LIBRARY FUND INCREASED

The club ladies, who sponsored the rummage sale last Saturday are to be congratulated upon the success of their project, although it was hurriedly planned and during the busiest time of the year. The ladies cleared $31, which will be used in purchasing new material for the library. The sale will be continued this Saturday.

The library has functioned very satisfactorily during the past year in the League room of the Methodist church. Hundreds of interesting books are now on the shelves and current periodicals are on the tables. The library is purely a community affair and all of the reading material and books have been donated.
