Mr. Dean Guie,
Yakima, Wash.

Dear Sir:

May I say first of all, I hope I have your name spelled right. Your name was given me by a lady in one of the art supply stores. The lady said you had written professionally. She was not sure what type of stories you write, or if you still wrote at all, other than for the newspaper. She also gave me the name of another gentleman at your office, but so help me, I cannot make it out, so I am sending this to you.

I have a story in mind, this is not just any story, it is good material for what would be a very interesting and intriguing story, if it can be written the way I want it to be. I am not a writer, I would not presume to have the talent or the imagination to write this story as it should be told.

So, if you are a writer, if you care to write fiction, if you are interested in the plot for a story from beginning to end, a story that is absolutely original in every way, then you may either call me at my address, or write.

I might add, that we travel a great deal, my husband's work as signal corps construction foreman for 6th Army requires it. We are never in any area a great length of time, so you must decide right away if you care to try writing this story. You can tell by my typing that I am not much of a writer, but I know a good story when I read it, and this one, if ever written, will be excellent, in fact I have enough material for a serial length story.

P.S. If this is not the type of work you care to do, kindly disregard this letter, please.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Geo. Severe
