Dear Mr. Relander:

I have been told that you are an authority on the Indians of Washington. Will you kindly tell me for a book I am writing on North American Indians, whether any full blooded Indians that you have come in contact with are college graduates? Also which of them, men or women, have achieved distinction in art, letters, professions, religion, politics or business?

Information will be much appreciated by,

Sincerely yours,

Mrs. Fremont Older

Dear Mr. Relander:

Your most helpful letter arrived and I already have written
Mr. Frank George.

I am trying to write a popular book that will give the public a picture of our first inhabitants.

I am glad that you know the work of my late husband who has been gone 25 years. He rests here at this ranch.

Again thanks.

Sincerely yours,

Cora Older
