Mr. Click Relander
1212 N. 32nd Avenue
Yakima, Washington:

Dear Mr. Relander:

First, I apologize for being so late in answering your kind letters of May 4th and May 30th. Secondly, I thank you for the clippings. These I have read and they will go into my clipping collection and thirdly, I thank you for the Treaty Centennial pamphlet.

As to your forthcoming book, Drummers and Dreamers of Priest Rapids, I will be pleased to distribute 1000 printed circulars and endeavor to get some advance orders. I have written Caxton today.

Would be grateful if you could let me know the number of printed pages your book will have, also the exact date of publication. Will be pleased to catalogue your book, but I always like to give my customers the exact date of publication and I find that when Caxton gives you a date, you can depend on it.

You will probably be interested in knowing that I just bought a nice painting of Chief Joseph today. It was done by E. A. Burbank,- an oil on canvas. Burbank has printed at the top (to the left) "Chief Joseph, Nez Perces 1898" and at the bottom he signed it,- E. A. Burbank, Nes Pilem, Washington. On the back, in Burbank's hand is written, "Chief Joseph, Nez Perce Indian. Home at Nes Pilem, Washington. E. A. Burbank." Size 10x12 inches.

Sincerely yours

Yakima, Washington

Dear Mr. Relander:

Thank you kindly for your order of September 23rd and I apologize for being late, but it will be put in the mail this morning.

Thank you again for the Yakima Centennial pamphlet. I appreciate it very much.

Sorry I don't have any of the War of The Rebellion volumes. Sold a complete set about two years ago and haven't had any since, but will try to locate the volumes you want and will offer to you when found.

Glad to hear that good reports are coming in regarding your Drummers and Dreamers. I have asked Caxton to let me know the publishing date and when this is determined, they will send me a supply of circulars.

Kindest regards and thanks again.

Sincerely yours,

Harry C. Revercomb
