Dear Mr. Relander:

I was so sorry that I missed your autographing in Seattle - I meant well for I started but at the time you were signing books I was out north of Seattle with car trouble. I was so sorry to miss it. Hope your tour was successful - and that you don't feel as many of the politicians must feel this week - as if they'd been on the road forever.

I saw this ad in Publisher's Weekly. I suppose you have one but I thought you might like an extra copy. I enjoyed seeing this display when I was in Yakima and certainly was happy to meet Jo Ann Shore and Miss Anthon. Everybody was so gracious to me - I do think you Yakima people are grand. It was nice to see Mr. Guie again too.

Best regards. I hope DRUMMERS AND DREAMERS is a big success.

Sincerely yours,

Zola Helen Ross
