Dear Mr. Driscoll:-

Many thanks for our kind letter of recent date about my Yellow Hand story. It seems to be making quite a hit all over the country, judging from the letters I am getting about it from here, there and everywhere.

That clipping you sent--I have had several sent to me from various sections--the same clipping and same man. It was apparently a syndicated article or an A.P. dispatch. Anyhow, the man is a darn liar and a faker. I got after him two or three years ago for his fool story, but never could get any reply from him--they all shut right up as soon as I land on them.

I am glad if my articles please you. The Nebraska Historical Society has just brought out a 78 page pamphlet by me on the killing of Chief Crazy Horse in 1877--a most outrageous affair, and a put-up job on the chief. You can get it by addressing them at Lincoln, Nebr. It sells at $1.00--or I can supply it here for $1.05 postpaid and autographed.

Cordially yours,

E. A. Brininstool
