YAKIMA LODGE 318

Benevolent and Protective
Order of Elks

Just 50 years ago on the night of May 12, 1895, a group of 27 men joined in the bonds of the Order under a charter founding Yakima Lodge Number 318 of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks.

The first Exalted Ruler, John B. Catron, and his fellow officers were installed by members from the Tacoma Lodge. Catron was a former member of the Tacoma Elks.

Of the original 27 charter members only three are now living: I. H. "Harry" Dills, H. H. Lombard, and A. L. Dilley. All three are now active members of Yakima Lodge.

Down through this past half-century the Elks in Yakima have experienced good times and bad, but the progress has always been based upon sound planning for a steady and healthy growth. Today the Yakima Elks own their beautiful Temple and have bonds in the bank for future contingencies. A membership of over one thousand Brothers enjoy the privileges of the modern clubrooms.

It is the purpose of this booklet to depict your 1945 Yakima Elks Lodge as the 50-year mark is passed . . . to recall familiar scenes and faces.

The annual Christmas party for underprivileged children has been a tradition with Yakima Lodge since the time of George Vance who was Exalted Ruler in 1904-1905.

Brother Vance originally gave Christmas dinners to the local newsboys. After about three years he sold the idea to Yakima Lodge as a Lodge activity. The idea caught on and today this tradition is still maintained although now any needy child in the city of Yakima may attend.

The original dinner idea has been enlarged. Children not only get their "turkey n' trimmings" but also are given packages of goodies and clothing where needed. Special moving pictures and floor shows are provided between courses of the dinner.

In April, 1942, your Lodge unanimously voted to sponsor and finance a parmanent "blood bank" for this area. Dr. E. S. West, one of the instigators of the idea was made chairman. The Elks own blood helped fill the "bank" after their dollars financed it.

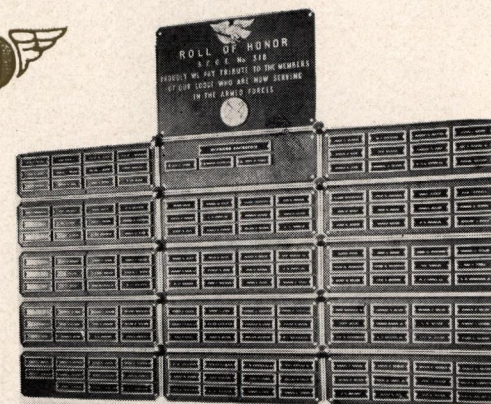

Way back in 1925 Yakima Lodge sponsored the organization of Boy Scout troop No. 18. It is significant that this year, 1945, completes twenty years of sponsoring of this troop.

Yakima's "Tacoy" Club, Teen Age Club of Yakima, has justified the faith of Yakima Elks in providing one-half the funds needed for its founding and maintenance. The late L. M. Jack Price, P. E. R., was instrumental in making the "Tacoy" Club the success it is today in serving Yakima's teen-age group.

Yakima Lodge does not forget the Brothers who are in the service of their country. Long before Christmas time special Elks G-Boxes are filled to the brim with wanted items. At this time Yakima Lodge has 177 Brothers in the service . . . more than 16% of the entire membership.

The Roll of Honor of members who are in the service of their country is engraved in bronze and prominently displayed in the Temple where all can see. Of the 174 service men Brothers, four have been killed in line of duty. They are: Jerry W. Poole, Marvin Schmella, Russell Danielson, and John M. Harris.

When World War II was at its lowest ebb in March, 1942, the Yakima Elks bought and equipped a mobile kitchen and gave it to the Red Cross. The unit, designed to serve hot foods in time of emergency is pictured above with the Red Cross Canteen Corps on the day it was delivered to the Red Cross.

You'll recognize many familiar faces on these pages . . . and familiar pastimes, too, including the ever-going pitch game and 8-ball game.

"The faults of our Brothers we write upon the sands of time . . . their virtues upon the tablets of love and memory."

This picture taken in March, 1943 shows some of the old-timers present at a special "Old Timers" Night Lodge meeting. Left to right they are: back row; Dave Johnson, Hal Bowen, Hunky Shaw, Dr. John Loudon, Jack Ambrose, Hugo Luhman, Curley Sylvester, Harry Temple, Fred Mercy and Fred Raymond. Front row: C. O. Martin, A. J. Ambrose, Alex McCredy, and I. H. Dills. All in this group have been members 30 years or more.

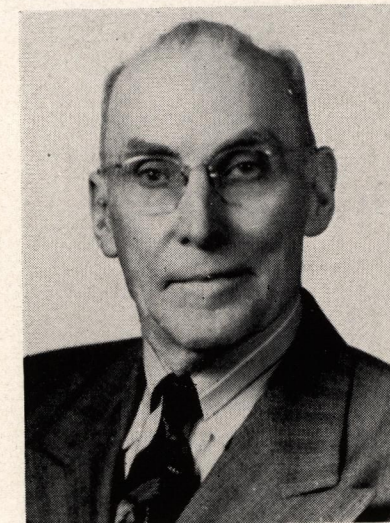

Harry Dills looked like this when he was made a charter member of Yakima Lodge in 1895. However, like Yakima Lodge, Harry has prospered and kept up with the times, and is a real credit to his Lodge and community.

Friendship, Brotherly love, and good fellowship are found in abundance, and expressed in many and varied ways by Yakima Elks.

Wednesday and Saturday nights are popular at 318.

The two classes of candidates pictured above are representative of initiates brought into the Order up until April, 1944 when Yakima Lodge was forced to limit the number of new members.

Although rationing has reduced the number of dinners, Yakima Elks still have an occasional feed. This one occurred before rationing in 1941.

Golden Jubilee Celebration

Thursday, May 24, 1945

2:00-5:00 p. m.

An Open House with refreshments "on the house" starts the day's activities. This period is for Elks only.

5:00-7:00 p. m.

Buffet style canopes and sandwiches, along with a few games of chance and some special entertainment.

7:00-8:00 p. m.

Lady Elks are invited to come to the Temple at this time to join in the celebration.

8:00-9:00 p. m.

Elks and their ladies go to the ballroom upstairs where a ceremony honoring charter members will be presented. A special floor show will follow this ceremony.

9:00-12:00 p. m.

Two orchestras will play for both old-time and modern dancing.
