Dear MR. Relander:

Am very sorry that I am unable to help you with any additional location of painted rocks in Tulare County. The only painted rocks that I know of in Tulare County are the ones in the Tule Indian Reservation east of Porterville which are well known and you are probably familiar with.

I know of several locations in Kern County and in Inyo County. If you would want me to locate these for you I would be glad to do as much as I can to help you. A few of them I would have difficulty in relocating as it has been some years past since I was at the locations but a few of the others I can readily locate. However, from my understanding of your letter, you are interested only in rock paintings in Tulare County and nearby valley points. All that I know of are in the mountain and desert areas.

Yours Very Truly,

Roswell C. Welch
