

5/24/65

Fish fountain:

Relative to base fastening, craftsman who has provided estimates
for the work states:

"We would prefer to see the piece before we would decide upon the type of fastner which we would provide. They would definitely be concealed and presumably would be a bolt of some sort which could be set with cement in the slab rock base."