

Gannon's

MUSEUM OF WAGGONS

MABTON, WASHINGTON

The GANNON MUSEUM OF WAGONS

MABTON, WASHINGTON

MAY 1st to SEPT. 1st
DAILY EXCEPT MONDAY

Adults—50¢, Students—25¢
Under age 6—free; Servicemen—free.
Scheduling required for group rates.

The Museum is located at the site of the old Mabton Smithy and Stagecoach Station on State Highway 22, between Toppenish and Prosser.

Travelers' conveniences: Easy access, parking area, picnic grounds, rest facilities, fresh water, tourist information, and children's playground. . . . Historic Mabton is the eastern gateway to the Yakima Indian Reservation and crossroads of the Lower Yakima Valley. Its service stations, restaurants, and drive-in serve the traveling family.

THE MUSEUM SHOP

(Foyer of the Gannon Museum)

Since 1957 specializing in historical and decorative Western Americana for connoisseur, scholar, artist and collector.

Buying and selling at all times: Indian, cowboy, army, logging, nautical, mining, frontier, homestead and transportation relics, antiques, pictures and books.

Phone Area 509, 894-2592

