

SOURCES

OF INDIAN AND ESKIMO ARTS AND CRAFTS

1 - ORGANIZATIONS

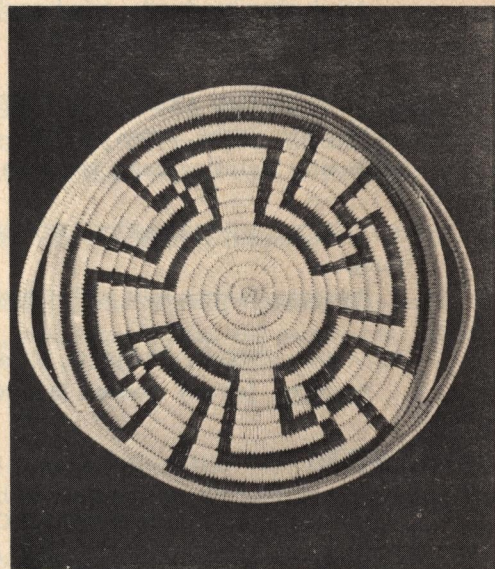

Navajo, Arizona - Rug (detail); woven wool.

Kiowa, Oklahoma - Handbag; beaded suede.

Papago, Arizona - Tray; coiled yucca and devils claw.

Hopi, Arizona - Pottery bowl; coil built, painted decoration.

Eskimo, Alaska - Mask pin; sterling silver with jade eyes in raised settings.

Cherokee, North Carolina - Bear; carved mahogany.

ERRATUM: Eskimo and Cherokee captions are transposed.

The following are Indian and Eskimo owned and operated arts and crafts organizations which offer for sale a wide variety of products. Included are several non-profit organizations working directly with specific Indian and Eskimo groups toward development of products and markets. The entries are listed alphabetically by state.

The majority of the sources listed maintain retail shops and visitors to the areas or reservations where they are located are especially welcomed. As noted in the entries, many offer special visitor attractions. Some have mail order services. Each business handles its own transactions, and product and price information can be obtained direct from each source.

This listing is revised and updated regularly. Information for changes or additional entries should be addressed to: Publications, Indian Arts and Crafts Board, Room 4004, U. S. Department of the Interior, Washington, D. C. 20240.

See also Fact Sheet, 2 - INDIVIDUALS (#12/7/66) listing arts and crafts businesses privately owned and operated by Indian individuals, many of whom are Indian artists and craftsmen. Available free upon written request to the Indian Arts and Crafts Board at the above address.
