

Feb. 9, 1963

Mr. R.L. Butler,
Hamley & Co.,
Hamley Building, Pendleton.

Dear Sir:

Thank you for your Feb. 8 memo regarding three copies of Strangers on the Land, to be autographed.

I will be very happy to send these out by return mail but want to be sure if they are "autographs" or "inscriptions."

Inscriptions or dedications are such as "to So and So, (title or some significant profession)" linked to the store or individual and then signed by the author.

Autographed copies are the signature of the author only.

If they are for resale at the store they would be autographed. If you wanted them to send to certain persons you would perhaps want them inscribed.

In any case, inasmuch as you are connected with the store, the price is $1.35 per unit for $2.25 per unit ~~wholesale~~ retail.

I would be glad to autograph all copies for your store's retail in case it is decided to stock them among the books.

And I am glad the book pleases you. I endeavored to incorporate the atmosphere of the region with Indians as well as the old west yet remaining.

On my next trip to Pendleton I am looking forward to another visit at your store.

Your request will go out by return mail as soon as I am sure of your preference, "autograph" or "inscription."

Sincerely

1212 N. 32nd Ave.

Cliff Relander