Dear Mr. Relander,

This is to tell you I was pleased with the story regarding my book. Many mentioned it and remarked how very nicely written it was. My children living away from Yakima, liked it too. I am enclosing a check, #2484, for $2.25, for your book, "Strangers on the Land."

Do you want to return the compliment and buy my books, "Rangeland Animal Tales" and "Ship and Skid" a fantasy of 2 little Kangaroo Rats? You can see if my writing and authentic information are worthy of promotion, and how?

Both the Capton Co. and Binford, most say their sales force is too limited to undertake selling my books. "R.A.T." was published in 1959, but is still in print.

Sincerely,
Sabina A. Pratt

Dear Mr. Relander,

This is to thank you for the clipping from the ~~S~~eatle Times about my book. I was pleasantly surprised. I did not know they saw the book. I might never have seen the writeup if you had not sent it. The State Library wrote me concerning it and ordered both books, also a school and the city libraries in Sedro-Woolly. No doubt the write up will stimulate more sales. I can hardly tell how it is selling until I receive a royalty check about a year from now.

I received a copy of your book, "Strangers in the Valley". I am very much interested in it. There is a wealth of information in it. It is so well written. I worked with children nearly all my life and I find I express myself in very elementary language. Later, I shall get your other books. I am very much interested in Indian lore, although I shall never do enough research to write about it, I'll enjoy reading what others have written. Thank you, again for your interest in my efforts.

Yours truly,

Sabina A. Pratt
