MEMORANDUM TO THE BOARD OF CURATORS
WASHINGTON STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY:

The President of the Society has directed that the next meeting of the Board of Curators will be held December 6, beginning at 10 AM, in the Library of the State Historical Building.

Some of the items on the agenda will include short reports on the acquisition of the Kibbe collection, outstanding items in recent manuscript accessions, the new classification of the Indian collections under supervision of Dr. Erna Gunther.

Several members of the Board were not present at the August meeting and I hope to have an opportunity to meet them at the December meeting. This being Chapin Foster's last meeting with the Board prior to his official retirement is another good reason for a full attendance. A recent issue of the Seattle TIMES carried a fine story on Mr. Foster which I thought you might like to have. You will find the article enclosed with this memorandum.
