Dear Mr. Relander:

Now that the conference is over and I am recuperating a little bit and looking back over the dramatic events of the session, your name comes frequently to my mind. If it had not been for you and others like you, this conference would not have been the success that it was.

On behalf of all of the members of the conference, and for myself personally as well as for Mrs. Potts, may I thank you for your talents and your time and your good nature in helping us out.

May those particular gods who have charge of the imagination loosen yours completely and put a fresh flow of ink into your most legible pen.

Sincerely,

Ralph B. Potts
