Dear Chapin:

I'm sending you, for your own use, under separate cover, a copy of the Treaty Centennial publication. This is a 64 pp deal, good cover, wraps, with over 45 illustrations and is unique inasmuch as I know of no other authorization ever given by the Yakimas for such a publication. They just have never done something like that.

I don't know whether your book dept. would be interested in stocking some of them or not. They are printed to sell as $1 <sup>5</sup>/<sub>4</sub>, meaning the usual 40 per cent discount, and they are offered on a returnable basis.

I'm heading for California June 11 and will be gone two weeks. That's the only time I could schedule for vacation, early, and it was scheduled before details of the pioneer picnic were worked out. I'm disappointed that I won't be here when you come to Yakima, but hope you understand.

Hope the mailing list is coming out okay. I'll be ready to go to work on it when I return from California.

Sincere regards
