

ENTRANCED by the antics of Punch 'n Judy Monday were young readers (from left) Michael Hines, Lori Brown, Diane Wintzer, Andria Wintzer, Lynne Hines and Sue Norris. Puppeteers (not seen) are Jane Gardner and Carol Card.

What was so entrancing . . .

. . . at the Yakima Valley Regional Library this week? Punch 'n Judy, the stars of the Puppet Festival, that's what. The Puppet Festival was held Monday for young readers age 7 and older and will be repeated at 11 a.m. Friday for those age 3 to 6 as a festive ending for the Summer Reading Program.

In celebration of the Bicentennial the reading program concentrated on folk tales in America. The library system's Fall Reading Program will start Sept. 22 with a series of story hours at both the main library branch and the Summitview Branch. Staff photos by Dean Spuler

