Western Americana dept. head

Dear Department Head:

Under separate cover I am sending you with my compliments a copy of 1855-1955, The Yakimas. This was published by the Yakima Nation to observe the Treaty with the Yakima, June 9, 1955. I was asked to edit it and write several of the sections. It is unique in view of the fact the Yakimas have never talked to ethnologists, anthros etc. and are still very skeptical and aloof.

I am also sending a circular pertaining to my more pretentious book, Drummers and Dreamers headed for spring publication, about which I have previously written.

It is my hope that you will see your way clear to authorize the advance purchase of some copies of Drummers and Dreamers. This will help the publisher estimate the number of books to be published (it will be a short publication) and will permit me to get a spot check of reaction.

You of course know you will receive a 40 per cent dealer discount and may or may not know that Caxtons operates with the usual returnable agreement.

Any order should be returned to me, thus enabling me to also evaluate the reaction.

I do not believe you operate with circulars, but in the event you do, and would wish 1,000 circulars with your imprint, please advise and these will be provided you in due course.

Sincerely
