TURNER AT EVERETT.

Large and Enthusiastic Audience Greet the Candidate for Governor—Flays John L. Wilson.

EVERETT, Oct. 27.—The audience which greeted Senator Turner at the Grand opera house last night would have delighted the most critical and sensitive platform orator. The opera house was simply packed long before the senator made his appearance, every seat being occupied and more than 100 people standing when he began to speak.

John Fogarty presided as chairman and the only other speaker was George Mudgett, Democratic nominee for state treasurer, who spoke about a dozen words.

Unlike his method adopted at Ballard, Senator Turner proceeded at once to a discussion of the campaign, paying strict attention to details, and greatly to the edification of his audience. Every logical conclusion touching the misconduct of the Republican party in this state was roundly applauded. The argument in favor of a railway commission was most enthusiastically received. When Senator Turner had thoroughly discussed the issues of the campaign he paid his respects to the Wilson organ and its editor, to the enthusiastic delight of his hearers.

One man said it reminded him of an old country schoolmaster administering a chastisement to a couple of unruly and mischievous urchins who were constantly annoying their neighbors and irritating the teacher.

Yakima City Meeting.

A Democratic meeting, largely attended, was held at Yakima City last night. H. J. Snively was the principal speaker and made a telling address in behalf of the state and county tickets. J. D. Medill, nominee for the legislature, John D. Morrissey, nominee for auditor, and H. E. Croson, nominee for commissioner in the second district were present and addressed the gathering. There was a good turnout and plenty of enthusiasm. It is estimated that Judge Turner will carry the Old Town precinct by a 2 to 1 vote.

MAY BAR RUSSIAN FLEET

Unless Satisfactory Assurances are Given England May Not Allow Ships to Pass Gibraltar.

LONDON, Oct. 27.—While no time limit for the receipt of Russia's reply has been fixed it is generally understood today that the route of the Russian squadron past Gibraltar will be barred by the channel squadron commanded by Vice-Admiral Lord Charles Beresford.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon Lord Lansdowne expressed his belief that a peaceful settlement would be arrived at. A very definite impression prevails in diplomatic circles here that France has given both Russian and Great Britain explicitly to understand that she will not be involved should the disputants resort to hostilities.

Up to this hour there is no sign of an end to the deadlock over the question of the punishment of the Russian officers responsible for the North Sea tragedy, so the Associated Press understands.

As regards the British demand for their punishment being an infringement of Russia's sovereignty and rights, Ambassador Benckendorff in his interview with Lord Lansdowne today maintained that such punishment must be taken on the spontaneous initiative of the emperor's government and that a demand from a foreign power that Russia shall punish her officers cannot be entertained.

In any event it was impossible for the Russian government to mete out punishment without having before it a statement of facts as presented by its own officers.

Count Benckendorff also pointed out that the emperor's telegram was regarded by all Russians less as a personal communication to King Edward than as an expression of the sentiment of the whole Russian nation.

There is no indication of Lord Lansdowne withdrawing his demand, and though the dispute has not yet reached an ultimatum stage it is likely to do so if today passes without some recognition of punishment in principle by the emperor's government.

Russia's continued failure to comply with the British demand in this respect creates gloomier feelings in diplomatic circles which shared with Lord Lansdowne yesterday the impression that Russia would eventually agree to this point.

Out After Contracts.

The North Yakima Beet Sugar company have started four men out in the field with the company's form of contract to induce the farmers of the valley to sign up and agree to cultivate each year a certain number of acres of their land with sugar beets. The committee in charge of this work are also contemplating calling a meeting some day next week for the purpose of giving anybody who desires an opportunity to volunteer their land for the growing of sugar beets. The company must have 4000 acres planted next spring in order to start the factory which will be ready for operations some time next fall. The company will pay $5.00 a ton for beets and take them as they are. They produce very heavily to the acre. The names of the men who are now out soliciting for the proposition are: R. N. Harrison, Orlando Beck, F. E. Deeringhoff and Mr. Purdin of the Wenas. These gentlemen are making a house to house canvass.

An Artillery Duel.

MUKDEN, Manchuria, Oct. 27.—There was an artillery fight on the night of October 26 on the north shore of the Shakh river, directly south of Mukden. The cannonading, which was heavy, was continued today, the Russians attacking the Japanese unsuccessfully. The fighting, it is believed, will continue up to the walls of Mukden.

Born, Tuesday evening, October 25, to Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Roach of 607 North Third street, a son.

Frank Williams of Toppenish and his niece, Miss Ethel Hallett of Ellensburg, took in the "Wizard of Oz" here Thursday night.

GROSSCUP WANTS A TOGA

Tacoma Attorney will be a Candidate for Posters Seat.

TACOMA, Oct. 27.—A big fight is brewing in the Republican party in Pierce county. B. S. Grosscup is bringing himself out as the Pierce county candidate for United States senator and Addison G. Foster and his friends are in arms.

At the largest ward rally of the campaign held in the south end last evening A. B. Titlow, chairman of the Democratic county campaign committee made this statement relative to Grosscup and declared if Grosscup denied it he could prove the facts. He also declared that Grosscup has already been apportioning out the federal patronage. A prominent Republican of Tacoma, Mr. Titlow said, had already been selected by Grosscup for United States marshal, to succeed Mr. Hopkins. Mr. Titlow was certain of his grounds and challenges Grosscup or any of his workers to deny or evade the facts.

It is a fact that the Foster people are intensely alert. The organization of the Foster-Mead business men's Republican club is one of the latest movements of the faction. It is the purpose of this club to effectually whip into line all doubtful Republicans.

CHINAMAN COMMITS SUICIDE

Gib Len, a Mongolian, Dies by His Own Hand—Left a Note of Explanation—Was a Christian.

Gib Len, a Chinaman 56 years of age, took an overdose of some preparation of opium Wednesday night with suicidal intent and died Thursday afternoon about 3 o'clock as the result of his rash act. There is no cause attributed for the suicide of the Chinaman. He was apparently in good health, was a Christian and had about $20 in cash upon his person. He came here from Grand county, Oregon, about two weeks ago and has been doing odd jobs around town. He slept at the G. L. Co.'s Chinese store where he was found in an unconscious condition Thursday morning about 10 o'clock. A doctor was summoned immediately, but an examination disclosed the fact that he was beyond medical aid. The following note, written in very good English, was found upon a table in the room:

"I am suicide, good-bye to all friends in the world, and I were belonging to the Presbyterian church 32 years and now I want to see my father which is in heaven, then save me from sin, dear Lord Jesus, for I did put my trust in thee from the rest of all my life, Amen."

The Chinese was fairly well educated and was said to talk the English language with remarkable correctness. He had just purchased a new Bible which was found with him.

The remains were taken to Shaw & Flint's undertaking parlors and the funeral will be held from there this afternoon (Friday) at 2 o'clock. He will be buried by the Chinese in Tahoma cemetery.

Buying Sheep.

Coffin Brothers this week closed two deals for 4600 head of sheep. They bought 2300 head from Dan Goodman and 2300 head from E. P. Sandford, paying $2.25 per head. It is their intention to turn the sheep on pasture for about thirty days and then ship them east to Chicago. They expect the market to be good about the first of December.

The following people have taken out hunters' licenses: F. E. Webber, M. N. Dimmick, C. A. Bradley, Nick Cullen, Jack Osgood, Ed Merwin, A. M. Stewart, Ed Reed, Fred Campbell, Davt Dammond, Noah Beagle, John Evans, C. S. Baker, E. M. Baker, D. O. Runkle, P. F. Baker, B. E. McGregor, J. L. Owens, W. J. Healy, James R. Parks, J. Roy Parks.

MCBRIDE TO PRACTICE LAW

Will Move to Seattle at Expiration of Term as Governor.

SEATTLE, Wash., Thursday Oct. 27.—Shortly after January 1 the new law firm of McBride, Stratton & Dalton will open offices in Seattle. Gov. McBride and Attorney General Stratton will move to this city as soon as their present terms of office have expired, and, with Assistant Attorney General C. C. Dalton, form a law partnership.

The combination of three of the most prominent attorneys in the state has been in the air for some time.

Shortly after Gov. McBride was defeated in his race for renomination, the three friends decided upon the expiration of his present term to open an office in this city and yesterday all final arrangements were consummated.

"Little Lord Fauntleroy."

This world famed play will hold the boards at the Orpheum tonight and balance of the week with a big matinee Saturday for the little folks. Miss Felice Alexander, who assumes the difficult "role" of "Lord Fauntleroy," had the distinction of playing this famous character over one thousand times in the eastern cities, and received flattering press comments for her clever work. Nearly everyone has read the book, and those who haven't have heard of the play time and again. The management of the Orpheum promise a rare treat in store for those who witness this performance. A cast of eleven people is required to present the play. Miss Ella Wilson, who assumes the part of "Dearest," Fauntleroy's mother, will be seen for the first time in this city in her emotional leading work. The play is a beautiful mingling of laughter and tears, and does anyone good to see it. The New York Journal in commenting on the play said, "One of the prettiest plays ever presented to an American audience, with a moral greater than a church sermon." See it tonight.

ROJESTVENSRY INTERVIEWED

Russian Admiral Says the North Sea Outrage was an Accident.

VIGO, Spain, Oct. 27.—The Associated press has succeeded in obtaining an interview with Admiral Rojestvensky, who expressed great regret over the North Sea incident. The admiral stated that the unfortunate occurrence was purely accidental. The weather on the night in question was rather hazy. About 1 a. m. two torpedo boats which the Russians supposed were Japanese craft, suddenly appeared between the two divisions of the squadron and seemed to discharge torpedoes. The Russians immediately opened fire. They saw no fishermen and were not aware that any damage had been done. Evidently, the admiral said, the fishermen had shown no lights. The admiral repeated that he greatly regretted that any injury had been done fishermen and added that he had no doubt the Russian government would make ample compensation.

Hotel for Exposition Grounds.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 27.—The Lewis and Clark Exposition yesterday closed a contract with an eastern company for the erection of a mammoth modern hotel on Guild's lake, within the grounds. The hotel is to be ready for occupancy by May 1, 1905. With the construction of this hotel all danger of inadequate accommodations for exposition visitors is past.

Rev. F. L. Hayden joined in marriage Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, 713 North Front street, Albert S. LaMonte and Miss Inez G. Raymond.

William Loudon of Yakima City and Miss Ruby Dickerson of this city were united in marriage Wednesday evening at the Presbyterian manse, by Rev. F. L. Hayden. The young people left immediately for their future home in Yakima City.

Turner and the Lumbermen.

It is quite evident that the lumbermen's organization on Puget Sound will support the candidacy of George Turner for governor. The lumbermen want a 40-cent rate on their product to Missouri river points in order that they may be able to compete in that great agricultural region with both northern and southern lumber. In spite of their entreaties for years the transcontinental systems have refused to grant the rate demanded. Now the lumbermen propose to go into politics a little on their own hook. They now feel disposed to support the demand for a railway commission not that they expect that a commission can directly aid them but because of the belief that a commission could, and under the direction of Turner as governor would forcibly bring their grievance before the interstate commerce commission, a body legally qualified to act in the premises. There is, at least, some hope of relief in such a course, however remote it may seem.

The lumbermen have been busy for months. They have already, they claim, secured promises from a majority of the men nominated for the legislature to act with them in their demand, regardless of whether they are Democrats or Republicans. With a coalition between the west side lumbermen and the east side commission men it ought to be easily possible to secure the passage of a railway commission bill at the hands of the next legislature in the event that the Farrell-Mead ticket is defeated at the polls, as now seems very probable.

We Stand Corrected.

In some remarks relative to the legislative record of Dr. W. H. Hare The Democrat in a recent issue stated that that gentleman in the last session had voted for the passage of the Blaine storage reservoir bill. Dr. Hare informs us that such is not the case and that the official journal of the house will bear out his statement. He says that Representative Dunn of this county voted for the bill in its amended form but that he himself did not.

This paper has no desire to misrepresent the record of any man and therefore withdraws the statement previously made. We stand corrected.

The Democrat tells us that the bunch that loafs on Lund's corner is practically solid for Turner. The same bunch was solid for Rogers four years ago.—Republic.

We don't just recall at this time whether or not this "same bunch" was solid for Rogers four years ago. We believe, however, that such was the case. We know what Rogers was elected "four years ago."

When John L. Wilson Bolted.

Republicans all over the state will vote for Judge Turner, not because they have abandoned the principles of their party, but because the leaders of the party in Washington have proved recreant in turning its control over to the railroad bosses.

Railroad organs recognize this widespread disaffection, and, with a view to stopping the threatened bolt, are preaching "party regularity." They are using the usual plea of the discredited party bosses, declaring that if there are differences of opinion they should be settled within the organization.

The fact is recalled that in 1902 in the Republican city primaries at Seattle Thomas J. Humes was overwhelmingly victorious in his fight for the mayoralty nomination, and when the convention met was nominated by acclamation.

Did John L. Wilson's Seattle paper accept the decision of that Republican convention? No.

It is said that it was a republican newspaper, believing in republican principles and their administration by republican officials, but that it also owed a duty to itself and to its readers. Therefore, it regretted "to be obliged to add to what it has already said, the declaration that it can not and will not advocate the election of Mr. Humes as mayor of Seattle."

This is precisely the way many republicans feel about existing conditions. They believe in "republican principles and their administration by republican officials." For that reason they are going to vote for Theodore Roosevelt for president. But now they owe something to themselves as ardent believers in the doctrine that the people, and not the railroads, should administer the affairs of the state of Washington, and they therefore regret to be obliged to say that they can not and will not vote for Mr. Mead, who was nominated by the railroads and whose election would help to perpetuate railroad dictation and domination in the political affairs of this state.—Spokesman-Review.

Duping the Public.

At the Yakima theater last night the "Wizard of Oz" opera company played to a fair house. The seats were $1.50 per. The curtain went up at 8:15 o'clock and the players at once began to hurry through with their respective stunts in order to catch the 11 o'clock train going east. Not once did they respond to an encore though repeatedly called back by the audience. They cut out one-third of their performance and added one-third to the usual price of admission. The patrons paid the very highest prices for seats to see "the strongest spectacular attraction the American stage has known in recent years" (it was so advertised), and are not only presented with an ordinary performance from a musical standpoint, a ridiculous performance so far as the plot is concerned, but are charged one-third more than the usual price of admission and then cheated out of one-third of the actual length of the play, and the company never responding to a single encore. This is a good thing so way not help it along.

RAILROAD TICKET SHOT TO PIECES

Was Doomed to Defeat From the Day It Was Nominated—Old Man Coon Ostracised by Party Leaders.

SEATTLE, Wash., Thursday, Oct. 27.—The withering breath of personal and political scandal and the open and public charge of railroad and corporate subterfuge have combined in an assault upon the railroad state ticket sufficient to shatter the confidence of the people of Washington in each and every act of the convention at Tacoma.

The dictation of the convention by J. D. Farrell and the railroad influences has become the most notorious public scandal that ever disgraced the pages of Washington history. Nominations for state offices were doled out by the convention's dictator as rewards for railroad service without serious regard for fitness or ability, and the ticket has been referred to by the special traveling correspondent of the Republican Record-Herald of Chicago as one of the weakest that could have been nominated, and doomed to defeat from the start.

Barring Judge Mark Fullerton, one of the candidates for the supreme judgeship, there is not a single candidate on the ticket who has not become the subject of personal or political scandal since the opening of the campaign. Charges of vice, corruption or incompetency have been made against each one of them and those charges have not, in any single case, been disproven, in some cases they have not even been denied, and in others they are confessed, either by open admission or by silence.

The most notorious of these scandals is that which has assailed Charles E. Coon, the candidate for lieutenant governor. Early in the campaign charges involving moral degeneracy were made against Mr. Coon by men connected with the Wilson-Palmer-railroad state committee and an effort was made to induce him to withdraw from the ticket. This effort failed of its purpose, since which time Mr. Coon has been practically ostracised, not only by the leaders of his party, but by his close personal political friends as well. The charges against Mr. Coon have been published in a form more or less direct in a score of newspapers, including the Portland Oregonian, and they are vouched for by State Senator A. S. Ruth of Thurston county. They have never been denied, either by Mr. Coon or by anyone else in his behalf.

C. J. Lord's Graft.

The manipulation of the state funds in the interest of the Capital National Bank of Olympia, of which C. J. Lord is president, has become so notorious in the present campaign that it has come to be commonly referred to in public and in the press as "C. J. Lord's graft." Mr. Lord has enjoyed this graft for a number of years and it is reliably estimated to be worth from $20,000 to $30,000 a year to him. In order to keep it in his possession for another term of office Mr. Lord last spring became a dummy candidate for governor, and through the aid of his candidacy delivered Thurston county to the railroad forces in the state convention. In return for this service he was permitted to name George Mills as the candidate for state treasurer, the understanding, of course, being that Mr. Mills will continue to permit Mr. Lord's bank to enjoy the privilege and profit of the state deposits.

Clausen an Embezzler.
C. W. Clausen, the candidate for state auditor has been accused, on the authority of the official records of Worth county, Iowa, of having, while county clerk of that county, failed and refused to account for $637.36 in public funds. This charge was circulated in a more or less definite form for several weeks and finally on Sept. 25, was openly charged in several of the leading newspapers of the state.

Since the publication of the charge Mr. Clausen has never offered a public explanation of it. A Republican newspaper has on one occasion attempted to excuse it on the ground that he was not prosecuted for the offense charged, but this is accounted for by the fact that his bondsmen advanced the money to cover the shortage.

When it was announced that the Farrell private car caucus had agreed to give the nomination for attorney general to State Auditor John D. Atkinson, even Mr. Atkinson's closest friends began to ask themselves and each other whether Mr. Atkinson had ever appeared in a court as a prosecuting attorney. Since he was nominated it has been frequently charged that he never has. This charge has never been denied by any person with authority, or with the substantiation to back up such denial. On the evening of Oct. 1 Mr. T. M.

Vance, former assistant attorney general, in an address at Everett charged that Mr. Atkinson had never even been admitted to practice before the supreme court of the state. This charge was denied by the Post-Intelligencer and the Olympia Olympian whereupon Mr. Vance wrote to each of the newspapers detailing the facts. The letter to the Post-Intelligencer was written on October 11. On Oct. 13 Mr. Clausen confessed the truthfulness of Mr. Vance's charge by appearing before the supreme court and applying for admission, and by being admitted. His admission removes the legal disqualification to holding the office under the state constitution, but, in the absence of any experience in the practice of law in any court it affords no assurance of the candidate's qualifications in other respects.

E. W. Ross, candidates for state land commissioner, is the only man on the ticket who has risen to the dignity of denying the charges advanced against him, and has for years been a member of the notorious and corrupt railroad lobby which has held biennial sessions at Olympia during the sessions of the state legislature. In his own home county, Cowlitz, he is so unpopular that his nomination by the Tacoma convention has done more even than the part played by J. D. Farrell, to arouse the Republican voters to a sense of indignation.

State Boards Accused.

The state board of equalization, of which Sam H. Nichols, secretary of state and candidate for re-election, and John D. Atkinson, state auditor and candidate for attorney general, are members, has been accused of using the influence of the board to keep down the assessments of railroad property, of reducing those assessments from the valuation of $10,540 per mile, maintained by the preceding board, to $6,600 per mile, and of reducing the valuations returned this year by the county boards by practically $2,000,000, or about $450 per mile, at the same time increasing the valuations on several classes of farm and personal property. These charges have been substantiated by citing figures from the annual reports of the board and no explanation of them has been offered.

The state land commission, of which Secretary of State Sam H. Nichols and School Superintendent R. B. Bryan are members, has been accused, in a suit brought in Seattle by Frank H. Paul, of manipulating the permanent school fund in such a manner as to enable a personal and political friend to collect a commission of $5,500 for inducing the board to make a loan from the fund to a municipal corporation of the state. The suit in which this charge is made was filed several weeks ago and the facts concerning it have been widely circulated through the public press. No denial or explanation of them has yet been offered by either of the men thus charged, or by anyone else in their behalf.

Mead's Foot-Mouth Habit.

Albert E. Mead, the "Farrell" candidate for governor has in the course of his campaign developed the foot-mouth habit to an alarming degree. He told the people of Colfax in his speech there that his party having violated its pledges of 1902 felt that it would be safer to make no promises this year lest they be again violated. He told the people at Clarkston that there was a very dangerous man running for governor on the Democratic ticket, a man who had actually threatened to use all the power of his administration to get the people what they wanted, a state railroad commission. He has told the people in several places that a Republican legislature will never pass a commission bill giving the appointment of the commission into the hands of a Democratic governor. He told the people of North Yakima that when Mr. Farrell was asked to go to Tacoma to advise and counsel with the Republican state convention he declined to do so making it necessary for the convention to get along without the counsel and advice of that distinguished democrat.

In contrast with these weaknesses and these blunders made by the railroad candidates the Democratic candidates stand out in bold relief, unsailed, unsullied and unshaken, making a dignified campaign in a clean and honorable manner, taking the people of the state into their confidence, and discussing the issues of the campaign with them in plain and unequivocal language.

DR. DARRIN IN TOWN

CAN BE CONSULTED FREE AT
THE HOTEL YAKIMA.

Will Remain a Limited Time—Till
November 6th.

This far-famed physician (late from Paris, London and New York), who has achieved a great reputation throughout the coast, and the northwest, by his wonderful cures, is now favoring North Yakima with a limited visit of two weeks only, from Oct. 24 to Nov. 6, and has opened headquarters at the Hotel Yakima, where the afflicted can consult him free, from 10 a. m. to 8 p. m.
daily, and the worthy poor receive the benefit of his wonderful skill without fee nor price.

Dr. Darrin comes to us laden with testimonials from throughout the whole northwest, and the authenticated reports of some of his cures seem nothing short of miraculous. So many thousands are already acquainted with his mode of treatment it seems necessary only to say that he uses little or no medicine in the majority of cases, and perfects his cures by his magic skill and ability to treat all diseases.

Unlike other physicians who have become eminent in their profession the Doctor's charges are extremely moderate and reasonable, according to circumstances and ability to pay, and he will not undertake any case that he cannot cure or benefit. Consultation is free to all, for should there be any cases that are incurable, he will immediately discover them on consultation, thus saving his patients any further expenditure of money and time which they might otherwise squander.

Dr. Darrin has an enviable rank in his profession as a wonderfully successful physician. He is essentially original in his method of practice, and those who have been under his treatment are surprised at the newness and novelty of his system of practice. His honesty and straightforward advice before taking a case has won for him the confidence of his patients as well as the general public. The doctor is a gentleman of general, social nature, and his private practice is marked by the formation of a personal friendship with those with whom he comes in professional contact.

He is without doubt one of the most thoroughly qualified physicians now before the public.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Christmas will soon be here and a Platinum Photo made at the Delle Studio will make an appreciated gift. Come early and avoid the rush. 28-8t

was arrested Wednesday afternoon and
