

April 6, 1963

Mr. Demir Alp Barker,
University of Ankara,
Ankara, Turkey

Dear Sir:

About seven years ago Mr. Demir Alp Barker was an exchange teacher at Sunnyside, Kamiakin Junior High School, in Washington, U.S.A.

My recollection is that he had some connection with the University of Ankara, but I have no definite address or clue beyond my recollections.

I am writing now to attempt to secure your proper address.

Recently the Yakima Indian Nation published a paper bound book, "Strangers on the Land, 63,000 words, which I wrote for the Yakima Indian Nation.

Recently, through an APO I have sent my brother-in-law, Captain James Derby, (medical corps) a copy of this publication. He is, I believe, stationed in close proximity to Ankara.

I am sure the Yakima tribe would wish you to have a copy of this, because of your interest in them when you were in the "States" and will be glad to send you one if I obtain your correct address.

It may also be possible Capt. Derby and his wife may be able to meet you and Mrs. Barker (I remember both of you).

I hope the years have treated you and yours well and that I may hear from you.

Sincerely

Click Relander