Dear Mr. Relander:

Thank you for your order of April 20th.
The copy of Glisan JOURNAL OF ARMY LIFE
has gone forward to you, and we trust
will arrive in good time, and be entirely satisfactory.

We appreciate your sending us the clippings,
and telling us of your new book. As we deal only in second hand books of this nature, we do not feel our store would be a good outlet.

Best of luck, and good wishes for success
with DRUMMERS & DREAMERS.

Sincerely yours,

Parke P. Jones

Dear Mr. Relander:

With reference to your letter of November 8th,
we have not issued a catalogue for many years,
and do not contemplate to do so in the near future. We are, therefore, returning herewith your money order.

We are pleased to quote from stock at this time:

B.A.E. 14th Annual Report, Part II, GHOST DANCE

We regret none of the other items are on hand at this time, but we shall keep in mind your wants,
and be glad to advise should anything become available.

We shall be glad at any time to check on the specific want lists of you and your friend.

We shall await your reply, and hope we can be of service.

Sincerely yours,

Parke P. Jones
