

Dear Sir: I am under great obligation to you for what you are doing in my behalf. I hardly dare hope that anything substantial will come of it, but it is gratifying to know that I may be mentioned in that connection and as the instigator of one like yourself. I should like to have a few copies of each paper sent me for distribution, and you may distribute the rest as you think best.
I have not yet seen any of the notices.

do not fail & let me know what expense is incurred in this matter.
Thanking you sincerely for your kindness & I beg to remain, Very truly
S. D. Smith
