Doc's talents have been too much circumscribed. What's the matter with sending him to congress?

The republican state convention will meet in Tacoma Sept. 10. Now watch, for the fur will soon begin to fly.

A Governor to Elect.

Senator George Turner, who is ranked as one of the ablest lawyers in the state, has given it as his opinion that it is necessary to elect a governor this fall. The law expressly states that in the event of the death of the governor the lieutenant governor shall assume the office to hold until the next general election. According to Senator Turner, and his opinion is shared by many prominent attorneys throughout the state, this does not mean the next general election at which a governor is elected, but any general election. This seems to be a wise interpretation, as the people have a right to say who shall be governor at the earliest opportunity afforded them—which is the first election at which they generally vote. Of course the republicans would prefer to have McBride, while not the choice of the people, retain the office for two years more, rather than go to the trouble and uncertainty of electing him. But the democrats will undoubtedly nominate a governor, which will force the issue and require a decision from the supreme court.—Everett News.

HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY.

Temporary Organization Effected—Urgent Call For Better Attendance.

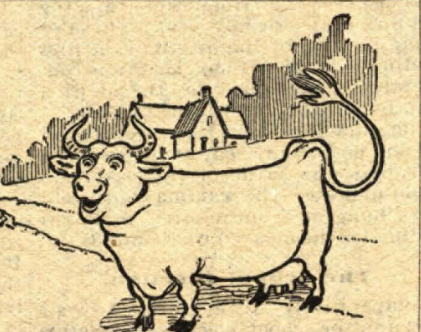

Pursuant to a notice given in the newspapers of North Yakima a representative body of the fruit growers of Yakima county met on Saturday, May 10, at 2 o'clock p. m., over the furniture store of Lombard & Horsley and organized a temporary horticultural society. W. L. Wright was elected president and J. M. Brown, secretary. Owing to not having a full turn out of the fruit growers of the county there was only a temporary organization perfected. An adjournment was taken to meet again on Saturday, May 24, at 2 o'clock p. m., at the court house in North Yakima at which time we hope and urge that every fruit grower in Yakima county will be present and let us perfect a permanent organization of some kind whether it be a horticultural society, a fruit growers' union or something else.

The time is already here that the fruit growers must do something to protect and further interest in order that we may make fruit growing profitable. We have a great many matters to look after in order to make fruit growing a profitable business and we are of the opinion that if we do not organize in some way that fruit growing in Yakima county will be a failure, owing partly to the fact that a great many of the orchardists are very careless in the matter of spraying. A great many orchardists, we notice, consider the matter of spraying of no great importance, and only spray as a matter of compulsion. It is our belief that it should be the duty of the organization to assist the fruit inspector in enforcing the law, and if the present law is insufficient in compelling orchardists to properly spray and care for their orchards, that we see to it that a proper law be enacted by the next legislature. A law, in our opinion, cannot be too stringent. As a matter of fact we, as fruit growers, should be sufficiently interested in our own welfare regarding fruit culture that we would protect our own interests without being compelled to by law, but one of our greatest troubles lies in the fact that there are a great many farmers who have small orchards in connection with other branches of farming and neglect them. Relative to keeping them cleansed from fruit pests, they are a class of fruit growers, generally speaking, that are the most careless about properly spraying, and do not depend on growing fruit for a profit. We find that it is not of much use for one to spray unless they all spray. Now, brother fruit growers, come out to our next meeting and let us discuss these matters if we do nothing more. Remember the date—Saturday, May 24th, at 2 o'clock p. m., at the county court house.

All smiles and laughter and gladness she seems, Like the spirit of the night of my rosiest dreams, And I drink to her smile in a goblet of bliss As I lovingly, longingly, wait for a kiss.

The poet was apostrophizing Spring; the artist was told to make a suitable illustration to accompany the verses, but he doesn't appear to have caught the spirit of the thing; too much flesh, too little spirit. Sad tale. Sad world.

But there is plenty of good tailoring in a good world—and always will be. The Royal Tailors, of Chicago, are good tailors.

The best really stylish—modish—fashionably correct, made-to-measure garments—the kind of clothes that make you feel at home when you're abroad—and they cost so little that you can go abroad now and then and enjoy yourself.

Pleased to show you three or four or five or six hundred samples of Royal suitings and overcoatings—something to please everybody—and made-to-measure skirts for the ladies, too. Unless you enjoy wasting your money, look into this matter.

The Church Can Endorse.
 "Too Rich to Marry" is a polite comedy that the pastor of a church can advise his congregation to go and see.
 Edwin Owings Towne, the author, has in his possession, letters from scores of ministers, all highly praising his comedy and giving it the stamp of their approval. And still "Too Rich to Marry" is not a so-called Sunday School drama, but it is recommended by pastors everywhere, because it is a true picture of real life.

The lives of a family of peaceful, law abiding, God fearing Dunkards, with an American heir, make up the principal characters in the piece with an artist and a mine owner, and others to complete the pictures of real life.
 The comedy will be at the Larson theatre soon.

Result of "Dope" and Whiskey.
Wm. Allen, a Farm Hand, Suc- cumbs to the Deadly Combination.

Wm. Allen and James McNannery came to this city some time last week from Toppensish, where they had been at work a short time on the ranch of Richey & Gilbert. On their arrival here the men lost no time in going on a spree.
 Saturday afternoon they were found in a semi-conscious condition in the rear of Fletcher's saloon. Both men acted strangely, as though overcome by the influence of a drug. The two men were taken to the city jail by Marshal Grant, where they were attended promptly by City and County Physician Frank.
 The doctor saw at once that the men had been doped hypodermically and set to work with the usual restoratives.
 McNannery's condition under treatment soon improved, but the case of Allen was much more serious. His skin was seemingly full of the deadly poison and the man was in terrible misery. Dr. Frank had him conveyed to the hospital and worked with him the most of the night, but the man was beyond human aid and died at 5 a. m. Sunday morning.
 The body was removed to the morgue of the Yakima Furniture Co., where Coroner Rosser held an inquest Monday afternoon, the following parties being paneled as jurors: W. E. Ayres, Geo.
 Rosset, G. S. Hough, W. J. Roaf, Fred Rowe and F. D. Cook.

The testimony of Dr. Frank, Marshal Grant, McNannery and others was taken.
 The jury brought in a verdict that the deceased had come to his death through the excessive use of alcohol accentuated by hypodermic injections of poison by a person unknown.
 The same evening Marshal Grant arrested a vagrant painter in the "tender-lon" district, who goes by the name of Elmer Green and is a "dope" fiend. He denied any knowledge of the dead man, but a hypodermic "pump" was found on his person. He was taken before Justice Taggard Tuesday and given a fine of $50 and thirty days in jail. As an alternative he was offered the privilege of taking leg bail, which he chose and was drummed out of town.

The dead man was about 46 years of age, and papers found on him indicated that he had formerly lived in Massachusetts. He was buried in the potter's field Tuesday morning at the expense of the county.

J. M. Brown left for Spokane and other points Friday to look up the possibilities of a market for the immense crop of fruit that he expects to harvest this year.

W. L. Steinweg made a trip to the lower end of the county this week, returning Friday.

Prof. Carson Estis of Seattle is the guest of his uncle, F. D. Estis and family, at their home on Wenas avenue.

W. A. Bell of the Yakima Hardware Co., made a business trip to the Sound this week.

Foresters' Grand Court.
 About 100 delegates to the grand court of the order of Foresters of America have been in Yakima most of this week in attendance on the sessions of the grand court, which began in Woodman hall Tuesday morning. A number of the delegates who are accompanied by their wives, arrived Monday, others reaching here Tuesday. They were met at the trains by the local reception committee and escorted to the different places assigned to them.

The sessions of the grand court began Tuesday and continued until final ad-judgment was taken Wednesday evening. The grand court was presided over by Chief Ranger S. K. Bowles of Aberdeen. The reports read showed that the order in this state is in a most healthy condition and that the increase in membership for the past year has been 1140.
 An elegant banquet was given the visitors by the local court at the Imperial Cafe Tuesday night. The festivities closed Wednesday with a grand ball in the armory.

Will Get Out New Directory.
 H. E. Marble, a brother of City and County Engineer H. F. Marble, and L. W. Miller formerly of the Tacoma Ledger, arrived Thursday from the Sound. It is the purpose of these gentlemen to get out a new directory for North Yakima forthwith if they meet with the necessary encouragement.
 Their idea is to issue not only a directory to the city, but a gazetteer of the entire county. A directory was gotten out here two years ago, the publisher of which numbered the houses to suit himself. Subsequently the city numbered the houses on an entirely different plan. This state of affairs taken in connection with the fact that the population of the city has materially increased within the period mentioned would indicate that a new directory is needed.

A Good Repertoire Company.
 Clara Mathes and her company have occupied the boards the entire week at Larson's, and theatre goers who have been in attendance were, as a rule, delighted with the clever little lady, who is certainly well up in her profession.
 Mr. Sevenoakes, too, the leading man in the company, is entitled to special mention, as he is an actor of much more than ordinary ability. As King Charles in "Nell Gwynne," which the company played Monday night, Mr. Sevenoakes appeared to immense advantage, for he certainly looked like and acted the part of a king. As Romeo, too, the young man pleased his audience very much.
 The company Monday night presented "Nell Gwynne," Tuesday, "The Legend of Honor," Wednesday, "Romeo and Juliet," Thursday, "In the Reign of the Emperor," Friday, "South Africa." The engagement will end tonight with the rendition of Ouida's great play, "Under Two Flags." The company with such an extensive repertoire necessarily is obliged to carry a large amount of scenery, some of which is very rich in appearance. On the whole the company is a good one and deserves better houses than it received here.

The cloud burst that occurred last week in the Selah, mentioned in our last issue, is reported to have worked considerable damage. The Selah Valley canal, it seems, was unable to carry off the water that ran down the hillsides, and as a result the banks burst, precipitating a flood on the Natches valley ranches below. The farm of J. M.
 Kincaid is said to have suffered most from the unwelcome invasion.

McCormick and Champion Machines

Two of the Best Built.

All of the large hay producers will tell you that the McCormick Mower and Rake are good pieces of machinery and do good work when other light machinery is worn out with the same usage. When you buy a light machine not adapted for heavy alfalfa you save perhaps $5 that day, but in 30 days have lost $25 in time and repairs. Don't make that mistake this year. While the Champion isn't thoroughly introduced, we think it a dandy and guarantee it to cut where any machine will cut and you can buy it for $5 less. We carry a full line of repairs for both machines.

While thinking about machinery, don't lose sight of the fact that we carry the largest stock of

in Central Washington, enabling us to make prices which cannot be equalled.

They Roped Him In.

Sam White, the hired man who is accused of drugging and then robbing Dan Kinney of Tampico of $40 in money and a gold watch, had a hearing before Justice Taggard Friday and was bound over to the superior court and turned over to the sheriff.

White, who was employed by Kinney while in town Tuesday, went home with him, giving him a drink of drugged whiskey on the way. On reaching Kinney's home White lost no time in securing the money and watch from his new employer. He then saddled a horse and hurried back to town. Kinney soon after gave the alarm to his neighbors and Joe Morcor and C. A. Ross mounted on fast horses, started in hot pursuit. They overtook the fleeing White and with a rope around his neck led him to town and turned him over to Marshal Grant.

Don't make the mistake this year and buy a light machine. Get the McCormick and have the best. For sale by Wyman & Fraser.

The local insurance men will meet at the office of H. B. Doust next Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock for the purpose of electing a delegate to the coming annual meeting of the Washington Insurance Association.

The editor of this paper has been in a most unenviable frame of mind during this week all because he couldn't talk, owing to an attack of tonsillitis. This sort of affliction, of course, is tough on anybody, but particularly so in the case of a newspaper man who wants to "pump" everybody.

The Yakima, Natches and all tributary streams in this section still continue high as the result of the recent frequent rains and the snow melting in the foot hills. Some inconvenience is reported by the farmers of the upper valleys on account of the creeks overflowing at times.

The committee on apportionment had a hard job on its hands and the members thereof almost sweat blood for hours in the jury room in the effort to give everybody a "square deal." The question of whether a lamb is a sheep was a most perplexing one and a telegram, it is said, was sent to Washington to find out.
