TO RECEIVE THE PRESIDENT.

The Local Reception Committee Now has Arrangements Practically all Made—The Public Asked to Co-operate in Carrying out the Same.

The executive committee, having in charge the reception of President Roosevelt and party in this city next Monday, has held several meetings this week and practically completed the details of the president's visit here.

The committee desires the co-operation of the public in the matter of carrying out the plans for the president's reception. The time allotted to North Yakima is very short, being only 30 minutes, but if the plans formulated can be carried out everybody will get a chance to see and hear the chief executive of the nation and if there is no delay the president will be able to talk at the stand on Natches avenue for the space of 20 minutes. He will have no time to shake hands with all the people and does not wish to go through that ordeal in any event.

The president's party will consist of about 24 people, including President Mellen of the Northern Pacific, Senators Foster and Ankeny and Gov. McBride.
The special train will pull in to the depot here promptly at 10:30 a. m.
Mayor Shaw and the reception committee will be presented to the president by Congressman Jones and the entire party will then enter the carriages in waiting to convey the guests to the speaker's stand at the corner of Yakima and Natches avenues. No member of the reception committee will be permitted to ride in any of the carriages. Instead, from one to two prominent citizens, selected by the committee, will ride with the members of the party in each carriage. It is expected that the procession will be made up as follows:

Carriage No. 1—The president, Secretary Loeb, secret service man, Congressman Jones, Mayor Shaw.

Carriage No. 2—Three secret service men and M. C. Latta.

Carriage No. 3—Assistant Secretary Barnes, Sergeant General Rixey and two citizens.

Carriage No. 4—H. P. Webster, J. L.
McGrew and two citizens.

Carriage No. 5—For extra members of president's party, such as governor, members of congress and U. S. senators.

Carriage No. 6—H. A. Coleman, H. R.
Hazzard, Lindsay Denison and one citizen.

Carriage No. 7—R. L. Dunn, N. Lazarnick and two citizens.

Carriage No. 8—George B. Luckey, H.
A. Strichmeyer and two citizens.

Carriage No. 9—P. W. Williams, J. P.
Gooch and two citizens.

Carriage No. 10—Reserved for occasional guests of president and one citizen.

A mounted body guard of four horsemen will ride, two on each side of the president's carriage. Outside of the mounted guard will be the honorary guard, consisting of the members of the G. A. R. followed by the Spanish war veterans. Co. E. of the National Guard, under the command of Capt. Dolin, will not be in line, but will be on active guard duty along the line of march.

One of the most notable features will be the marching of the 1200 school children of this city along the line of march.
At 9 a. m. the children will form in double line in front of the High school building, each grade under command of the teacher. A double line will be formed and the pupils will march down Fourth street to Yakima avenue. Then they will be massed between Third and Fourth, leaving a 40 foot roadway for the presidential cortege. This will afford each scholar a good opportunity to see the president.

Admission to the speakers stand will be only by ticket. Those having tickets are expected to be in their seats before the president and party arrive at the stand and to remain there until after the president departs.

The speakers stand will, of course, hold but a limited number of people and provision has to be made for the entire presidential party thereon. The reception committee has reserved what space that will be left for the members of the legislature from this county, the county commissioners, members of the city council, school board, three representatives each from the Woman's Relief Corps and the Red Cross and in addition, perhaps, a half dozen citizens.

The city, or at least the business portion will be gaily decorated for the occasion. At First street a huge banner will be thrown across the street bearing the words "Welcome to our President." While another at Second street will bear the simple inscription "Welcome." A number of large flags will also be unfurled across the avenue, while bunting will be in evidence everywhere.
The president will be made to feel that the people of Yakima are not one whit behind any place that he has visited, in doing the honor that is presumed to be due one of his high station.

Work of Incendiaries

The lumber yard of A. E. Larson in this city had a narrow escape Sunday from being destroyed by fire which was evidently started by persons with a malicious intent in broad daylight.

J. E. Mulligan happened to be crossing the railroad tracks in the vicinity of the lumber yard between the hours of 12 and 1 o'clock Sunday. As he passed by the yard he noticed a blaze flaming up against a pile of lumber. He quickly fanned it out and going to the office at the corner of the block found Mr.
Larson, the proprietor, there and informed him of what had occurred.

An investigation revealed the fact that a quantity of coal oil had been distributed over the pile of lumber. In fact, an empty pint bottle that had contained kerosene was found in the immediate vicinity. This made it sufficiently plain that the fire was the work of incendiaries, but who the guilty party or parties may be is what puzzles Mr. Larson and the local officers.

The hired girl in Mr. Larson's residence, which is just back of the lumber yard, says she saw two boys enter the lumber yard about noon who acted in rather a suspicious manner. She did not recognize the boys. Further than this there does not seem to be any clue.

With the strong wind that was blowing Sunday, had the fire got a good start the business section of the town would undoubtedly have been in very great danger.

One of the Boys.

William Westerfield, a smooth young man, who claimed to be a ball player, arrived in this city a short time ago and announced his intention of starting a fish market. He obtained room in Patton & Rogers market on the Avenue and started a fish stand, carrying a line usually handled in that business. He spent most of his time with the ball players, apparently being a good fellow.
Saturday evening he borrowed a suitcase from Val Gandy and later left the city. Subsequent investigation by the Sheriff and others brought forth the fact that Westerfield had gone by other names and that he had obtained goods under false pretense and borrowed money from his friends. He was a good grafter as several Yakima boys can testify to their sorrow.

Wool Market Active.

Coffin Bros. this week sold 175,000 lbs. of wool to the Botany Woolen Mills of New Jersey for 11½¢. Coffin Bros. also made a sale of 70,000 lbs to the Pendleton scouring mills at 11¼¢.

A. V. Wilson sold 100,000 lbs. to the Botany mills at 12¼¢, while E. Taylor sold 50,000 lbs. to the same firm at 11¼¢.

Huntington & Lycett of this city purchased a large consignment of wool this week from growers at Wilson Creek, on the Great Northern at a price said to be 12¢.

The shearing plant of Coffin Bros. in this city busy every day. About 20 men are employed who shear on an average 75 sheep per day or a total of 1500.
The plant will be in steady operation until about June 15.

The White Bluffs Well.

E. E. Bart and J. C. McKean arrived from Seattle the first of the week and after securing their supplies pulled over to the Waring artesian well near White Bluffs on the Columbia, which they have taken the contract to finish.

The well is now down about 400 feet and the Seattle men feel confident that by continuing the well they will strike water at a reasonable distance. Mr.
Bart, it will be remembered, was quite successful a few years ago in drilling for water in the Moxee.

Apples for the President.

The Horticultural Union of this city will present the president next Monday with five boxes of the very choicest varieties of Yakima apples that could be secured. The fruit will be wrapped in printed paper which state in bold faced type that the apples were grown in the famous Yakima valley as the result of irrigation.

The firm of Merwin, Hazel & Curry dissolved this week, the latter having purchased the interest of the two first named members of the firm. Merwin & Hazel have opened a paint shop in the larger Cadwell building in the room recently vacated by the N. Y. Apparel Co.

All Spanish-American war veterans are requested to report at the post office in this city at 9 a. m. Monday to participate in the parade as guard of honor to the president. Each veteran is expected to bring his company hat and badge.

The ladies of the Christian church will serve a chicken dinner Monday, May 25 (Roosevelt day) at the tent on the avenue, next to Coffin Bros. store, writes June 8th, 1901: "I had malaria fever in very bad form, was under treatment by doctors, but as soon as I stop-would return. I used a sample bottle bought two bottles which completely

OFFICIAL PAPER OF NORTH YAKIMA.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT and party will visit this city for thirty minutes next Monday, arriving at 10.30 and departing at 11 a. m.

It is needless to say that he will receive a hearty welcome from all of our people irrespective of politics. While many of us are not political followers of the president and are opposed from principle to many of the things that he stands for, yet we all appreciate the fact that for this occasion he is the guest of our people and that as the official head of the nation he is entitled to all the courtesy and respect that we can show him. All this, of course, does not imply servility on the part of the people. It simply means that we respect Roosevelt the man and honor him as the chief executive of the national government.

The local reception committee, which has been charged with the duty of arranging the details of Mr. Roosevelt's brief visit here, has done everything in its power to make the presidents welcome as pleasant as possible both for him and the people, who all wish to see him. And while it goes without saying that his excellency will be as safe from harm in Yakima as in his own private home at Oyster Bay, nothing, we believe, has been overlooked that would tend to enhance the chances for his personal safety while the honored guest of this community.

This city should do the very best it can to properly entertain the large number of people who will come here to see and hear the president. We must not forget that as the hosts we owe something to these people as well as to the president and his party. It is an occasion that should be made as pleasant as possible for everybody.

THE city council in planning additions to the sewer system is acting, we believe, most wisely. This town has been growing steadily and has undoubtedly doubled its population within the past three years, a fact which shows conclusively the need of sewer extension.

Under the conditions that now prevail there is but one way to extend the sewers and that is through the formation of improvement districts. This means that the cost of laying the sewers must be taxed up against the abutting property. Some of our people complain that this is unfair since it means for some, double taxation, as they are already assessed for the purpose of paying interest and later will be for the principal on the old sewer bond indebtedness.

It must be admitted that in the abstract this complaint is eminently just.
But how can the matter be remedied?
The city's legal limit of indebtedness was reached practically some time ago it is simply a question, therefore, of laying sewers by means of a special tax or not laying them at all.

To say nothing about the improved sanitary conditions, that will come with an enlarged sewer district, the people who are compelled to pay this special tax will find that in the end they can afford to do so. The real value of their property will unquestionably be increased by reason of the improvement.

In this connection it might be added that a number of other growing towns in the state are increasing their sewage facilities by means of the special tax system. Walla Walla, for instance, is said to have laid 30 miles of sewer within three years without issuing a dollars worth of bonds.

THE Chicago Chronicle is already shedding some tears over what it calls the danger of a bolt in case the reorganizers capture the democratic national convention. Once more we are reminded of the little girl who came into the house crying bitterly, and when asked for the cause of her tears, replied: "I was just thinking that when I grow up I may get married, and then I may have a little baby, and that some day the baby would crawl out of doors and fall into the well and get drowned, boo-hoo." The Chronicle is drawing on the future for present sorrows.—The Commoner.

THE recent cold wave and severe snow storm in Montana appears to have done a vast amount of damage. The sheep industry alone in eastern Montana is said to have suffered a loss of five million dollars. In certain districts 90 per cent of the sheep on the range are reported to have perished. Here in the Yakima valley we have simply suffered the inconvenience of a few days of cold weather while the blizzard was raging further east.

THE present spring has been so cold and backward that it has called forth a flood of recollections from the old inhabitant who can't remember anything like it.

AFTER June 1 a marriage license in this state will cost $5 instead of $3. This fact ought to aid many a hesitating young blade to come to the point. The late legislature in the matter of increasing the marriage license fee showed about as little sense as it exhibited in a good many other ways. As Mr. Roosevelt would say, it tends toward race suicide. The great majority of men who wish to marry are so situated that the sum of two dollars is an object to them which they could invariably put to good use in getting a start at house keeping.

Had the legislature passed a law making a mental, physical or financial test of candidates for matrimony there might be a good deal said in defense of such a statute from the standpoint of society, but to arbitrarily increase the fee demanded by the law from the poor man who has an ambition to establish a home is certainly a very poor exhibition of statesmanship.

THE Seattle Daily Times is now a really metropolitan paper and will compare favorably with the most of the leading daily publications of the country. The Times saves no expense in getting the news and printing it in a most attractive style. In addition to its associated press and leased wire dispatches the Times now has the Hearst syndicate service and a well trained corps of special correspondents distributed throughout the northwest.

The editorial page of the Times too, although usually too highly charged with the personality of the editor, is generally good reading, and is a pretty fair mirror of current events.

THE benighted Agriculturist of Golden dale, quotes an article from this paper which it credits to the Yakima Herald.

Washington Letter.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)
Washington D. C. May 14, 1903.

There is considerable concern manifested among members of the Cabinet and other prominent officials in Washington regarding the extent and the emphasis with which the President, in his western speeches, is dwelling upon the Monroe Doctrine. It is believed in the East that the Monroe Doctrine is most expensive to maintain and brings with it no adequate return. It has been pointed out that whenever a European nation secures control of a colony the commercial status of the newly acquired territory becomes fixed, the demand for foreign goods increases and the United States secures its share of the commerce. In South America, however, the integrity of numerous petty governments is preserved by the United States and the result is that these little countries are constantly at war, that they repudiate their commercial obligations without hesitation and to the serious loss of every American business man who attempts to deal with them, and that even when the United States has a favor to ask, as in the case of the Panama canal, it receives even less consideration than is accorded European nations. Under these circumstances the officials referred to regard it as ill-advised for the president to dwell with such marked emphasis upon the subject.
The facts are, of course, that Mr. Roosevelt is afraid to discuss the tariff because of the factional differences on that subject in his own party, is unwilling to discuss trusts and monopolies for fear of further offending the Wall street interests and finds the Monroe Doctrine a safe topic because few people understand it and most regard it as a sort of patriotic duty to uphold it. Incidentally, Mr.
Roosevelt wants a larger navy and the alleged necessity of maintaining the Monroe doctrine furnishes an excuse for his coveted "big stick."

It is learned on authority of a member of the cabinet that the president and Senator Hanna have made a trade whereby the former will welcome as his running mate, provided he secures the nomination, Mr. Myron T. Herrick whom Mr. Hanna is just now booming for governor of Ohio. The cabinet officer alluded to was invited into the president's official family because of his political sagacity. He says "Colonel Herrick is one of the strongest possibilities for the second place on the ticket.
It seems now that the likelihood of his being nominated will become much stronger if he is triumphantly elected governor of Ohio next fall. Should his majority fall far below normal, however, his availability will be seriously affected."

Representative Swanson of Virginia, one of the democratic leaders in Washington and recently expressed some views on the presidential situation.
Mr. Swanson regards Senator Gorman as the most available man in the party but names Judge Parker of New York as his second choice. He sees encouragement in the enthusiasm with which Mr. Cleveland has been received on several occasions as demonstrating more than usual interest in the democratic nominee and auguring success for the democratic ticket but he does not believe Mr. Cleveland stands the slightest chance of being nominated.

The most important development in the postoffice situation during the past week has been the summary removal of August W. Machen, general superintendent of the division of free delivery, and the appointment as acting superintendent of M. C. Fosnes, who is regarded as the most able postoffice inspector in the service. It will be remembered that it was Mr. Fosnes who cleared up the Cuban postal service after Estes C.

Rathbone had gotten it into an almost inextricable muddle. Since Machen's removal some important discoveries have been made although their character will not be revealed until Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow completes his report. It has been announced that the appropriation for rural routes has been exhausted and no further routes will be established until after July 1.

The Editorial Page.

At the recent meeting of the Southwestern Iowa Press association held at Glenwood, two distinguished Iowa editors discussed the editorial page from two widely different standpoints. One was Edgar A. Nye, of the Des Moines News and the other was George D. Perkins of the Sioux City Journal.

It was not our good fortune to hear the discussion, but we are informed that Mr. Nye deprecated the political editorial, or the discussion of problems that confront the civilization of the world for solution, and advocated instead what he was pleased to denominate the "human interest" editorial such as the News indulges.

Mr. Perkins delivered a modest speech which was a defense of the kind of editorials the Journal runs, the kind that mould public opinion, or at least pretend to that end. It is said that the two speeches clashed in about every particular. Mr. Nye was the better speaker, but it was highly probable every editor went away firm in the conviction that Mr. Perkins got the better of the argument.

Mr. Perkins' editorials are of the kind that make Janas, Greeleys, Bennetts and others who pave the way for human progress while the Nye editorial cites an event merely to point a moral or adorn a tale. Each has its purpose, as there is abundant need of both kinds, but it would not do to have too much of the one and not enough of the other.

There is no possible reason why an editor without the capacity or the ability to think, to analyze, to correlate, to diagnose, to extract from the past a basis for prevision; there is no reason why a man who is not equipped for the purpose ought to mold opinion or even try to accomplish that result. The trouble is that there are not enough of the right kind of editors and too many of the wrong kind.

After all, the gospel truth is and ever will be, that no newspaper that is entirely impersonal ever has or ever will leave its impress on the world. The newspaper that counts is the newspaper that has a personality behind it. The man is always greater than his creation and a great editorial writer will make a great paper.—Newton, Iowa, Herald.

Not Cleveland.

Senator Mitchell thinks Grover Cleveland will be the democratic candidate for president in 1904. In the judgment of the Oregonian, the signs of the times clearly indicate that Cleveland will not be nominated. The ablest independent newspapers of the east, who are most friendly to Cleveland's nomination, confess that they do not expect it. The New York Evening Post says that "as for the nomination of Mr. Cleveland for the presidency next year under the circumstances, it is something which neither he nor his friends can take very seriously." The Springfield Republican, always a warm admirer of Mr. Cleveland, says that while the "no third term" tradition would probably be invoked in vain against him, there are practical obstacles of a more telling character.
The machinery of the party is in the hands of his enemies, and under the two-third rule his nomination is made impossible except there arise a tidal wave of enthusiasm for his selection within the party, which is not likely.
If nominated, there would be small hope of his election. He would have the solid south, with the 149 votes of that section, and even if he carried New York, New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland, with 69 electoral votes, he would then have only 218, while 239 are required to elect.—Portland Oregonian.

Cured? Yes! Of Catarrh? Yes!

When reading the following home testimonials remember that I have only been treating these people for the past four weeks, and yet note the wonderful results:

I have been afflicted with Catarrh and its effects for 12 years.
I am today a well man, the result of four weeks treatment by Dr. Corey. He has proven conclusively that Catarrh can be cured, as my case was an aggravated one and of long standing.
The treatment is painless and relief is received from the very start. I highly endorse his course of treatment.

PAUL BRUNNELL, 310 N. Natchez avenue.

I have been a sufferer from Catarrh since childhood. The first three weeks of treatment with Dr. Corey, I improved greatly and at the end of the fourth week the nasal passages cleared up and breathing became free. I am confident that my permanent cure is but a question of a very short period. I recommend his treatment highly.

B. G. WALKER,

501 N. Eighth St.

I have been a constant sufferer from Catarrh and its effects for the past 5 years. The first 3 weeks of treatment with Dr.
Corey assured me that his method of treatment was a success. I continued, following his directions carefully, and am happy to say that I am now entirely cured. I cannot say too much in praise for his method of treatment.

Mrs. FRED KANN,

I have been a sufferer from lung trouble, the result of Catarrh, for several years and I have been unable to get any relief up to the time of my starting a course of treatment with Dr.
Corey. I am now free from any of the Catarrhal inflammation and hence my coughing lessened and as a result I have restful nights which heretofore were unknown to me. I am very grateful to Dr. Corey for his untiring efforts and the benefits I have derived from his treatment. I gladly commend it to all sufferers of throat and lungs.

CHARLES BRINK,

East D St., between 9th and 10th Sts.

I have been afflicted with Catarrh for the past 15 years during which time I have tried all kinds of so called catarrh cures without any satisfaction until I commenced treatment with Dr.
Corey, two weeks ago, since which time I have improved so rapidly that I am now almost free from the bad effects of this disease. I am confident that my permanent cure is close at hand.
I enclose Dr. Corey's treatment to all sufferers of Catarrh.

W. D. MULKEY

302 South 3rd St.

I have been a sufferer from Catarrh for many years and as a result lost the sense of smell in left nostril and partial deafness in left ear. The two weeks treatment with Dr. Corey has almost restored these defects, and my general condition greatly improved. His method of treatment is certainly wonderful and I highly recommend it to all.

L. M. MULKEY,

310 N. Selah Ave.

I was troubled with Catarrh very badly and upon advice I started a course of treatment with Dr. Corey three weeks ago and my improvement started from the beginning, and I am now almost free from it. I am thoroughly convinced that my cure is all but effected. I wish to say that I can conscientiously approve of Dr. Corey's method of treatment; I know it will positively cure.

MILFRED KIPP,

Employee of Mrs. Morford, 1 1/2 mile south-east of N. Yakima.
My free trial treatment is still open for a limited time only.
Any one wishing to avail themselves of it must do so at once, as my time is fast being consumed with regular patients. I also make a specialty of Nose, Throat and Lung Diseases, Venereal and Blood Diseases in all forms.

CITY COUNCIL SESSION.

Large Grist of City Business Disposed of.
Seventh Street Sewer to Go.

The city council met Monday evening with Mayor Shaw presiding and Councilmen Keck, Wyman, Liggett, Fisher and Harrison present.

The petition of Frank D. Cook for a renewal of saloon license on South Second street was granted, a majority of the council voting aye.

A petition was read for a board sidewalk from property owners on the west side of Natches avenue from Spruce to Maple. The same on motion was granted.

A petition was read for a board sidewalk along the west side of Fourth street between blocks 71 and 75 inclusive. The petition was granted.

A remonstrance was read from a number of property owners on Seventh street against the proposal of the city to lay a trunk line sewer along that street and assess the cost of the same against the abutting property. The remonstrance, however did not embrace a majority of the property owners. A number of residents of that street were present including W. J. Roaf and Claude Briggs, who spoke warmly in favor of the project, saying that the health of the community demanded the sewer. It seemed to be the sense of the council that the sewer ought to be laid. Wyman's motion to lay the remonstrance on the table carried.

The executive committee appointed to arrange for the reception of President Roosevelt and party, at this point entered the council room. Miles Cannon, the spokesman, addressed the council and asked that an appropriation of $250 be made by the council to aid in paying the expenses of the reception. Fisher objected to this sum as being excessive. The council finally on Keck's motion voted to appropriate $200.

A petition was read from numerous property owners who reside in the second ward asking the council to declare the Fashion livery stable a public nuisance. E. B. Preble addressed the council in the capacity of attorney for the owner and lessee of the stable and made an argument against any action being taken by the council. He stated, in fact, that the council was without authority to act in such a case and that the petitioners must seek their remedy in court. The council took this view of the matter and a motion carried to lay on the table.

Liggett, chairman of the cemetery committee, reported on the new addition to the cemetery.

A communication was read from Edward Murphy of Seattle, asking for a franchise to use the streets and alleys of the city to string wires or lay conduits for heating, lighting and power purposes. The matter was laid over after a brief discussion.

A communication was read from City Treasurer Donovan regarding the collection of the special improvement tax for the grading of Second street. The treasurer's report showed that the sum of $3145.95 had been collected and that the sum of $6760.70 had become delinquent May 11th. The report was referred to the finance committee.

A resolution was read accepting the grading of N. Fourth street from the contractors, Pettijohn & Daniels.

County Health Officer Frank addressed the council relative to joint action, between the county and city in securing the necessary site for a pest house. Dr. Frank urged the necessity of prompt action. On motion of Liggett the city board of health was given power to act in the premises.

Rev. H. M. Bartlett addressed the council at some length in the interest of a public library. The speaker asked that the council take into consideration the matter of making a perpetual appropriation of $1000 per annum as a maintenance fund. Mr. Bartlett made a strong argument in favor of the project. City Attorney Snyder, speaking as a citizen, also addressed the council strongly favoring the public library. On motion of Keck the city attorney was requested to inform the council at its next meeting as to its powers in levying a special tax for such a purpose.

The Boom Washed Out.
The boom of the Cascade Mill burst Friday night of last week and about 150 logs which were in the boom at the time were lost. The company now has a force of men at work putting in a new boom which will be firmly anchored to a pier. The new boom will probably be completed next week.

The mill was started up temporarily last Saturday to test the big band saw and machinery. Several hundred feet of lumber was sawed and everything appeared to work as smooth as could be expected.

Two Young Horsethieves.

Sheriff Grant returned from Ellensburg Wednesday with his two prisoners John Doble and Ross Chapin, aged respectively 19 and 17, in charge. The boys were captured at Martin the day previous by a deputy sheriff of Kittitas county.

Doble and Chapin are Seattle boys who had been working on the reservation. They are accused of having stolen a pair of saddle horses from Sam Ambrose, an Indian, on the night of May 11. They rode the horses to Martin where they sold them. Their actions aroused the suspicions of the man who bought the cayuses who communicated with Sheriff Thomas. That official had been warned by Sheriff Grant to be on the lookout, hence the arrest.

In a conference with Sheriff Grant and Prosecutor Guthrie Thursday the prisoners acknowledged their guilt, and agreed to enter a plea of "guilty". The boys are said to belong to good families in Seattle.

Look out for Thieves.

Sheriff Grant, through the columns of the DEMOCRAT, wishes to warn the people of this city against burglars, sneak thieves and pick pockets, particularly during the president's reception Monday. A number of tough looking characters, the sheriff says, are already in town. Every family, he thinks, ought to leave at least one person on guard at the residence not only during the time that the president is here Monday, but each evening for the next few days.

Reports from other cities visited by the president indicate that a crowd of toughs is following up the presidential party.

THEY FINALLY AGREED

How a Yakima Justice Played the part of a Solomon

A business man of this town and a rancher got into a dispute the first of the week over the ownership of a cayuse. The longer they talked about their respective rights in the horse the madder they seemed to get. The only point that they were able to agree on was that their disagreement should be left to a court of justice to settle.

So accordingly the two went into a justice court Monday to have the trouble decided. The wise justice happened to be a close friend of both the would-be litigants and as no complaint had been filed the court determined on rather a novel method of working out the ends of justice—a method that would have done credit to old King Solomon, himself. In short, he told the two men that there was no sense in going to law to settle such a trifling matter and that he would leave them alone in the court room until they settled the matter between themselves. With this parting injunction he locked the door on the belligerents and shouted to them through the key hole that they would have to stay there until the matter was settled.

The two belligerents sat and glared at each other for awhile and whistled, thinking that the justice was only joshing and would be back any minute. Time began to hang heavy on their hands. They chewed tobacco for awhile and smoked and then began to discuss the weather. Finally the vexed subject of settling the ownership of the cayuse was reached and both men by this time being in a more friendly mood an agreement was finally reached by which the merchant purchased the interest the farmer had in the horse.

As the shades of night began to fall the wise justice released his two prisoners who by that time were ready to thank him for his good counsel in the matter. The merchant and the farmer then shook hands and parted the best of friends.

Home Boys Beaten Again.

The fifth game of baseball for the season was played between the Hop-pickers and the Ellensburg team last Sunday at Ellensburg and resulted in another defeat for the Yakima boys, the score being 16 to 9. Earned runs Ellensburg 8, Yakima 2. Batteries Starkell and Crawford for Ellensburg; Klinkhammer and Wilkins for Yakima. The game was played in a heavy wind and dust storm.

A game was played Friday afternoon on the home grounds between the Hop-pickers and the State University nine from Seattle. It was a good clean game which resulted in the score of 8 to 7 in favor of the home team.

Walter Reed to Leave.

Walter Reed is having a residence lot on Third street, one block west of Penn. Ave., prepared for the erection of a beautiful cottage of seven rooms, which will be completed during the summer and be the future home of Mr. and Mrs. Reed. Mrs. Reed has made up her mind to return to the old homestead and become a permanent resident of Cle Elum. This will be good news to their many friends here and there is not one in town who does not claim these pioneers as their friends.—Cle-Elum Echo.

Mr. Cleveland is Oracular.

To the question, "Are you now considering or would you consider, making the race for the presidency next year on the democratic ticket?" Mr. Cleveland returns a diplomatic reply. "I can say no more," says the ex-president, "than to assure you that at no time since the close of my last administration have I been desirous of carrying the democratic banner for the fourth time in a presidential contest."

This is truly Clevelandian, and therefore truly oracular. Any one familiar with the evasive powers of the English language can see that Mr. Cleveland has not returned a frank answer to a frank question. He is not "desirous" of carrying the democratic banner. But who expected that he would parade that desire if it were lurking in his heart? No, indeed, that would not be the proper play for Grover. If he should flush the wish at this point, there would be commotion in the Bryan camp, the opposition would rise in its might, and the fat would be in the fire.

With anything like a fair chance of success before the convention and the country, Cleveland would make the race. Apparently he is playing a watching game. He does not solicit the nomination. Nor does he give it a plain renunciation. Micawber like, he is waiting for something to turn up.—Spokesman Review.

NORTH YAKIMA, WASH., April 13, 1903. Mr. Sherwood Gillespy, Gen. Agt. Mutual Life Ins. Co. of New York, Seattle, Washington.

Dear Sir—My husband, Andrew L. See, died in this city on the 21st day of January 1903. At the time of his death he held two policies in your company, one for $2000.00 and one for $1000.00. Sensible people buy close but are generally honest. Real estate men must make sales to succeed. To sell they must show good values. The "Buyer's Home" can show you as good or better values than are offered elsewhere, owners not accepted. You can not beat our values. We handle properties which are offered right and have contracts on all we offer. We deliver the goods. Conveyance always ready. Our motto is "to compel people to deal with us through self interest." R. D. SANFORD, No. 16, N. Wenas Ave., North Yakima.
