DEMOCRATS WILL MAKE HARD FIGHT

Local Candidates for County Offices
Have Fine Chance of Being Elected and Are Out for Blood.

The democratic candidates for the various offices in the county have entered into the heat of the campaign with unusual determination this fall. With the exception of the office of sheriff, which is practically conceded by the republicans to John Edwards, every other office is being hotly contested. John Edwards will probably carry Yakima county by 500 majority.

For the office of county clerk I. J. Bounds believes that he will be elected over A. W. Barr, and Mr. Bounds has the assurances of many life-long republicans, who declare that they will support him for this office.

Beginning on next Monday night F. A. Hatfield, a Yakima boy, and one of the brightest lawyers practicing before the Yakima bar, opens his campaign for prosecuting attorney in a speech which he will deliver up the Naches. On Tuesday, October 20, he will speak up the Antanum valley, and on Friday night, October 23, he is the principal speaker in the Moxee.

A. C. Vail, candidate for county auditor, is making an active campaign. Mr. Vail speaks next Monday evening up the Antanum, and the following night, Tuesday, the 20th, he holds a meeting at the Wenas. Dr. Granville Lowther and Mr. Vail have been campaigning for the past ten days in the lower valley. They have met with merited success.

Dr. Lowther speaks on Monday night, October 19th, on Nob Hill; Tuesday, the 20th, at Fruitvale; Wednesday, the 21st, at Sunnyside; Thursday, the 22nd, at Grandview, and Friday, the 23d, at Outlook.

Other candidates on the democratic ticket are making a quiet canvass of the political situation, and while some expect to be defeated they all expect to cut down the brutal republican majority in the county.

have filed their declarations under the head of the "Business Men's" ticket. Such being the case, that is the only ticket that will be considered by the voters at the primaries and unless a convention shall be held on primary day and place another ticket in the field the primary, to all intents and purposes, will be the election.

Interest in the municipal fight centers on the mayoralty, and it looks now as though the contest would be between Armbruster and Heckman. The former is the most active candidate in the field and appears to have retained the most of his strong personal following of one and two years ago. The Armbruster faction is made up of many of those who believe in municipal ownership of the water system and in addition many third and fourth ward voters who favor him because of his loyalty to west side interests.

It is the belief of numerous citizens not allied with any faction that the only hope of defeating Armbruster's nomination at the primary is by concentrating all opposing forces in favor of P. Y. Heckman and there appears to be a strong disposition to do this, for to concentrate on either of the two opposing candidates is manifestly impossible.

LOOKS LIKE CINCH FOR DEMOCRATIC LEADER

Vice-Chairman Hudspeth of National Committee Gives Bryan 261
Electoral Votes—Necessary to a Choice 242.

New York, Oct. 13.—Vice Chairman Hudspeth, of the democratic national committee, made public today a list of states in which he said Bryan would receive the electoral vote. They are as follows:

The solid south, 166; Nebraska, 8; Indiana, 15; Nevada, 3; New York, 39; West Virginia, 7. Total 261. Necessary to a choice, 242.

Vice Chairman Hudspeth put Wisconsin in the doubtful list and said that New Jersey, Connecticut, Rhode Island and Illinois are still debatable with New Jersey and Connecticut favorable to the democratic party.

AFTER NELS SHORT

Chief of Police of North Yakima Tried for Misconduct.

The city council this week investigated the charges which have been preferred against Chief of Police Nelse Short from time to time by various citizens who have been thrown in contact with the chief. He was accused of having been under the influence of liquor while on duty, and of having abused prisoners unnecessarily. Nelse denied all of these charges, but admitted that he took a drink occasionally.

The investigation was concluded Wednesday evening and the council are now considering what their action shall be. Attorney Fred Parker appeared in behalf of Chief Short.

The democrats have secured the Yakima theatre for Saturday night before election on the following Tuesday and will hold the final rally of the campaign there under the auspices of the county central committee. Ex-Congressman Dudley Wooten, of Texas, now a resident of Seattle, will probably be the principal speaker of the evening.

GOODYEAR MAKES GOOD HERE

Democratic Candidate for Congress Delivers Great Speech at Court House and is Cheered by Voters in Both Parties.

Tuesday night was the occasion for a rousing democratic meeting held at the courthouse in this city when William Goodyear, editor of the Colfax Commoner, and democratic candidate for congress in the third district addressed the voters on the issues in the present campaign.

The speech of Mr. Goodyear was one of the best ever delivered here and his appreciative audience was instructively entertained for more than an hour. He discussed both state and national politics in a clear and concise manner, flayed the republican state administration for its great extravagance, and in this connection he used the facts and figures compiled by ex-Governor Henry McBride, late republican candidate for governor. Taking the figures of ex-Governor McBride he showed that the state of Washington had increased its indebtedness more than $500,000, notwithstanding the fact that the various banks always demanded the best security when loaning money to individuals, and yet, he said, these very banks will not secure their depositors against loss unless they are compelled to do so by law.

He took up both sides of the banking question discussing it from the standpoint of the banker. He said the bankers maintain that to guarantee deposits would have a tendency to induce wild-cat banking, would cause the wise and prudent banker to suffer for the dishonesty or imprudent of the reckless banker.

Mr. Goodyear admitted that this might be true to a certain extent, and yet he pointed out that every time a reckless banker failed in a community, the failure would react against the honest banker by possibly causing a run on the bank or shaking the confidence of the depositors so that they would refuse to patronize the bank, and thus sources of revenue in the state had also greatly increased within the past four years. Mr. Goodyear told his listeners that a vote for John Pattison, of Colfax, democratic candidate for governor, would at least mean a vote to curb the unnecessary extravagance of republican misrule in this state, and that if the old pioneer of Colfax be chosen on November 3, the state will have four years of an administration such as characterized the administration of John R. Rogers.

In referring to the defeat of "Jack" Splawn Mr. Goodyear said, with all due respect to his own fellow-townsmen, that if the democrats of Yakima county had done their duty at the primaries, there would have been no question about the nomination of Mr. Splawn for governor. As it was he was only beaten by less than 200 votes, and this county gave him less than 200 votes at the polls.

In discussing national politics Mr. Goodyear took occasion to pay his respects to the trusts, the question of tariff revision, which the republicans have promised to attend to after election, and the question of guarantee of bank deposits.

This latter question Mr. Goodyear devoted considerable time to, and made a lasting impression upon his hearers. He pointed out the fact that when the government, national, state, county, or city, placed its deposits in banks, that the bankers were compelled to secure these deposits with gilt-edged collateral.

Mrs. Elva Brown, of California, is here on a visit to her mother, Mrs. J. M. Baxter, of Fairview. She is accompanied by her daughter, Miss Katherine.

Viola Shelledy, aged 2 years, daughter of Lloyd Shelledy, of this city, died Saturday of cholera infantum. The funeral was held Sunday.

PATTISON TUESDAY NIGHT

John Pattison, Democratic candidate for Governor, will speak in this city next Tuesday night, October 20, at the court house. Every voter in the county should make an effort to get out and hear what Mr. Pattison has to offer. Jack Splawn, who was defeated for the nomination by Mr. Pattison will preside at the meeting. Charles Reynolds, an able and eloquent speaker of Seattle accompanies the democratic nominee and will discuss national issues.

APATHY IN RANKS OF REPUBLICANS

Even Roosevelt Unable to Enthuse
Voters of the G. O. P.—His Action in the Campaign Harshly Criticised.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 14.—There have been but few seasons in Washington so devoid of interest as is this ante-congressional period, the autumn of 1908. Interest centers in the coming election, now less than four weeks off. The president's return to the White House and his plunge into the midst of the campaign has been discussed and is no longer a sensation. Mr. Taft's election is expected by the people in official life, but it cannot be denied that there is a tinge of anxiety owing to what appears to be an apathetic, all-pervading indifference throughout the country. The fact that the betting odds are in favor of Taft is somewhat reassuring to pessimistic and skeptical republicans. Every effort is being made to arouse the enthusiasm or the fear that it is hoped will bring out voters on election day. It is well known that the republican party is losing from two sources and losing all along the line from Maine to Mexico. These two sources are the labor vote and the colored vote. It is pointed out that the calling of the chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and the head of the Longshoremen's union and other men distinguished for their official positions in the ranks of labor, for conference with the president at the White House, is evidence of anxiety on the part of the most distinguished promoter of the Taft campaign. It is known that danger signals are flying as a warning to republicans in all the centers of population throughout the country. The fact that the situation requires the care and manipulation of that most astute master of politics, that mover of statesmen, that martinet of the republican party, that wielder of the big stick, is giving great encouragement to those who hope for a complete change of administration and not merely for the substitution of a representative of the Roosevelt policies.

The republican campaign managers are daily filing through the White House, making their reports, receiving commands and directions which it is expected will enable them to increase their effectiveness. A week or two ago, there was much talk of the president taking the stump. Then there appeared to be an inspired report through Secretary Loeb that he would not take the stump, but now there is a revival of the rumor and indeed there appears to be an occasion for a charge with the forlorn hope. He is, of course, the most strenuous thing in the party as well as its most expert strategist, and his presence on the stump would draw, even if it did not convince. It is argued that since Mr. Roosevelt is not his party's nominee, there would be no propriety in his taking the most active part in the campaign. If it is permissible for the president to write letters and engage in an argument with the opposition with his pen, why may not he use his voice with the same propriety? The fact of it is that it is thoroughly unconventional and without precedent for the chief office-holder and president of the entire country to become a partisan or party advocate.

Captain John M. Curry broke the world's record on the range at American Lake last Monday, in the contest for the Walker cup. He secured 241 points out of a possible 250. Through his wonderful marksmanship he won the $50 cash prize for the highest score in the shoot.

RETIREMENT OF CHIEF JUSTICE

Melville W. Fuller Rounds Out Twenty Years of Service on Supreme Bench.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 8.—When Chief Justice Melville W. Fuller appeared in the United States supreme court today he found on his desk a beautiful bouquet of 20 bright red roses. The bouquet came from the associate justices of the supreme court and was a reminder to the chief justice that today he had rounded out an honorable service of 20 years as presiding judge of the highest tribunal in the land.

Of late there has been considerable discussion in Washington over the possibility of a change in the near future in the chief justiceship. Chief Justice Fuller is 75 years old and has been eligible to retirement on full pay since his 70th birthday. He enjoys excellent health and appears to be good for many a long year on the bench still, but after the honorable record and the long tenure which he has already enjoyed it is not to be supposed that he will desire to continue indefinitely.

Justice Fuller is an ardent democrat and naturally would like to see a democrat appointed his successor. If Mr. Bryan should be elected to the presidency there is not the slightest doubt but that Justice Fuller would retire, which would give Mr. Bryan a chance to appoint a democrat in his place. As a matter of fact, it is generally believed he will retire anyway because he is reaching an age when he is entitled to reap the fruits of an honorable life in peace and quiet and without the disturbing burden of important public office. In any event it is scarcely probable that Chief Justice Fuller will remain on the bench until the end of the next administration since at that time he will have reached 80 years of age.

Had the chief justice seen fit to retire during the administration of President Roosevelt it is believed the latter would have appointed Elihu Root as his successor on the supreme bench. And it is believed that should Judge Taft succeed to the presidency he would in all probability carry out the Roosevelt affection for the secretary of state, since Taft and Root are as firm friends as are Root and Roosevelt. In the event of the election of Mr. Bryan the succession would become entirely a matter of speculation.

It is no ordinary honor to be able to name a chief justice of the supreme court because it is an opportunity which has come to but few presidents of the United States. There has been but eight chief justices of the supreme court since the days of the venerable John Jay, of New York. Justice Jay served from 1789 to 1795, six years; John Rutledge, of South Carolina, served during 1795; Oliver Ellsworth, of Connecticut, served the five years from 1796 to 1801; John Marshall, of Virginia, served 34 years, from 1801 to 1835; Roger B. Taney, of Maryland, served from 1836 to 1864, 28 years; Salmon P. Chase, of Ohio, served from 1864 to 1873, and Morrison R. Waite, of the same state, from 1873 to 1888, when Chief Justice Fuller was appointed.

Justice Fuller is a native of Maine and a graduate of Bowdoin college. He went to Chicago in 1856 where he practiced law until appointed to the supreme bench. In 1862 he was a member of the state constitutional convention in Illinois. From 1863 to 1865 he was a member of the state legislature. He was a delegate to the democratic national conventions in 1864, 1872, 1876 and 1880. The degree of LL. D. has been conferred upon him by Northwestern university, by Bowdoin college, by Harvard, by Yale and by Dartmouth.

WANT WEATHER STATION

Commercial Club Continues Efforts to Secure Needed Appropriation.

Efforts to secure an appropriation for a weather observing station and a weather observer to be located at North Yakima continue to be made by the Commercial club and others interested. Secretary H. P. James has written a second letter to Willis M. Moor, chief weather observer of the United States, reminding him of the need of a station to be located in the Yakima valley. The Commercial club took up this matter some time ago and at that time were assured of an appropriation in 1909. The appropriation for new weather stations and observers has been exhausted this year but when the budget is made up for the next year, it is believed North Yakima will receive consideration.

Stations Are Valuable.

The value of a weather station at this point is inestimable. The section has had the voluntary services of H. R. Seudder for many years and a scant report furnished by the Associated Press service. Further than that people of the Yakima valley have had no way of knowing anything definite about the weather, which to a farming community, is of vital importance.

In the east and middle west, farmers depend almost entirely on the local weather observers for reports regarding the weather. In many sections of Minnesota every farmer in that section is advised at noon every day as to the prediction for the following day. When the report is received the central telephone office clears all rural phone lines and sends the report broadcast. This enables every tiller of the soil to plan his work according to the weather predicted for the day following.

Local Conditions.

In the Yakima valley farmers are hardly as dependent on weather conditions as are those of other sections. If it rains, well and good; if it doesn't rain, work goes on just the same. To know when rain is expected would be valuable information in the spring before water is turned on in the ditches and also in the fall when crops are harvested.

To a certain extent a local weather observer can foretell the coming of frost or extreme cold weather which often injures fruit and other vegetables. The value of a weather station and a paid observer is known to every farmer in the valley who has lived in communities provided with these necessities.

RATES TO A. Y. P. FAIR

Secretary H. P. James of the Commercial club has received a letter from James Charlton, chairman of the Transcontinental Passenger association in which the first announcement of special rate from St. Paul, Minneapolis, Duluth, Superior and Missouri river points on all regular direct routes of transcontinental railroads to the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition is announced. From the above mentioned points to Portland, Seattle, Tacoma, Everett, Bellingham, Victoria and Vancouver the special fare will be $50 for the round trip $25 for one way. The final return limit will be Oct. 31, 1909. Dates of sale are from May 25 to Sept. 30, 1909.

At a meeting of representatives of transcontinental roads Oct. 7, the above rates and arrangements were decided upon. The information also was sent at once to Henry E. Reed, director of exploitation Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition, and Mr. Reed wired back that he was much pleased with the rates so far announced.

It is understood that the fares from Chicago, St. Louis and other points east of the Missouri and St. Paul and from Memphis, New Orleans and the southwest will be considered later.

The announcement of rates is made at an early date in order that those contemplating trips to the coast may have ample time to make arrangements. The $50 round trip fare is considered quite reasonable and there will doubtless be many to take advantage of it.

The death of Mrs. C. H. Hinman occurred Thursday night at her mother's home in Tacoma. The cause of death was relapse from a previous illness. She had been about a month with typhoid fever. The deceased will be brought here for interment.

POSTMASTER'S REPORT SHOWS LARGE GAINS

Increase of Receipts at Local Office Is $8,377 Over Year Ending Dec. 31, 1907.

Postmaster W. L. Lemon has completed the report of the sale of stamps and stamped envelopes for the quarter ending September 30. The report is very gratifying and shows a gain of $2552 over the quarter ending the same time last year. It also shows a gain of $250 over the quarter ending June 30, this year. Included in the quarterly report is a report for the year. The gain of this year over last is $8377. The gain of the year 1907 over 1906 was $3706, and the gain of 1908 over the two preceding years is $12,083.

Shows Increased Population.

"This report," said Postmaster Lemon today, "is very gratifying. It shows among other things that the population of the Yakima valley is steadily increasing. When the postal receipts of a community show increase it usually follows that the population of that section is increasing."

During the last year the local postal department has succeeded in adding one member to its clerical force. An additional carrier has also been provided and the city is receiving excellent service. Postmaster Lemon said today that he regretted the fact that the Nob Hill district had voted not to become a part of the city of North Yakima as its annexation would mean an increased number of carriers which would be valuable both to the proposed annexed district and to the residents of the city.

No Delivery in Some Districts

"At the present time there are many sections of the city which do not have any delivery at all," said Mr. Lemon. "The postal inspectors tell us where free delivery shall be established and they have refused to allow delivery in many parts of this city which are sparsely settled. If Nob Hill and other parts of the proposed annexed district would come in we could cover some of the outlying districts which are now receiving neither rural nor city delivery."

"The postal authorities refuse to allow city carriers to deliver mail to any one not in the district outlined for delivery. This results in many people whose homes are on the outskirts of town having to come to the office for their mail. A person can not even place his box at a spot inside the delivery district if he lives outside of it."

Need of More Carriers.

"Many people have wanted to do this and it seems hardly right to refuse them the privilege but such are the orders. If the city limits were extended all, or a great deal of this trouble, at least, would be overcome because the additional carriers would cover the districts now receiving no delivery of any kind."

PRICES FOR APPLES GRADUALLY IMPROVE

Potato Market Is Arousing a Great Deal of Interest Among Possible Dealers.

Increased activity in the local dealing in apples is the most marked feature of the fruit situation here at this time. The past week has been a fairly lively one and fruit is going forward at a good rate, every warehouse loading from two to three cars a day. The prices paid are from 50 cents to $1.25, according to kind and quality. The quotations for the standard lots run along about $1. While these figures do not approach those of last year they are, as a matter of fact, better than were anticipated but a short time ago and are so good that they look large in comparison with the conditions three or four years ago. On the whole the situation is an advantageous one and apparently improving.

Much Talk About Potatoes.

There is a great deal of discussion at this time over the potato situation. About $15 a ton is a fair price for the local stock just now but the situation is complicated by the fact that there have been a number of buyers in the field who have paid a higher figure for limited lots. These embrace a variety of people. One or two salesmen in other lines who believe they see a chance to speculate and others are buying for contractors' camps or for special needs which require a picked potato for a special purpose. There is a general feeling that the crop is short. It is, in some sections, but is enormous in others. While Colorado is declared to be a very short crop, California is believed to be able to export thousands of carloads if needed.

On the west side of the mountains in this state there are some district shortages but in the main it is believed that the yield is as large as ever. Some sections of Oregon report a short yield and the Palouse is believed to be a little short. One heavy but conservative dealer said that figuring on the crop was poor business and suggested that it was better to figure on the demand. This is an interesting distinction.

Eastern Washington hay and oats are to be sold to the federal government to the value, approximately, of $620,000 for use in the Philippines. A contract for 9000 tons of oats and for 10,000 tons of hay has been entered into between the government and W. W. Robinson to that effect. Delivery is to be made at Seattle. For wheat hay, double compressed, Mr. Robinson is to receive $24.50 per ton; for 3000 tons of timothy double compressed, $27.40, and for 7000 tons of timothy double compressed, $28.80. The terms of the contract call for delivery of 2000 tons of hay and 2500 tons of oats at Seattle by November 10, and a like amount by December 10, and the remainder on call.

Eggs Make An Advance.

Eggs have taken an advance locally and are now sold at retail at 40 cents. Eggs are higher in Seattle today than they have ever been known to be at this time and were quoted Tuesday, for strictly fresh, at 50 cents.

Meats, while unchanged in price, are firmer at the figures which have prevailed. General market quotations are as follows:

TOOK THE SECOND PRIZE

Yakima County Awarded That Position in Spokane Fruit Show After a Fight.

Yakima got second place instead of third for its fruit display at Spokane. It defeated Spokane county and was defeated by Wenatchee only, and, as is known everywhere all over the country, it is no disgrace to be beaten by Chelan in a fruit display. On the other hand it is a great honor to come out ahead of that section of the state. E. G. Peck, who was at Spokane with the Yakima exhibit, had his hands full to prevent Yakima from being lower down in the list of awards, however. It is generally rumored here that real estate interests at Spokane were very active to the end that the county in which they live should be given a high position in the fruit award. Mr. Peck filed a written protest, remained awake for 24 hours to watch its fate and then was given the second place. Mr. Peck says nothing with regard to the contest but does say that the Yakima display aroused a great deal of enthusiasm.

TO IMPROVE PHONE SYSTEM IN NACHES

Meeting Held Saturday Settles Old Troubles Between Upper and Lower Valleys.

Naches valley, both the upper and lower sections of it, is to have improved telephone service. At a meeting held Saturday of stockholders of the Naches Valley Telephone company, all the old trouble existing between the people of the upper and lower valleys, was amicably settled and plans to improve the phone service throughout the entire valley agreed upon. The system will be divided as was first talked of. A central office is to be established at Naches City. The lower valley part of the company will improve the line from Rowe Hill to Fruitvale. New 30-foot round poles with double cross arms will be erected. Six or eight circuits will be provided for and the capacity of the line increased from 28 subscribers to 75 subscribers. At present there are only two circuits in the lower valley.

Long Distance System.

The lower valley people will be in direct communication with the central office at Naches City. When the new system is completed persons living in North Yakima and wishing to talk to parties in the upper Naches valley will first have to ask the North Yakima central office for the central office at Naches City and then give the number of the party they wish to speak with. This puts Naches City in the same position as other towns of the valley where the long distance system is used. At present the upper Naches system is the same as the lower valley system. There are 28 subscribers and two circuits. When the new system is completed, there will probably be enough circuits to handle 100 additional subscribers. It is also planned to extend stub lines to many parts of the upper Naches which are now doing without phone service.

Line to Wenas.

Wenas valley may profit by the increased capacity of the upper valley system. It is planned to run a "leg" from the central office at Naches City to the Wenatzen valley. This will give Wenatzen people communication with Naches City and North Yakima, something they have never had.

The following men were appointed yesterday to look after the work of improving the system:

Lower Valley—George Chapman, John Madison and John Dobie.
Upper Valley—W. D. Thompson, W. L. Dimmick and George Arrowsmith.

SCHREINER FOR ASSESSOR.

The office of county assessor is perhaps the most important of any local office from the standpoint of the average taxpayer. It is the assessor who fixes the amount of taxes you pay by appraising the valuation of your property for purposes of taxation. It is, therefore, of utmost importance that your assessor be not only an honest man, free of the taint of undue influence, but a man of good business judgment who is at least reasonably familiar with property values in the different sections of Yakima county.

Such a man is Joseph F. Schreiner, the democratic nominee for assessor. He is a young man possessed of character, brains and ability. While he has never held a public office he is well qualified to do so. Mr. Schreiner is an Ahtanum valley farmer and is a successful one. Born in Minnesota but coming to this county at an early age with his parents, he grew to manhood here and is, therefore, quite well known to most of the older settlers.

Some people seem to think that the county assessor should be a city man who is supposed to know all about land values, just as if city men have a corner on that sort of knowledge. Now, as a matter of fact, one of the very best and most equitable assessors that Yakima county ever had was a Cowiche rancher. We refer to John L. Lasswell. Mr. Lasswell had the courage to raise the railroad assessment in this county to $10,000 per mile and he assessed other tax-dodging corporations and individuals in proportion. Then there was a great rattling of dry bones in this community. The assessor was flattered, cajoled and threatened; but he stood by his guns and Yakima county got as a result, the fairest and most equitable assessment that it ever had up to that time.

What we need now is another John Lasswell in the assessor's office to shake things up again. Joe F. Schreiner is another such a man. If you are in favor of a "square deal" in the matter of taxes vote for him on election day!

A CAPABLE SHERIFF.

John M. Edwards, present sheriff of Yakima county and democratic candidate for re-election, is the right man in the right place and has fairly earned a second term in that office. He is an honest and capable man, and thoroughly understands the duties of his position. Mr. Edwards is an old time resident of Yakima county, having grown to manhood here, his parents being early pioneers. For years he rode the ranges of central Washington as a cowboy, and therefore probably no man knows the geography of this section of the country better than he—a knowledge that has since been of much value to him in hunting down criminals. Even his worst enemy, if he really has any, can not deny but that Mr. Edwards, during his first term, has given the public a most efficient service as sheriff and for that reason the most of our citizens without regard to party, desire that he should be given another term in the office. As many have expressed it, "Where could we find a better man?" No better evidence can be produced in support of Mr. Edwards' recognized fitness for the place than the fact that only one republican filed for the nomination to this, the most sought after office in the county. More than three-fourths of the business and professional men of North Yakima, and most of them are republicans, will support John M. Edwards for re-election because they feel that he has made a splendid officer and that in common fairness he is entitled to a second term. Moreover, these practical men well know that really good shrievalty timber is a scarce commodity and that it would be poor policy to turn a good man out of that office at the end of his first term merely to try an experiment, and they won't do it. The sheriff is the chief peace officer of the county. To him the people look for protection both to life and property. This is why they are less inclined to draw the lines of partisanship in filling the office of sheriff, for intelligent men understand the necessity that exists for keeping always in the sheriff's office a strong, efficient and courageous man who can be depended upon in any emergency to answer the CALL of DUTY.

John M. Edwards is such a man and for that reason he will, we predict, be re-elected to the office of sheriff on the third day of November.

P. Y. HECKMAN FOR MAYOR.

Without wishing to draw any invidious comparison as between the different candidates for mayor of North Yakima for the ensuing year, The Democrat believes that P. Y. Heckman is the best qualified man for that honor who has thus far been named and will therefore support that gentleman for the office, and we will do so for the following reasons:

1. Mr. Heckman is an honest man, who belongs to no clique or faction, and no corporation has or can have strings on him.

2. Because that he stands for the "square deal."

3. Having had experience in municipal affairs as well as possessing much technical knowledge in regard to different public utilities he would prove a valuable man at the head of city affairs, and because the lack of such knowledge on the part of public officials heretofore has cost the city dearly.

4. Because he takes a common sense view of public questions and is not an extremist.

5. He demands a better and purer water supply for the people of this city and insists that the company in control of that facility, must furnish it, and being a man with a mind of his own, he would not be bluffed.

6. He is in favor of a reasonable policy of public improvement in all lines affecting the city's welfare and growth.

7. He stands in favor of law enforcement.

8. As a public official he would not tolerate "graft," and no man would be permitted to take money from the city treasury without rendering an equivalent therefore.

9. Being a man of leisure he has the time to look after city affairs and being a man who never shirks a duty he would do it conscientiously and in a painstaking manner.

While a resident of Stretator, Ill., Mr. Heckman served four years as a councilman of that city. During most of his last term in that capacity he was the acting mayor of that city. He is therefore, experienced in handling municipal affairs.

During the administration of Walter J. Reed he filled the office of street commissioner for this city and he was unquestionably the best street commissioner that the city ever had.

During most of his life Mr. Heckman has held supervision over large bodies of men. For seven years he filled the position of superintendent of the Roslyn mines. He knows how to handle men and get the best results from their labor. He is also possessed of good business judgment, of which the city would get the full benefit.

Mr. Heckman is the best qualified man for the office of mayor that the people of this city have had the privilege of choosing for many years. At least that is our judgment in the matter.

MOYER FOR TREASURER.

"Honest Bill" Moyer, a prosperous Ahtanum valley rancher, is the democratic nominee for county treasurer. Mr. Moyer has been a resident of Yakima county for the past five years. Though a comparative newcomer in this county he is an old time resident of the state and has figured to a considerable extent in its public life. During his residence in Seattle he was elected sheriff of King county in 1896 and made a splendid record in that office. He was defeated for re-election in 1898 by a very small margin, being the candidate of the fusionists. While in public service there he inaugurated a number of reforms in the conduct of the sheriff's office and reduced its running expenses very materially, at the same time making a reputation for successfully running down criminals.

Mr. Moyer believes that "public office is a public trust" and not a private snap, as does the present republican official whom he hopes to succeed. If elected to the office of treasurer of this county he promises to devote his entire time and attention to the office and The Democrat is satisfied that he is a man who can be depended upon to make his word good. That he is well qualified to fill the important office of treasurer and is in every sense a safe man to be entrusted with the care of public funds, every man who knows "Honest Bill" Moyer will readily vouch for.

The people of Yakima county will make no mistake in electing Mr. Moyer to the office of county treasurer. Vote for "Honest Bill!"

"OH, MR. CROCKER!"

The public interest demands a change in the important office of auditor of Yakima county. A goodly number of people who have had an opportunity to observe the workings of that office during the present administration, republicans as well as democrats, feel that the time is ripe for a change there, and for that reason will support the candidacy of Arthur C. Vail, the democratic nominee for auditor, who is admittedly a man well qualified to fill the office.

It is a matter of common criticism that Mr. Crocker keeps in the office more deputies than are required to do the clerical work there. Any keen-eyed visitor to the office cannot but be impressed with that fact.

Another valid objection raised to Mr. Crocker's policy is his habit of often sending out of the county public money for the purpose of purchasing supplies. This, we are reliably informed, he has done repeatedly. Imagine the folly, for instance, of sending an order to Seattle for all the screens used in the furnishing of the new court house and jail without even giving our local manufacturers a chance to tender bids for the article wanted! And while screens too, are a staple article of manufacture here in North Yakima and by heavy taxpayers at that. This is only one instance of several, we are informed, where the auditor, for some unknown reason, has seen fit to purchase county supplies from outside sources when they could be bought for the same or even less money here at home. It is a pernicious practice that ought to be stopped.

The auditor is the authorized purchasing agent for the county. The law plainly says that for all needed supplies of the estimated value of $100 or over that that official must call for bids. Has Auditor Crocker obeyed the law in this particular? It is a matter of common knowledge in this city that he has not. Why does he persist in such a course if not from a desire to favor special interests?

The Democrat last week called attention to the fact that Mr. Crocker is down on the assessment rolls of the county this year as paying taxes on property to the total value of $20. Now we do not mean to point the finger of scorn at Mr. Crocker for being professionally a poor man. Far from it, for we have too much sympathy for the poor for that. But is Auditor Crocker really a poor man who should pay no more public taxes than eighty cents a year? It is to laugh when one reflects on the apparent elegance of the Crocker wardrobe and the splendor of the Crocker family jewels.

Is Mr. Crocker the man who said angrily to the deputy assessor when called upon to enumerate his possessions that he had "never paid any personal property taxes in his life and what is more, I never intend to?"

"Oh, Mr. Crocker, how could you!"

DO THE PEOPLE RULE?

After all the excitement over the publication of the Standard Oil letters, showing that trusts control legislation, has reached the stage where the voters sift the wheat from the chaff of sensational publications, what will be the logical conclusion in the minds of the voters? It will be:

1. That the people do not rule, because the national lawmakers legislate to suit the trusts. More trusts exist today than ever, the people suffer more from them, and they practice more extortion.

2. That the party in power is the party through which the trusts rule. The republican party is now in power. It writes all the national laws.

In a speech in the last congress, Mr. Sherman (candidate for vice president) declared that the republican party assumed full responsibility for everything that has been done and for what has not been done. That is right. The trusts write the tariff laws passed by republican votes. If the magistrates are not punished criminally, it is because republican officials fail in their duties.

For eleven years the democrats have had no power to frame federal laws or to execute a federal statute. If everything in America is all right, as to federal laws, for eleven years, the republican party deserves the credit. If "evils have crept in" the republicans are responsible.

The only hope for a change lies in the election of Bryan.

Suppose some individual democrat has been employed by a trust. He could not get a law passed, he could not give "an immunity bath," he could do nothing effectively for the trusts unless a majority of the republican congressmen favored the trust measures.

The republican orators cannot escape responsibility by trying to pick out some democrat who has been employed by a trust. Recent disclosures prove that the people do not rule, but that the trusts owe their existence and fatness to republican laws and republican officials.—Walla Walla Statesman.

COME TO JUDGMENT.

Never has the republican party faced such conditions as meet it whichever way it turns. All thoughtful onlookers concede that New York is irrevocably lost to it. The nomination of Lilley makes Connecticut a doubtful state. Rhode Island and New Jersey hang in the balance.

There are both hell and chaos in Ohio. Indiana, thanks to Hanly, is gone past redemption. The prairie fires of an awakened public conscience sweep over Illinois, leaving the Mississippi river into Iowa, crossing the Missouri river into Kansas and Nebraska, impeding only by the tenanted walls of the Rocky mountains to issue thence again and to swoop down to the golden shores of the Pacific.—Louisville Courier Journal.

The republican managers are working all kinds of confidence schemes this year to gain votes. For instance The Democrat has been receiving an alleged "Publicity Bulletin," issued from Chicago. The burden of "news" in this little rag is to the effect that this, that, or some other mill, factory or business is getting ready to start up again because of the general belief that Mr. Taft will be elected, etc., etc. Well, what did they ever shut down for if a republican administration is all they want? These lying sneaks make us tired and they make us pretty mad, too, sometimes.

Andrew Carnegie out of his ill gotten wealth, which he amassed by reason of rotten republican tariff legislation, has Taft corruption fund. The g. o. p. given the princely sum of $20,000 to the managers were so much rejoiced at the gift of tainted money that they have proclaimed the fact to the world. But it is certain that that gift will hurt Taft's chances much more than it will help. Nothing could better illustrate the sympathy that the "rich malefactors" have for Taft than that contribution of Carnegie to the republican slush fund.

Wm. Goodyear, democratic nominee for congress, who delivered a rattling good speech in this city last Tuesday evening, is the editor of the Colfax Commoner. He is an honest and able man who enjoys the confidence and respect of all who know him. The editor of this paper has known Mr. Goodyear for a number of years and we will cheerfully vouch for him. If congress was made up of such men as "Billy" Goodyear this would be a better country to live in. We earnestly ask all our friends in Yakima county to boost for Mr. Goodyear for congress.

George Fred Williams, the Massachusetts orator, has completely answered Senator Beveridge everywhere the "Hoosier" politician has spoken in the Pacific Northwest. Williams is by far the abler man of the two and if the speeches of the Indiana man had any effect at the time the powerful arguments of Williams has destroyed that effect. As the Oregonian admits Beveridge is an intellectual light weight anyway, and many of his hearers have felt disappointment after hearing his set speech.

In this issue The Democrat has editorially reviewed a portion of the democratic county ticket. Unfortunately time and space forbids a notice of all the candidates this week. Next week we will consider the others. As a whole the local democratic ticket is one that all members of the party may be proud of. They are good men, all of them, and it would be a God's blessing to the overburdened taxpayers of Yakima county if they should all be elected November 3d.

Mr. Roosevelt says he stands for Taft "because he stands for the moral uplift of the nation." What is there immoral about Mr. Bryan, that Mr. Roosevelt should accuse him of immorality and take to his bosom the licentious Hearst? Mr. Bryan believes in the divinity of Christ, Mr. Taft does not. Has the president gone crazy that he should use such language. Democrats should throw a mantle of charity over such a wanton, wild outburst.—Ellensburg Dawn.

John Pattison, democratic nominee for governor, is a firm believer in the justice and righteousness of guaranteeing bank deposits and is making that the principal issue of his campaign. If elected governor Mr. Pattison will do everything in his power to incorporate that principle into law in the state of Washington. So if you believe in guaranteeing bank deposits the logical thing to do on election day is to vote for John Pattison for governor.

No self-respecting republican who is familiar with the official record of J. H. Schively, republican candidate for state insurance commissioner, will vote for him on election day. Schively's administration of that office is either grossly rotten or else the leading republican papers of the state, as well as many prominent insurance men of the state, have been lying about the man most outrageously, and we cannot believe that the latter statement is true.

L. O. Meigs, republican nominee for the legislature for this county, is already being discussed as a candidate for the house speakership. But isn't all such talk just a bit previous? Let us not forget that wise old saw about first "catch your hare," etc. Mr. Meigs is not quite eligible as yet to make the race for speaker.

J. D. Hoge, Seattle banker and republican politician, has recently returned from the east and expressed his fears that Bryan may beat Taft in the state of New York. Yes, very likely he will. The indications surely do all point that way.

TRUSTS FAVOR TAFT

"Interests" Are Strongly Represented on the Republican Committee.

SHELDON OFFICIAL FAT FRIER

List of Those from Whom He Got Contributions.

Republican Treasurer is Director in 21 Corporations—Raised Big Fund in 1906—Recommended by Standard Oil Attorney.

Chicago, October 1.—(Special).—In connection with the controversy which the President has raised as to whether the trusts and financial concerns are most interested in the election of Mr. Taft or Mr. Bryan, the Democratic National Committee Calls attention to a few of the controlling spirits in the Republican Committee who are actively interested in trusts and monopolies.

At the head of the list stands George R. Sheldon, treasurer of the Republican National Committee. Mr. Sheldon's selection for this important post of official "fat frier" was made upon recommendation of Wm. Nelson Cromwell, the great corporation lawyer of Wall Street, attorney for the Panama Canal Company, E. H. Harriman, the Standard Oil Company, the Sugar Trust, Kuhn, Loeb & Co., bankers and brokers, and other favored interests. Almost immediately after his appointment, Mr. Sheldon is reported to have received a contribution from Mr. Cromwell, amounting to $50,000.

Mr. Sheldon is a multi-millionaire, the active head of the banking firm of W. C. Sheldon & Co., 2 Wall Street. According to the "Directory of Directors," for the present year, Mr. Sheldon's name appears as a director in the following 21 corporations:

American Locomotive Company.
American Locomotive Automobile Company.
Bethlehem Steel Corporation,
Cincinnati Northern Railroad Company.
Detroit Edison Company,
Electrical Securities Corporation,
Laclede Gaslight Company,
Locomotive and Machine Company of Montreal (limited),
Locomotive Security Company,
Metropolitan Trust Company,
Milwaukee Electric Railway & Light Co.,
Milwaukee, Light, Heat and Traction Co.,
National Copper Bank,
New Jersey Terminal Dock and Improvement Co.,
North American Co.,
Republic Steel & Iron Co., of New Jersey,
Rogers Locomotive Works,
St. Louis Transit Co.,
Union Bag & Paper Co. of New Jersey,
Union Electric Light & Power Co.,
Union Electric Light & Power Co., of St. Louis.

Mr. Sheldon's connection with the Locomotive Trust places him in close connection with the railroads of the country, where he is able to procure their campaign contributions. He is also a confidential agent of J. Pierpont Morgan in his Wall street deals, and assisted in the formation of the Shipbuilding trust. His North American company controls the traction interests of St. Paul and Minneapolis. He is president of the Union League club, of which Rockefeller, Morgan, Carnegie and other powers in Wall street are also members. He is also said to be a member of 20 other clubs whose membership includes practically all of the operators in Wall street.

In 1906 Mr. Sheldon was treasurer of the New York State Republican committee, and succeeded so well in frying the fat from the interests that Mr. Cromwell recommended him for a similar job with the National committee. According to the sworn statement of Mr. Sheldon, published after the campaign, he raised $333,923.60 chiefly from these interests.

The following is a partial list of the contributors as shown in Mr. Sheldon's statement:

| Henry Clews, Wall street banker .....           | 250   |

This is only a partial list of the trust magnates and financiers who contributed to Mr. Sheldon's fund. An index as to how much more Mr. Sheldon may be able to raise from these interests for the national campaign, the fact may be cited that Mr. Cromwell, gave $1,000 to the state fund, and increased the amount to $50,000 for the national campaign.

Fred W. Upham of Chicago is assistant treasurer of the Republican National committee. He is a millionaire several times over, and a member of the County Board of Review of Illinois, which passes upon the amount of taxes which corporations and large estates shall pay in that state. He is a director in several corporations and is in charge of the collection of campaign funds in the west.

On August 21, 1908, after his appointment as Assistant Treasurer of the Republican committee, Mr. Upham sent out thousands of letters to corporation officials whose taxes he passes upon as a member of the Board of Review, urging them to contribute to the Republican fund as "individuals," and requesting them "to bring this matter to the attention of your business associates." The suggestion implied is regarded as significant.

Five of the nine members of the Republican committee are:

Charles F. Brooker, Connecticut millionaire, members of N. Y. Chamber of Commerce, and vice-president New York, New Haven Railroad Co., against which a government suit is now pending, and one of the leading spirits in the brass trust.

Frank O. Lowden, multi-millionaire, vice-president Pullman Palace Car Co., which is a monopoly.

E. C. Duncan, director Atlantic & North Carolina railway, and other corporations, receiver Seaboard Air Line, and official dispenser of patronage in North Carolina.

T. Coleman DuPont, controlling factor in Powder Trust, against which the government has a suit now pending for dissolution.

Boise Penrose, political boss of Pennsylvania, head of the corrupt Republican organization in Philadelphia, and conspicuous in many corporations.

Roy O. West, chairman of the Republican State Committee of Ill., is also chairman of the County Board of Equalization, which passes upon corporation taxes.

Fred A. Sims, acting chairman of the Republican State committee of Indiana, is also chairman of the State Tax board, which passes upon the taxes levied against corporations.

Mr. DuPont has been forced to resign from the executive committee because of his trust connections, but Mr. Brooker, against whose company the government has a suit, is still a member of the committee.

PROTECTING DEPOSITS IN BANKS.

An Ohio Example of Taft's Position and Oklahoma's Proof of Bryan's Position.

One of the planks of the Denver platform favors guaranteed bank deposits. Mr. Bryan addressed the Ohio legislature in February favoring guaranteed deposits. Former Governor Herrick subsequently addressed the legislature in reply to Mr. Bryan, opposing any such protection for banks and bank depositors.

Mr. Taft, in his speech of acceptance, denounced the plank of the Denver platform, which declares for a national law for banks similar to the Oklahoma law for state banks, thereby coinciding in the views of Mr. Herrick and opposing the views of Mr. Bryan.

Below are two dispatches showing what Mr. Bryan stands for and what Mr. Taft stands for:

THE OHIO WAY.

Cleveland, O., Aug. 17.—The creditors' committee, charged with an investigation of the affairs of the defunct Farmers and Merchants' bank, the cashier of which, Henry W. Gazell, is under arrest charged with embezzlement, tonight reported that the depositors will be forced to shoulder a loss of $415,000.

The report, made in a meeting of 2,800 depositors, charged the deficit to Gazell, alleging his speculations proved disastrous to the institution.

TAFT STANDS FOR THIS.

THE OKLAHOMA WAY.

Guthrie, Okla., May 21.—Within one hour from the time H. H. Smock, Oklahoma banking commission, had taken charge of the International Bank of Colgate he had authority to pay the depositors in full, though the bank's cash and available funds in other banks fell $22,000 short of the total amount of deposits. The commissioner was able to do this under the operation of the new banking law, and this is the first time it has been called into use.

BRYAN STANDS FOR THIS.

The Republican National committee says it gets no money from the Standard Oil company. Does that concern, then, give its money direct to Republican candidates?

GOODYEAR'S POSITION ON PARCELS POST

Man Who Would Succeed Wesley
L. Jones in Congress Takes Issue
With Judge Poindexter.

The parcels post system has become an issue in the congressional campaign in this district. I have declared that I favor the plan recommended by Postmaster General Meyer providing for a rate of 12 cents per pound on packages weighing up to 11 pounds. The present rate is 16 cents per pound and the weight of packages is limited to four pounds. I also favor the supplementary bill recommended providing for a special R. F. D. rate of 5 cents a pound for the first pound and 2 cents for each additional pound up to the limit of 11 pounds. In explaining my position I have said:

"I believe that this question should be considered not from the standpoint of the express companies and retail merchants, who oppose the parcels post system, nor from the standpoint of the mail order houses which favor it, but from the standpoint of the people. To my mind the establishment of the system would greatly benefit a vast majority of the people, without working any serious injury to the honest and enterprising retail merchants."

Judge Poindexter, the republican candidate, has stated his position on the question, as follows:

"It is a significant fact that the principal advocates of the measure are the large mail order houses and in that connection I am opposed to government aid to such houses at the expense of local concerns; or to any measure which would extend the principle of centralization of governmental subsidy to private business. It is far better that reasonable rates of transportation should be secured through governmental regulation of common carriers rather than that the government should go into the business itself.

"The welfare of the local merchant is intensely connected with the welfare of the entire community and conditions surrounding the local retail merchant are such that competition can always be trusted to prevent any extortion on his part.

"As at present advised I would say that if the retail merchants in this district are generally opposed to a so-called parcels post law in any form I would certainly oppose the same in congress should I be elected to that body."

These two statements clearly set forth the difference in our attitudes. I consider the question from the standpoint of the people, Poindexter from the standpoint of a small class of the people, the retail merchants of the district. I favor the parcels post because I believe that it would benefit a vast majority of the people. Poindexter says that he will oppose it if the retail merchants in the district are generally opposed to it.

Mr. Poindexter's contention that "the principal advocates of the measure are the large mail order houses," is not correct. It's principal advocates are the grange, the labor organizations and the masses of the people. His contention that it is "governmental aid" to the mail order houses "at the expense of local concerns" would apply equally well to the two-cent postage rate on letters, for the mail order houses benefit by this rate far more than the local merchants on account of the vast volume of their correspondence.

It is a fact, however, that the principal opponents of the parcels post system has well been said that there are only six arguments against the system and they are the six express companies, who enjoy a monopoly of carrying packages and charging exorbitant rates for their services. If you want to send a package to your next station by mail, it must not weigh over four pounds and will cost you 16 cents per pound, but you can send the same package to London for 12 cents a pound because our postoffice department has a postal convention with England.

We now have postal conventions with 33 foreign countries. With nine the limit is four pounds and six ounces. With the others it is 11 pounds. In all but four cases—Peru, Chile, Ecuador and Bolivia—the postage is 12 cents a pound.

One of the stock arguments against extending the parcels post system is that it would greatly augment the usual deficiency of the postoffice department, but this is merely an assertion, not substantiated by the facts. The average haul of second-class matter in 1907 was 540 miles. To transport this amount of matter cost $29.70 a ton for railroad transportation, $16.80 a ton for other transportation charges and $165 a ton for labor and supplies, a total of $211.50 a ton. This would give a profit of $28.50 a ton from a general parcels post rate of 12 cents a pound, which would produce a revenue of $240 a ton.

The opposition of the retail merchants to the parcels post is based largely on the same unreasoning fear of competition, which has prompted many of them to oppose the building of railroads to their towns. As a matter of fact, the establishment of the system, as recommended by the postmaster general, would be a distinct benefit to the retail merchants, as some of them realize, for nearly every merchant is frequently compelled to have articles sent to him by express to fill special orders or to replenish his stock to meet some unexpected demand. He has enough advantages over the mail order houses to enable him to hold his local trade, provided he is enterprising and accommodating. If he admits that he cannot sell as good articles at as low a price as the mail order houses, then he pleads guilty to doing his patrons an injustice and compelling them to pay a middleman's tax. He is exacting toll, simply because he has secured a seat at the tollgate. Because the government, through the high tariff, enables the manufacturer to extort exorbitant prices for his product, is no reason why it should protect the retailers in exacting still another tax from the consumer, or should perpetuate the monopoly now enjoyed by the express companies.

If the voters of this district want to send a representative to congress who will be governed by the wishes of a majority of the retail merchants then they should vote for Mr. Poindexter, but if they want to send a representative who will be governed by the wishes of the people I believe that I have a right to ask for their support.

JUDGE DOUST HOLDS SAFE

Says It Is Security for Claim Against Former Owner

An action of replevin has been brought against Justice H. B. Doust by George Weikel, who claims ownership of a large safe in the office of Judge Doust, formerly owned by W. F. Watkins. Weikel asks for the delivery of the safe or a judgment for its value, $150, and for damages in the sum of $50 and costs and disbursements.

Judge Doust says that Mr. Watkins occupied a part of his office for a time and still owes him some $70 or $80 rent, and that the safe was left in his office as security. Mr. Doust has been trying to sell the safe, but it now appears that Mr. Doust refused to give up the safe when it was demanded of him, because of his claim.

It Is Rumored.

It is rumored that the fruit brokers of New York City got together recently and had a midnight meeting down in the sub-way at which they decided that they were not going to pay fancy prices for Oregon and Washington apples. There was at least one commission man who did not attend this meeting, however, and he sneaked off to Hood River and bought 80,000 boxes. A grapevine telegram says that 150,000 more have been sold and eastern commission men have been plentiful in the Yakima Rogue River, Grande Ronde, Wenatchee and other fruit producing sections. Northwest Washington grows apples equal to the Yakima, Hood River or Wenatchee article, but as yet there is no effective method of assembling them for market. That's where we lose fortunes every year.—Anacortes American.

ALLISON'S DOG

PROVES FAITHFUL

Unfortunate Brick Mason Killed While Working on Elliott Building Owned Canine that Crys for His Dead Master.

That his dog is the best friend a man has on this earth has been demonstrated from time immemorial. There are many stories on record of where dogs have been known to save the lives of their masters in times of danger by remarkable conceptions of situations which would cause them to do the right thing at the right time. Even an outcry, a whimper or act of uneasiness when danger approached has been the means of saving the life of many owners of faithful canines.

A few weeks ago in this city Harry Allison, a brick mason, while working on the Elliott building, fell from the upper story and received injuries that resulted in his death. Harry was the owner of a faithful dog, just a common ordinary black and white dog, but the men who were working on the building with Harry at the time say that this dog was probably the best friend the brick mason had on earth. He was with him night and day, and seemed to understand everything the master said or did.

When the deceased was laid to rest in Tahoma cemetery it is said that his dog followed the funeral procession to the burial grounds and watched with apparent anxiety the ceremony over the remains as they were placed in the ground.

Lately the dog has been visiting the building where his master used to work. He trots around from man to man continually crying, watching and waiting for an assuring smile and his master's voice. He has even been known to follow the men to the top of the new building in a vain search for his lost master.

A SAD DEATH

Arthur G. Rankin Killed in Football Game at Shattuck, Minn.

As a result of injuries received in a football game at Shattuck, Minn., on Saturday, October 3, Arthur G. Rankin, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Rankin, of this city, died on Monday morning, October 12. His body was prepared for burial and shipped to this place Friday. The funeral is to be held this morning and the remains laid to rest in Tahoma cemetery.

Arthur was well known among the younger boys and girls here. He went to school here, later attended Vashon college, and for the past two years has been a student at Shattuck, Minn., military academy. He was popular at college, stood well with the faculty, and was considered one of the best athletes in college. On Saturday afternoon of October 3 Arthur was a member of the Shattuck eleven which opposed in a game of football a rival college team. During the game he was injured in the chest. From these injuries pleurisy set in which caused his death 10 days later. The deceased was 20 years of age. The parents and family are prostrated over the death, which has been a shock to the whole community.

OLD TIMER DIES

L. C. Parrish, of the Moxee, Passes Away, Aged 58.

The death of Louis Cass Parrish, for 20 years a resident of the Yakima valley, occurred last Monday morning early at his home in the Moxee valley. He was 58 years of age.

The deceased was a member of the Masonic lodge of this city, under whose auspices the funeral was held from the M. E. church Wednesday afternoon. He leaves a son and daughter to mourn his loss.

Louis Cass Parrish was born in Spencer, Ind., and was a graduate from the university of his native state. Later he moved to Iowa and practiced law, and in 1888 moved to this section, where he has resided ever since. He was well thought of as a citizen and was a prosperous farmer.

George Harmon Jacobs.

As the result of a lingering illness which has lasted for several years, the death of George Harmon Jacobs occurred last Monday morning, October 12. The funeral was held from Masonic hall at 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon under the auspices of the local order.

The deceased was stricken in his youth with an affliction that caused him great suffering throughout his life. In the fall of 1842 he moved with his parents to southeastern Iowa, and settled at Monticello. He was married to Emma J. Babcock September 25, 1865, at Monticello, and in the fall of 1883 moved to Coleridge, Neb. Two years later the family moved to Stockton, Kas., and in 1889 moved to this city.

He is survived by his widow and four children, the latter being Spencer Jacobs, Mrs. Carrie J. Sindall, Mrs. Hallie A. Bryan and Harry B. Jacobs, besides two sisters, Mrs. L. W. Starks, of Coleridge, Neb., and Mrs. William Button, of Toledo, Ill., who were at his deathbed.

Child of Albert Ryder.

The death took place Saturday, at the home of Albert Ryder, in the Cowiche, of his 1-year-old child. Mr. and Mrs. Ryder have lost several children and there is now but one surviving.

NORTH YAKIMA WINS BY A WIDE MARGIN

Ten-Acre Tract Purchased Here By Man Who Makes a Careful Investigation.

A practical illustration of the superiority of North Yakima over any other fruit section in the state has come to light in a real estate transaction that has just taken place in this city. The result is what would have been predicted by any person who is acquainted with the conditions here and elsewhere in the state.

Homer S. Childs, of Minneapolis, Minn., came here not long ago for the purpose of buying a fruit ranch on which to make his home. He wanted to buy a young orchard, sufficiently far advanced so that he would not have to wait long for a crop. Mr. Childs for a number of years has been inspector for the Minneapolis lumber exchange, and his duties have taken him all through the Mississippi valley, and have been of such a nature as to make him especially critical.

Looked Over North Yakima.

Mr. Childs spent six days looking into the conditions in this section and inspecting the lands and orchards very carefully. He liked the city and its surroundings, and yet, although it is hard to believe, he thought that he might find a better place somewhere in the state, and so departed to continue his investigations.

He went from here to Seattle to visit with relatives and then went out to look at the only other so-called rival of North Yakima, Wenatchee. He spent six days there looking over the territory, and it might be added that to give North Yakima the same investigation he gave Wenatchee would require 60 days, because of the difference in the size of the two places.

Decides for This Valley.

But the inspection of Wenatchee by Mr. Childs was a good thing, for it decided him once for all in favor of North Yakima. He went back to Seattle and called up the Yakima Land and Investment company, with which he had started to do business, and asked that one of the members of that firm meet him at the early train because he wanted to complete his business here and get out as early as possible.

On Saturday afternoon he completed the purchase of a 10 acre tract which exactly meets his requirements, for $7000. It is located on the Wide Hollow road and is about half a mile west of the present terminus of the electric railway. Mr. Childs has secured a very fine place in an excellent location, and he apparently realizes this fact.

A Bouncing Little Ray.

He weighs eight pounds, according to papa, and has eyes just like his mother. Of course he is the finest baby in town, and although a late arrival, having been delivered by the stork last Monday morning early, October 12, there is hardly any question about it being the most important item of interest that has happened in this community for a week. While papa and mama Ray Felton are as yet undecided what they will call the young man, debating over the names of "Bill" Taft Felton, "Bill" Bryan Felton, or just common ordinary "Ray Felton," nevertheless they are both agreed that he is certainly a ray of sunshine.

Attorney F. A. Hatfield spent most of last week campaigning in the lower valley. He was accorded very encouraging audiences, and is said to have made a fine impression upon the taxpayers wherever he spoke. Thursday night Sheriff John Edwards and Mr. Hatfield visited the Wenas and the latter spoke at a meeting held there which was well attended.
