Enclosed are copies of the program and newspaper report of the Local Historical Society Conference held last Saturday, September 30, 1967, at Shelbanks. About 60 people representing the local and county historical societies of the state attended.

Despite a blustery day, the conference, we think, was a great success. We hope to plan such conferences many times in the future. This, after all, is the purpose of Shelbanks.

Best wishes,

Bruce Le Roy
