

Herald founded in Yakima in February 1889 by J. R. Coe & M. Reed was his partner in publishing the Herald
Change to weekly Nov. 28, 1905

See stories Sept. 27, 1935^{ed} Nov. 28, 1935 in Herald.

The Signal was moved to the new town in 1885. I have seen copies published in 1884.

There was a Washington Farmer published in the old town by Leigh R. Freeman

There was also a Record published in the old town.

134 pioneers buried there

44 graves have tombstones

First burial was of Mrs. Priscilla Goodwin, wife of Dr. L. H. Goodwin, who gave an acre for the cemetery.

Burials from 1865 to 1909

Graves of Lorenzo D. Perkins and his wife, Blanche Perkins, killed in Rattlesnake hills in spring of 1878