Dear Judge,

Now that it is all over and we have the pleasure of the folks telling us that they had such a nice time and will be ready to go next year. I neglected to call Aliens attention to secure a copy of your poem for his paper and when I saw him this morning and asked to read it he cofessed his neglect but said if I would secure a copy he would print it and send you a few papers I agreed and will ask that I have a copy so that all the boys might read it. I understand Sunnyside men that was there was not in sympathy with our plans at all but you will notice they were not on the program. Mar it or in any way to ball it up. Thanking you for a copy of that dandy poem and wishing you the best of results in your next years plans.

Yours truly,
